For the Company (in both the cases): Shri J. K. Ghosh, Advocate of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co., Solicitors.

AWARD

These two cases- one arising out of an application under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by the employer Messrs. Ludlow Jute Co. Ltd. (herematter be referred to as the Company) asking for the Tribunal's approval of the order of dismissal passed against the workman Md. Khairat Ali Sk, and the other arising out of an application under section 33A of the same Act filed by the aforesaid workman complaining against his employer the aforesaid Company of his wrongful dismissal from service in contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Act—were heard together at the desire of both parties.

The Company's case, in short, is that Md. Khairat Ali was in the employ of the Company as an electrician in 73A Department. On 18th May 1961 at about 10-10 a.m. he assaulted his superior officer Shri B. Banerji, the Electrical Supervisor, in an ugly manner within the department. Thereupon he was immediately charge-sheeted for his misconduct under clauses (viii) and (ix) of section 14(c) of the standing orders. The workman submitted a written explanation which was found unsatisfactory. So, a departmental enquiry followed by the Labour Officer. The workman was found guilty of the charges levelled against him and by letter, dated 5th June 1961, the workman was informed of the Company's decision to terminate his services. He was offered one month's wages in addition to his normal dues, but he refused to accept the same. Therefore, the Company's prayer is for approval of the action taken against the said workman.

The workman opposed the Company's application by filing a written statement in which he has denied the allegations made against him. He has contended that the finding of the enquiring officer is perverse and that on 6th June 1961 he was given a copy of the order of dismissal but there was no payment of any amount offered to him.

The workman, Md. Khairat Ali Sk., subsequently lodged a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, against the Company and alleged that the Company had contravened the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act masmuch as it did not obtain approval of this Tribunal for dismissal of the workman. He has also contended that the finding of the enquiring officer was perverse and the Company's action in effecting his dismissal is unjust, unfair, illegal and with an ulterior motive and for extraneous consideration.

The Company in its written statement has questioned the maintainability of this application ir law inasmuch as there has been no contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Industria Disputes Act. The Company has further contended that the workman having assaulted his superior of the company's standing orders and on the result of the departmental enquiry he was dismissed from service. Before actual dismissal he was offered one month's wages in lieu of notice but he refused to accept, that the Company filed an application to this Tribunal seeking approval of the action taker against the workman. That application was filed long before the workman's present petition of complaint. Therefore, according to the Company, the workman is not entitled to any relief.

First I take up the Company's application under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 Admittedly some proceeding was pending before this Tribunal in respect of an industrial dispute existing between the Company and its workmen. The disput. was pending at the relevant time when the Company took a decision to dismiss the workman from service for his misconduct and communicated the decision to him. Undisputedly the workman Khairat Ali wa an electrician. He was charge-sheeted on 18th May an electrician. The was charge-sheeted on four May 1961 [vide Exts. 8 and 1(a)] on the allegation that on that very day at about 10-15 a.m. the said work man assaulted Shri B. Banerji, Electricial Supervisor who was his immediate superior officer, in an ugi manner in the department when he was explainin to the workman about his gross negligence in doin a piece of job allotted to him. So, he was charge for riotous and disorderly behaviour during workin, hours at the establishment and neglect of wor under clauses (viii) and (ix) of section 14(c) of the standing orders. The workman submitted explana tion on 19th May 1961. Admittedly there was departmental enquiry by the Labour Officer of the Company. The worker admits to have attended th enquiry and cross-examined most of the witnesse examined on the side of the Company. Exhibit 10 is the notice of the enquiry which bears signature the workman in token of service thereof on him Exhibit 2 is the enquiry proceeding and Ext. 7 is the report in original of the enquiring officer and Ext. 2(a) is the typed copy thereof. The enquiring officer in his report found the workman guilty of th charge of assault brought against him. The sain finding was accepted by the management, page service record of the workman was also taken in consideration as will appear from Ext. 8, befor taking a decision to dismiss the workman. The decision of the management was communicated to the workman by a letter Ext. 3 which was sent to the workman by registered post with acknowledgment due but the workman refused to accept the same. Then again the Company wrote another letter to the workman (Ext. 5) which also was sent to the workman in similar manner and it was accepted by him [vide Ext. 5(a)]. By the letters, Exts. 3 and 5, the workman was informed to collect one month's wages and other dues from the Company's office but the workman having failed to turn up for collection of the amount it was sent to him by money order, which the workman again refused to accept. So, it went back to the Company undelivered and the said amount was again credited in the account book on 14th June 1961. The cash book was produced before the Tribunal and the relevant entries shown. The present application was filed by the Company on 20th June 1961, i.e., shortly after the workman's refusal to accept one month's wages and other dues tendered to him by money order. The decision to dismiss the workman was taken by the Company, firstly, on 5th of June 1961 (vide Ext. 3) and simultaneously the workman was offered one month's wages not only by the said letter, but also tendered by money order, but it was refused by the workman and shortly after the refusal, the Company filed the present application seeking approval of the action taken against the workman.

Now, the enquiry permissible under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, is very much limited in its nature and extent. It is only to be seen if prima facie case is made out for according approval or not.

It is well settled by the Hon'ble Supreme Court that if no unfair labour practice is involved, and if there is no victimisation and if there is no mala ides, the Tribunal is bound to give the approval sked for under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, and the corresponding section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act (Amended) provided a mina facie case against the concerned workman is nade out by the employer. It has also been held that in dealing with cases falling under section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, industrial authority will be entitled to enquire whether the proposed ction is in accordance with the standing orders, whether the employee concerned has been paid wages or one month and whether an application has been under for approval as prescribed by the said ub-section.

In the instant case the workman was chargeheeted for misconduct under clauses (viii) and (ix) f section 14(c) of the standing orders. It is clear om the standing orders that if the charges levelled gainst the workman are proved or in other words the workman is found to be guilty of the said disconduct, then he is liable to be dismissed withut notice or any compensation in lieu of notice. o, the proposed action of dismissal is in accordance ith the standing orders of the Company. Before fecting the dismissal the workman was informed collect one month's wages along with other dues om the Company's office but the workman did not imply in spite of information. It appears from the e registered letter (Ext. 3). The Company, howe registered letter (Ext. 3). The Company, hower, again tendered the requisite amount by money der which also the workman refused to accept. absequently the workman was again communicated the Company's decision by another letter Ext. 5, when he was again asked to collect his dues from the office during working hours. But the workman in spite of acceptance of the letter Ext. 5 which was sent to him by registered post with acknowledgment due [vide Exts. 4 and 5(a)] did not care to receive the amount which was kept ready for payment to him. It has been held by the Calcutta High Court in the case of Titaghur Paper Mills Co. Ltd., reported in 1961 F.L.R., Vol. 3, page 386, that the approval of the Industrial Tribunal or Labour Court under the proviso to section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act is not a condition precedent to an order of dismissal or discharge. The words "action taken" in section 33(2) of the Act cannot be taken to mean "action proposed to be taken." It was also held in that case that as regards the payment of one month's wages in lieu of notice if the wages had been kept ready for acceptance by the workman and if the workman was so informed, that must be deemed to be equivalent to payment even if the workman did not in fact accept the same. Therefore, in the above facts and circumstances of the present case, the payment of one month's wages to the workman may be presumed and the workman cannot be allowed to take advantage of his own wrong.

I have already observed that the present application was promptly filed by the Company on 20th June 1961. There was very little delay in doing so by the Company and that has not been objected to by the other party. Even then this little delay has also been explained by the Company's Labour Officer. So, the application was filed by the Company almost with promptitude.

The Company's witness Shri R. N. Mukherji held the enquiry. He is the Labour Officer of the Company. The enquiry is admitted. It is also further admitted that it was held in presence of the workman and most of the witnesses were cross-examined by him. Several witnesses were examined on the side of the Company. Some responsible officers also gave evidence before the enquiring officer. I have gone through the entire proceeding as recorded by the Labour Officer in his own hand (Ext. 2) and also his indings (Ext. 7) and printed copy thereof is Ext. 2(a). There is hardly any room for doubt that it was a fair and proper enquiry in which the concerned workman had every opportunity to prove his innocence. There was sufficient evidence as I find from the enquiry proceeding before the enquiring officer wherefrom it was quite possible for him to come to the conclusion which he actually arrived at. His was a possible finding from the evidence before him, if believed. It is well settled that this Tribunal has no power to act as a Court of Appeal and substitute its own judgment for that of the employer or the management. Industrial Tribunals powers in the matter of dismissal of a workman are not unlimited. It is well settled that where an enquiry has been held on evidence by domestic board of enquiry, the Tribunal should not ignore the findings of the domestic board of enquiry and try to come to its own findings on the charges on independent evidence led before it. It is also well settled that the Tribunal can and could interfere only when in the matter of dismissal (1) there has been want of good faith, (2) whether there has been victimisation or unfair labour practice, or (3) the management has been guilty of basic error or violation of the principles of natural justice, or (4) when on the materials the findings are completely baseless or perverse. In the present case there is no allegation of victimisation or unfair labour practice. It has been contended on behalf of the workman that the finding of the enquiring officer is perverse because it is not supported by any legal evidence. In support of this contention reliance was placed on the evidence of the enquiring officer Shri Mukherji who has deposed that there was no eye-witness to the alleged occurrence, viz., the assault on Shri Banerji by the concerned workman in the department during the working hours. I have already observed that I have gone through the entire evidence. It is not that there is absolutely no evidence but there is some evidence, may not be direct evidence but circumstantial evidence which are sometimes better and stronger than direct evidence wherefrom the enquiring officer can reasonably come to the finding he actually arrived at. Therefore, even on merits I find that there is justification for according approval.

Next I take up the other case of complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by the workman Khairat Ali. Though a complaint, it is to be adjudicated upon as if it were a dispute referred to or pending before a Tribunal. In a complaint of the present nature while made before a Tribunal it will be the duty of the Tribunal to decide two issues, viz., (1) the fact of contravention and (2) the merits of the act or order of the employer. It is held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in a case reported in 1958 (1) L.L.J. 793 that if the fact of contravention of the provision of section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by the employer is proved and if the order passed by the employer against the employee is found not justified on appropriate relief. But if on the second point the finding is that on the merits the order passed by the employer again the employee is justified, then even there has been contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Act, that contravention may be regarded as a technical breach and the employee will not be consided to any relief. It is further held that if it is found that there has been no contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act by the employer, then nothing can be done in favour of the employee.

In the present case it has already been found that there has been no contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Act by the Company inasmuch as in the eve of law there has been compliance by the Company with the provisions for tendering one month's wages to the workman and also for applying to the appropriate Tribunal for approval of the action taken against the workman. It has already been found that not only the amount of one month's wages and other dues were kept ready for payment to the concerned workman but they were tendered to him by money order, but he refused to accept the same. Immediately after his refusal to accept the amount tendered to him by money order, the Company filed an application before this Tribunal seeking approval of the action taken against the workman. This fact is not denied. The workman himself received copy of the said application on 20th June 1961 as will appear from his endorsement on the original application under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act. So, there was no contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act by the Company. It has been observed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Automobile Products of India Ltd. [1955 L.L.J. (I), page 346] that a cursory perusal of section 33 of 1947 Act will at once show that it is the contravention by the employer of the provisions of section 33 that gives rise to a cause of action in favour of the workman to approach and move the authority named in the section and that this contravention is the condition precedent to the exercise by the authority concerned of the additional jurisdiction and powers conferred on it by the section.

In the present case there has been no contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. As such there is no scope for complaint. So, it will not be necessary to go into the merits.

However, even on the merits it has already been found that there was a fair and proper enquiry and the principles of natural justice were observed in the conduct of the enquiry, the workman was given full and free opportunity to prove his innocence of the charges before the enquiring officer. His finding was challenged only on the ground that it was perverse because it was not supported by any legal evidence. It was contended on the side of the workman that there was no direct evidence to prove the charge of assault on Shri Banerji. I have found from the evidence recorded by the enquiring officer that some respectable and responsible officers gave evidence before the enquiring officer. They spoke on the facts and circumstances immediately following the occurrence. Their evidence and other counst intiel evidence available to the enquiring officer were sufficiently satisfactory to warrant the conclusion actually arrived at by the enquiring officer. The concerned workmen assigned no motive for false implication by Shri Banerji who was new to the department as a supervisor. There was no allegation of victimisation or unfair labour practice The evidence before the enquiring officer was gone into and it is found that on the materials at the domestic enquiry the finding was quite probable and obvious one. Therefore, the said finding cannot be disturbed. The action taken by the Company agains the workman on the basis of that finding by effecting his dismissal in accordance with the standing order of the Company is justified.

In the result, the Company is entitled to the approval of its action taken against the concerned workman Khairat Ali which is accordingly accorded. The workman's complaint under section 33A rejected. He is not entitled to any relief.

- 8. (1) No person shall make any encroachment without obtaining previous permission in writing of the Highway Authority or any officer not below the rank of an Assistant Engineer authorised by him in this behalf.
- (2) The Highway Authority or such officer may, having due regard to the satety and convenience of traffic and subject to such conditions and on payment of such fee or other charge as may be prescribed, grant a permit to any person to use or occupy temporarily any land appertaining to or ad oining a highway for such period as may be (Chapter IV .- Prevention and removal of encroachment .-('lauses 9-11.)

(3) Any person holding a permit granted under subsection (2) shall, if required, produce it for inspection before the Highway Authority or any officer authorised under sub-section (I) and shall on the expiry of the period specified therein restore the land under his use or occupation to its original condition and make over possession thereof to the Highway Authority or the officer referred to in subsection (I).

Power to cancel permission.

- 9. (1) The Highway Authority may cancel any permit granted under section 8 if-
  - (a) any fee or charge therefor is not duly paid, or
  - (b) the purpose for which the permit was granted has ceased to exist, or
    (c) there is breach of any of the terms and conditions
  - of such permit, or
  - (d) the land covered by such permit is required by such Authority, or
  - (e) the use or the occupation of the land covered by the permit by the permit-holder is causing impediment, obstruction or inconvenience to the use of the highway by the public.
- (2) Where the permit is cancelled under clause (b) or clause (d) of sub-section (I), the permit-holder shall be entitled to a return, in respect of the unexpired period of the permit, of a proportionate amount of any fee or charge which may have been paid by him.

Removal of encroach-

- 10. (1) If any person,—
- (a) is found to have made an encroachment on any road, street, path, way or land which is declared to be a highway under sub-section (1) of section 3, or
- (b) makes an encroachment on a highway in contravention of the provisions of section 8, or
- (c) does not remove an encroachment on the expiry or cancellation of any permit granted to him, the Highway Authority or any officer authorised by him in this behalf shall serve a notice on him requiring him to remove the encroachment and restore the highway to its original condition within the period specified in the notice.

- (2) If the encroachment is not removed within the time specified in the notice, the Highway Authority or the officer authorised under sub-section (I) may make an application to a Magistrate of the first class, having jurisdiction over the area, not being the District Magistrate, for removal of the encroachment and delivery of possession of the land encroached upon to the Highway Authority or such officer.
- (3) Such Magistrate may, on receiving the application and after notice to the person responsible for the encroachment and on taking such evidence, if any, as he thinks fit, make an order authorising the authority or officer to recover possession and remove the encroachment in question and may, if necessary, direct the police to assist in the enforcement of the order.
- (4) If the person responsible for the encroachment is aggrieved by the order of the Magistrate made under sub-section (3) he may, within fifteen days from the date of the Magistrate's order, appeal to the District Magistrate. The District Magistrate shall, after hearing the parties, make an order affirming, modifying or setting aside the order made under sub-section (3).

Recovery of cost of removal of encroachment.

- 11. (1) Any cost incurred by the Highway Authority or the officer authorised under sub-section (1) of section 10 in removing any encroachment shall be recoverable from the person responsible for the encroachment in the manner hereinafter provided after giving him an opportunity of making any representation he may wish to make in the matter.
- (2) A notice of demand for such cost shall be served by such authority or officer on such person requiring payment of the same within such time as may be specified in the notice.
- (3) If such person pays the cost of removal within the time specified in the notice referred to in sub-section (2), the materials, if any, obtained on removal of the encroachment shall be made over to him.

- (Chapter V.—Supplemental provisions to secure safety of traffic and prevention of damage to highways).—

  Clauses 12-15.)
- (4) If such person fails to pay up the amount of cost within the time specified, such materials may be sold and the proceeds appropriated towards the cost of removal, and the balance, it any, shall be made over to such person.
- (5) If the proceeds do not cover the amount of cost the deficiency, or if there are no materials to be sold and if the amount of cost has not been paid within the time specified in the notice referred to in sub-section (2), the amount of cost shall be recoverable from the person responsible for the encroachment as a public demand.

CHAPTER V.

Supplemental provisions to secure safety of traffic and prevention of damage to highways.

Restriction on the use of land adjoining a highway for the prevention of obstruction of view.

- 12. (1) It any person, owning land adjoining a high-way near a bend or a corner thereof, intends to construct a building or structure thereon, he shall make an application to the Highway Authority, in such form and with such particulars as may be prescribed, for approval, authorising such construction.
- (2) It the Highway Authority is satisfied that such construction will not obstruct the view of persons using the highway, he shall give such approval.
- (3) It the Highway Authority refuses to give such approval, he shall communicate the order of refusal to the applicant.
- (1) The applicant may, within thirty days from the date on which such order of refusal is communicated to him, appeal to the State Government.
- (5) The State Government may, after giving an opportunity to the applicant to be heard, dismiss the appeal, or allow it and give such approval.
- (6) If the appeal is dismissed the State Government may, of its own motion or at the request of the owner, acquire the land or any part thereof in accordance with any law for tho time being in force for the purposes of the highway.
- (7) The State (tovernment may authorise an officer, not below the rank of an Additional District Judge or an Additional District Magistrate, to hear and dispose of an appeal referred to in sub-section (4).

  - (b) an agreement has been entered into with the State Government under section 8 of the said Act.

Repeal. 29. The Bengal Highways Act, 1925.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The provisions of the Bengal Highways Act, 1925 (as amended by Act XVII of 1953) are not adequate for the proper maintenance of highways by the prevention of encroachments thereon and removal of encroachments therefrom. Difficulties have been experienced in dealing with numerous encroachments on the roadside lands throughout the State. Such difficulties have increased considerably in recent years due to the construction of many new and important roads. It is, therefore, necessary to undertake legislation to provide for effective control over highways in the State. The Bill has been prepared with that object in view.

K. N. DAS GUPTA, Member-in-charge.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM.

Section 5 of the West Bengal Highways Bill, 1962, provides for the appointment of Highway Authority and other staff to assist the Highway Authority in discharge of his various duties under the enactment. The Superintending Engineer of each Circle of the Public Works Directorate is proposed to be appointed as Highway Authority. No extra expenditure on this account may, therefore, be necessary. But a small unit consisting of one Assistant Engineer, one Sub-Assistant Engineer, one Surveyor with two chainmen, one clerk, one typist and one peon will be necessary in each Circle of the Public Works Directorate to assist the Superintending Engineer in discharging his additional duties as Highway Authority. It has been worked out that the annual expenditure of maintaining one such unit in each of the five Circles of the Public Works Directorate will be Rs. 73,000 approximately.

- 2. The concurrence of the Finance Department was sought for in the matter. That Department have, on principle, agreed to the proposed legislation, but made the following observations:
- "..... We, however, regret that we cannot commit anything immediately regarding the staffing pattern and expenditure—this does not also seem to be necessary. Question of sanctioning staff may be taken up with due regard for fund provision as and when necessity arises, with reference 'to workload and yardstick'.

GOVERNMENT OF WEST BENGAL

DEPARTMENT OF LAND AND LAND REVENUE

Land Acquisition

NOTIFICATIONS

Jalpaiguri.—No. 8460L.A. — 10th July 1962.—Whereas the functions of the Central Government under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (I of 1894), in relation to the acquisition of land for the purposes of the Union, have been entrusted to the State Government by notification No. 20/1/55-Judl(I), dated the 14th May 1955, issued by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs under clause (I) of article 258 of the Constitution of India, as S.R.O. 1074 and published at page 868, Part II, section 3 of the "Gazette of India", dated the 21st May 1955;

And whereas it appears to the Governor that land is likely to be required to be taken by the Central Government at the public expense for a public purpose, being a purpose of the Union, namely, for the Oil Pipeline Project (mile 52.3 to 53.3) in the village of Birpara T.E., jurisdiction list No. 45, police-station Madarihat, district Jalpaiguri, it is hereby notified that a piece of land comprising cadastral survey plot numbers as detailed in schedules A and B below, and measuring, more or less, 3.21 acres, is likely to be required within the aforesaid village of Birpara T.E.

Schedule A (Waste and Arable)

Schedule B (Other Land)

Cadastral survey plots in part 627, 636, 637 and 646.

This notification is made under the provisions of section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, read with the said notification, to all whom it may concern.

A plan of the land may be inspected in the office of the Deputy Commissioner, Jalpaiguri.

In exercise of the powers conferred by the said section, read with the said notification, the Governor is pleased to authorise the Officers for the time being engaged in the undertaking, with their servants and workmen, to enter upon and survey the land and do all other acts required or permitted by the section.

Any person interested in so much of the above land as is not waste or arable, described in schedule B above, who has any objection to the acquisition thereof, may, within thirty days after the date on which public notice of the substance of this notification is given in the locality, file an objection in writing before the Deputy Commissioner, Jalpaiguri.

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (4) of section 17 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, read with the said notification, the Governor is pleased to direct that the provisions of section 5A of the said Act shall not apply to the waste and arable lands described in schedule A above, to which in the opinion of the Governor, the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 17 of the said Act are applicable.

By order of the Governor.

B. CHAKRABARTI, Dy. Secy. to the Govt. of West Bengal.

Jalpaiguri.—No. 8462L.A. — 10th July 1962.— "Whereas the functions of the Central Government under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (1 of 1894), in relation to the acquisition of land for the purposes of the Union, have been entrusted to the State Government by notification No. 20/1/55-Judl.(1), dated the 14th May 1955, issued by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs under clause (1) of article 258 of the Constitution of India, as S.R.O. 1074 and published at page 868, Part II, section 3 of the "Gazette of India", dated the 21st May 1955;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 48(1) of the Land Acquisition Act I of 1894, read with the said notification, the Governor is pleased to withdraw from the acquisition of the pieces of land comprising parts of cadastral survey plot Nos. 622, 623, 647 and 654 of village Birpara T.E., jurisdiction list No. 45, police-station Madarihat, district Jalpaiguii, and measuring, more or less, 3.05 acres, out of the total area of 7.11 acres of land covered by declaration No. 14716L.A., dated the 9th September 1961, published at page 2267, Part I of the "Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary", of the 9th idem, for the Oil Pipeline Project (mile 52.3 to 53.3).

Power to make rules.

- 25. (1) The State Government may, after previous publication, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.
- (2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—.
  - (a) any matter which may be or is required to be prescribed under this Act;
  - (b) the manner of appointment and qualifications of Inspectors appointed under section 19.
- (3) Any rule made under this section may provide that any person committing a breach thereof shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine, which may extend to one hundred rupees, and where the breach is a continuing one, with a further fine which may extend to twentyfive rupees, for every day, after the first, during which the breach continues.

The West Bengal Shops and Establishments Bill, 1962.

(Clause 26.)

26. The Bengal Shops and Establishments Act, 1940, is Ben, Act XVI of 1940.

Provided that any weekly closing days or any working hours fixed under that Act and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act, may be continued for a period not longer than three months after such repeal.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of the Bill is to repeal the Bengal Shops and Establishments Act, 1940, and to introduce in its place a new legislation with a view to eliminating various defects in the existing Act and providing the employees with some additional benefits in the context of changed circumstances.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM.

The West Bengal Shops and Establishments Bill, 1962, when passed into an Act, would merely replace an already existing Act. The provisions of the Bill do not by themselves involve any expenditure. No expenditure in implementing the Act can be incurred without making provision therefor in the budget. Such expenditure will be mainly on appointment of additional staff, if any, which may be required. On the other hand, under clause 16 of the Bill there will be some revenue in the form of fees for the registration of shops. The extent of such income cannot, however, be estimated until fees are prescribed in the rules to be framed under the Act.

PART I—Orders and Notifications by the Governor of West Bengal, the High Court, Government Treasury, etc.

NOTIFICATION

No. PH/5482/2R-46/61.—12th July 1962.—Whereas the Governor is satisfied that the district of Howrah excluding the municipal areas is threatened with an outbreak of Cholera.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 2 of the Epidemic. Diseases Act, 1897 (III of 1897), the Governor is pleased to prescribe the following temporary regulations for the prevention and control of cholera, and for the medical inspection, isolation, observation and surveillance of persons suffering from, or suspected of being infected with, cholera in the said district for a period of three months:—

TEMPORARY REGULATIONS FOR THE PREVENTION AND CONTROL OF CHOLERA

- 1. In these regulations, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—
  - (a) "Health Officer" means the Health Officer of the district appointed by the State Government, the Chief Medical Officer of Health of the district, the Subdivisional Health Officer of any of the subdivisions of the district within their respective subdivisions;
  - (b) "Sanitary Inspector" means a Sanitary Inspector appointed by the State Government;

- (c) "Union Board" means a union board constituted under the Benga Village Self-Government Act, 1919 (Bengal Act V of 1919);
- (d) "Suspected cholera" means any disease accompanied by vomiting and diarrhoea;
- (e) "Patient" means a person suffering from or suspected to be suffering from cholera;
- (f) "Medical practitioner" means any person practising the medica profession.
- 2. Whenever any land is held jointly by two or more persons, whethe as owners or occupiers of that land, such persons shall be held jointly and severally liable for carrying out any measure ordered in a notice under these regulations, and the names of any one or more of such joint-holders may be entered upon such notice at the discretion of the Health Officer and the Health Officer shall not be bound to enter the names of all the joint holders in the notice.

Notices

- 3. If in any case the Health Officer considers that the issue of a notice under these regulations is likely to lead to such an amount of delay as might facilitate the spread of cholera he may forthwith take such step as he may think fit for carrying out the work, and shall thereafter, as soon as possible issue a notice on the person concerned stating the reason why such work has been carried out.
- 4. If any measure which the Health Officer has, by a notice issued under these regulations, required to be carried out, be not carried out to his satisfaction within the time stated in the notice, the Health Officer shall be entitled to carry out the measure.

Costs and compensation

5. (1) All expenses incurred in carrying out any work in pursuance of any order issued under these regulations shall be paid by the State Government except in any case where the order directs a person to carry out any work in relation to property in his possession, in which case the expenses shall be paid by that person:

Provided that where the conditions, which led the Health Officer to pass such an order, are not attributable to any act or default of the persons in possession of the property, the State Government may pay to such person the whole or a part of the expenses incurred by him in carrying out the order.

- (2) The State Government may recover all expenses incurred by the Health Officer in carrying out the measure under regulation 4 from the person or persons to whom the notice was originally issued.
- 6. The State Government shall pay adequate compensation to any person who has sustained substantial loss or damage by reason of anything done under these regulations:

Provided that no person shall receive any compensation for anything done, or suffered under these regulations, if he has failed to carry out an order issued under these regulations within the time specified in the order and to the satisfaction of the Health Officer.

Location of disease

- 7. When a case of cholera or suspected cholera occurs in a house, the nearest male relative in attendance upon the patient, or in the absence of any such relative the occupier of the house, or if the occupier be the patient, some male inmate of the house shall, within twenty-four hours of the onset of the disease, give information regarding the occurrence of such case either personally or in writing or by means of chaukidar or other village watchman to the nearest Sanitary Inspector.
- 8. (1) If information has not already been given under regulation 7, the medical practitioner called in to attend upon any case of cholera shall forthwith give notice of the case by special messenger to the nearest sanitary Inspector or rural medical officer and by post to the Health Officer and the cost of such messenger in each case shall be defrayed by the State tovernment.
- (2) The Doctor-in-charge of a hospital or a dispensary within the district shall forthwith give notice of any case of cholera brought to such hospital or dispensary for treatment to the nearest Sanitary Inspector by a special messenger and to the Health Officer by post and the cost of such messenger in each case shall be defrayed by the State Government.
- 9. Presidents of union boards in union board areas and than officers in non-union board areas shall supply to the Health Officer such periodical returns of cases of cholera as he may from time to time call upon them to furnish.
- 10. The Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may examine any person who is, or suspected to be, suffering from cholera or who, in his opinion, may be infected with or likely to spread cholera.

Isolation of patients and evacuation of houses, etc.

11. When the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector considers that the isolation of any patient is a precaution necessary for the protection of the neighbouring population, he shall order the patient to observe isolation and may order the nearest relative in attendance on the patient, or the occupier of the house in which the patient is staying to arrange for the isolation of the patient in such a manner and for such a time as may be approved by the Health Officer or the Sanitary Inspector.

He shall not direct the patient to be removed from the house unless it is in his opinion impossible to make proper arrangements for his isolation therein.

- 12. The Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may order any person to take such drugs in such quantities as may be specified by the said Officer or to submit himself to anti-cholera inoculation within a time to be specified in the order.
- 13. No person shall enter my place wherein a patient is isolated under regulation 11 without the permission of the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector.
- 14. The State Government shall provide free of charge suitable places with necessary attendants, medicine, diet and other necessaries for persons isolated under regulation 11: provided that a private individual may movide places certified by the Health Officer as being fit for the purpose of such isolation.

- 1). If it is not possible for the State Government to provide suitable places with necessary attendants, diet and other necessaries for isolation of the patient or if satisfactory arrangement for such isolation is not also possible in the house where the patient is staying, the patient shall be sent under proper sanitary precautions, to the nearest hospital where there is suitable arrangement for isolation.
- 16. No person, who is or has been suffering from cholera, shall leave the place where he has been staying until he has received from the Healt! Officer or a Sanitary Inspector written permission to do so.
- 17. The Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may require any person to abow to be carried out by such agency, and within such time as may be specified in the order, such measures for the disinfection or evacuation of any premises in the occupation of such person or for the disinfection or destruction of any of his personal effects, as the said officer of inspector may consider necessary.
- 18. The Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may direct the owner or occupier of any premises to cause to be inoculated with anticholera vaccine within a time specified in the order any person residing on such premises and under the control of such owner or occupier.
- 19. The Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may forbid any person who has been a patient or who has, to his knowledge, been in contact with a patient to act as vendor of any article for such period as may be specified in the order.
- 20. No person shall carry or permit to be carried in a public conveyance a patient except in the case where a patient is carried with proper precautions to a hospital.
- 21. No person shall sell any article which has been in contact with a patient until it has been disinfected to the satisfaction of the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector.
- 22. No person shall expose in any street, shop, bazar, or any public place any clothing, bedding or other article which has been in contact with a patient or shall cause or suffer such articles to be carried in any public conveyance but nothing in this regulation shall apply to a person who transmits with proper precautions against spreading the disease any such article for the purpose of having the same disinfected.
- 23. No person shall carry or permit to be carried in a public conveyance the dead body of any person who has died of cholera without the previous written permission of the Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector and without taking proper precautions against spreading the said disease.

RESOLUTION

Calcutta, the 24th July 1962.

The Governor of West Bengal and the Council of Ministers have learnt with the deepest regret of the passing away, at 11 p.m., at his Calcutta residence, on Monday, July 23, 1962, of Shri Kali Pada Mookerjee, Minister for Home (Police, Press and Transport) Department.

Shri Mookerjee, who was 62, belonged to Chandernagore in Hooghly district. He participated in the freedom movement from a very early age and courted imprisonment for several terms for his political activities. He was also connected intimately with the revolutionary movement. He was associated as an active member with the Indian National Congress and was for several years the General Secretary of the West Bengal Provincial Congress Committee. He organised relief measures during the North Bengal floods and the communal disturbances in Dacca and Noakhali in the pre-Independence days

Shri Mookerjee joined the West Bengal Cabinet in 1947 and continued to be a member of the Council of Ministers till his death. He held the portfolios of Revenue, Labour and then Home (Police and Defence) in the different ministries under Dr. P. C. Ghosh and Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy. He was also the Chairman of the West Bengal Minority Commission and the Darjeeling Enquiry Committee.

Shri Mookerjee was a great patriot and a politician who was greatly respected for his attainments and abilities. He was the last of the great orators of his generation. In his passing away the country and the State of West Bengal have suffered a great loss.

The Governor and the Council of Ministers send their profound condolences to the members of the bereaved family.

As a mark of respect to the memory of the late Minister all offices under the Government of West Bengal except the offices of the Registrar of Assurances and the Collector of Stamp Revenue will remain closed on Tuesday, July 24, 1962. There will be State mourning for three days during which flags will be flown at half-mast on all Government buildings.

By order of the Governor, R. GUPTA.

Eastern Printers, 32/IA iorachand Bose Road, Calcutta-6, and their worknen represented by the Press Employees' Association, 249B Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, regarding he issues mentioned in the said order being matters pecified in the second and the third schedules to the industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was deferted for adjudication to the Seventh Industrial Iribunal:

And whereas the said Seventh Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on he said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Eastern Printers, 32/1A Gorachand Bose Road, Calcutta-6, and their workmen, represented by the Press Employees' Association, 249B Bowbazar Street, Calcutta 12. (Came No. VII!-339'61.)

BEFORE THE SEVENTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shii S. K. RAY, Judge, Seventh Industrial Tribunal

Award

The above dispute over the issues given in the order of reference and reproduced below was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department order No. 6086-I.R./IR 13L-27/61, dated the 27th October 1961.

Issues

- (1) Conversion of the piece-rated and dailyrated workmen into monthly salaried staff. Scales and grades of pay.
- (2) Weekly working hours.
- (4) Dearness allowance.

Findings

Issue No. I.—Conversion of the piece-rated and daily-rated workmen into monthly salaried staff.— It is both party's case that there are only five piecerated Compositors and their names are contained in Ext. 1. There is no fixed scale and grade of pay and dearness allowance for them. They are paid solely on the basis of the work put in by them. The Union claims that these workers should be made monthlyrated and given the scale of pay and dearness allowance like other similar workers in the Press. The Company, on the other hand, contends that there is no reason for making them monthly-rated workers, because as piece-rated workers, they are earning much more than similar workers in the Press who are on fixed scale and grade of pay and dearness allowance. It is said that they are junior compositors and their earnings are much more than the junior compositors who are on the scale and grade of pay of Rs 35 to Rs. 50 with dearness allowance of Rs. 28. Ext. D, the Company's statement showing the earnings of the piece-rated workers week by week from 2nd December 1961 to 26th January 1962, no doubt supports the Company's contention in this respect. It appears that Shri Sailendra Nath Karmakar, one of the piece-rated workers, earned Rs. 102.20 in the month of December and the carnings of the other piece-rated workers during this month varied from Rs. 68.64 to Rs. 91.28. It is an admitted position that piece-rated workers are paid their wages weekly on the basis of their works. Shii Sailendra Nath Karmakar, one of the piecerated workers, has given evidence in this case and he has claimed that there should be a fixed scale and grade of pay for the piece-rated workers and in support of this claim, he has advanced the reason that being piece-rated workers, they do not get any dearness allowance, any increment, any privilege or casual leave or overtime wages and he has further stated that he could earn more wages than other similar Compositors on fixed scale and grade of pay by putting in more labour. The reasons given by this piece-rated worker cannot be lightly discarded. Being place-rated workers, they do not get any other amenities and privileges, enumerated by him, which are admissible to workers doing the same work, i.e., junior compositors, who are on a fixed scale and grade of pay. It cannot be gainsaid that if they sometimes earn more than similar workers on fixed scale and grade of pay, they have to do it by putting in much more strenuous work than the others. Moreover, the position of piece rated workers carries a certain amount of insecurity and uncertainty, which should not exist in the case of industrial workers of any establishment. It is to be noted that the workers themselves have preferred to be on fixed scale and grade of pay than on the uncerties of piece-rate system entailing deprivation other amenities like leave, etc., enumerated ab In the above view of the facts and circumstate concerning piece-rated workers, I hold that Union's claim for their conversion into monitated staff is quite reasonable and it should succ I should state here that the Issue also refers daily-rated workmen, but there is no evidence show that there is any daily-rated workman in Press. So, the question of conversion of daily-rated workmen into monthly-rated workmen does arise.

In the result, I find that the five piece-rated C positors should be converted into monthly-13 staff with all the amenities and privileges enjo by the latter. I further find upon the evidence 1 these piece-rated Compositors should be placed the scale and grade of pay of junior composit I further find that this conversion shall take pl within a month from the publication of this award the "Calcutta Gazette".

I award accordingly under this Issue.

Issue Nos. 2 and 4.—Scales and grade of I and dearness allowance.—I take up these issue together, because they are to some extent allied  $\epsilon$  inter-related.

In the present case, we are concerned with a pring press and its employees. There were two ref ences for adjudication in respect of the employe of quite a large number of printing presses in a nearabout Calcutta on general issues including sea and grades of pay and dearness allowance, one 1947 and the other in 1950 and these reference were disposed of by the awards passed on 11th M 1948 and 1st February 1951 respectively and du published in the "Calcutta Gazette". Both the refe ences were in the nature of omnibus references ar both the references were also made to the san adjudicator, Shri A. Das Gupta, and both the awards were passed by him. The award of 195 was published in the "Calcutta Gazette", dated the 1st March 1951. The present printing press was ( course not covered by any of the references an awards. Nevertheless, I am satisfied from th evidence and it is not also disputed that the printing presses covered by the said references and award are substantially of the same nature as the present press. In the award of 1948, some scales and grades of pay were fixed for different categories of workers of the printing presses concerned. award of 1951, the same scales and grades of page were confirmed and maintained. It is in evidence in the present case and not disputed that the present press, though not a party to the aforesaid reference and awards, has actually implemented the award 1951 by giving effect to the scales and grades of pa fixed therein. It is further in evidence that incre ments according to the said award, which well biennial were actually given to the workmen of th press up to 1959. The Union has in the present cas sought to claim higher scales and grades of pay tha those granted by the award of 1951. It was submit ted before me during the argument by the represen tative of the Union that the Union in the presen case only claims an increment of Rs. 5 at every stag of the scales and grades of pay fixed by the award o 1951. After considering the facts and circumstances appearing from the evidence on the record, I am perfectly satisfied that there is absolutely no reason for increasing the scales and grades of pay for the press employees as fixed by the omnibus award of 1951, in confirmation of the award of 1948 and that the same scales and grades of pay shall be applicable to the workmen of the press with which we are concerned in the present reference. It is not disputed that the said scales and grades of pay have actually been given effect to by the present press in regard to its employees and increments on the said scales and grades of pay were given up to 1959. I award, therefore, that the scales and grades of pay of the concerned workmen in this case shall be their existing scales and grades of pay according to the award of 1951, referred to above and they shall continue to get increments according to the said award. I do not reproduce the scales and grades of pay and the rates of increments according to the award of 1951, because it is an admitted position that the said scales and grades of pay are now being allowed to the workmen of this press, and they get increments according to the said award up to 1959. I further award that the increments which were stopped in 1959, shall be restored and the workmen shall get all the increments up-to-date according to the award of 1951 from their stoppage in 1959, and that the arrears of increments due to the workmen shall be paid within two months from the publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette."

I now come to the question of dearness allowance. Dearness allowance was fixed by both the awards of 1948 and 1951 at the flat rate of Rs. 22 per month, but this rate was increased to Rs. 28 per month by the Labour Appellate Tribunal before which an appeal was taken against the award of 1951. The Union contends that having regard to the rise of cost of living since the dearness allowance was fixed at Rs. 28 per month by the Labour Appellate Tribunal by their judgment, the present dearness allowance should be increased to the flat rate of Rs. 40 per month. No doubt there has been some increase in the cost of living index since the date of the judgment of the Labour Appellate Tribunal, which was passed on 23rd August 1951. The amount of dearness allowance should be related to the cost of living index so as to prevent the workmen from falling into distress on account of the rise in the cost of living index. After carefully considering the relevant facts and circumstances, I find that the amount of dearness allowance should be raised to a flat rate of Rs. 35 per month from the existing rate of Rs. 28 per month, so that there may be some parity between the dearness allowance and the present cost of living index.

I award accordingly in respect of the scales and , grades of pay and dearness allowance covered by the issues under discussion.

Issue No. 3-Weekly working hours.-The present working hours for the employees of this press are 45 per week since 1955. These working hours are said to have been fixed by mutual agreement. There is no satisfactory evidence of any such mutual agreement. It is an admitted position that the omnibus printing press awards of 1948 and 1951, referred to above, fixed the working hours at 42 per week. There is no reason why these working hours should not apply also to the present press. The learned lawyer appearing for the press argued that the working hours were fixed at 42 per week, because some of the concerned presses had linotype machines involving lead-melting work, which posed a risk to health. There is no satisfactory evidence to support this argument. On the contrary, I find that the awards of 1948 and 1951 covered linotype machinemen also. It cannot, therefore, be said that the awards of 1948 and 1951 did not cover any press where linotype machine was worked. So, I reject this argument of the learned lawyer. I find no reason for making any difference in the working hours of this press by modifying the working hours fixed by the awards of 1948 and 1951. Accordingly, I award in the present case that the working hours shall be 42 per week.

I award accordingly under this issue.

I have disposed of all the issues given in the order of reference. I would here discuss some special questions which were raised at the hearing. It was argued on behalf of the Union that there should be no difference between the grades and scales of pay of the junior compositors, special type junior compositors and senior compositors and it was contended that Shri Montu Behari Dey (P.W. 1), who has been given the scale of junior special type compositor has to do all the work of the senior compositor and so, he should be given the scale of senior compositor. I cannot take cognisance of this plea of the Union, because there is no particular issue before me regarding categorisation of some particular workers. All that I can now say is that the compositors shall get the existing scales and grades of pay, viz., 55 8/2-95 (E.B.) 5/2 120 for senior compositors, 50 -4/2 -70 (E.B.)-4/2 90 for junior special compositor and 35-2/2-45 (E.B.)-1/2 50 for junior compositors. These scales and grades of pay are in comformity with the grades and scales of pay fixed by the awards of 1948 and 1951. It is not within the jurisdiction of this Tribunal within the scope of this reference to direct that any particular person who is now getting a particular scale and grade of pay under the award of 1951 should be given a higher scale and grade of pay.

I have generally disposed of the issues by my deci-*sions recorded above. One special case put forward by the Company, however, requires to be decided. It is the Company's case that notwithstanding the demands put forward by the Union, the workers of the Type Foundry Department of this press, effected a settlement with the Company by a written bipartite *agreement and this settlement should bind the workers of the Type Foundry Department who were parties to that agreement notwithstanding the general grades and scales of pay fixed by that award. Ext. E has been proved to be that bipartite agreement between the workers of the Foundry Department and the Company. It has been duly proved and I am satisfied from the evidence that a copy of this agreement was forwarded to the Labour Officer representing the Government. I am satisfied that Ext. A was an agreement otherwise than in a conciliation proceeding between the employer and the workmen and by the agreement there was settlement of a dispute between the employer and the workmen and it was quite a real and bona fide settlement. None of these workers has come to challenge or deny this agreement. The Union has filed Ext. 4, which purports to be a letter addressed by 11 out of the 12 workers whose signatures appear in Ext. A to the Manager of this Company, putting forward their claim to the increase of dearness allowance to Rs. 40 and reduction of weekly working hours to 12. This letter bears the date 25th October 1961. The Agreement, Ext. A, bears the date 2nd June 1961. There is nothing to prove that any such letter was really sent to the Manager of the Company by the workers whose names appear as signatories. Ext. 4 which purports to be a copy of the letter shows that it was sent to the addressee by registered post with A./D. But no acknowledgment has been produced. Moreover, none of these workers has appeared to support this letter even. Ext. 4 has not impressed me as a genuine and bona fide document. In any case, after the agreement, Ext. A, which, really amounted to settlement under section 18(1) and as such, was to be operative under section 19(1) & (2), Industrial Disputes Act., it was not open to some of the workers concerned to make any demaild in excess of the settlement according to the agreement Thus, the agreement, Ext. A, is to be treated as ; valid and bona fide settlement under section 18(1) and it is to be operative under section 19(1) and (2), Industrial Dispute Act. I find, therefore, that Ext. A, was a bona fide settlement of the matters referred to therein between the employer and these particular employees under section 18(1) and it is to be opera tive under section 19(1) and (2), Industrial Dispute Act. The result is, therefore, that notwithstanding the general scales and grades of pay and dearness allowance fixed under Issues 2 and 4, the men of the Type Foundry Department, who are parties to the agreement, Ext. A, shall get the grades and scales of par and dearness allowance stated therein so long as the settlement is operative under section 19(1) and (2). So, the general award under issues 2 and 4 will not apply to the Type Foundry men who are parties to the agreement, Ext. A, and these workmen shall be specially governed by the agreement, Ext. A, in respect of their scales and grades of pay and dearness allowance. Therefore, in modification of my general award under issues 2 and 4, I make a special award in respect of the workmen of the Type Foundry Department who are parties to the agreement, Ext. A, according to the said agreement accepting it as a settlement under section 18(1). A copy of the settlement (Ext. A.) is made a part of the award.

S. K. RAY, Judge,

Seventh Industrial Tribunal.

  - (1) Is the demotion of Shri Dulal Rabidas from the post of a peon to that of a coolie justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?
  - (2) Is the dismissal of Shri Panchugopal Karmakar justified? To what relief, if any, is he
  - (4) Is the termination of services of the following workmen justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?
  - (i) Shri Pandia Nayak, (ii) Shri Lakshman, (iii)
    Govind Rabidas, (iv) Shri Bedeshi Rabidas, (v) Shri Prasadi Rabidas, (vi) Shri Loton Rabidas, (vii) Shri Munman Rabidas, (viii) Shri Mohora, Rabidas, (ix) Sh<sub>1</sub>i Mahadev Rabidas, (x) Shri Sona Rabidas, (vii) Sm. Parbati, (vii) Sm. Badani

The case made out in the written statement of Union is briefly this:

With a view to protecting the rights and interest of the municipal employees, the Panihati Labe Welfare Union was formed on the 12th Octor 1958, and was subsequently registered on the 3 February 1959. The formation of the Union was naccepted by the Municipality in good grace, a series of dismissals and termination of services various workmen followed.

Regarding issue No. 1, it is alleged by the Unic that Dulal Rabidas, originally a conservancy cool under the Municipality, was promoted to the poof a Coolie Sirdar, and next to that of a peon. first he was not agreeable to accept the post of peop on account of his illiteracy, but he was give nopes that he would have to do only the work of office-peon, such as bringing and serving water, washing tables and chairs, etc. With a view victimise him, the Head Clerk of the Municipa made him serve letters in addition to his abo works. On 15th June 1960, the Chairman demo this employee to the post of a Ward Coolie w effect from 16th June 1960 depriving him of the p all of a peon or Coolie Sirdar, and paying h lower wages of an ordinary coolie. The demotr of the employee is unjustified and illegal and h been effected by way of victimisation as he was executive member of the Union. This demotion w followed by his dismissal, and both these punis ments were ultra vires and mala fide, in violation the principle of natural justice, and illegal in vie of the provisions of section 66 of the Bengal Mun cipal Act of 1932.

As regards issue No. 2, the allegations of the Union are as follows:

On 9th July 1959 the Vice-Chairman of the Mucipality issued a letter to the workman concern Panchu Gopal Karmakar, a tractor driver under i Municipality, enclosing therewith a copy of a repo dated 6th July 1959, alleged to have been made the second Soutary Inspector named Atul Bhat charvya, asking the worker to submit a satisfacto explanation within 24 hours. The workman wrote letter on 10th July 1959 to the Vice-Chairman wi a request to supply him with a Bengali transcripte of the letter issued to him. The Vice-Chairma refused to grant the prayer and asked the workma again to submit his explanation which was actually submitted on 17th July 1959. On 24th August 195 the Churmon of the Municipality issued a show cause notice to this workman to which a written reply was submitted on 26th August 1959. On August 1959 this workman applied for 3 days' le on account of his illness, and subsequently, on September 1959 and 3rd September 1959 he app further for extension of leave. On 8th Septem 1959 the Vice-Chairman asked him for production a medical certificate. The workman could not r duce medical certificate as he was not under tre ment of any medical practitioner or registe. doctor. On 19th September 1959 the Chairman of niissed this workman by a letter. As a matter fact, the dismissal of the worker was pre-arrang and totally mala fide, and tainted with victimisali as he was the Treasurer of the Union. There w no enquiry, nor was he given any chance to defe bimself before the order of dismissal was pass which, accordingly, was unjustified, and in violation of the runciple of natural justice.

As to the third issue, concerning a dozen of municipal workmen, the Union has made allegations thus:

On 1st March 1960, at about 5-30 a.m. when Pandia Nayak (serial No. 1) went to report his attendance at the house of the Vice-Chairman, the litter with the help of some hired hooligans assaulted him. He then lodged information at the Khardah Police-station, and got himself admitted on that very date into the Barrackpore Police Hospital for medical treatment. On 3rd March 1960 he applied for leave of absence on account of the above reason till his recovery. On 18th March 1960 the Chairman wrote to him to say that the ground of leave of absence was false as there was no mention of the name of hospital and no medical certificate was attached to his leave application. The workman sent a reply on 25th March 1960 mentioning the name of the hospifil and enclosing there with a medical certificate. He also submitted another letter on 31st March 1960 for resuming his duties from 1st April 1960. On 5th April 1960 the Chairman asked him to appear before Major A. K. Gupta for medical examination and, accordingly, the worker went to that physician on 6th April 1960. Next, on 27th April 1960, the Chairman again asked him to submit explanation for his absence from duty on false plea. A written explanation was submitted on 29th April 1960, the fact being mentioned that the said physician did not ex mine him while he appeared before him. On 14th May 1960 the Chairman again wrote to him that the explination was unsatisfactory and asked him to show cause why legal steps should not be taken against him. The workman gave reply in writing to that also. On 19th July 1960 the Chairman chargesheeted him by alleging another cause that he had not attended and cleansed privies for 10 days, and sking him to show cause therefor. The workman showed cause on 30th July 1960 by denying the alleeation. On that very date the Sanitary Inspector refused to take his attendance. Immediately the worker went to the Chairman's house and reported the matter, and the Chairman verbally told him that he had been dismissed from service for his Trade Union activities. On the following day the Vice-President of the Union met the Chairman requested him to reinstate the worker, and the Chairman gave hope to reinstate him provided the worker gave up union activities. On 15th August 1960 the worker requested the Sanitary Inspector to reinstate him in his old job and the latter asked him to come on the following day. Accordingly he went to the Sanitary Inspector on 16th August 1960 and was told by the Sanitary Inspector to sign a leave petition saving that if he did so he would get back his ob. In good faith the worker signed the petition and wanted job, but the same was refused. The Union wrote to the Assistant Labour Commissioner. This workman was victimised as he was an executive number of the Union.

On 8th September 1959 the Vice-Chairman of the Municipality charge-sheeted Lakshman (serial No. 2) with a direction to show cause why he should not be dismissed from service for defying the office direction to cleanse the privies in the Agarpara Ward. On 10th September 1959 this methor submitted his reply denving the charge against him. On 15th September 1959 this worker was dismissed without there being any enquiry held by the Municipality or any guilt on the part of the worker concerned.

The employees, Govind Rabidas, Bedesi Rabidas, Prasadi Rabidas, Loton Rabidas, Munman Rabidas, Mohadeb Rabidas, Sona Rabidas and Sm. Parbati (serial Nos. 3 to 7 and 9 to 11) were dismissed by the Chairman of the Municipality quite verbally on 26th October 1960, 21st September 1960, 14th August 1960, 10th August 1960, 8th August 1960, 20th November 1960, 26th October 1960 and 8th September 1959, respectively. There was no charge-sheet against any one of them, nor was there any enquiry beld against them, and thus their dismissals were quite unjustified and perverse, and in violation of the principle of natural justice.

Sm. Badani Methrani (serial No. 12) was charge-sheeted on 19th July 1960 for alleged irregularity in attending to her duties; she showed cause on 20th July 1960 and on that very date the Chairman verbally dismissed her without holding any enquiry or giving her any opportunity to defend herself. As such her dismissal was also unjustified as above. The dismissals of these workers are also illegal for want of sanction of the Municipal Commissioners.

In view of the above allegations, the Union claims for reinstatement of the workers mentioned in the issues Nos. 2 and 3 with back wages, etc. and also for declaration of the demotion of Dulal Rabidas tissue No. 1) as unjustified.

The substance of the averments in the written statement of the Municipality is as follows:-

Regarding issue No. 1, it is stated that Dulal Rabidas was a Coolie Sardar up to 31st March 1960. By a resolution of the Board of Commissioners, the post of the Coolie Sardar was abolished and Dulal was absorbed as a peon and was posted in that capacity for the work of distributing assessment forms to the assessees. The Assessor found his work unsatisfactory and made a report to that effect. Dulal was asked to explain. His explanation along with the Sunitary Inspector's report was considered, and next he was posted as a coolie in the Conservancy Department on 14th June 1960. He was unwilling to accept the post and prayed for a further chance to show his ability. He was given a week's chance for improvement, but he did not improve in the least, and rather absented himself from attending office without notice. Since 1st July 1960 he was reverted to the post of a Ward Coolie. But since then, he absented himsel! from duty.

Regarding issue No. 2, Panchugopal Karmakar was charged with serious deriliction of duties, and his explanations were considered by the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman, and next the same were placed in a special meeting of the Board of Commissioners on 19th September 1959. The decision in that meeting was that this worker should be dismissed from service with effect from 20th September 1959 for gross negligence of duty and misuse of municipal vehicles and labour. This workman, in collusion with another workman Jagamohan Trivedi, was at the material time acting with a view to disobey the municipal authorities and disrepute the Commissioners in all possible ways. He moved the Additional District Magistrate and also served notice on the Municipality under section 535 of the Bengal Municipal Act disclosing an intention of institution of a civil suit against the Municipality.

Regarding issue No. 3, the Municipality alleges that Pandia Nayak (serial Nos. 1) was a methor of the conservancy staff and applied for leave for one month on 16th August 1960. The Vice-Chairman ordered him to appear before. Major A. K. Gupta (Retd. I.M.S.). The workman did not appear before the physician. On query the Major informed the Municipality that the workman did not appear before him. The Vice-Chairman then by his letter, dated 2nd September 1960, directed this workman to join his duties within 21 hours. The workman refused to acknowledge receipt of that letter. It was then sent to him by registered post with acknowledgment due. But since then he did not turn up to join his duties. The other allegations against the Municipality concerning this workman are untrue and frivolous.

Gobind, Bedeshi, Prosadi, Loton, Munman, Mahadeb, Sona, Parbati and Badani have been absenting from their duties from 26th October 1960, 21st September 1960, 14th August 1960, 1st August 1960, 8th August 1960, 8th September 1960 and 18th July 1960. Services of none of them were terminated by the Municipality. Mohara (serial No. 8) is still working in the Municipality. Lakshman went away without notice since 13th September 1959. In view of the above facts and circumstances, as stated in the written statement of the Municipality, the Union is not entitled to any relief.

Decision

Issue No. 1: It is an admitted fact—that—Dulal Rabidas was a Coolie Strdar, and next he was lifted to the post of a peon since 1st April 1960. The wages of both these posts carry the same amount of Rs. 67.50 nP. inclusive of all allowances. From the reports of the Assessors, explanations of the concerned workman, read with the orders of the authorities (vide Exts. C to C-7), it appears that this Dulal could not perform his duty as a peon satisfactorily. At one time he himself admitted about his inability on account of his own illiteracy. He was then reverted as an ordinary coolie. On his representation he was given a chance for a week to show his credit as a peon. But, as the reports go, he could not improve, and hence he was finally reverted to the post of a coolie with effect from 16th June 1960 (vide the Charman's order, Ext. 7). It is against this order that the present issue has been framed. The case of the Municipality is that the workman could not be reverted as a Coolie Sirdar as the very post of Coolie Sirdar had already been abolished by a resolution passed by the Board of Commissioners. On 29th February 1960, the resolution being confirmed in a meeting of the Board of Commissioners on 31st March 1960 (vide Exts. C-8 and C-9). In view of these special circumstances it goes without saying that as there was no post of Coolie Sirdar, the reversion of Dulal could not but be in the post of an ordinary coolie. From the papers filed, I have no doubt in the least that this workman was unfit to hold the post of a peon, and hence his demotion as a coolie is quite justified. It appears from the contention on behalf of the Union that the grievance is not very much with regard to the fact of demotion as in respect of the quantum of wages. The wages meant for an ordinary coolie are Rs. 62.50 nP. It is said for the Union that demotion to the post of lower wages is unjustified, and that at least his wages of Rs. 67.50 nP. should not have been affected. I am unable to accept this view as correct and substantial. As the post of Coolie Sirdar could not be available to Dulal Rabidas, he was demoted as an ordinary coolie, and as the wages of a coolie are not higher than Rs. 62.50 nP., the question of keeping his former wages of Rs. 67.50 nP. intact does not arise. Hence this issue is decided against the Union which is entitled to no relief in this regard.

It appears from the papers filed that this worker had already been dismissed some time after his demotion. This question no doubt has been raised in the written statement of the Union, but it is not before me in this present reference. It may be a subject-matter of a further reference, if any.

Issue No. 2: Panchu Gopal Karmakar was a driver of municipal tructors meant for removing rubbish, etc., from the municipal area. The actual work of removal of rubbish, etc., is done by the coolies meant for the purpose, and Panchu Gopal was only to drive the tructor loaded with such rubbish, etc. He was dismissed from service with effect from 20th September 1959 following a resolution of the Board of Commissioners on 19th September 1959. It is an admitted fact that out of 9 Commissioners present in that particular meeting, 8 voted for the workman's dismissal, while one Commissioner differed and made a note of dissent against his dismissal. I shall come to this particular point later on.

The brief averment in the written statement of the Union in regard to this issue No. 2 is that this employee was charged with serious deriliction of duties, and the Board of Commissioners decided about his dismissal for gross negligence of duties and for misuse of municipal vehicles and labour. It is also alleged that this workman in collaboration with another workman Jagamohan Tribedi, was acting with a view to disobey the municipal authorities and disrepute the municipal Commissioners in all possible ways. But the second part of the allegation (collaboration with Jagamohan, etc.) does not seem to have formed any part of the charges brought against him. In fact, there was no formal charge as such against him. The allegations of the Municipality have reference to the report of the Second Sanitary Inspector dated 6th July 1959 (Ext. B-11) and the reports of the Vice-Chairman and one Commissioner, dated 21st August 1959, and 25th August 1959 (Exts. B-16 and B-18). In Ext. B-11 it was reported that Panchu Gopal came to the office at about 5 p.m. instead of at 3-30 p.m., had the duty of taking the tractor from the office at about 4 p.m. and to go for his duty at the Agarpara Elias Road, and Sukchar Raja Road, but he attended his duty at Sukchar only. His explanation was called for by the Vice-Chairman. At first he expressed his inability to explain in reference to the report in English and wanted a Bengali transcription. On refusal on the part of the Municipality to supply him with a Bengali transcription, he perhaps got the report read and explained by some one else and submitted his explanation (Ext. B-15) stating that he had arrived late in the office, at about 4-40 p.m., not 5 p.m., as his cycle got out of order on the way. Before this Tribunal he has further explained the matter by saying that he had to drag the cycle up to the office, and hence there was some delay in his arrival.

The report of the Vice-Chairman (Ext. B-16) is to the effect that the Vice-Chairman found the tractor lying on the path in an unsafe condition whereas the driver Panchu Gopal was seen talking with Prafulla Roy of Agarpara at some distance from where the tractor, was left on the path. The report ther states about some previous complaints guinst the driver as to his utter negligence of duties. Particular reference was made to the report of the Second Sanitary Inspector. I have already seen about the report of the Sanitary Inspector, and the reply and the evidence given by the driver. Regarding the said report of the Vice-Chairman, the driver submitted his explanation by stating that he got a notice of decree, and understood that he would have to pay the decretal amount to Prafulla Babu immediately, otherwise his land would be auction-sold, and for that reason he got perplexed and on his way back after performing his duty went to see Prafulla Babu. It is also stated that he tried to see the Sanitary Inspectors, but could not find them, and hence he could not take their permission before going to Prafulla Babu. He has produced the notice served on him under Order 21, Rule 22 of the Civil Procedure Code, and also receipt showing payment a Rs 18 to Prafulla Babu on 21st August 1959 tovalids decretal dues (vide Exts. 1 and 2). It is argued for the Municipality that as it was only a notice to show cause why the decree would not be executed, the matter was not so urgent for Panchu Gopal as o meet Prafulla Babu for payment on that particular late keeping the municipal tractor on the path in an insafe condition. An ordinary man like Panchu jopal might have been afraid and perplexed on geting the notice and wanted to avoid the trouble inmediately. There was nothing unusual in this. 3esides, it appears from the very report of the Vice-Thairman, not to speak of the evidence of Panchu tapal, that at least there were 2 municipal coolies standing near the tractor on the path. So it is no use making the allegation that the tractor was kept in an unsafe position. As regards the other alleganon that this worker did not attend to duties in ? Wards, his explanation is that 2 tractors would be sed for duties on the particular day if water was to e carried to the Sanitary privies situated at long listance, according to the decision during the time of the Municipal Administrator, that on 6th July 1959 he was first asked to do his duty at Sukchar, in 2 subsequently he was asked to do his duty at Agarpara. Hence he did the duty in the first-nentioned ward of Sukchar. There is evidence to he fact that these 2 Wards Sukchar and Agarpara he at long distance from each other intervened by he Panihati Ward. It is further in evidence of the worker that much time was spent in performing his juty at Sukchar, and it was not possible for him to duties in the other Ward as, particularly, the factor had no headlight. In the report, dated 25th August 1959, it was stated that this driver carried me roof-rubbish from North Station Road to aktipur Main Road on 22nd August 1959 accordng to the direction of the Chairman, but the driver fter doing the work went to the house of Hiralal htra at Pallisri with the municipal tractor. That eport was made by a municipal Commissioner who fanted to know whether the Chairman permitted he driver to go to Pallisri. On receipt of that report he Chairman only put up that report with other omplaints. It does not appear from anywhere that his driver was asked to show cause in regard to bat report of the Commissioner.

On 24th August 1959 the Chairman issued a notice the workman enclosing therewith the Vice-Chairlan's report, dated 21st August 1959, for showing the workman should not be dismissed for gross neglect of duties as pointed out in the report. The answer given by the worker has already been referred to and considered (Ext. B-19). A copy of the Sanitary Inspector's report was also given to the worker with a direction to show cause. The worker's reply has already been considered. There is no paper produced by the Municipality to show about previous negligence on the part of the workman except a mere reference in report of the Sanitary Inspector and the Vice-Chairman. In view of the facts and circumstances disclosed in this case, it appears that Panchu Gopal was dismissed from service on the basis of the reports of the Sanitary Inspector and the Vice-Chairman. The report of the Commissioner, as stated above, does not appear to have formed the basis of any charge against this workman.

Out of the 3 reporters mentioned above, only the Vice-Chairman has been examined. I have seen above the allegations of the Municipality and the explanations given by Panchu Gopal. The explanations do not appear to be unreasonable. At least, the charges against him do not appear to be such as to merit his dismissal from service. What is more is that the municipal authorities did not hold any enquiry, nor did they give him any opportunity to defend himself before they arrived at their decision about his dismissal. Thus they offended against the principle of natural justice.

The resolution of the municipal Commissioners on 19th September 1959 is to the effect that all papers relating to various complaints against Panchu Gopal was placed in the meeting and considered, and it was found that he wilfully neglected his duty in spite of repeated warnings, and misused the municipal vehicles and labour deputed under him for conservancy service, and hence the Commissioners resolved that he should be dismissed from service with immediate effect (vide Ext. B-9). This resolution, however, does not show or specify what specific complaints were placed before the meeting, nor can it be ascertained how Panchu Gopal is alleged to have misused the labour of the Municipality. One Commissioner at least dissented from that resolution and made a dissentient note as follows:

"After scrutinising relevant papers containing charges against Shri Panchu Gopal Karmakar, I come to the conclusion that charges have not been established beyond reasonable doubt. It appears to me that complaints made against him are malicious, manipulated and connected with vindictive motive. Moreover, the nature of complaints is not so grave which admits any drastic penal action liable him to dismissal

He was not given sufficient opportunity of selfdefence in respect of all the complaints. No court of enquiry was held giving him personal hearing to explain his case Principle of natural justice was not followed in his case."

What that Commissioner opined in his note of dissention seems to be quite reasonable and justified in view of the special circumstances of the case. In fact, there is every reason to believe that the action taken against Panchu Gopal Karmakar by the authorities dismissing him from service was malicious and mala fide, and was tainted with a spirit of victimisation. Considering all the facts and circumstances in the above light, I hold that the dismissal of Panchu Gopal is quite unjustified. The Municipality is, therefore, directed to reinstate this employee in his former job with all usual back wages and continuity of service, within a month from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

Issue.No. 3-Re.: Pandia Nayak (serial No. 1): Admittedly, this workman, who was a methor under the Municipality, went as usual to report his hazira at the house of the Vice-Chairman at about 5-30 a.m. on 1st March 1960. His case is that at that time about 6 persons belonging to the party of the Vice-Chairman himself assaulted him very severely. He lodged a diary in the thana, and next got himself admitted in the Barrackpore Police Hospital for treatment of his injuries. On 3rd March 1960 he applied for leave till his recovery. That he sustained some injury on his person on account of assault on him on 1st March 1960 is borne out not only by his evidence, but also from the evidence disclosed from other papers including medical report. On 18th March 1960 the Chairman wrote a letter to him (Ext. D-I) to show cause of his absence from duty from 1st March 1960, and referred to non-mention of his admission into the Hospital in his leave application. This employee eave reply on 25th March 1960 (Ext. D-2). The report of the Medical Officer (Ext. D-3) clearly explained the cause of the employee's absence. On 31st March 1960 the employee asked for permission to resume work (vide Ext. D-5). On 5th April 1960 the Chairman wrote to Major A. K. Gupta by stating that the workman Pandia Nayak was being sent to him for further medical examination as he was found moving about here and there from the 7th to the 31st March 1960. On getting the doctor's report, the Chairman wrote to the worker on 27th April 1960 to show cause why disciplinary action should not be taken against him for absence from duty, it being mentioned that the worker could not produce before the physician any evidence of injury of serious nature. It is quite reasonable and probable that there might not have been any evidence of injury, say, marks of injury, more than a month after the incident. Yet the workman submitted his explanation which was found unsatisfactory by the Chairman (vide 1xts, D-10 and D-11), and the workman was asked again to show cause. In the meantime, the worker was allowed to join on the strength of a fit certificate' from the physician who treated him after his discharge from the Police Hospital. After all, there was no sense in making further allegation against this worker. Next, on 18th July 1960 the Chairman charged this workman for not cleaning the latrines regularly (vide Ext. D-14). The workman submitted his explanation (Fxt. D-15) denying the charges. But that explanation was not accepted on the ground of being unsatisfactory. After all, the workman was given warning to be particular in his duties in future (vide Chairman's letter, dated 13th August 1960, Fxt. D-16). But the case of the Union is that since 20th July 1960 this worker was not allowed to work by the Sanitary Inspector, and then he went to the Chairman who verbally told him of his dismissal. In view of the Chairman's letter, dated 13th August 1960 (Ext. D-16) it is difficult to believe that this worker was dismissed with effect from 20th July 1960. In fact, he was warned by the Chairman on 13th/18th August 1960. Again, on 16th August 1960 this worker applied for leave for one month on the ground of his illness. He was asked to appear before Major Gupta, but he did not comply with it. On 2nd September 1960 the Municipality sent a registered letter to this workman with acknowledgment due with a direction to join his duties, but he did not go back to resume his duties. The receipt of this registered letter is admitted by this workman (P.W. 10). According to him he got the letter after his dismissal and on getting the registered letter he went to do work. This plea is not taken in W.S of the Union. I already saw that the story of dismissal is not a fact. Moreover he does not specifically say in his deposition that after he went for work on receipt of the registered letter, he was not allowed to work. On the contrary, the evidence (both oral and documentary) on the side of the Municipality is that in spite of the registered letter the worker remained silent and did not go to resume work. In view of the circumstances of the case, this contention of the Municipality appears to be reasonable, credible, and acceptable. I, therefore, hold in the result, that this workman was not actually dismissed, but he himself retrained from going to work, although he was called for work by a registered letter, as afore. said. So there is no question of granting any relist to this man

Re.: Lakshman (serial No. 2): He was a metho of the Municipality. On 8th September 1959 he wa charged for hiving allegedly defied the office direction to clean privies in Agarpara Ward and for not attend ing to the work on and before the 6th September 1959. On 10th September 1959 the workman submit ted his reply (Annexure 3 to the written statemen of the Union) stating that the Vice-Chairman gav instructions to the workman in English and so h could not understand the matter, and there wa defect in his work, so that he should be excused therefor. He also wrote to say that instruction should be given to him in Bengali. The Vice-Chair man remained quite silent on this point in his depo-sition before this Tribunal. This workman was dis missed with effect from 7th September 1959 (EM C-3). There was no enquiry against the workman nor was he given any opportunity for self defence The Vice-Chairman appears to have proceeded whimsically in passing the order of dismissal. order, again, offends against the provisions of proviso (i) of section 66(2) of the Bengal Municipal Act. The legal provision is that an Officer or servant whose post carries a monthly salary of more than Rs. 30 shall not be dismissed without the sanction of the Commissioners at a meeting. Undoubtedly this workman, Lakshman, used to draw a total wage of Rs. 62.50 nP. No sanction of the Commissioners in a meeting was taken for dismissing him. Thus, the dismissal of this particular workman was not only unjustified, but also illegal. The Municipality is liable to reinstate him, and is directed to reinstate him in his former job with half back wages for the period of forced unemployment and continuity of service, within a month from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette."

Re.: Govind Rabidas, Bedeshi Rabidas and Prasad Rabidas (serial Nos. 3 to 5, respectively): The case of the Union is that there was no charge framed against any of these municipal coolies, and the Chairman verbally dismissed them from service with effect from 26th October 1960, 21st September 1960 and 14th August 1960, respectively. The Municipality's case is that they were not dismissed from service, as they allege, but they themselves remained absent from attending duties since those dates. Thus the dates tally, but not the contentions of the parties as regards the reason of cessation from duties. It is admitted that there have been two rival Unions, the said workmen belonging to the new Union. It is said for the Union that the Municipality victimised them on account of their being members of the new Union. Of course, this is denied by the other side. Govind (P.W. 2) says that he went on 15 days' leave and on return from leave went to resume work, but he was told that he was no longer in service. He further says that he was asked by the Sanitary Inspector to sign in a blank paper, and on his refusal he was told that his services were dispensed with. The Sanitary Inspector has not been examined. The Chairman (O.P.W. 1) denies having dismissed the workman from service verbally. He supports the Municipality's case by saying that these workers did not come to do their respective works. It is not understood why the workers would cease to attend duties. It is also inexplicable that the Municipality did not frame any charge against them, as in the cases of some others. Bedeshi (P.W. 8) says that Bijoy Babu, Sanitary Inspector, demanded subscription from nim for the old Union, but he did not agree to it. Bijoy Babu then asked him to approach the Chairman to know if he could continue work. He further says that he went to the Chairman, but he referred him to go to his Union, saying that he would not employ him. Of course, the Chairman denied this. Still there is no reason why this workman will himself cease to work, and why no charge was brought against him for negligence of duties.

Similar is the case of Prasadi (P.W. 9). The Sanitary Inspector has not been examined. No charge was brought against this worker. In a number of letters the Conciliation Officer wrote to the Municipality to send a representative for holding a joint meeting on the question of "dismissal" of these and other employees. The Municipality does not appear to have denied the allegation of "dismissal" by any letter or otherwise. The present plea of the Municipality as to the workers' absenting themselves is nothing but an after-thought. In view of the facts and circumstances, I am unable to hold that these workers gave up jobs or absented themselves from duties of their own accord. My firm belief is that they were verbally dismissed by the Chairman without any regard being had to the principle of actural justice. In their case the provision of the proviso (i) of section 66(2) of the Bengal Municipal Act has been violated, as in the case of Lakshman mathor. Their dismissal is, therefore, unjustified.

The Municipality is directed to reinstate them in their former jobs with half back wages for the period of forced unemployment, and continuity of service, within a month from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

Re.: Loton Rabidas and Sona Rabidas (serial Nos. 6 and 10, respectively): They were coolies of the Municipality. They are said to have been verbally dismissed by the Chairman on 10th August 1960 and 20th October 1960. The Municipality denies this allegation and assorts that these workers themselves absented from duties. These two workers have not been examined before the me. They are said to have gone to their native places. The Union Secretary (P.W. 11) says that he heard from these workers that they were verbally dismissed. But this is hearsay evidence, and cannot be acted upon. No other workers who have deposed in this case say anything the terminal these two particular workmen. In the circumstances, I hold that no proper case has been made out in regard to these two persons, and hence there is no question of granting any relief to them.

Re.: Mohora Rabidas (serial No. 8): The reference concerning this particular workman can be disposed of by merely stating that the Union has not made out any case for him in its written statement, and it is said that he was re-employed subsequent to the termination of his services. Hence, no question arises for any relief regarding this worker.

Re: Munman Rabidas, Mahadev Rabidas and Sm. Parbati (serial Nos. 7, 9 and 11, respectively): Their case is similar to that in respect of Nos. 3 to 5. The dates of termination of their services tally in view of both parties' versions, though the reasons are different. According to the Union, they were verbally dismissed by the Chairman on account of their Union activities, whereas the Municipality makes out the case that they were absenting themselves from their duties since the relevant dates. These 3 workmen have examined themselves before me.

According to Munman (P.A. 7), he went on one month's leave and on expiry of the said leave he came to resume his work when Bijoy Babu informed him that he was no longer in service. He says that he approached the Chairman who said that one new hand was appointed in his place, and he would be taken in when vacancy would occur. But ultimately he was told that he was not in service.

Mahadev, P.W. 6, says that he was verbally dismissed by the Chairman. In his cross-examination a question was put to the effect that he was discharged on 20th November 1960 and thereafter he did not go to work, and the answer of the worker was in the affirmative. He denied the suggestion that after the formation of the new Union they retrained from doing the job of the Municipality.

Parbati Methrani (P.W. 4) says about her verbal dismissal by the Chairman. It has been elicited in her cross-examination that subscriptions for the old Union were demanded from her, but on her refusal she was dismissed. She forgets the name of the person who demanded subscription from her, and she says that she told the Chairman of that matter. She further says that Bijoy Babu told her that her services would be dispensed with, and the Chairman also, on her approach, told her that her services would not be required. She denies that she refrained from work since the formation of the new Union.

What I have found in regard to Nos. 3 to 5, fully applies in the case of these workers also. It can be hardly believed that workers like these people would have given up their jobs of their own accord. I believe that they were really dismissed from their services without there being any enquiry or charge-sheet. The provisions of section 65(2) proviso (i) of the Bengal Municipal Act had not been complied with. Hence their dismissal was also unjustified and illegal. They are entitled to the relief asked for. The Municipality shall reinstate them to their former jobs and pay half the wages for period of forced unemployment, within one month from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

Re.: Badani Methrani (serial No. 12): On 18th July 1960 she was charge-sheeted for irregular attendance to duties. She submitted a written reply on 20th July 1960. Since then, it is alleged, she was verbally dismissed by the Chairman. Badani served for 7 years under the Municipality. She has deposed before me and stated the above facts. Her explanation to the charge is a denial of the allegation made against her, and appears to be a reasonable explana-tion of her (vide Ext. 4-a). In her written explanation Badam stated that in the morning of 20th July 1960 she went to her duty, but Bijoy Babu refused to take her hizma and to allow her to go to duty by saying that her services were gone. In that explanation she wanted to know the reason of her dismissal. Since then the Municipality appears to have remained muni. Now it is said that Badani was absenting from her duties from 18th July 1960 (vide par graph 6 of the Municipality's written statement). If there was the charge against her, there is no reason why she was not dealt with constitutionally. In view of her explanation mentioned above, I cannot persuade myself to believe that she remained absent from her duties of her own accord. In my view what she says about the reason of her dismissal seems to be true, and I hold, accordingly, that it was the Chairmaa who whimsteally and verbally dismissed this worker, Badani Methrani, from service, as alleged. That dismissal offended against the principle of natural justice as there was no enquiry, etc., and also against the aforesaid provisions of the Bengal Municipal Act. Thus Badani Methrani's dismissal was unjustified and illegal. The Municipality is directed to reinstate her in her former service and to pay her half the wages for period of forced un-employment within one month from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

This is my award.

Shri S. K. Ray, Judge, Seventh Industrial Tribunal

AWARD

The above dispute over the issues given in the order of reference and re-produced below was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department order No. 7481-LR./IR 11L-498-61, dated the 1st December 1961.

Issues

- 1. Outstation allowance for Mistries and Helpers.
- 2. Leave and holidays
- 3. Working hours.

The case was finally fixed for hearing today, 4th April 1962. The parties have filed a joint petition of compromise setting out the terms upon which the dispute has been settled between them and praying for an award on the basis of those terms.

I have heard the representatives of the parties and I have considered the terms of settlement embodied in the joint petition. I am satisfied that the terms are lawful and fair and that there has been a bona fide settlement of the dispute between the parties on those terms. So, I would make a compromise award on the basis of those terms.

In the result, I make a compromise award on the basis of the terms set out in the joint petition filed by the parties today, a copy whereof is made a part of the award as an Annexure.

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Globe Theatres (P) Ltd., 7 Lndsay Street, Calcutta-16, and their workmen represented by the Bengal Motion Pucture Employees' Union, 126-A Dharamtolla Street, Calcutta-13 (Case No. VIII-131 of 1961.)

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present

Shri P. C. PAL, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company: Shri P. R. Mukherjee. Pleader.

Present for the Union: Shri Naranarayan Gupta.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 1800-I.R./IR-II-38/61, dated the 12th April 1961, for adjudicanon upon the following issue:

(1) Increment of the operators.

The case of the operators concerned, as represented by the Bengal Motion Picture Employees' Union (hareinafter briefly described as the Union), as per the written statement filed is this:

The operators in this Company (Globe Theatres) had been getting increments since last 12 years but increment was denied since September 1958 onwards, though the other categories of workmen in this Company, and the operators in other cinema companies, got and are getting increments as a customary benefit. In 1956 the Company once denied increment to its workmen, but better sense prevailed and double increments were granted to the workmen with effect from 1st September 1956 on the understanding that the next increment would be due in September 1958.

There was a reference at the time of granting increments from September 1956, as per tripartite settlement by the joint recommendations of the Bengal Motion Pictures Association (briefly described is B.M.P.A.) and the Bengal Motion Pictures Emplovees' Union (briefly described as B.M.P.E.U.), and hose recommendations provided some optional urangements for promotion of operators to higher posts. But the Company deceitfully violated the erms of the tripartite settlement and made the perators sign in something as additional terms by uppressing the real facts. Next, the Company took idvantage of their own deceitful action, and denied ustomary and usual wage increments to the operaors from 1st September 1958, although the Company new full well that according to the provisions of the pint recommendations and the tripartite settlement he operators were never required to appear before he so-called non-existent Board for getting their nnual customary increments. The operators of the llobe Theatres are fully entitled to annual wage acrements with proportionate rise in dearness allownce, at least, at the annual rates they were paid in 956, with effect from 1st September 1958. The ompany's refusal to grant such increments is osolutely unjustified and malafide, and the Comany's action is based on a victimising motive against principles of social and natural justice.

In reply to the Union's written statement, Messrs. lobe Theatres (P) Ltd., (hereinafter described as the ompany) made out its case in its written statement follows:

There was no system of any customary or conactual increments, as alleged by the Union, nor is a such custom or practice prevailing in any other nema Company. Two annual increments were ten as per the joint agreement of the B.M.P.A., and e B.M.P.E.U. It is not correct that the next crement was agreed to be paid in September 1958, he written contract with the operators was that as to increments were given in advance, the next crement would be given only if certain conditions ere fulfilled. There had been no optional arrangement for promotion of operators, nor is it true to that the Company deceitfully violated the ipartite agreement of 1956. In fact, it is the emoyees themselves who, after singing the tripartite agreement in presence of the Assistant Labour Commissioner, are trying to go back from the terms agreed upon. On account of an industrial dispute, conciliation proceedings were started, as a sesult of which there was a joint agreement which was to be effected from 1st September 1956. As an additional security the employees of many Cinema Companies entered into individual agreements on identical terms with the respective employers. The operators of this Company also made individual agreements with this Company by accepting the terms of the aforesaid agreement which are binding on both The agreement of 1956 laid down different grades for operators of cinemas as well as the terms and conditions on which promotion from one grade to the higher one was to be regulated. Thus all the previous scales of pay of the operators were superseded by the agreement of 1956, and eligibility of promotion from one grade to the higher grade would depend upon appearance before an ad hoc Board as per the terms of agreement. There was the further stipulation that as it would take some time to form the ad hoc Board, the operators would be granted an ad hoc increment for two years in advance, and those who got two years' increments would not be entitled to have their annual increment for two years. Accordingly, the management of this Company gave such increments for two years to its operators. Later on, these operators went back from the terms of that agreement and insisted on annual increment as a matter of course, and refused to appear before the ad hoc Board which was then functioning. There having been a dispute over the interpretation of the word "option" in the terms of agreement of 1956, the matter was fully decided in a tripartite agreement to the effect that appearance before the ad hoc Board was essentially a condition precedent to claim increment as several categories, and that for classification of operators a test was necessary, and in order to be eligible for increment, appearance before an ad hoc Board was essential. But as the operators refused to appear before the ad hoc Board, they cannot get or claim any more annual increment in view of the last tripartite agreement. Hence, for all these reasons, the claim of the Union must fail.

DECISION

On the side of the Union five witnesses have been examined. They are (1) Shri Sibnath Chatterji (P.W. 1, Secretary of the B. M. P. E. U), (2) Shri Raicharan Ghosh (P.W. 2, an operator), (3) Shia Taraknath Saha, (P.W. 3, an operator), (4) Shri B. Daniel (P.W. 4, Chief Operator), and (5) Shri Phanindra Nath Roy (P.W. 5, the second operator). The Union has put in a copy of the agreement of 1948 (Ext. 1), a letter of P.W. 4, dated 12th March, 1960, addressed to the Manager of the Company (Ext. 2), a copy of the agreement, dated 16th October 1961 (Ext. 3), a joint letter of five operators, dated 25th March 1960, to the Manager of the Company (Ext. 3A), the Union Secretary's letter, dated 27th August 1960, to the Assistant Labour Commissioner (Ext. 4), the Union Secretary's letter, dated 12th November 1960, to the Manager (Ext. 5), another letter from that Secretary to the Assistant Labour Commissioner on 17th January 1961 (Ext. 6), Secretary's letter to the Managing Director of the Company on 18th February 1961 (Ext. 7), Managing Directors letter, dated 15th February 1961, to the Union Secretary (Ext. 8), and copy of letter from the operators to the Manager of the Company, including a copy of the letter from the Assistant Labour Commissiones, dated 17th March 1960 to Messrs. Krishna Cinema (Ext. 9).

On the side of the Company its Chief Accountant, Shri Paresh Nath Bakshi (O.P.W. 1), was examined as the only witness. Regarding the documentary evidence, the Company has put in the individual agreements entered into by P.Ws. 2, 3, and 4, on 29th August 1957 (Exts. A, B, C, and D), a joint letter, dated 2nd January 1959, from five operators to the Manager of the Company (Ext. B-1), a tripartite agreement, dated 23rd August 1957 (Ext. E) and certain correspondences which may be referred to as may be necessary (Exts. F. G. H. I., J. K., L. and M).

The correct decision of the point at issue depends upon proper interpretation of several agreements produced before me. The Union's case is that previously the Company used to pay increments not in a regular way but haphazardly and whimsically, and that in 1948 there was an agreement introducing regular incremental scale. That the agreement of 1948 (Ext. 1) was the basis of introduction of regular scale of increment is undisputed. Since then the employees got regular increments annually till August 1956 when there was a tripartite agreement. Clauses 7 to 14 of the agreement of 1956 are relevant for the purpose of discussion in the present case along with the terms of settlement reached at by the two other subsequent agreements, reference to which and discussions on which will follow in due course.

On 23rd August 1957 there was another tripartite agreement (Ext. E) in which clauses 7 to 12 of the agreement of 1956 were referred to. Next, on 29th August 1957 the operators entered into individual agreements with the Company (vide Exts. A, B, C and D). In these individual agreements clauses 1 to 21 of the agreement of 1956 were incorporated. Of them, clauses 7 to 14 are relevant for our present purpose. Clauses 7 to 12 of that agreement fall under the head "Gradation and Classification of Cinema Operators", whereas the other two clauses fall under the head "Pay Scale". The relevant clauses are enumerated below:

GRADATION AND CLASSIFICATION OF CINEMA OPERATORS

- "7. At present there being no classification of cinema operators according to skill or merit nor any category of workers of the classes A to E yet being fixed, it is proposed to set up an ad hoc Board which will be constituted by the B.M.P.A. by selection of technically qualified persons. The Board will certify the operators according to their merit in several grades.
- 8. It will be optional for the Cinema operators to appear before the Board for such certificates.
- 9. The minimum wages of operators holding valid licences will be as per scale F of Schedule B.
- 10. Cinema operators getting certificate of higher category will not be, as a matter of course, entitled to claim pay of that category unless there is a suitable vacancy.

- 11. An operator, if after appearance before the Board, is in its opinion, to be put in a lower category with lesser emoluments, will nevertheless continue to draw his existing pay and wages without any further increment.
- 12. This revised scale of wages of operators completely supersedes the scales of pay of operators as recommended by the Association in 1948. It is understood that there will be no reduction of wages of operators as on 1st September 1956."

PAY SCALE

- "14. It is jointly agreed to promote and maintain industrial peace and as a gesture of goodwill the constituent cinemas will advance to its workers immediate increments with effect from 1st September 1956 as follows:
  - (i) For category A cinemas, a sum equivalent to two annual increments as per pay-scale prescribed herein.
  - (ii) For cinema workers other than category Λ, only one annual increment as per prescribed scale.
  - (iii) For operators outside Calcutta cinema, a sum equivalent to 5 per cent. of the basic wages as on 1st August 1956 rounded to the nearest anna.
  - (iv) All workers getting ad hoc increment as above will not be entitled to have their annual increment for two years or one year as the case may be".

It appears from the above that the agreement purported to set up an ad hoc Board to be constituted by the B.M.P.A, and the duty of the Board was to certify the operators according their merits in several grades. According to clause 8 it was optional for the cinema operators to appeal before the Board for such certificates. Under clause 10 cinema operators getting certificate of higher category would not be, as a matter of course, entitled to claim pay in that category unless there was a suitable vacancy. Clause 11 provided that an operator, if after appearance before the Board, was in its opinion to be put in a lower category with lesser emoluments would nevertheless continue to draw his existing pay and wages without any further increment. By clause 12 the revised scale of operatros completely superseded the pay scales of operators as recommended by the Association in 1948, that is to say the terms of agreement regarding the revised scales of wages, etc., as per the agreement of 1948, were superseded by the above stipulation of the agreement of 1956. Clause 12 further provided that there would be no deduction of wages of operators as on 1st September 1956. It is to be noted that by the agreement of 1956 an ad hoc increment for two years at a time was stipulated to be granted with effect from 1st September 1956, and that stipulation for the same ad hoc increment was to be valid till the end of August 1958. It is also clear from the above clause, particularly with reference to clause 14, that there would be no further increment for two years from 1st September 1956 to 31st August 1958.

The present dispute has arisen because of the fact that the Company stopped increments of the operators with effect from 1st September 1958 on the ground that they had refused to appear before the ad hoc Board for certificates in terms of the relevant dauses of the agreement of 1956. The contention of the Union is that the operators did not appear before the ad hoc Board partly because no such Board had been constituted and partly because the appearance of the operators before such a Board was not compulsory; it was optional. It is true that inder clause 8 mentioned above it was quite optional for the cinema operators to appear before the Board for certificates. The Union tries to take advantage of this clause and contends that as the appearance of the operators before the Board was optional, the Company's act in refusing increments to the operators since 1st September 1958 has been quite unjustified and improper. It is contended for the Union that the clauses 7 to 12 of the agreement 1956 fall under "Gradation and Classification of Cinema Operators", and as such these have nothing to do with the point of annual increments of the perators. It is also said that according to clause 14, which falls under the head "Pay Scale", increnent for two years from September 1956 to August 1958 was debarred on account of the grant of ad noc increment for those two years, and that it does not mean that increments from September 1958 vould not be granted unless the operators obtained ertificates from the Board. Under clause 7 the loard's certificates to the operators would be necesary to classify several grades according to merit. n view of clause 8 it was optional for the operators of appear before the Board for such certificates. This means that whoever desired to be classified n the grades according to merits, could appear efore the Board for test, and option was given to hem for such purpose, the meaning being that hose operators who would not appear before the oard would not be classified according to merits several grades. The Union construes this to ean that this option did not prevent the granting regular annual increment even after August 1958. ut this contention on behalf of the Union does not opear to be satisfactory. Clause II states that an perator, if after appearance before the Board, is in s opinion, to be put in a lower category with lesser noluments will nevertheless continue to draw his listing pay and wages without any further increent. So further increment was prevented by ause 11 even in respect of an operator appearing fore the Board and getting certificate for lower tegory. This means that unless he gets certificate om the Board for higher category, there would be o further increment. Clause 12 made it perfectly ear that the revised scale of wages superseded the ales of pay of the operators as recommended in c agreement of 1948, though there would be no duction of wages of the operators which existed on 1st September 1956.

The Company takes its stand not only on the reement of 1956, but also on the tripartite agreement of the 23rd August 1957 and the individual reements of the 29th August 1957. According to e case of the Union, the operators concerned gave bice of cancellation of the agreement of the 29th ugust 1957. Ext. 2 is the letter written by P.W. to the Manager of the Company in which it was ated on 12th March 1960 that if that agreement ood in the way, then it was to be treated as meelled. This statement in the letter does not the letter, dated 18th February 1961, by the Secretary of the Union to the Managing Director of the Company, it was stated that the said so-called agreement stood terminated with proper notice. This statement cannot also operate as a valid or proper notice of termination of agreement or agreements under section 19(2) of the lifdustrial Dispute Act, 1947. The Union criticises the agreement of 29th August 1957 to be an illegal and untair agreements and asserts that there is no legal or practical bar to terminate an unfair agreement. This was stated in the joint reply, dated 25th March 1960, from the operators to the Company. In that letter it was also stated that by the agreement of 23rd August 1957 and 29th August 1957, the Company modified the B.M.P.A.-B.M.P.E.U., recommendations and thereby the Company itself terminated the said recommendations of 1956. But I am unable to accept these views mentioned in these letters, and in course of arguments on behalf of the Union.

On 23rd August 1957, about one year after the agreement of 1956, the tripartite agreement (Ext. E) was reached. In clause 5(vii) of that tripartite agreement it was stipulated that the operators would not be entitled to any further increment until their grades were fixed by the Board to be appointed by B.M.P.A. as per B.M.P.A.-B.M.P.E.U. agreement, clauses 7 to 12. Thus by this clause the agreement of 1956 was ratified, not given a go-by. This particular stipulation finds mention in the individual agreements entered into six days later on 29th August 1957. The note portion of the agreement runs thus:

"Rate of annual increment, dearness allowance and ceiling pay will be determined according to clauses 7 to 12 of Annexure "A". The date of next increment if he becomes entitled to any, under the aforesaid clauses, will not be due in any case until 1st September 1958.

The employee shall not be entitled to any further increment unless he appears before the Board referred to in clause 7 of Annexure "A" and get himself classified".

In these individual agreements also the clauses 7 to 12 of the agreement of 1956 were referred to. It was clearly stipulated in the individual agreements (note portion) that the employee shall not be entitled to any increment unless he appeared before the Board referred to in clause 7 and got himself classified. Thus, by this stipulation in the individual agreement, further increment was stopped or barred unless the operators appeared before the Board for certificates. This note portion is challenged by the operators as being not genuine. The gist of the evidence of the operators who have deposed in this case is that though the note portion was in existence in the individual agreement before their signature, the Manager of the Company influenced them by wrongly interpreting the stipulation that unless they signed in the agreement they would not be granted two years' increments as per the recommendation of 1956 and that if they signed their names they would be granted increments for two years. It is said that on that footing and understanding they signed their names in the individual agreements. It is difficult to accept the contention that the operators did not properly understand the meaning and import of the particular stipulation, or that they were misguided or wrongly influenced in putting their signatures in the individual agreements. As a matter of fact, the particular stipulation was not a new thing. This was the very term in clause 5(vii) of the tripartite agreement of 23rd August 1957 (vide Lxt. E). It connot be said that the tripartite agreement is fraudulent or otherwise vitiated. That being so, I have every reason to believe that the operators really knew the meaning of the special term in the individual agreement, and on that understanding they put their signatures. So the individual agreement or the tripartite agreement of 1957 cannot be characterised as illegal or unfair in any way. That being so, the operators cannot legitimately claim further increment with effect from 1st September 1958 in view of the aforesaid terms read with the general terms of the agreement of 1956.

It transpired during the opening and hearing of the case that there was a fresh agreement in October 1961, some time after the present reference was made to this Tribunal. By that agreement (Ext. 3) some increments were allowed by the Company to two of the old operators and one new operator. The Company's witness, O.P.W. 1, says that the increments under the agreement of 1956 were not as annual increments, but as increments to bring the respective operators' salary to the level of the Governmental notification under the Minimum Wages Act, but subject to the stipulation that such increase would not exceed Rs. 12 a month whether it reached the said level or not. This witness admits that this Government notice was subsequently declated ultra vires by the Hon'ble High Court, and says that thereafter the Company refused to pay according to notification.

The operators who were fortunate to get the increment under the agreement of 1961 are P.W. 2 Raicharan Ghosh, and P.W. 3 Taraknath Saha. The other old operators were denied this increment under that particular agreement. The reason has been explained by O.P.W. 1 as stated above. The reason will also appear from the agreement itself. So it does not matter if the two old operators were granted increments and others were denied this benefit in terms of the agreement of 1961. Both P.W. 2 and P.W. 3 say that they have been getting this new increment since July or so of 1961, even without being required to appear for examination and certificates. In view of the fact that this special increment was granted not as regular inferement, but on account of Government notification under the Minimum Wages Act, it cannot be said that the non-appearance before the Board would entitle the operators to get usual annual increments as such.

It is also the Union's case that as a matter of fact no Board was formed, and the operators were not intimated of the formation of such a Board, so that the non-appearance before a non-existent Board is immaterial. This contention is not correct. The joint letter of the operators (Ext. G) to the Company's Manager on 2nd January 1959 was a reply to a notice from the Cecretary of the B.M.P.A. That notice admittedly was issued to the operators by the Secretary of the B.M.P.A. asking them to appear before the ad hoc Board. This shows that the Board was really formed about that time.

In that reply the operators intimated that they were not employees of B.M.P.A. and that they decided to opt not to appear in the proposed examination as it was thought unnecessary. Therefore it canno be said that the operators did not know about the formation of the Board. In terms of the agreement of 1956, the Board was to be constituted by B.M.P.A. and hence that formation of the Board by the B.M.P.A. was properly done. Of course the notice to appear before the Board did not come from the Company direct. But in view of the facts and circum. stances of the case that is not at all material. The operators were asked to appear before the Board, and they refused to do so, as aforesaid. Their refusal disentitles them to claim increments after August 1958 as of right, in view of what I have discussed and found above. It is a plea of the Union that all other similar companies are granting increments withour insisting on their workers appearance before the Board. The Union has put in a copy of a letter from the Assistant Labour Commissioner, dated 18th March 1960, to Messrs. Krishna Cinema (embodied to another copy of a letter vide Ext. 9). In that letter of the Assistant Labour Commissioner he wrote to say that it appeared from the agreement of 1956 that the operators' claim for annual increment was legitimate and that they should be paid the same with retrospective effect without further delay. In my view, this letter has no value, so far as the present case is concerned. The letter refers to the agreement of 1956 not to tripartite agreement of 1958 and it is not known whether there were individual agreements between the Krishna Cinema and its workmen, as in the present case. Besides, the interpretation of the Assistant Labour Commissioner is not to be taken as a guidance in determining the point at issue raised

In view of all the facts and circumstances an evidence, in the light of above observations, I fin that the claim of the operators is untenable and the are not entitled to the relief asked for. The issue i disposed of accordingly;

This is my award.

AWARD

By Order No. 7018-LR./IR/11L-394/59, dated 30th December 1959, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Edward Keventers Ltd., 1A Surendra Nath Banerjee Road, Calcutta-13, and their workmen represented by Edward Keventers Workers' Union, 51 Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta, regarding the matter specified in the schedule to the Third Industrial Tribunal, constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 808-LR./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

The reference relating to an industrial dispute based on Charter of Demands of the workmen submitted through their Union including their claim for profit bonus, existing between Messrs. Edward Keventers (Private) Ltd., 1A Surendra Nath Banerjee Road, Calcutta-13 (hereinafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Edward Workers' Union, 51 Keventers Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta (hereinafter referred to as the Union). On receipt of the reference from the the reference from the Government, notices as usual were promptly sent out for service upon the parties who duly entered appearance but the Union failed to file written statement on entering appearance. It did not take any step on two consecutive dates. Subsequently however, it filed written statement of claim. Thereafter the Company filed their statements. Thereafter both the parties filed affidavits and counteraffidavits regarding documents called for and to be relied upon. The Company raised a preliminary issue regarding the maintainability of the reference in respect of a number of issues raised in the reference other than issue No. 1 (Revision of wages). This preliminary objection, as it appears from the order-sheet of the case, was taken up for hearing by the then Learned Judge of this Tribunal at the desire of the parties. The case was heard, evidence was gone into and decision was given on the preliminary objection raised by the Company. The objection was negatived. After disposal of the preliminary issue, the Union's prayer for directing the Company to produce certain documents required for the purpose of adjudication on the subject of profit bonus for 1958 was taken up and the matter was hotly contested by the Company. However, appropriate directions were given to the Company for the production of certain material documents and books of accounts. The Company produced them a little late. However, the Union had opportunity for inspection of the documents coming from the custody of the Company. Both parties then filed their calculations more than one by each of them for the purpose of ascertaining available surplus to justify the claim for bonus.

The Union's case in the written statement is that the Company is a reputed private limited concern carrying on the manufacture of milk and dairy products. This is a prosperous and financially very sound concern. The workmen of the concern are to discharge heavy responsibility in supplying milk to the citizens of Calcutta but in comparison with their heavy responsibility they are not properly and adequately paid and their service conditions are very unsatisfactory. In the month of December 1953, the workmen had to compromise with the Company in the matter of adjudication of certain disputes. In the result there was the compromise award made by the Fifth Industrial Tribunal and it was published in the "Calcutta Gazette" on 31st of December 1953. Since the award, there have been circumstantial and material changes and as such, the workmen are entitled to revision of their wages and other amenities and accordingly they submitted a Charter of Demands through their Union on 9th October 1958, but the Company did not attend to their grievances and at the same time did not co-operate to have the matters amicably settled in spite of the intervention of the officers of the Labour Department and also of the Hon'ble Minister in charge of Labour. So the workmen resorted to a strike when at the intervention of the Assistant Labour Commissioner, there was an agreement arrived at on 26th November 1959. In terms of this Charter of Demands, the present reference has been

The Union has asked for fixation of as many as 8/9 grades scales of wages for the different categories of workers. It has asked for introduction of new leave rules in place of the existing ones on grounds of hardship. It has demanded introduction of gratuity scheme in addition to the Provident Fund already in existence. It has demanded higher rate of contribution by the Company. The Union's further case is that the workmen should be provided with tiffin allowance and the age of superannuation of the workers should be 60 years or 38 years of service, whichever is later. Union has further claimed two and half months' wages as bonus for the year 1958. It has also claimed reinstatement of a discharged workman, Delya Uraw. It has further claimed that the Fateabad Firm workers should be considered as industrial workers with equal benefits and amenities with other workers of the Company.

The Company has replied the Union's demands by stating that the Union is not entitled to a fresh adjudication in view of the fact that it has not terminated the previous compromise award of 1953 in accordance with law and that there has been no material change in the circumstances necessitating of the grades and scales of pay and revision justifying interference by the Tribunal. It is further stated that formerly the concern was under the management of some Europeans who before leaving India disposed of the concern leaving practically no cash assets or bank balance. The present management took over the concern in February 1949 and the Company could not completely settle down due to the unreasonable attitude of the workmen who always held out threats of strikes and they actually resorted to strikes to force their demands for increase of wages, etc. The Company, however, offered terms of settlement which the workmen found favourable and actually accepted the terms and accordingly there was a compromise award published in the "Calcutta Gazette" on 31st of December 1953 Not only there has been no termination of the said award but also it being a long term scheme, it should not be interfered with by the Tribunal unless it is established that there has since been material changes in the circumstances and that the Company has financial capacity to bear the burden of additional wage increase. The Company's financial position has deteriorated due to the fact that its bulk supply of milk to the hospitals and military authorities have been stopped since the Haringhata Dairy Firm came into existence in 1950. The Company has further stated that the existing wage scales compare favourably with those in other similar concerns. The Company has also challenged the other claims of the Union on similar grounds. It has stated that in absence of the trustees of the Provident Fund, no question can be taken up regarding Provident Fund Scheme and in view of the present financial position of the Company, no additional retiring benefit by way of gratuity can be introduced. Regarding the claim for bonus, the Company's case is that its financial year is from April to March, and not from January to December and as such, the claim for bonus for the year 1958 is inadmissible. However, the Company, in view of its favourable trading position for the year 1957-58, already paid one month's wages as bonus to all the employees and its financial position does not admit of any further claim on this head. The workmen are not entitled to any extra amount for tiflin allowance inasmuch as it is included in their wages. As regards the Union's claim that the workers of Fateabad Farm be treated as industrial workers, there would be no justification for them being treated as industrial workers. They are actually appecultural labourers and their wages have been amicably fixed very recently. On the point of dismissal of a workman, the Company's statement is that no such person was ever on the roll of the Company; there was no dismissal of any such person by the Company and as such the question of his reinstatement does not arise.

As already stated, at the desire of both parties, the preliminary point regarding maintainability of the present reference was separately taken up earlier and disposed of after hot contest. The point was answered in the negative. Then followed the hearing of the case on merits. The Union examined several witnesses and the Company examined one witness, but tendered into evidence various documents. Both parties also referred to and relied upon various decisions in support of their respective contentions

Admittedly, there have been adjudications in 1951 and in 1953 regarding the workers' demands. The Union has produced before the Tribunal the 195 award published in the "Calcutta Gazette", dated th 14th June 1951. The Company has produced th 14th June 1951. The Company has produced the other award published in the "Calcutta Gazette" dated the 31st December 1953, which is market Ext. I. It was a compromise award made by the Fiftl Industrial Tribunal. Subsequent to the publication of the award, some corrections were notified by the Government on the 28th of January 1954, Ext. It is the copy thereof. This compromise award was no terminated by the Union or by the Company by notice as required under the proviso of section 19(6 of the Industrial Disputes Act. Therefore, the contention of the Company is that without the termination of the compromise award of 1953 ir accordance with law, the workmen are not entitled. to further adjudication of their demands. It has been contended on behalf of the Company that there can be no automatic termination of award which has got to be terminated by notice under section 19(6) of the Act. This fact also is very clear from the section itself. There are also decisions in support of it, reported in 1958, Vol. II, L.L.J., page 403 and also in A.I.R. 1958, Rajasthan-34. In another case, reported in 13 F.J.R., page 352, it has been held that so long as a previous award is in force in respect of certain industrial disputes, their disputes cannot be referred afresh to the Industrial Tribunal by merely changing the phrasiology of the disputes and the Industrial Tribunal will have no jurisdiction to entertain the fresh reference in respect of these matters of disputes. In a decision of the Calcutta High Court reported in 1958, Vol. I, L.L.J. page 472, it has been held that the Industrial Disputes Act is based on principles of industrial harmony and its chief object is to maintain that harmony. It is quite m keeping with this object that a provision should be made maintaining a settlement as long as possible and until one or the other party expressly repudiates the same. In the present case admittedly, there has been no termination of the award either by the Union or by the Company by a notice in writing as required under section 19(6) of the Industrial Disputes Act. Therefore, the compromise award be taken to have remained in force till there has been express repudiation thereof by one party or the other. Sometimes after the above compromise award, the present Union issued a charter of demands, Ext. G, in 1959 and according to the Union this charter of demands did not receive proper consideration of the Company in spite of the intervention of the Labour Directorate and after the special attention of the Hon'ble Minister in-charge of Labour. So the workmen had no other alternative but to resort to a strike. During the strike, on the intervention of the Assistant Labour Commissioner, there was a tripartite agreement arrived at on 26th of November 1959, Ext. H is copy of the Memorandum of Settlement. This document hows that the workmen of the Company went on strike with effect from 8 p.m. on 24th November 1959 for fulfilment of their demands. It also appears from this document that both parties agreed to have the issue on revision of wages adjudicated. The Company also admits this fact in its written statement in paragraph 1(a). It follows, therefore, that both parties agreed to the present reference for adjudication. Section 10 of sub-section 2 of the Industrial Disputes Act makes provision for a similar reference on joint prayer of the parties. Of course, in the present case, the Company very forcefully contended that they having agreed to make reference a single issue on revision of wages only for findication, the Tribunal is not competent to enterin the other issues in absence of termination of the previous compromise award in accordance with law. This objection of the Company was previously misidered by Shri S. R. Ghosh, the then Judge of this Tribunal who rejected the Company's objection w his order, dated the 2nd September 1960. Thereore, this point cannot be reagitated over again. The Learned Judge was pleased to hold that all the even issues under reference are competent to be djudicated upon by this Tribunal to which the resent reference for adjudication of these issues have been made by the appropriate Government. Therefore, although there has been no proper ermination of the previous award in accordance with the provisions under section 19(6) of the ndustrial Disputes Act, yet it is not open to the company to challenge the present reference as a competent on that ground. The Company expressly greed to the present reference being made for djudication. They are accordingly stopped by their onduct to raise the plea that the present reference incompetent, without termination of the previous ompromise award by notice in writing under section 9(6) of the Industrial Disputes Act.

ssue No. 1: Revision of Wages

The Union claims revision of wages. Admittedly y previous adjudications and settlements between he parties, the scales of pay and grades were fixed. ut the Union's contention is that since the previous ward, there have been material changes in the preumstances to justify the revision of the scales of Auges asked for. The Company has denied this. It is now well settled that awards of Industrial Inbunals are intended to have long-term operation and are liable to be modified only by a material hange in the circumstances on which they were used (1957 Vol. I, L.L.J. 226). In another case, eported in 1958-59, Vol. XV, F.J.R. 338, it has een held that "where the scales of pay have been ixed by previous adjudication or agreement and ompares favourably with other concerns, unless here is a finding that since the previous award the ircumstances had so altered as to make the existing cales of pay and grades unreasonable or inadequate, w revision of scales will not be warranted." Thereore, to justify revision of the existing wage scales, ie Union has got to establish altered circumstances. is in evidence that the concern was originally nder the Management of Europeans who transferred in February 1949 to the present Management of idians. According to the Company, since the resent Management too over in 1949, the workmen ave been creating troubles regarding their demands nd frequently threatened the concern with strikes. he Company had to yield to the threats of the orkmen and shortly after they took over the lanagement of the concern, they had to yield to artain terms of settlement with the workmen, Ext. A the copy of the settlement, arrived at in December 949, by which the workmen of different categories ere given certain increments of wages and the rovident Fund contribution at 64 per cent. basis as allowed to continue. Thereafter came the award [ 1951 made by the Fifth Industrial Tribunal and ublished in the "Calcutta Gazette" on the 14th June 951. It appears from the award of 1951 that in lugust 1949 Edward Keventer Employees' Union ubmitted a charter of demands to the Company relating to pay, dearness allowance, bonus, Provident Fund, leave, etc. On the intervention of the Labour Directorate, there was a joint settlement reached on 6th December 1949. As a result of this agreement, some of the items in the said charter of demands were dropped and the agreement was to remain in force for one full year. On the contrary, however, to the terms of the settlement, the Union raised certain demands in Way 1950. The Union also went on launching vention of the Labour Directorate, the Union revised the charter of demands and dropped the idea of the strike. On 3rd July 1950 the Union submitted its revised charter of demands. The matter was again went in the hands of the Conciliation Officer who held several joint conferences but failed. So there was a reference which resulted in the award of 1951. Thereafter the workers again reagitated their demands and ultimately there was a reference made by the appropriate Government in November 1952. There was, however, a settlement arrived at between the parties and in terms thereof an award was made by the Fifth Industrial Tribunal which was published in the "Calcutta Gazette" on 31st December 1953. By the compromise award of 1953, there was a fresh fixation of scales of pay and grades in respect of different categories of workmen with the exception of sweepers and skilled workers. Their wage scales were left for being decided by the Company and by the workmen. Some other important issues decided in that reference are leave and holidays, Provident Fund, etc. As regards the circumstantial change since the award, the Union drew the attention of this Tribunal to the revision of pay scales effected in some other industries by the Third Major Engineering Tribunal in 1958 and Third Major Jute Textile Tribunal in 1955. Apart from those awards of the Major Tribunals made since after 1953, there is also the fact that the Company voluntarily agreed to the provisional increase of wages of the workmen as will appear from the agreement. Ext. H, dated 26th November 1959. Then again it is not disputed by the Company that they had gradually increased the prices of milk and milk products almost year after year. The Union has filed a chart, Ext. 2, to show how the prices are being gradually increased from the year 1956-57. In 1956-57, the price of milk was Re. 1 for 2 lb. and by gradual increase it became 1.24 nP. for 2 lb. in 1961. Similarly the prices of butter, cream, S. T. milk were gradually increased by the Company. Therefore, there have been change of circumstances since the year 1953 which fact cannot be questioned. It is also a common knowledge that prices of essential commodities have gone up considerably and the Government of West Bengal have also very recently revised the old pay scales of their officers and employees Therefore, there is enough indication to prove altered circumstances since the year 1953. So the circumstances having been changed since the award of 1952, there may be justification for revising the existing scale of pay and grades. But in fixing or revising the wage scales, the well known principles of fixation of grades of wages must not be lost sight of. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has laid down the principles of fixing the wage rates in the Express Newspaper's Case, reported in 1961 L.L.J., Vol. I, page 339:

"(1) That in fixing of rates of woges, the capacity of the industry to pay is one of the essential circumstances be taken into consideration, except in cases of bare

Issue No. 3: Retiring benefit and age

The same of the sa

It is admitted by Union's No. 1, Hafiz Khan, that there is a Provident Fund Scheme. There is of course documents to show that the Company adopted Provident Fund Scheme long ago. The document Ext. J is a letter addressed by the Company to the Assistant Labour Commissioner sometime in March 1952 by which information was furnished about the existence of the Provident Fund Scheme along with some other amenities. This letter shows that the Company adopted a Provident Fund Scheme according to which the Company contributes 61 per cent, of the total wages of the workers in accordance with the scheme framed under section 5 of the Employees' Provident Fund Act, 1952. There is also an agreement, Ext. A, to show its existence even from earlier date. It appears from the compromise award which was given in 1953, Exts. I, I(1), that some terms were settled between the Company and the workmen represented by their Union in respect of the Provident Fund. It was one of the terms that 50 per cent. of the trustees will be nominated from the subscriber-employees. The trustees are not parties to the present reference of the dispute. In the absence of the trustees it will not be possible for this Tribunal to effect any change of the rules of the Provident Fund. In that case technical and legal difficulties may arise, in support of which reliance may be placed upon the decisions of the Labour Appellate Tribunal reported in 1952, Vol. I, L.L.I., 631 and of the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court reported in 1961, Vol. II, L.L.J., 653. Therefore the Union's prayer on this point is rejected.

Gratuity

The Union's demand in the written statement is that gratuity should be paid to all the workmen at the rate of one month for every year of service. The only evidence on this point is that of P.W. 2 Shri Kanai Lal Chakraborty, the Bill Clerk of the Company, who has simply produced a Model Gratuity Scheme, Ext. 1. But he does not say if any gratuity scheme is in existence in any other concern dealing in identical trade. Nor there is any evidence to show that this scheme is usual with any similar business concern in the region. The Company has seriously epposed introduction of any gratuity scheme by way of additional retiring benefit in view of its financial position. It has already been found from the evidence of the workmen that admittedly there are similar industries in the same region. But there is no evidence to show any gratuity scheme has been adopted in any similar concern located in the same region. It is well settled that in settling the gratuity scheme, it is desirable that there should be made industry-cum-region approach. It was further observed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in 1960, Vol. II, L.L.J. 21, that what is true about wages is equally true about the gratuity scheme. But in the instant case, there is no iota of evidence to show if any gratuity scheme is at all in existence in any similar concern in the region. In absence of any evidence on this point, it will be unsafe to introduce any scheme of gratuity in the solitary concern of this kind although admittedly there are many similar concerns in the region. If this scheme is introduced in one concern only, out of so many, then it may give rise to industrial unrest and inequality of competitive condition. There will be discontenment and dissatisfaction among the employees of other similar concerns in the region. Therefore on that ground, I reject the Union's demand. Then again there is another ground for rejection of this prayer of the Union. This ground is the financial position of the present business which is a very important consideration and must not be overlooked. Unless the financial condition of the employer is satisfactory, the burden of a gratuity scheme, which is a long-term operation, must not be saddled upon the employer. Regard being had to the present financial position of the employer, and also having regard to the additional burden the Company will have to bear on account of refixation of the wage scale, I am of opinion that the present time is inopportune for introduction of a gratuity scheme. So I reject this prayer as well of the Union.

Retiring benefit and age

This demand of the Union was not included in the charter of demands, Ext. G. In the written statement, the Union demanded that the retiring age of the workmen should be either 60 years or 38 years of service whichever is later. The Company's Standing Orders, Ext. K, shows that the age of retirement of a worker shall be 55 years but the Company, at its discretion and in suitable cases, may extend the same. So the Company has made provision for extension but depending at its discretion. In any case, the Company has made provision for extension of service but without fixing its limit. There should be clear provision for extension of service as proposed by the Company and provided for in the Standing Orders, Ext. K. The Standing Orders itself do not show nor there is any evidence to show when the coxisting Standing Orders of the Company came into force. This much is clear that the Standing Orders adopted after 1946 and according to D.W. 2, Shring orders and the standing Orders adopted after 1946 and according to D.W. 2, Shring orders and the standing orders and the standing orders and the standing orders are standing orders. Sailendra Sekhar Sengupta, the Standing Orders were certified by the appropriate authority. But there is no indication in the document itself, this is, Ext. K, of certification by the appropriate authority. Be that as it may, I would like to make a clear provision regarding extension of service beyond the age of 55 years. Normally, the age of retirement is fixed at 55 years but the Company must not compel a workman to retire at the age of 55, unless he is found physically unfit to carry on his duties any further. The Company can reap the benefit of his experience arising out of long service by retaining him in service up to the age of 58 years unless he is in the meantime found otherwise unfit and undesirable or it becomes unprofitable to retain him in service any further. Accordingly I dispose of this issue.

Issue No. 5: Tiffin allowance

The Union has demanded in the written statement tiffin allowance at the rate of Re. I per day for all the workmen. But none of the workmen who gave evidence before the Tribunal has pressed for tiffin allowance. Moreover, this claim was not included in the Charter of Demands, Ext. G, submitted by the Union. Absence of the workers' claim for tiffin allowance from the Charter of Demands submitted by the Union is very significant. The Charter of Demands, Ext. G, was submitted sometimes after the 1953 award, Exts. I, I(1), based on compromise arrived at between the Company and its workmen represented by their Union. The award shows that the wages mean pay and dearness allowances including all allowances. Therefore, the workmen and their Union knew very well what was the agreement they had with the Company in terms whereof there was the award of 1953 at the time of submission of their Charter of Demands sometime after the said award. But in the present reference the Jaim was introduced. It is a belated claim and there is hardly, any justification for any tiffin allowance in view of the fact that in 1953 the workmen agreed to the wage scales which was inclusive of dearness allowance and all other allowances. On the same basis the present wage scale has been fixed in revision. Therefore, this claim of the Union is ejected.

Issue No. 6: Whether the Fateabad Farm workers should be considered as industrial workers and whether they are entitled to same benefits like other workers of the Company.

The Union has demanded in the written statement hat Fateabad Farm workers should be considered is industrial workers and as such they should get ill the benefits available to the other workers of the Company. According to the Union, the workers of he said Farm are vitally associated with the business if the Company. The Company's contention is but those workers are agricultural labourers and as uch their case should not be considered in this adjudication. The Company's further contention is that the workers of the Fateabad Farm are being adequately paid in terms of an agreement recently arrived at between the Company and the Union. According to the Company, the labourers of that Farm are not entitled to all the benefits available to the other workers of the Company employed at falcutta, at Cossipore and that Farm is treated as separate unit. But this is hardly true. The Commay has not produced documents and registers to support that it is a distinct and separate unit. On the contrary, there are enough materials to show that the Company has not treated this Farm as a separate unit but this unit and the Calcutta units have been kept integrated. The Company has practically admitted their claim for being treated as equal with the other workers. The workers of the Fateabad Farm have already been made permanent, vide Ext. H/1 and some of the benefits mjoyed by other workers of the Company have already been made available to them, as well appear from the document, Ext. H. They have been given the leave facilities as are available to Deliverymen and they have also been given the Provident Fund lacilities like the other workmen of the Company. The Union has not given any evidence as to the number of workers of their Farm and the nature of their jobs. This much will appear from the document, Ext. H/I, that there are 12 labourers in that farm who all have been made permanent by agreement. It also appears from the Memorandum of Settlement, Ext. H, that there are three more workmen, viz., two Clerks and one Tractor Driver. P.W. 4, Shri Mulchand Mandal, is the only workman of Fateabad Farm who gave evidence before this Tribunal. It is clear from his evidence that he is an agricultural labourer and he earns daily wage at the rate of Rs. 1-12 as per day. He does not say how many workers are there in that Farm. Therefore, all what is available from the documents, Exts. H and H/l, that there are 12 labourers and two Clerks and one Tractor Driver. I have already observed that there is evidence to show that the Fateabad Farm is not a distinct and separate unit but a subsidiary unit of the Company's business and the Company has not produced any paper to show that this unit has been kept separate. On the contrary, the balance-sheets of the Company will show that the Calcutta units and this particular unit have been kept integrated. There exists functional inter-dependence between the Fateabad. Unit and other units in Calcutta. Therefore the workmen of this Farm are entitled to be treated equally with the workers of the other units of the Company and entitled to the benefits in accordance with law.

Before parting with this issue, I must point out that as regards the wages of the 12 agricultural labourers in the employ of the Company in this Farm they are being paid at daily rates of wages fixed by an agreement as admitted by P.W. 4, Shri Mulchand Mandal. These workmen are employed for the purpose of producing sobul grass and hapter grass and paddy. These items are used as fodder for the milch cows maintained by gowallas who supply milk to the Company. They are agricultural labourers and it will appear from the Government Notification published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of 27th of June 1959, Ext. 11(2), that the Government has prescribed minimum daily rates of wages for employees employed in agricultural operations in different zones, in accordance with the provisions of the Minimum Wage Act, 1948. The Fateabad Farm near Barasat is within Zone C for which the minimum daily rates and wages is Rs. 162 nP. Certificate of Registration, Ext. D, will show that Fateabad Farm is in Barasat (24-Parganas). It is admitted by P.W. 4, who is a worker of the Fateabad Farm, that the daily rate has been fixed by agreement at Rs. 1-12 as. (that is, Rs. 1.75 nP.) per day. Therefore, there is hardly any scope for interference with the existing wage rates of the agricultural labourers employed in the Fateabad Farm of the Company. Accordingly I dispose of this issue.

Issue No. 7: Whether the dismissal of Dalya Uraw is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

The Union's case in the written statement is that one workman of the Company, namely, Dalya Uraw, was wrongfully removed from the service by the Company in violation of the principle of natural justice. The Union pleaded for his reinstatement.

The Company denied the allegations. According to the Company there was no dismissal of any workman of that name. The onus lev heavily upon the Union to prove their allegations but the Union has failed miserably. No evidence has been adduced by the Union on this issue. The Union completely failed to nicet the Company's challenge that there was no such instance of dismissal of any such workman in the name of Dalya Uraw. The Union could not adduce any evidence on this point and at long last only at the hearing abandoned this issue. Therefore, this issue was not pressed by the Union almost at the close of the case.

Issue No. 4: Bonus for 1958

Some confusion was created as to the claim for bonus for 1958. Admittedly, the Company's business runs from April of a year and concludes with the month of March of the following year. The issue as framed in the order of reference relates to the Union's claim for bonus for 1958. Thereupon the Company's contention is that the issue, as framed, contemplates the financial year from January to December but that not being the case with the present concern, no adjudication in respect of bonus can be made. Some solution was in sight when both parties agreed that for all practical purposes the claim was for the year 1957-58. Accordingly both parties produced their calculations of net surplus for the year 1957-58 according to the formula laid down by the Full Bench of the Labour Appellate Tribunal.

This is a claim for bonus. What is bonus?

Bonus is cash payment made in addition to wages as a stimulus to extra work and efficiency by the labour. But to enable the labourer to earn the bonus the following conditions are laid down in the case of Muir Mills Co. Ltd. reported in 1955, Vol. I, L.L.J., page 1:

(1) When wages fall short of the living standard, and (2) when industry makes huge profits, parts of which are due to the contribution which the workmen make in increasing production.

The same view finds support in the later decisions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court reported in 1960, Vol. II, L.L.J., p. 21 and 1961, Vol. II, L.L.J., p. 431. Bonus comes out of profits and can claim no priority over dividend or other prior charges, bonus is paid it after meeting prior charges there is an available surplus. It has been held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in a case reported in 1961 L.L.J., Vol. I, p. 521 that Full Bench Formula provided for arriving at the available surplus after meeting prior charges, viz.:

- (i) Depreciation,
- (ii) Taxes.
- (in) Return on paid up capital,
- (iv) Return on working capital, and
- (v) Rehabilitation.

The formula further dealt with the claim for bonus on the basis that the relevant year is a self-sufficient unit and appropriate accounts have to be made in respect of the said year. Finally, it was pointed that it was only after all the prior charges had thus been determined and deducted from the gross profits that the available surplus could be ascertained for payment of bonus and that when the available surplus had been ascertained there were three parties entitled to claim shares therein, namely:

- (i) Labourers' claim for bonus,
- (ii) Industries' claim for the purpose of expansion and other needs; and
- (iii) The shareholders' claim for additional return on the capital invested by them; the ratio would necessarily depend on several factors.

It would thus be clear that the essential concept of profit bonus is that there will be an available surplus determined according to the principles laid down in the cases mentioned above for distribution. If there is no such available surplus for distribution, there can be no case for payment of profit bonus. This is industrial law as laid down by the Supreme Court with respect to profit bonus in Associated Cement Company's case, reported in 1951, Vol. I, L.L.J., page 644.

In a claim for bonus the onus is always upon workmen to make out a case for bonus, that they must show that after making the prior and o necessary charges and payment of the dividend the paid up capital and the reserves, employed working capital, sufficient surplus is left, out which bonus can be paid (1953 Vol. II, L.L.J., 8 It has also been held in that case that the charges on gross profits is the amount of money would be necessary for rehabilitation and replement of the machinery, according to the Full Be Formula.

In this case, the Union claims in its written stament profit bonus equivalent to two and I months' wages for all the workmen for the y 1957-58. The contention of the Company is that consideration of the favourable trading result for year 1957-58, the Company has already paid bor equivalent to one month's wages to all the employ although, by applying the Full Bench Formula, workmen should not be entitled to any such bonu

The Union has not denied the Company's payme of bonus, equivalent to one month's wages, to the employees just before the Puja. I have alrea observed that both parties have produced the respective calculations of available surplus according to the Full Bench Formula. The Union could i stick to one calculation but filed several. Natura the Company tried to meet the different calculation tiled by the Union. The Company has also producthe balance-sheets of the relevant year, 1957-58 a of two other years, that is, of the years immediate before and immediately after the relevant year. Company's calculations have been Exts. L and L The amount of profits for the year 1957-58 as take from the Profit and Loss Account and shown in 1 Company's calculations is Rs 1.30 lakh. To this total the Company has added the amount representathe bonus paid in the year for the previous ye, that is Rs. 15 lakhs depreciation for the ye 24 lakhs. That is the total gross profits water to the Rs. 1.42 lakhs. As to the amount profit for the relevant year amounting to Rs. 1 lakhs, there is no difference in the Union calculations also, which was filed on 7th September 1961 But in another calculation, submitted by th Union at a late stage of the case, shows som difference due to the fact that the Union ha altogether omitted existence of the administration ( the Company's head office at 1A Surendra Nat Banerjee Road. But this, in my view, cannot b done. The documents, Exts. C and D, will clearly show that the Company is a registered firm located in premises No. 1A, Surendra Nath Banerjee Road The present reference itself also supports this fact There are also the previous awards of 1951 and 1973 which will corroborate the same fact. Therefore, I find no justification for taking the incomes of the two units only and excluding altogether the expenditures of the head office. The Union itself accepted this position in the calculations submitted on 7th September 1961. The Union has added a few more items of expenditure besides the admitted amounts of depreciation and of bonus paid for the previous year. There is a small amount of charity which ought to have been added to the gross profit. The amount is Rs. 270 only. As regards the legal expenses amounting to Rs. 2,849.00, the Union wanted that this should be added to the gross profit but this contention of the Union cannot prevail because legal charges incurred by the Company are a permissible item of expenditure as was held by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in Muir Mill's case (1955, Vol. 11, L.L.J. 29). The Union added to the gross profits a small amount of Rs. 254 representing bad But this item of expenditure also cannot be added back in view of the decision reported in 1961, Nol. I, L.L.J., p. 415. The Union in its calculation added two other amounts of Rs. 28,971.26 and Rs. 4,950.49 representing repairs and repairs to buildings respectively. But these amounts the Company had to expend in course of the business for repairing the firm buildings and for other repairs. The Union itself was in doubt whether this should be excluded or not. In one of its calculation filed on 7th September 1961 these two items of expenditures were excluded but in the last calculation they were included without assigning reasons therefor. There is nothing to support inclusion of these two items of expenditure. Then again, the Union added the Directors' remuneration and sitting ices, etc., in one calculation but they were omitted from the latest calculations. The Company has not added these amounts and that has been rightly omitted by the Company. It has already been held that Managing Agents would be entitled to commission in accordance with their contract vide 1952 Vol. I, L.L.J., page 518. There is evidence in this case to show that there is contract for payment of remuneration to the Directors. Such provisions have been made in the Articles of Association, Ext. E. Therefore, no valid objection can be taken to the exclusion of the amount of remuneration paid to the Directors. Then again, the Union in the latest calculation added a sum of Rs. 20,000 and odd spent on account of cultivation charges. But this amount was not added in the earlier calculations filed by the Union on 7th September 1961. However, the Union knew well that this amount would not be added back. Really speaking, it was an expenditure for cultivation which ultimately contributed to the profit of the Company. Therefore, how this amount be added for the purpose of determining gross profit? This amount, in my view, should also be excluded. The Union has lastly added another amount of Rs. 9,750, representing loss on livestock. The Company previously used to maintain livestock. But subsequently the Company abandoned in view of frequent losses sustained due to cattle deaths. There is no evidence before this Tribunal to show whether the Company treated the cattle as its capital goods and whether provisions made therefor in the Epreciation fund. Be that as it may, even assuming that this amount be added back, there will be no appreciably favourable position for the Union. There is no dispute as to the amount in the depreciation fund. After deducting that amount from the gross profit, the balance has found to be about Rs. 1.18 lakhs or little more which amount be reduced by the National Income Tax at the rate of annas 8 per tupee. There will be further deduction of the amount by allowing six per cent. interest on the paid up capital of Rs. 12,47,000. There is also no dispute as to this amount. Then again, there is also no dispute as to the amount of return on the Reserves used as working capital calculated at the rate of two per cent. This amount is Rs. 7,000 as admitted by the Union in its latest calculation filed on 19th December 1961. After deducting these admitted amounts from the gross profit, it will be found that no surplus profit is left for distribution as bonus. There still remains another very important item for deduction from the gross profits and that is the charges for rehabilitation of machinery and firm buildings which is undoubtedly the first charge on the gross profits. The Company's statement, Ext. L/1, shows that this amount will be Rs. 34 lakhs. According to the Union, total amount of this head will be Rs. 5,000 only. To arrive at this figure, the Union has taken 100 years as the average life of the firm buildings and 50 years as the average life of the machineries. There is absurdity in this calculation of the Union and as such I reject it. The Union has not adduced any evidence on this point. The Company has taken 30 years as the average life. of the buildings and 15 years as the average life of the machineries. As regards the multipliers, the Company has adopted 2.5 in case of buildings and three in case of machineries and electric fittings, etc. The Company appears not far too wrong in determining the charges for rehabilitation on machinery and building. There is some support as regards the average life in the decision reported in 1952, Vol. I, L.L.J. at pages 520 and 521. Of course, I must point out that no evidence was placed by either side on this particular point. However, the accuracy of the amount of rehabilitation charges will not be very material in the facts and circumstances of the present case, specially when it has already been found that no surplus profit is available after deduction of some of the admitted prior charges from the gross profits. Therefore the workers are not entitled to any profit bonus for the year 1957-58.

This is my award.

JITENDRA NATH MANDAL, Judge, Third Industrial Futural.

The 25th May 1962.

By order of the Governor,
S. C. MUKHERJEE,
Asst. Secy. to the Govt. of West Bengal.

No. 1386-LR./IR.10L-38/61. 18th April 1962. Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 987 LR./IR 10L-38/61, dated the 28th Educary 1961 read with its corrigendum No. 1014-LR./IR/10L-38/61, dated the 1st March 1961, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Universal Engineering Industries, 3 Jahura Bazar Lane, Calcutta-42, and their workmen represented by Universal Engineering Industries Mazdoor Union, 48 Dharamtalla Street, Calcutta-13, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order being matter, specified in the second and the third schedules to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Fourth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Universal Engineering Industries, 3 Jahura Bazar Lane, Calcutta-42, and their workmen represented by Universal Engineering Industries Mazdoor Union, 48 Dharamtala Street, Calcutta-13. (Government order No. 987-IR/IR/10L-38/61, dated 28th February 1961, VIII-85/61.)

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri K. K. Mitra, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Sankar Roy Chowdhurv.

For the Company: Shri K. P. Mukherjee, Advocate.

The Government of West Bengal, by order No. 987-IR, dated 28th February 1961, referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. Universal Engineering Industries (hereinafter referred to as the Company), 3 Jahura Bazar Lane, Calcutta-42, and the workmen represented by Universal Engineering Industries Mazdoor Union (hereinafter referred to as the Union), 48 Dharamtala Street, Calcutta-13, to this Tribunal for adjudication. By a corrigendum issued by the Government on the 1st March 1961, certain mistakes in the order, of reference were rectified.

The issues as framed in the order of reference are as follows:

Issues

- (1) Whether the refusal of employment to the following workmen is justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?
- (i) Shri Gorachand Adhikari.
- (ii) Shri Rambaran Pande.

- (vii) Shri Haripada Saha.
- (viii) Sm. Sandhyarani Pal.
- (2) Casual Leave.
- (3) Minimum Wages.
- (4) Bonus for 1958-59.

AWARD

Upon receipt of the order of reference, notices were issued upon the parties for appearance and for filing written statements.

The workmen represented by the Union filed the written statement on 24th April 1961. According to the case made out by the Union, it appears that the Union of the workmen was formed on 10th Octob 1960. It is alleged that the employer with a vie to crush the activities of the Union suddenly refusito employ four important union workers, vi. (i) Gobardhan Bhandari, (ii) Sk. Arphan A (iii) Haripada Saha, and (iv) Sm. Sandhyarani Pat Amongst these four workmen, Sm. Sandhyarani Pat according to the version of the company, has bee charge-sheeted though, as a matter of fact, sl received no charge-sheet. On account of the legit mate Trade Union activities on the pa of the aforesaid Union which made complain regarding the grievances of the workmen to th various authorities on different dates as stated in th written statement, the company started penalising th trade union leaders and for that refused to pa salaries of two workman, viz., Shri Gorachand Adh kari and Shri Rambaran Pandey. For such nor payment of wages the Union wrote to the Inspecto of Factories on 12th December 1960 and after the on 16th December 1960 the company refused t employ Shri Adhikari and Shri Pandey. The nex step taken by the management was directed agains Shri Nirmal Bhowmic who was charge-sheeted or 6th January 1961. The company called Shri Bhowmi to be present at the enquiry which duly attended At the enquiry Shri Bhowmic was given no oppor tunity to be heard. Thereafter on 3rd February 196 the company charge-sheeted Sm. Hasi Bhowmic Besides, the Union in the written statement placed their case regarding the other three isues which were involved in this adjudication proceedings.

Thereafter the company filed the written state ment on 24th July 1961. It is contended by the com pany that Gobardhan Bhandari, Sk. Arfan Ali and Haripada Saha were employed by the contractor and that the company had no connection by relationship of master and servant with respect to these three persons. Regarding Sandhyarani Paul it is stated that she had been charge-sheeted on 1st November 1960 for an act of misconduct, and that she refused to accept the charge-sheet which was personally offered to her. For that a copy of the charge-sheet was put up on the notice board and another outside the factory gate. Again on 12th November 1960 when the copy of the aforesaid charge-sheet was offered to her, she refused to accept the same. Thereafter the company sent a copy of the charge-sheet by registered post to her correct address on 21st November 1960 which was returned with the remark as "not known". Subsequently, letters written to Sm. Paul on 17th December 1960 and 2nd December 1960 were also returned back by the postal authorities with the remark "Refused". In the circumstances, the company was compelled to hold an enquiry on the 8th December 1960, in her absence and after finding the guilt proved decided to dismiss her and wrote to that effect to Sm. Paul about the fact of dismissal by a letter dated 17th December 1960. After that the company duly applied under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act to the Conciliation Officer to approve the action.

Regarding Gorachand Adhikari, it is stated that the said workman was absent without leave or permission since 1st November 1960 and at his request his dues were paid on 10th December 1960. Regarding Rambaran Pande, it is stated that he also remained absent in a similar manner from 18th october 1960 and that he took all his dues on 12th becember 1960 as he was not interested to work any nore on account of his ill health and he intended to go to his native place. As for Nirmal Bhowmic it is alleged that the company received oral and written complaints that he was in the habit of behaving in indecent manner with the female workers and the girl trainees within the factory and outside. The company had to warn the said worker for such conduct, but he did not rectify his manners. then, when other complaints were received, the company issued charge-sheet on 29th November 1960 which he refused to accept. The company then cent the charge-sheet per registered post and Shri Bhownic gave explanation which was ronsidered unsatisfactory and the workman was suspended pending enquiry from the 6th January 1961. Proper enquiry was done on 1st February 1961, on conclusion of which the management found he charge established and dismissed the workman. Regarding Sm. Hasi Bhowmic who is the sister of Nirmal Bhowmic, it is contended that she was harge-sheeted on 3rd February 1961 but that no lepartmental enquiry could be done by the employer is the Conciliation Officer directed the company to naintain status quo. The company subsequently neld an enquiry in September 1961, and came to a inding as the guilt of Sm. Bhowmic.

The case came up for hearing before me on 9th March 1962 when parties adduced evidence. It is admitted by both the parties that the industry has been closed for good from 30th September 1961. There cannot therefore arise any question of deciding the issues relating to fixation of minimum wages and casual leave. The Union further conceded that they do not press the demands for bonus for 1958-59 which is Issue No. 4. The position therefore is that only Issue No. 1 is still a live issue and needs adjudication by the Tribunal. It may be noted that among the eight workmen involved in this dispute the Union did not examine four of them, viz., (i) Rambaran Pande, (ii) Gobardhan Bhandari, (iii) Arfan Ali, and (iv) Haripada Saha.

Let me first of all take up the case of Gobardhan Bhandari, Arfan Ali and Haripada Saha, together.

The case of the company with respect to Gobar-than Bhandari, Arfan Ali and Haripada Saha, is that her were the labourers engaged by the contractor with whom the company was not connected with any elationship as master and servant. The Union does not challenge the assertion of the company. The carned representative of the Union conceded at the ime of argument that he does not press that case is he cannot in the circumstances claim any relief with respect to these three persons. I find that these hree persons are not workmen and, therefore, the fribunal has no jurisdiction to entertain their case.

So far as Rambaran Pande is concerned, the lefinite case of the company is that he was absent from duties without leave or permission with effect from 18th October 1960, and subsequently on 13th December 1960 he left the concern after taking full payment of his dues in final settlement of his claim. The company produced a stamped receipt. Ext. A(1) showing payment of Rs. 52 to Shri Pande on 13th December 1960. It appears that the amount was paid on account of his dues for leave with wages for 26 days at the rate of Rs. 2 per day in tull and final settlement of his dues. The company's version is substantially established from the recital of Ext. A(1), and I take it that the workman concerned volun tarily left the employment and that he cannot have grievance whatsoever against the employer.

Now I take up for consideration the case of other four workmen one by one.

Gorachand Adhikari: The case of the company is that Shri Adhikari remained absent without leave or permission since 1st November 1960. After that on 10th December 1960 Shri Adhikari asked for payment of his outstanding dues and he was paid wages for the earned leave at his credit which was the only dues in his favour. The company produced the receipt dated 10th December 1960 showing the payment of Rs. 48 to Gorachand Adhikari. P.W. 1, Shri Adhikari admitted the payment as shown in the receipt which is marked as Ext. A. He further admits that he received his wages for the month of October on the 7th or 8th November. The company produced the Wages Registrar and Shri Adhikari admitted his signature on the stamped receipt showing the payment of wages for the month of October (vide Ext. B). The company also produced the Attendance Register from 1957 to 1961 [Ext. N and Ext. N(1)]. It appears from the Attendance Register that Shri Adhikari was absent throughout the month of November. The registers appear to be kept in the regular course of business and I accept the entries made therein as genuine. The position therefore is that Shri Adhikari was absent through-out the month of November without leave or permission, and that his allegation that he was present during the month of November is not correct. There is no explanation forthcoming from the workman as to why he took the wages due on account of earned leave and gave a receipt in full and final settlement on 10th December 1960 unless he wanted to sever connection with the concern. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case I am inclined to accept the version of the employer that there was no initiative taken by the company in refusing employment to Shri Adhikari and that he voluntarily left the services after remaining absent for along period. He is thus found not entitled to get any relief.

Sm. Sandhyarani Paul: It appears evidence of O.P.W. 1, Sm. Rekha Bhaduri, Supervisor of the Company, that she made a complaint to the Manager on 31st October 1960 stating therein that Sm. Sandhyarani Paul was loitering in the factory and was not doing the allotted work as it was not to her liking. Ext. E is the letter of complaint by Sm. Bhaduri. On the basis of this complaint the said worker Sm. Paul was charge-sheeted by the factory Manager on 1st November 1960. Sm. Bhaduri stated before me that Sm. Paul refused to accept the charge-sheet which was handed over to her by her. There is an endorsement to that effect in the chargesheet, Ext. H. The Management kept the workman Sm. Paul under suspension. It appears that the Union made a complaint to Shri N. C. Kundu, the Assistant Labour Commissioner, on 3rd November 1960 stating therein that Sm. Paul was being refused employment (vide Ext. 4). Naturally, the Union came to know about the action taken by the management against Sm. Paul by that time. P.W. 4 Sm. Paul however stated that she did not know about the move of the Union with respect to her matter. At the same time she did not ask the company as to why she was being refused employment. I am inclined to hold from the facts and circumstances that Sm. Paul knew about the charge drawn up against her and she deliberately refused to accept the charge-sheet. It however appears from the evidence of Sni. Paul that in spite of the order of suspension and the issue of the charge-sheet she used to go to the factory. Sm. Paul according to the management refused to accept the charge-sheet on 12th November 1960 when the same was again delivered to her personally. Sm. Paul admitted the document, Ext. F, which is a form prescribed under the Employees' State Insurance Act wherein the address of the workman is given. It appears that the management then sent as per registered post at the correct address of Sm. Paul a copy of the chargesheet on 21st November 1960, and the same was returned undelivered with a remark as "not known" [vide Ext. [(3)]. Sm. Paul admitted in cross-examination that letter written by her relatives had been received by her at the same Madhyamgram address. It seems therefore curious how the registered letter could be returned as "not known" that as it is, the company thereafter sent a letter, Ext. J(4), as per registered post on 21st December 1960 including therein a copy of the charge-sheet, intimating Sm. Paul that a departmental enquiry would be held on 8th December 1960 at 1 p.m. by Shri L. R. Jhawar. The said letter was also returned with a note as "not known". I am satisfied from the evidence that the management took ail steps to make Sm. Paul acquainted with the charge and sho knew about it and she deliberately refused to accept the charge-sheet and that she knew about the letter in which proper intimation was given about the date of departmental enquiry. Naturally Snr. Paul did not attend the enquiry at her own risk. In the circumstances the management held a departmental enquiry in the absence of Sm. Paul on 8th December 1960. The departmental enquiry was held by Shri Jhawar, O.P.W. 3. The company filed the entire enquiry proceedings together with the report of the enquiry submitted by Shri Jhawar on 15th December 1960 (vide Ext. K). It is clear from the enquiry proceedings that the management proceeded bona fide and that the enquiry was held properly with due regards to the principles of natural justice. Besides, after the conclusion of the enquiry when the management dismissed Sm. Paul, a registered letter was sent to her on 17th December 1960 wherein the decision of the dismissal was communicated to her [vide Exts. [(6) and [(7)]. The said letter was returned unserved with the endorsement 'refused'. The company in terms of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act sent one month's wages and other dues to Sm. Paul by postal money order [vide Fxts. ] and J(1)]. The only irregularity in the order of dismissal is that the employer dismissed Sm. Paul from the date of suspension, i.e., 1st November 1960. An order of dismissal cannot be passed with retrospeceffect. In the circumstances, I direct that Sm. Sandhya Rani Paul be paid wages from 1st November 1960 to 17th December 1960 and that the order of dismissal passed on 17th December 1960 should take effect from that date. This is the only relief which the worker is entitled to have in the facts and circumstances of the case. The refusal of employment of the workman by the employer ari from a decision as to dismissal taken against workman stands.

Shri Nirmal Bhowmick: The said workman been charge-sheeted on 29th November 1960 on allegation of insubordination on his part when refused to accept an order dated 31st October 1 given to him. Ext. L(6), is the charge-sheet da 29th November 1960 which was sent as per registe post and it appears to have been received by Bhowmick on 2nd December 1960. The facts con tuting the offence as to insubordination is mentio in the charge-sheet. The case of the managemen that complaints had been received against this we man that he was in the habit of behaving in objectionable manner with the female workers of t concern and that is why the warning let Ext. H(1), dated 31st October 1960, was issued. 1 company produced letters written by Sm. Runu D Sm. Manju Mukherjee, Sm. Bina Datta, on varidates in the months of October 1960 [vide Exts I(L(1), L(2), L(3) and L(4)]. These letters written different female workers contain details of the acof misbehaviour on the part of Shri Bhowmick, also appears that Sm. Rekha Bhaduri, the Supervis of the Company, made a complaint to the Manag on 23rd July 1960 that Shri Bhowmick was behavi in indecent manner with the female workers (vi-Ext. 1). P.W. 2, Shri Bhowmick admitted that female worker made a complaint against him to t management. It also appears that only three da after Sm. Bhaduri made the complaint, Shri Bhov mick expressed regret and prayed for being excuse (vide Ext. C, dated 26th July 1960). Shri Bhowmic however stated that he wrote the letter, Ext. ( under the threat of the management. There is a dispute on the point that there were a number of young female workers in this concern. The versio of Shri Bhowmick is that he incurred the displeasur of the management as he used to collect subscriptio from the workers does not appear to be true. Quit a number of workers are members of the Executiv Committee of the Union and no action was taken by the company against them. The letters produced by the company go to show that the female workers made complaints of misbehaviour against Shi Bhowmick. In this situation the management decided to warn Shri Bhowmick and for that issued a letter, dated 31st October 1960. It appears from the endorsement made by Sm. Bhaduri in the letter of warning that Shri Bhowmick refused to accept the letter on 1st November 1960, and also for the second time on 2nd November 1960. It appears that the management again tried to serve the notice of warning upon Shri Bhowmick and Shri Bhowmick refused to accept the same. For such systematic refusal on the part of Shri Bhowmick to accept the letter of warning, the management charge-sheeted him on 29th November 1960 and again on 8th December 1960. Shri Bhowmick submitted an explanation on 2nd December 1960 denying the charge (vide Ext. D). In the explanation Shri Bhowmick stated that he wanted that the charge should be written in Bengali and that it should be sent by post. The letter was admittedly sent by registered post. On 5th December 1960 Shri Bhowmick wrote to the management denving the charge and stating that he did not refuse to accept the letter dated 31st October 1960 (vide Ext. D(1))].

It appears that the management sent the Bengali version of the charge to Shri Bhowmick [vide Ext. (e) and Ext. L(8)]. The Bengali translation of the charge sent as per registered post was returned unserved as Shri Bhowmick refused to accept the same on 8th December 1960. As Shri Bhowmick refused to accept the letters issued by the management of the company of the same of the sa ment, he was suspended from 7th January 1961 lyide Ext. L(11), dated 6th January 1961]. It appears that this letter was also refused by Shri Bhowmick. J am satisfied from the evidence adduced that the workman was raising lame excuse for not accepting the letters issued by the management to him. The management then held a departmental enquiry on the basis of charge-sheets and Shri Bhowmick admits that he attended the enquiry. The enquiry was held as the management considered the explanation submitted by Shri Bhowmick to be unsatisfactory. Fxt. L(14) is the letter of intimation about the date of enquiry. The management produced the entire proceedings of the enquiry held by Shri Jhawar on 1st February 1961 (vide Ext. L). Shri Bhowmick stated that at the enquiry the mangement asked him to sign a paper which he refused. It however appears from the enquiry proceedings that Shri Bhowmick took a stand there that he had submitted explanations and had got nothing further to aid. I note from the purport of the proceedings that the widence had been recorded in presence of Shri Bhowmick and that he had been given full opporfunities to examine the witnessess of the management. The mangement came to the conclusion as a result of the departmental enquiry that Shri Bhowmick was guilty and should be dismissed. But they lid not issue the letter of dismissal as the Concilation Officer before whom the proceedings were reading, wrote to the management to maintain status quo by a letter dated 8th February 1961. As already stated, the order of reference was made on 28th February 1961. Naturally, on that date the position was such that the workman charged on account of misconduct stood suspended from 7th January 1961, and that the management after holding the departmental enquiry had come to a decision that the workman was guilty and should therefore be dismissed. The company, in this situation, was asked by the Conciliation Officer to maintain status quo, presumably because the conciliation proceedings was pending and for that no final action as to dismissal and been taken by the company. The company filed an application before me under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act on 17th August 1961 seeking permission to dismiss Shri Bhowmick. It is clear that at the time the reference was made the worknan concerned was under suspension, pending final decision from the authority before whom the proreeding was pending for giving permission to the The mere fact that a workman has been charge-sheeted and suspended by the employer as an interim measure taken against him pending enquiry ran not amount to an alteration of the condition of service or a punishment and therefore there is no manner of application of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act with respect to such action taken by the employer. Evidently by the order of suspension the employer refuse to take service from the workmen as a security measure. Such refusal of employment in the particular circumstances is found to be justified and I hold that the workman is not entitled to any relief.

I now proceed to dispose of the case under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. It may be remembered that the case under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act is considered along with this reference case, at the request of the parties and for that evidence had been led by the parties.

The second secon

I have carefully gone through the entire record of the domestic enquiry held by the management in presence of Shri Bhowmick. It is prima facie proved by the evidence that the workman was guilty of gross insubordination. It cannot be said on the strength of the evidence led at the enquiry that Shri Bhowmick was charge-sheeted and proceeded against for his trade union activities and that he was innocent. It is contended by Shri Bhowmick in the written objection that he was a member of the executive committee and as such a protected workmen. The union send a letter to the company on 25th November 1960 giving in it the list of protected workmen and in it the name of Shri Bhowmick is not mentioned (vide Ext. 5).

The case thus falls under the provision of section 33(1)(B) of the Industrial Disputes Act. I find from the evidence that no case of victimisation is established. Hence express permission to dismiss the workman from the date of filing the application under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act is granted. The matter of this workman in the reference case and in the case under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act thus stands disposed of.

Sm. Hasi Bhowmick: The case of the company is that the said worker refused to comply with the directions given to her by the superior officers to do work in the Spool Winding Department on 2nd February 1961 and that she physically obstructed removal of the Coil Making machine which was to be used by another workman and that even on the 3rd February 1961, she forcibly kept the machine preventing the production to be done with the same. On the basis of these allegations as categorically mentioned in the charge-sheet, she was asked to explain why disciplinary action would not be taken against her and she was placed under suspension till full enquiry final disposal of the case. Exhibit E the copy of the charge sheet. Sm. and submitted explanation Bhowmick a') denaying 6th February 1961 the allegations made in the charge-sheet. She further asserted that her suspension without pay was illegal. The Management considered the explanation unsatisfactory and decided to hold an enquiry into the charges. At that relevant time the Conciliation Officer, Shri N. C. Kundu, wrote to inform the management to maintain status quo. The letter from Shri Kundu is dated 8th February 1961. Presumably the Conciliation Officer purported to have acted under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. It is now well settled that suspension of a workman without pay pending enquiry is not a punishment and does not amount to an alteration in the conditions of service of a workman who happens to be concerned in a dispute pending conciliation. An order of suspension is only an interim measure lasting till the appropriate authority passed orders on an application under section 33 of the Act to be filed by the management for permission regarding the final action which follows after the conclusion of the departmental enquiry. The matter would have been different if the employer kept the employee unde:

suspension for an indefinite period without taking the further step to hold a departmental enquiry. Be that as it is, the employer complied with the directions of the Conciliation Officer and abstained from holding the departmental enquiry. This order of reference was made on 28th February 1961 at a time when the management after drawing up the chargesheet and after taking the decision to hold an enquiry was restrained by the order of the Conciliation Officer to proceed further. As the employer has a right to suspend a worker pending to a departmental enquiry as a security measure, I hold that the action of the employer taken against the workman as it stood at the time of the order of reference was made is completely justified and that the workman concerned is not entitled to any relief.

The employer, however, held the departmental enquiry during the pending of the proceedings before this tribunal and on the conclusion of the same filed an application on 15th September 1961 under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act praying for permission to dismiss the workman who had been found guilty in the departmental proceedings. The said application has been registered as case No. 299/61 and Sm. Bhowmick submitted a written objection to the same on 20th October 1961. That application case is heard along with the reference case. The only question to be determined in the scope of that application case is whether permission would be given to the employer for the action taken against Sm. Bhowmick. The company sent a registered letter dated 17th August 1961 to Sm. Bhowmick intimating that the enquiry would be held on 23td August 1961 at 2 p.m. In that letter Ext. E(2), it was clearly mentioned that in case she was found not guilty of the charges, the period of suspension would be treated as leave with wages. It appears that the company also sent Bengali translations of the letter Ext. E(2) to Sm. Bhowmick | vide Ext. E(3) and Ext. E(4)]. It appears from the acknowledgment receipt that Sm. Bhowmick duly received the letter on 18th August 1961. The company by the letter dated 26th August 1961 intimated Sm. Bhowmick that the enquiry fixed on 23rd August was adjourned by the enquirying officer till 4th September 1961 [vide Ext. E(5) sent as per registered post]. It appears from the evidence that the enquiry was held by Mr. Jhawar on 4th September 1961, P.W. 3 Sm. Bhowmick attended the enquiry which was carried on from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. and when the enquiry was not finished, it was adjourned. She stated in the cross examination that she had taken with her four witness in defence. In the enquiry proceedings I find the names of five witness cited by Sm. Bhowmick. Only one Sabitri Biswas who was not a worker on the roll of the company, was not allowed as witness and Sm. Bhowmick accepted the contentions of the Enquirying Officer. Sm. Bhowmick in her statement before me stated that she requested the management to have the enquiry proceedings written in Bengali and as the management refused to do that she did not sign the same. I find from the enquiry proceedings that the statement of Sm. Bhowmick was recorded in Bengali by Shri P. B. Roy, the interpretor. There is no early reason why Sm. Bhowmick refused to sign her own statement recorded in Bengali at the departmental enquiry,

The evidence of witness (viz., Lakshmi Bala Datta Bhagabati Sen) examined by Sm. Bhowmick had also been recorded in Bengali but they too refused to sign the same. The enquiry was postponed to 12th September 1961 and resumed on that date and after conclusion of the evidence of the other three wit nesses examine in defence the witness appearing for the rosecution were examined. It appears from the record of the proceedings that Sm. Bhowmick crossexamined the witness examined by the employer. I appears from the enquiry proceedings that ample opportunities were given to Sm. Bhowmick to cross examine the witness. After careful reading of the enquiry proceedings together with the report of the enquiry I find that there is prima facie evidence on the basis of which the employer came to a reasonable decision that the guilt on account of the charge of misconduct and insubordination had been proved The employer has sought permission to dismiss the workmen in the application under section 33 filed on 15th September 1961 as Sm. Bhowmick is a protected workman being the Assistant Secretary of the union. I give permission under section 33(3) of the Industrial Disputes Act. It is beyond my jurisdiction in the scope of this reference case or in the scope of enquiry under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act to decide whether the workman is to be paid wages during the period of suspension. As management proceeded with good faith and held a fair and proper enquiry and there is nothing to support a case of victimisation or unfair labour practice the punishment sought to be given by the employer by way of dismissal takes effect from the date of filing of application. Permission to demissing the worker is accordingly given.

Before I part with the case it is necessary to refer to the decision reported in the Hotel Imperial Case as it appears that in a number of letters issued by the Government to the company a reference has been made to that decision. It is clearly laid down in the case of Hotel Imperial reported in 1959, II, L.L.J. p. 544, that the ordinary law of master and servant in the matter of exercising right of suspension of a workman can be and should be held to have been modified by the introduction of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. There is always such an implied term in the contract of employment and such suspension pending permission for dismissal for the intervening period is to be implied in the contract of employment. There is thus no need to show that a right to suspend a workman was given by the contract of service or by the Service Rules or Standing Orders. So a right to suspend a workman without payment of wages may be exercised as and when the employer takes initiative in holding the enquiry as a security measure and the employer is justified in taking an action as to dismissal of workman in appropriate case after holding a bona fide enquiry. In short an exception had been made in the matter of suspension of a workman pending enquiry with the introduction of section 33 in the Industrial Disputes Act and there is as implied term as to contract of employment between master and servant to suspend a workman. There was thus no point in restraining the employer from holding in departmental enquiry after the order of suspension had been passed against the workman.

Thus the miscellaneous proceedings started under tion 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act stand dissed of in terms of the decision given.

This is the award.

This reference is in respect of a dispute raised by 251 workmen under reference represented by Railway Godown Workers' Union of 4 Nityadhan Mukherjee Road, Howrah (hereinafter called the Union), against Messrs. R. P. Pandey & Co. of 18A likiapara Road, Salkia, Howrah (hereinafter called the *Company), on the allegation that the Company refused employment to 251 Parcel Porters.

The facts are as follows:

Shri Inardan Singh.

parcel porters under Messrs. Bird & Co. This list the Company obtained immediately before it started working in the Parcel Godown on 1st August 1959. The Company found that they required 250 parcel porters and out of the list of more than 300 parcel porters of the previous contractors Messrs. Bird & Co., Shri R. C. Sharma, the General Secretary of the Union, selected 250 parcel porters to work under the Company.

The Union alleges that Messrs. Bird & Co., the previous contractors, employed 350 parcel porters and the present Company absorbed only 250 out of those 350, that the Company promised to give employment to the remaining 100 porters as the Company is under legal obligation to employ all the porters of the previous contractors before recruiting new hands, that the Company started harassing the employees who were members of the Union by offering the employees lower wages and payments on weekly basis, that tokens of some porters were not renewed on 25th August 1959, that the Company refused to permit a workman (Deonandan Singh, Serial No. 60) to work as a parcel porter on 25th August 1959, that this unfair labour practice by the Company led to a strike on 25th August 1959 but the strike was called off at the intervention of the Superintendent, Railway Police, Howrah, at about 9 p.m. on the same day and that on the next day, i.e., on 26th August 1959, the Company refused to employ the 251 workmen under reference who had been working from 1st August 1959.

The Company's case is that immediately before starting work at the Howrah Station on 1st August 1959 the Company ascertained that about 250 parcel porters were required to work in the Parcel Godown, that the Secretary of the Union was also of the same opinion and it was the Secretary of the Union who selected the 250 parcel porters out of a list of 310 who were said to have worked under Messrs. Bird-& Co., that the Company was not the successor to Messrs. Bird & Co. and was under no obligation to give employment to old workers of that Company, that the Company's rates were the same as before and that the Company never introduced a system of payment of wages on weekly basis. The Company denies that it refused to permit workers from working on 25th August 1959 or that the Company did anything which led to a strike in the noon on 25th August 1959 or that the strike was called off at 9 p.m. on that day at the intervention of the Superintendent, Railway Police. The Company alleges that one Deonandan Singh (Serial No. 60), a parcel porter, was suspended for four days from 21st August 1959 and he was required to resume his duties at 2 p.m. on 25th August 1959, that Deonandan incited the parcel porters to lunch an illegal and unjustified strike and the workers abruptly struck work at 1-30 p.m. on 25th August 1959 and started indulging in violent activities, that the Company informed the police and the police came to prevent further breach of peace, that on 26th August 1959 and 27th August 1959 the Company issued notices which were also hung up on the Company's notice board asking all the workmen, i.e., the 250 parcel porters to resume their duties immediately and they were further warned that as the work of the Company was suffering new hands would be employed if the workmen who had struck work did not resume duties by 2 p.m. on 27th August 1959, but that in spite of notices the workmen did not resume their duties as directed, and hence, the Company, which was required to work round the clock for 24 hours a day in loading and unloading wagons, had to employ new hands. The Company also alleges that several workmen under reference were convicted under the Indian Railways Act for creating disorders in the Station Godown and about 70 of them are still under trial.

Decision

It is admittedly a fact that the Company, according to the contract with the Railways, was required to undertake the work of unloading and loading railway wagons parcels and goods at the Howrah Railway Station from the zero hour of 1st August 1959, the previous contractors were Messrs. Bird & Co. Pvt. Ltd. It is the admitted case of the Company and the Union that the Company required 250 railway parcel porters to work in the Parcel Shed and at the suggestion of Shri R. C. Sharma, the Secretary of the Union, these 250 railway parcel porters were selected for appointment out of more than 300 parcel porters who had been serving as such under Messrs. Bird & Co., and that the Company gave appointments to those 250 parcel porters selected by Shri Sharma. It was therefore agreed between the Secretary of the Union and the Management that 250 parcel porters selected by the Secretary of the Union would be sufficient number of porters to cope with the work of loading and unloading wagons in the Parcel Godown. The Union alleges that the Company undertook to give employment to the remaining parcel porters who had served under Messrs. Bird & Co. when the question of employment of additional hands would arise in the event of increase in volume of work. Now, the 250 parcel porters started work under the Company from the zero hour of 1st August 1959. The parcel porters worked up to 1-30 p.m. on 25th August 1959 and suddently went on strike from 2 p.m. on that day. The Union gives four reasons for the parcel porters going on strike, viz., (1) not employing all the parcel porters numbering about 350 who had worked under Messrs. Bird & Co., (2) offering lower wages, (3) introducing system of payment of wages on weekly basis, and (4) Company's refusal to give work to one Deonandan Singh, Company's parcel porter on 25th August 1959.

Regarding the number of parcel porters, it is admittedly a fact that the Company required 250 parcel porters as the Company considered the number sufficient to cope with the work of loading and unloading wagons. It is nobody's case that the employer was required to employ a certain number of manham appearing to Unionly depend. In this of workers according to Union's demand. In this case, the Secretary of the Union, Shri Sharma, did not dispute that the Company at that moment, i.e., from 1st August 1959, required about 250 parcel porters but he suggested that he would select 250 parcel porters out of the list of more than 300 parcel porters of Messrs Bird & Co. and it is a fact that the Company employed the 250 parcel porters selected by Shri Sharma. In my opinion, the Company was not bound to give employment to all the parcel porters numbering more than 300 who had served under the previous contractors when they found that a lesser number would cope with the work of loading and unloading parcels and this action of the Management was also considered reasonable by the Union Secretary. So, non-employment of parcel porters numbering more than 250 who had been selected by Shri Sharma and appointed by the Company on the basis of the volume of work could never be any justifiable reason for resorting to a sudden strike specially when the Company was required to work round the clock for 24 hours a day. So the first reason for resorting to a strike by the parcel porters was unjustifiable and unreasonable.

Regarding the second reason that is the offer of lower wages by the Company, I must say that the Union has failed to prove the allegation that the Company had asked the parcel porters to accept lower wages. There is no satisfactory evidence to support this allegation of the Union. The Company denies that it ever offered wages lower than what the porters were getting from Messrs. Bird & Co. I therefore find that this false allegation could not be a valid ground for the sudden strike.

Regarding the allegation that the Company introduced the system of paying wages to the parcel porters on weekly basis, the Company denies that any such new system was introduced. O.P.W. 4 Abdul Kayum says: "Payments were made on monthly basis." Even Deonandan (P.W. 4) admits that all the workers had taken their dues up to 25th August 1959 in one lump. There is no proof on the side of the Union that any parcel porter was paid on weekly basis. I am therefore unable to accept the story of the Union that the Company introduced the system of payment on weekly basis.

The Union alleges "That at about 2-30 p.m. on 25th August 1959 the Company refused work to Shri Deonandan Singh, an old workman and one of the Union leaders." P.W. 4 Deonandan says: "I came to the office at 1-45 p.m. on 25th August 1959. As the Company refused to renew tokens a group of workers collected in front of the office but the Company told them that their tokens would not be renewed nor any employment would be given to them." He further says: "As we did not get any work we resorted to 'satyagraha' and for this we were sentenced to suffer imprisonment and I was in jail for about five months." O.P.W. I Shri Kisori Srivastava says: "I know Deonandan who is still in our service. We suspended him for four days from the 21st to the 24th August 1959. He was expected to resume his duties on 25th August 1959 from 2 p.m. On that day I found that all the labourers had assembled but refused to do any work. The strike that was resorted to from the 25th was never called off." I do not see anything to disbelieve him. It is admittedly a fact that Deonandan was reinstated after an award by the First Industrial Tribunal had been passed. As Deonandan was suspended for four days, i.e., 21st to 24th August 1959, and as the workman instead of resuming work resorted to a strike from the noon of 25th August 1959, the Company could not possibly employ him but as Deonandan has been reinstated the dispute regarding the Company's refusal to employ him does no longer exist. On the contrary, it is in evidence that all the parcel porters working at the Parcel Shed resorted to a sudden strike from 2 p.m. on 25th August 1959. So, it was Deonandan who had not resumed his duties and it was not the Company that refused him work.

Now regarding the strike resorted to by the workers at 2 p.m. on 25th August 1959 I have already found that the Company appointed 250 parcel porters from amongst the list of more than 300, the selection ging made by Shri Sharma, General Secretary of the mion, that the Company never offered to pay wages a rate lower than the rate of wages paid by the revious contractors Messrs. Bird & Co., that the ompany did not introduce the system of payment wages on weekly basis and that Deonandan iving not resumed his duties at 2 p.m. on 25th ugust 1959 the Company could not give him work id that the strike was suddenly resorted to by the orkmen from 25th August 1959. The case of the nion that the strike was called off in the afternoon the intervention of the Superintendent, Railway plice, has not been proved. The Union did not famine the Superintendent, Railway Police, and ere is no satisfactory evidence to corroborate the stimony of P.W. 1 Shri Sharma that at the interintion of Superintendent, Railway Police, the strike as called off the same evening. On the contrary, is admitted that the police arrested a number of orkmen who had resorted to strike and that a large umber of workers were tried, convicted and ntenced to suffer imprisonment for causing disturbices in the Parcel Godown. The Company alleges hat notices were hung up on the notice board directg the parcel porters to resume work, but they ever turned up. It is the case of the Company that never refused to employ 250 parcel porters who ad been appointed by the Company to work from st August 1959 but that as the parcel porters iddenly stopped work from 2 p.m. on 25th August 159 and as the Company was to work round the ock for 24 hours for loading and unloading wagons, was compelled, under the circumstances, to employ w hands. There is nothing to support the case of e Union that the Company refused to renew the kens of the parcel porters but there is admission at the parcel porters struck work suddenly at p.m. on 25th August 1959. There being no proof hat the strike was called off, the parcel porters could ot be made to work in the Parcel Godown and it just be held that the strike not having been called ff it continued. Considering these facts and circumances, I find that the Company never refused mployment to the workmen under reference and tev are therefore not entitled to any relief claimed. his is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Victoria Jute Works, P.O. Telinipara, district Hooghly, and their workmen represented by Victoria Chatkal Hazdoor Union, Ferry Ghat Street, Telinipara, Hooghly. (Case No. VIII-318 of 1961.)

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri P. C. PAL, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate.

Present for the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak, an officer of the Union.

This reference has been made under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act of 1947 by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 5779-I.R./IR/7L-57(A)/61, dated the 30th September 1961, for determination of the issue, viz.:

"Whether the dismissal of Sarvasree Ruplall and Kailash is justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?"

The case made out in the written statement of the Union is briefly this:

The two concerned workmen, Ruplall and Kailash, were active members of the Union with full knowledge of the Management. On 9th January 1961 they were served with charge-sheets containing false charges to which they submitted their pertinent replies by denying the allegations made against them. On 6th January 1961 they were called in the Labour Office of the Company and were asked to work on Sunday, the 8th of January 1961, on payment of twice the basic wages and single D.A., but not at proper rate. The workmen agreed provided the payment was according to law. No further intimation was given to them, nor was it notified that they would have to work on the said Sunday. Under the circumstances, all the workmen took it to be a Sunday and holiday. The allegation of the concerndworkmen's inciting others for not working on the said day is quite false. Bent upon following its own course, the Management constituted a "show enquiry" which was neither fair nor proper, and the workmen concerned were dismissed on and from 27th January 1961, the decision having been taken even before the charge-sheets were drawn up. The Union failed in its genuine attempts for making an amicable settlement, and hence this reference. It is alleged that the action of the Company in dismissing the two concerned workmen was wholly illegal and mala fide, against all principles of natural justice, and was made with an ulterior motive to victimise them for their Trade Union activities. The Union prays for reinstatement of the workers with full back wages, etc.

The substance of the Company's written statement may be briefly enumerated thus:

The mill having been far behind its commitments and with a view to avoid heavy demurrage and late shipment penalties, the Management decided to work the Shewing Section of the mill on Sunday, the 8th of January 1961, in conformity with the provisions of the Factories Act and the Rules thereunder, and with due intimation to the Regional Inspector of Factories. Accordingly, a notice of the substituted holiday was posted on the 5th January 1961 on the Labour Bureau notice board, and a copy of the said notice was displayed on the departmental notice board. In pursuance of that decision the senior Labour Officer of the mill called to his office on 6th January 1961 a group of workers of the said section (including Ruplal and Kailash who were the chief spokesmen), and in the presence of Mr. B. K. Chhabra, Junior Labour Officer, informed them of the decision of the Management to work their section on the said Sunday, explaining to them that they would get a substituted off-day on Tuesday, the 10th January 1961. Both Ruplal and Kailash expressed that they would work on that Sunday, as desired, if they were given double the wages. The senior Labour Officer explained that they would not be entitled to double wages as they would get a substituted holiday. It was also made clear to them that they should work on Sunday in the interest of the mill, and must carry out the orders. On the relevant date (Sunday, 8th January 1961) at about 6 a.m. about 20 workmen (mainly Mazdoors and Sirdars and not Sewers) out of the two sections' complement of 257 workers reported for duty. But the Management could not operate the section with such poor attendance, particularly, in the absence of the machine-sewers numbering 77 who failed to turn up. A preliminary enquiry was held on 9th January 1961, and as a result both Ruplal and Kailash were found accused of various acts of misconduct which were detailed in the charge-sheets issued to them on 1st February 1961. The items of misconduct included striking work and inciting other workers to strike work, disobedience to the reasonable and lawful order of the Management, and incitement to others to disobey such orders. On receipt of written explanation to their charge-sheets, the Management held a proper and fair departmental enquiry on 12th January 1961 in presence of a Works Committee members. The two charge-sheeted workmen were given every opportunity to explain away the charges at the said enquiry by questioning witnesses who deposed against them, and by adducing evidence in defence. The enquiring officer submitted his report on 17th January 1961, holding the two workmen guilty of the charges and recommending extreme punishment. The Management considered the charges, the explanations of the workmen, the proceedings of the enquiry, and were satisfied that both Ruplal and Kailash were guilty and should be dismissed. Accordingly, the Management passed orders on 27th January 1961 dismissing them from service. The decision of the Management was quite justified on merits. It is untrue that the action of the Management was in any way actuated by any spirit of victimisation or unfair labour practice. As a matter of fact, the Management was not even aware of the association of the two workmen with Trade Union or their being active members thereof. For ll these reasons, therefore, the prayer of the Union must be rejected.

Decision

At the very outset it may be stated that ident charges were made against the two workmen c cerned, namely, Ruplal and Kailash, on 9th Janu 1961, and their replies were also exactly similar (v Exts. 2 and 2-a). It is, therefore, a mistake in Company's written statement that the charge-she were issued on the 1st February 1961. In view the admitted facts regarding the actual date on wh the charges were issued, this mistake is ignorable

The charges levelled against the two workm concerned were as follows:

"You wilfully disobeyed the reasonable and la ful order of your superiors by not attendi your work on Sunday, the 8th January 19th Further you coerced other workers to disob the same and incited other workers at No. Mill gate between 6.00 a.m. and 6-30 a.m. strike work on that day.

This constitutes major misconduct on your part Show cause why disciplinary action should in be taken against you."

In order that such charges may be substantiate and upheld, it is necessary that the Company shoul have given notice to the workmen for work in th mill on Sunday (8th January 1961) with an offer fo substituted holiday in lieu of that Sunday, unde section 52 of the Factories Act. According to th Company, notice to that effect was posted on 51 January 1961 on the Labour Bureau notice board, and a copy of the same was displayed, on the depart ment's notice board. In paragraph 2(c) of the writter statement of the Company it is stated that the copy of the said notice is marked Annexure A to this written statement. This Annexure A, however, purports to be a notice, dated 5th January 1961, in Constitution of the Company is stated that the copy of the said notice is marked Annexure A. English containing as many as four sheets altogether. The Union denies the story of the giving of such notice in the knowledge and information of the workers in general, not to speak of the two dismissed workmen. The English notice has been marked Ext. A. The Company has also put in a notice in Hindi (Ext. A-1), containing two sheets) its case being that this notice in Hindi also was displayed on the notice board for information of the workers. At bottom of the second page of the Hindi notice there is an endorsement to the effect "Displayed on notice board on 5th January 1961." This endorsement is dated 8th January 1961. This is said to be the original notice and is also said to have been hung up on 5th January 1961, and taken off on 8th January 1961, and hence this endorsement was made on the last-mentioned dats. In the departmental enquiry on 12th January 1961, a Durwan of the Company named Bansdeo was examined to say that in the evening of 5th January 1961 he put this notice on the Labour Office notice board. Obviously, he identified that notice to be what is Ext. A-1 before me. This witness, at the enquiry did not speak of any other notice -in English or in other language In view of his evidence before the enquiring officer there was one and only one notice put up on the notice board, and that was Ext. A(1). But in the written statement of the Company no notice other than the one in English is at all mentioned. Thus, both these contradictory statements as regards putting up of the English notice as in the written statement of the Company, and the Hindi notice as per the evidence of the Durwan at the enquiry cannot be true at the same time. Either one of these statements may be correct or both may be false. No witness of the Company has been examined before me in regard to the alleged putting up of the notice English or Hindi. In the absence of proper evidence, it is difficult to accept the Company's case that notice was hung up or displayed, as alleged, particularly, when a strong suspicion arises in view of the abovenoted contradictions in relation to the story given in the written statement of the Company, and the evidence of the Durwan given at the enquiry. The workman Ruplal has stated before me in his cross-examination that he would be agreeable to work on the said Sunday even without double wages, if there was notice for work on 8th January 1961. In his examination-in-chief, he was flatly denied that the Company gave any notice on 5th January 1961. Similar is the evidence of Kailash before me. Except the mere production of the two notices by the Company before this Tribunal, nothing more has been done by it to counteract the said denial by the two workmen. It is an admitted fact that on 6th January 1961 the two workmen concerned were called to the office of the Senior Labour Officer who asked them to work on 8th January 1961. The two workmen said here that the Labour Officer agreed to pay them double wages and single D.A., but they demanded double D.A. as well. According to them nothing further had developed. It is argued by Shri Sen on behalf of the Company that if these workmen had been called by the Labour Officer on 6th January 1961 and asked to work on 8th January 1961, there is reason to believe that the Company must have given notice under law on the preceding day (5th January 1961), otherwise no such talks would have taken place. The probability as to the truth of giving notice, if any, is not a strong one. In the absence of proper evidence, there can be no supposition that notice was really given to the workers for their knowledge and information about doing duties on 8th January 1961. So the mere talks between the Labour Officer and the two workers on 6th January 1961 does not carry much value.

According to the Company, the Regional Inspector was intimated in advance about the Company's intention to work the Sewing Department on 8th January 1961. The letter said to have been sent to the Inspector of Factories is dated 5th January 1961, and marked Ext. B here. It is said that the letter was sent per Peon Book. The entry in the peon book is marked Ext. B-1. It only shows that one cover was sent on 5th January 1961 to the said Inspector. It does not disclose what the cover contained, nor is the letter said to have been given to the Regional Inspector called for. So, the mere production of the Copy of the letter and of an entry in the Peon Book Joes not convincingly prove that the notice required under section 52 of the Factories Act was actually sent to the Inspector of Factories.

There are further lacunae in regard to the notice. Irue, Ruplal and Kailash made statements before the domestic enquiry. They appear to have been too too to the condition of them was asked any flicer himself, but none of them was asked any fluestion regarding the notice. The last witness examined for the Company at the enquiry was Bansdeo who spoke about giving of the notice in Hindi. This Hindi notice, however, does not bear signature of anybody as being authentic one on the side of the Management. In the English notice (Ext.

A) the number attaching to Ruplal is stated to be 2503, and that of Kailash to be 242. The enquiring officer (O.P.W. 1), who has deposed before me, admits that, and it is also a fact, that in the chargesheet Ruplal bears Labour Bureau No. 2490. According to this enquiring officer, the number given in the charge-sheet is correct. In the folder, he volunteered, the relevant number was 2502. These discrepencies regarding Ruplal have remained unexplained. It is argued by Shri Pathak on behalf of the Union that these facts go to show that Ruplal, the concerned workman, is not the identical person specifically mentioned in the notice. There is no evidence to show whether there is or is not any other Ruplal under the Company except the dismissed person Ruplal. It is said for the Union that these facts and circumstances go to show that at least this Ruplal was not notified for doing any work on 8th January 1961, apart from the question of displaying the notice in general. The identity of the person concerned is not to be taken as established simply because he was called to the Labour Office on 6th January 1961. There can be no doubt that he was the man who was called by the Labour Officer on that date, but the difficulty still remains about the indentity of the person notified.

In view of all that has been said above, I am unable to persuade myself to believe that notice for work 8th January 1961 was actually given or displayed on 5th January 1961, as alleged by the Company. If this story regarding the notice falls through, it would go without saying that the charges for not attending works on 8th January 1961 cannot stand, whatever might have come out during the domestic enquiry by reason of perversity or fundamental error. other allegation against the workmen is that they incited or coerced other workers not to work on 8th January 1961. It is said that in the morning of 8th January 1961 they gave such incitement to other workers outside the gate of the Company's factory. If no notice was actually given for work on 8th January 1961, the question of the second charge does not arise very necessarily. In the absence of notice, no worker was expected to come to the factory gate on 8th January 1961, not to speak of attending to duty on that date. The Company's case is that only 20 Mazdoors or the like attended the factory on that particular date, but works could not be carried on with such workers in the absence of regular workers of the Sewing Department None of these Mazdoors has been examined before me or appears to have been examined during the domestic enquiry. Before coming to the question in relation to the validity or otherwise of the domestic enquiry, I would refer to the Company's case of the preliminary enquiry.

This preliminary enquiry is said to have been made on 9th January 1961, and three workers, named Kali Routh, Amrica and Ram Sarup, are said to have been examined at that preliminary enquiry. The statements made by these three persons at the preliminary enquiry have been produced here along with the proceedings of the domestic enquiry held on 12th January 1961 (vide Exts. C-1, C-2 and C-3). According to Kali Routh, he was going to work on 8th January 1961 at 6 a.m. as per instructions of the departmental officer. He was stopped at the gate by Ruplal and Kailash, and there were almost all the machine-sewers at the gate, and were acked by Ruplal and Kailash not to go for work unless overtime was paid. This witness did not say that he got notice for work. Amrica and Ram Sarup appear to have stated that at the gate of the mill on 8th January 1961 they were told by Ruplal not to report for work on 8th January 1961. They did not say on what date and where they were so told by Ruplal, nor did they mention the name of Kailash. The enquiring officer, who held the departmental enquiry, also held the preliminary enquiry. He admits that he did not submit the report of the preliminary enquiry. Yet it is said for the Company that the charges framed on 9th January 1961 were based on the result of the preliminary enquiry. Besides, none of the persons who were examined at the preliminary enquiry was examined at the domestic enquiry. At the last enquiry no worker was examined to say that he was prevented by Ruplal or Kailash or both, from attending their work. Nor was there any complaint by any regular worker to that effect. That is to say, no aggrieved worker was examined at the domestic enquiry to say about his being prevented by the dismissed work-men from doing his work on 8th January 1961. In the report of the enquiring officer it is stated that the witnesses examined at the preliminary enquiry refused to corroborate about the Company's allegation. That was the reason to exclude their examination at the domestic enquiry. It was obviously wrong and illegal to have placed their evidence given at the preliminary enquiry at the time of the final domestic enquiry. This omission is certainly final domestic enquiry. one of the fundamental errors in conducting the domestic enquiry, and goes to a great extent against the foundation of the second charge.

Further, section 108(2) of the Factories Act provides that all notices required under this Act to be displayed in the Factory shall be in English and in a language understood by the majority of the workers in the factory. Thus, the notice under section 52 of the Act must be displayed in two languages—in English and in a language understood by the majority of the workers. This provision of law appears to have been clearly violated in the present case. I have already seen, that an unsigned notice in Hindi was spoken of by a single Durwan in the domestic enquiry, whereas the W.S. discloses an English notice only. Even this English notice, unlike the Hindi one, does, not by itself show that it was actually displayed for the knowledge and information of the workers. In this connection another matter of importance may be taken notice of. The Company's case is that on 8th January 1961 about 20 Mazdoors attended the factory, as if, in pursuance of notice. But no record has been produced by the Company to show the attendance of these Mazdoors on that particular date. In view of the extreme probability that no proper notice was hung up or displayed by the Company, the fact would remain that there was no occasion even for the said Mazdoors to attend to duties on that particular Sunday. It has been said on behalf of the Company that on 6th January 1961 the concerned workmen went to the labour Officer and there were talks for work on 8th January 1961, and that this suggests that there was notice on the preceding date. But the evidence on recerd is that the two workers were called by the Labour Officer to his office on 6th January 1961. If notice was already given on 5th January 1961 there is no reason why the workers would be called again to the office of the Labour Officer on the following day. This, on the contrary, militates against the suggestion that notice was given on 5th January 1961. Evidence has been given on behalf of the Company that three independent persons watched the domestic enquiry in presence of the concerned workmen. Of them, only one has been examined before me. He is Ahmed Hossain (O.P.W. 2). The other two have not been examined here. In the written statement of the Company, however, mention is made of only one such person, and not three. Even this O.P.W. 2 cannot in any way be regarded as an independent person, as he is a weaver under the Company. So this does not go to help the contention of the Company. From what has been discussed and considered above, I come to the conclusion that the charges levelled against the two concerned workmen have not at all been established; that the domestic enquiry was vitiated by fundamental errors, mentioned above; that the decision of the Company on the basis of the domestic enquiry was perverse being against the weight of evidence both documentary and oral. As such, I am disposed to hold that the dismissal of the two workmen concerned was the result of capricious act on the part of the Management, and is quite unjustified in view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case. The result is that such a decision of the Company is liable to be interfered with. Accordingly, I direct the Company to reinstate these two workmen, Ruplal and Kailash, to their former jobs with continuity of service, and to pay them all back wages for the period of their forced unemployment, within one month from the date of publication of this award.

Award is passed accordingly.

The Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by order No. 6322-I.R./IR/10L-111/60, dated 1st December 1960, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the abovementioned dispute for adjudication to this Tribunal.

Issue

1. Whether the termination of employment of Shree Gopi Ballav Paul is justified? What relief, if any, is he entitled to?

Both parties filed a joint petition of compromise before the Tribunal on the date fixed for hearing, i.e., on 16th May 1962. It appears that the only workman concerned in this case, viz., Shri Gopi Ballav Paul, will be reinstated and he will join his duty on and from 21st May 1962 and the period of his unemployment from 9th May 1960 to 21st May 1962 will be treated as leave without pay except the payment of four months' wages. The terms appear to be fair and reasonable and I therefore accept the same.

Hence, a "no-dispute" award, as prayed for by the parties concerned, be made in terms of the said petition of compromise, dated 16th May 1962, which do form part of the award as Annexure "A".

It is hereby enacted in the Thirteenth Year of the Republic of India, by the Legislature of West Bengal, as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

- 1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Stamp (West Bengal Amendment) Act, 1962.
- (2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of December, 1961.

Application of the Act.

2. The Indian Stamp Act. 1899 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), shall, in its application to West Bengal, be amended for the purpose and in the manner hereinafter provided.

The Indian Stamp (West Bengal Amendment) Bill, 1962.

(Clauses 3, 4.)

Amendment of Schedule IA to Act 2 of 1899. 3. For article 30 in Schedule 1A to the said Act, the tollowing article shall be substituted, namely:—

**30. Entry as an Attorney on the roll of the High Court at Calcutta under any law for the time being in force.

Five hundred rupees.".

Exemption.

Entry of an attorney on the roll of the High Court at Calcutta, when he has previously been enrolled as such in any other High Court.

Repeal and savings.

4. (7) The Indian Stamp (West Bengal Amendment) West Ben. Ord. II of 1962.

(2) Anything done or any action taken under the said Act as amended by the Indian Stamp (West Bengal Amendment) Ordinance, 1962, shall be deemed to have been validly done or taken under the said Act as amended by this Act as if this Act had commenced on the 20th day of June, 1962.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Consequent on the enforcement from 1st December, 1961 of Chapter 111 of the Advocates Act, 1961, the payment of a Stamp Duty of Rs. 750 for entry as an Advocate on the foll of the High Court, as provided for in the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, will no longer be necessary. It is, in the circumstances, necessary to suitably amend the Indian Stamp Act. Hence the Bill.

1. D. JALAN,
Member-in-charge.

Calcutta,

The 30th July, 1962.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM.

The Bill does not involve any expenditure from the Consolidated Fund. The reduction of the fee of Rs. 750 previously payable by Advocates for enrolment to Rs. 250 has already been effected by the Advocates Act and the amendment in the Indian Stamp Act is only consequential. It may be mentioned, however, that while there has been reduction in the fees in the case of Advocates who used to be enrolled in the High Court, there has been an increase in the enrolment fee of other lawyers who will now be enrolled as Advocates since the fee previously payable by them for enrolment in the courts other than the High Court was only Rs. 20, 15 and 5 according to the status of the court in which practice was sought.

NOTIFICATION

No. 3463M.P.—2nd August 1962.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 21 of the West Bengal Lilts and Escalators Act, 1955 (West Bengal Act V of 1955), the Governor is pleased to make the following rules to regulate the installation, maintenance and safe working of escalators in West Bengal and of all machinery and apparatus pertaining to such escalators and generally to carry out the purposes and objects of the said Act, namely:—

RULES

THE WEST BENGAL ESCALATORS RULES, 1962

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

- 1. Short title.
- 2. Definitions.

CHAPTER II

- 3. Permission to erect an escalator.
- 4. Application for licence to work an escalator.
- 5. Grant of licence to work an escalator.
- 6. Licence for working of escalators not to be granted unless requirements in this behalf are complied with.
- 7. Orders for repairing escalator and prohibiting use thereof.
- 8. Maintenance of escalators.
- 9. Report of accidents.
- 10. Unused escalators.
- Renewal of licence.
   Grant of duplicate licence.
- 13 Appeals.
- 14. Fees for inspection, application for licence and renewal of licence.

CHAPTER III

- 15. Angle of Inclination
- 16. Width of Escalators
- 17. Balustrading
- 18. Step Treads and Landings.
- 19. Combplates.
- 20. Strength of Trusses or Girders.
- 21 Track Arrangement.
- 22. Capacity and Loading.
- 23. Limits of Speed. 24. Application of Power
- 25. Chains.
- 26. Safety Devices
- 27. Machine Room.
- 28. Lighting of Step Treads.
- 29. Access to interior of escalators.
- 30. Electrical Wiring and Apparatus.
- 31. Tests.
- 32. Sundry precautions.
- 33. Relaxation of rules.

FORMS

- FORM  $\Lambda$ : Application for permission to erect escalators.
- FORM B: Notice of completion of the work of erection of an escalator and application for a licence to work an escalator.
- FORM Co. Licence to work an escalator.
- FORM D: Order for repairing escalator and probibiting use thereof.
- FORM E: Notice of accident.
- FORM F: Application for Certificate for maintenance of escalators.
- FORM G: Certificate for maintenance of escalators.

CHAPTER I

- 1. Short title: These rules may be called the West Bengal Escalators Rules, 1962.
- 2. (1) Definition: In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—  $\,$
  - (a) "Act" means the West Bengal Lifts and Escalators Act, 1955;
  - (b) "escalator installation" used in relation to an escalator includes the escalator, the track, the trusses or girders, the balustrading, the step-treads and landings and all chains, wires and plant directly connected with the operation of the escalator;
  - (c) "emergency stop push or switch" means a push button or switch designed to open a circuit and cut off power supply to the escalator machine so as to cause the escalator to stop;
  - (d) "escalator machine" means the mechanism and other equipment in connection therewith used for moving the escalator;
  - (e) "overspeed governor" means an automatic device which will cause the power supply to the escalator to be interrupted in the event of the speed exceeding the predetermined value of the normal running speed;
  - (f) "travel (rise)" means the vertical distance between the bottom terminal landing and the top terminal landing of an escalator;
  - (g) "landing" means that portion of the building or structure which is used to receive or discharge passengers into or from an escalator;
  - (h) "combplate" means a pronged plate that forms part of an escalator landing and engages with the cleats of the steps at the limits of travel;
  - (i) "form" means a form prescribed in these rules.
- (2) In these rules other words and expressions have the same meanings as are assigned to them in the  $\Lambda ct$ .

CHAPTER II

Permission to erect an Escalator

- 3. (1) The owner of any premises intending to install an escalator in such premises shall make an application to the Chief Electric Inspector to the Government of West Bengal, hereinafter referred to as the Chief effective Inspector, who is berefly authorised in this behalf under section 14 of the Act, in Form "A" for permission to creet the escalator and shall furnish the information required in that form. Separate application shall be submitted for every escalator that is intended to be installed.
- (2) On receipt of such application the Chief Electric Inspector shall, after making or causing to be made by the Inspector of Lifts such enquiries and requiring the applicant to furnish such other information as he may consider necessary in this behalf, either grant or refuse the permission to erect the escalator.
- (3) The permission granted under sub-rule (2) shall be valid for a maximum period of one year from the date of issue of the letter according permission, but may be renewed by the Chief Electric Inspector from time to time on sufficient cause being shown to the satisfaction of that officer.

Application for licence to work an Escalator

The owner of any premises who has been granted permission to erect an escalator, shall, within one month after the completion of the erection of such escalator, give to the Chief Electric Inspector notice in writing of such completion and shall make an application to him in Form "B" for a licence for working the escalator and shall also furnish such other information as may be required in this behalf either by the Chief Electric Inspector or by the Inspector of Lifts.

Every such application shall be accompanied by a receipt showing the deposit of necessary fee in the manner provided in rule 14 and duplicate copies of drawings duly signed by the applicant showing the following: --

- (a) Layout of the excalator installation
- (b) Plan.
- (c) Sectional elevation.
- (d) Angle of inclination of the escalator with the horizontal.
- (e) Width of the escalator.(f) Vertical rise of the escalator.
- (g) Arrangement of track and trusses or girders.
- (h) Positions of top and bottom landings.
- (i) Size and position of the machine room relative to the escalator.
- (j) Position of escalator machine.(k) Details of complete step-tread and combplate assemblies
- (1) Wiring diagram of the control panel and the escalator equipment.

Note: The scale of the drawings shall not without the special permission in writing of the Chief Electric Inspector or Inspector of Lifts be less than 5 centimetres to a metre for the plan, and not less than 2 centimetres to a metre for elevation

Crant of license to work an Escalator

5. On receipt of an application in accordance with the provision of rule 4, the Chief Electric Inspector may require an Inspector of Litts to make such tests and enquiries as he may deem necessary in the matter.

If so asked by the Inspector of Lifts, the applicant shall arrange for the trial operation of the escalator so as to show to the satisfaction of that officer that the requirements of the Act and the rules as may be applicable in that case have been complied with.

On receipt of the report of the Inspector of Lifts that the escalator installation conforms to the requirements of the Act and the rules thereunder, the Chief Electric Inspector may grant the licence as early as possible in Form "C" to work the escalator subject to the terms and conditions set out in that form. Where, however, the installation does not conform to the requirements of the Act and the rules, the Chief Electric Inspector may refuse the grant of a licence after giving the applicant an opportunity of being heard.

Licence for working Escalator not to be granted unless requirements in this behalf are complied with

6. No licence for working an escalator shall be granted unless the requirements laid down in Chapter III of these rules, as may be applicable in any particular case, have been complied with in respect of such escalator and its installation.

Orders for repairing Escalator and prohibiting use thereof

7. An Inspector of Latts or the Chief Electric Inspector may issue an order under section 12 of the Act as nearly as possible in Form "D" on the owner, agent or occupier of the premises or other person responsible for the working of the escalator and the person on whom the order is served, shall comply with the order within the time as may be specified therein and shall report compliance in writing to the officer by whom the order is served.

Maintenance of Escalators

- 8. (1) No person or firm shall be deemed duly qualified and competent tor appointment under sub-section (2) of section 11 of the Act for maintenance of any escalator unless such person or firm holds a valid certificate from the Chief Electric Inspector that he has satisfied the Chief Electrical Inspector about his competency in carrying out such work.
- (2) A person or firm desiring to hold such certificate—shall—make an application in Form "F" and shall forward the same duly filled in together with a fee of fifty rupees to the Chief Electric Inspector who may, if he is satisfied after making such enquiries and tests—as—he—may consider necessary, that the applicant possesses necessary qualifications for grant of a certificate, grant a certificate to the applicant which may be either of a general nature or for any specified class, type or make of escalators according to the qualifications of the applicant. The certificate may be granted, as nearly as may be, in Form "G":
- (3) Every certificate granted under sub-rule (2) shall be renewed annually. Application for renewal together with the certificate and a renewal fee of twenty-five rupees shall be submitted before the date of expiry of the certificate to the Chief Electric Inspector or to such other officer as the Chief Electric Inspector may by order in writing authorise in this behalt. In the event of failure to renew a certificate before the date of expiry, the certificate shall stand cancelled:

Provided that if the application for renewal is received within one month from the date of expiry of the certificate, the certificate may be renewed on payment of the renewal fee and a penalty of five rupees.

- (4) A duplicate of a certificate granted under these rules may be issued on proof to be furnished by the applicant of the loss of the original certificate to the satisfaction of the Chief Electric Inspector
- (5)  ${\bf A}$  fee of ten rupees shall be charged for issue of a duplicate certificate
- (6) On the issue of a duplicate certificate the original certificate shall be deemed invalid and it found, shall be returned to the Chief Electric Inspector for cancellation.

Notice of Accident

9. It any accident occurs in connection with operation of an escalator, and the accident results or is likely to have resulted in the loss of human life or personal injury the owner of the premises in which the escalator is working or his agent, if appointed in terms of the provisions of section 13 of the Act, shall give notice of such occurrence in Form "E" as soon as may be after the accident but not later than 24 hours of the accident, to the Inspector of Litts and also in the city of Calcutta to the Commissioner of Police and elsewhere to the District Magistrate.

Unused Escalators

10. When an escalator installed at any place ceases to be used as an escalator, the owner thereof or his agent, if appointed, shall forthwith give notice in writing to the Inspector of Lifts to this effect and shall either remove it or maintain it in a condition so as to prevent any danger to persons, after disconnecting it entirely from all sources of power for its operation.

The owner or his agent shall, if ordered so to do, take such other precautions as are considered necessary by the Inspector of Lifts to prevent danger.

Renewal of Licence

11. (1) Every licence for working an escalator shall be renewed annually. Application for renewal together with the licence and the tee prescribed in these rules shall be submitted to the Chief Electric Inspector or to such other officer as he may by order authorise in this behalf before the date of expiry of the licence. In the event of a licensec failing to renew his licence before the date of expiry, the licence shall become invalid and the full licence fee shall be charged for the issue of a fresh licence in his favour:

Provided that if the application for renewal, as aforesaid, is received within one month from the date of expiry, the licence may be renewed with effect from that date on payment of the annual licence fee and a penalty of Rs. 5.

(2) The form in which application for renewal of license is to be made may be obtained from the office of Chief Electric Inspector on request.

Grant of Duplicate Licence

12. A duplicate of a licence may be issued on payment of a fee of Rs. 20 on certification by the applicant of the loss of the original licence to the satisfaction of the Chief Electric Inspector.

Appeals

- . 13. Every appeal under section 19 of the Act, shall be made in writing to the State Government within the period specified below and shall be accompanied by a copy of the order appealed against:
  - (a) For an order under section 4 refusing permission to erect an escalator. Three months from the date of such order.
  - (b) For an order under section 5 refusing the grant of heenee to work an escalator. Three months from the date of such order.
  - (c) For an order under section 12—One month from the date of such order.
  - (d) For an order under section 17 suspending or cancelling the because to work an escalator. One month from the date of such order.

A fee of Rs. 20 which is not refundable shall be paid into a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India in West Bengal under the head "XIII- Other Taxes and Duties—B—Receipts from Electricity Duties Other Receipts—Receipts under the West Bengal Litts and Escalators Act, 1955" in respect of every appeal and a copy of the chalan for the amount shall accompany every memorandum of appeal.

Fees for Inspection, Application for Licence and Renewal of Licence, etc.

- 14. (1) The following fees, which shall not be refunded on any account, shall be levied:
  - $\Lambda$ . Application tee for because for working an escalator- Rs. 50.
  - B. Annual Licence Fee. (Fee for renewal of a Licence) Rs. 40
  - C. Penalty for late renewal of a Licence Rs. 5
  - D. Annual Inspection Fee. (Compulsory) Rs. 10 per escalator
  - E. Fee for additional inspection of escalators, if any, made on request of the licence holder or occupier—Rs. 10 per escalator inspection.
  - F. Fee for grant of a duplicate Licence—Rs. 20.
  - G. Fees for a certificate under rule 8-Rs. 50 per application.
  - H. Fees for renewal of a certificate under rule 8---Rs. 25 per application.
  - Penalty for late renewal of a certificate under rule 8 Rs. 5 per application.
  - J. Fee for the grant of a duplicate certificate under sub-rule (4) of rule 8—Rs. 10.

- (2) The above fees shall be paid-
- (i) at the Reserve Bank of India or Government Treasury in the State of West Bengal under the head "XIII—Other Taxes and Duties B—Receipts from Electricity Duties—Other Receipts—Receipts under the West Bengal Lifts and Escalators Act, 1955", by chalan in triplicate, the duplicate copy being presented with the relevant application to the Chief Electric Inspector, I Harish Mukherjee Road, post office Elgin Road, Calcutta-20; or
- (ii) at the office of the Chief Electric Inspector, in cash, by money order or by cheque.

Angle of inclination

15. The angle of inclination of an escalator shall not be in excess of 30 degrees from the horizontal excepting that with an escalator having a vertical rise not exceeding 6 metres an angle up to 35 degrees may be permitted.

Width of Escalators

16. The width of an escalator shall be measured between balustrading at a vertical height of 60 centimetres above the nose line of the treads and shall be not less than 60 centimetres or more than 120 centimetres.

Balustrading

- 17. (a) Escalators shall be provided on each side with solid balustrading. On the step side the balustrading shall be smooth and substantially flush except tor protective mouldings parallel to the run of the steps and properly bevelled vertical mouldings projecting not more than 6 millimetres, that cover joints of panels.
  - (b) No glass panels should be used in balustrading.
- (c) There shall be no abruot changes in the width between the balustrading on the two sides of the escalator. Where a change in width is unavoidable, such change shall not exceed 8 per cent, of the greatest width. In changing the direction of the balustrading resulting from a reduction in width the maximum allowable angle of change in the balustrading shall not exceed 15 degrees from the line of the excalator travel.
- (d) Each balustrade shall be provided with a hand rail moving at the same speed and in the same direction as the travel of the escalator.
- (e) Provision shall be made to prevent trapping of an object between the hand rail and the balustrading or between the steps and the balustrading to the satisfaction of Inspector of Litts.

Step-treads and Landings

- 18. (a) Escalator step-treads and Lindings shall be of material and design affording secure foot hold.
- (b) If the landing is of concrete, it shall have edge insertions of metal, wood or other antislip material.
  - (c) Escalator step-treads shall be horizontal.
- (d) Escalator step-treads and their frames shall be made of incombustible materials as far as practicable
- (e) The tread surface of each step shall be slotted in a direction parallel to the travel of the steps.

Combplates

- 19. (a) There shall be a combplate at the entrance and at the exit of every escalator.
- (b) The combplate teeth shall be meshed with and set into the slots in the tread surface so that the points of the teeth are always below the upper surface of the treads.
- (c) Combplates shall be adjustable both horizontally and vertically. Sections forming the combplate teeth shall be readily removable without the use of special tools in case of emergency.

Trusses or Cirders

20. (a) The factor of safety to be used in the design of escalator trusses or girders shall be not less than 5 based on the static loads and the ultimate strength of the steel.

- (b) The escalator truss or girder shall be so designed that it will safely retain the steps and running gear should the track system fail to retain the running gear in its guides.
- (c) Where tightening devices are operated by means of tension weights, provision shall be made to retain these weights in the truss should they fall or if they should be released.

Track Arrangement

21. The track arrangement shall be so designed as to prevent displacement of the steps and running gear if a step chain breaks.

Capacity and Loading

22. The contract load on an escalator shall be computed by the following formula:—

Contract load in Kilogram—2-7 WL

Where-

W=the width of the escalator in centimetres.

L=the horizontally projected length of the exposed treads in metres.

Limits of Speed

23. The speed of an escalator, measured along the angle of inclination, with a vertical rise not exceeding 18 metres shall not exceed 38 metres p.m. except that if the line of entrance and exit is not in the vertical plane of travel, the speed shall not exceed 30 metres p.m.

If higher speeds than that specified above are necessary, approval in writing for such higher speeds should be obtained from the Chief Electric Inspector to Government.

Application of Power

24. Every escalator shall have its own driving motor or other driving gear.

Chains

25. All chains shall have a factor of safety of not less than 10. Chains of materials requiring periodical heat treatment shall not be used.

Safety Devices

- 26. (a) An emergency "stop" push or switch conspicuously marked "STOP PUSH" or "STOP SWITCH" and accessible to the public shall be fixed at the top and bottom landings of each escalator.
- (b) The operation of a "stop" push or switch shall open a circuit and cause the power supply to the escalator, to be interrupted. It shall not be possible to start the escalator by means of such pushes or switches.
- (c) Where starting pushes or switches are within reach of the public they shall be either of the key-operated type or be enclosed in a box provided with a lock and key.
- (d) Any escalator operating in the ascending direction shall be equipped with means to cause the power supply to the escalator to be interrupted and the brake applied in the event of accidental reversal of direction of travel.
- (c) Each escalator shall be provided with an over speed governor which will cause the power supply to the escalator to be interrupted in the event of the speed exceeding the normal speed by 40 per cent.
- (f) Each escalator shall be provided with a broken chain device which will cause the power supply to the escalator to the interrupted in the event of a step chain(s) breaking.
- (g) Each escalator shall be provided with an electrically released and mechanically applied main drive brake of sufficient power to stop the fully loaded escalator. This main drive brake shall automatically stop the escalator when travelling or tending to travel in the descending direction should any of the above safety devices function.
- (h) Escalators driven by polyphase motors shall be protected against phase reversal or phase failure.

Machine Room

27. (a) A machine room of suitable size and construction shall be provided for the housing of the escalator machine or machines, and associated apparatus and equipment.

- (b) The machine room shall be of sound construction weather-proof and dry and shall be properly ventilated to prevent any undue rise in temperature inside the room. Where necessary means shall also be provided to maintain a reasonable temperature in the machine room. The floors of the machine rooms shall be capable of carrying the load of the escalator machinery and other equipment housed therein.
- (c) The machine room shall be provided with permanent and adequate ortificial lighting of an approved type and whenever available electric lighting shall be provided by at least one fixed light point and one plug socket for every two or less machines. The light switch shall be fixed near the machine room entrance.
- (d) The machine room shall be arranged to allow reasonable access to and the removal of the equipments therein or of any part thereof. The height of the machine room shall be sufficient to allow any part of the equipment to be accessible and removal for repairs and replacement and in no case the height shall be less than 2 metres clear.
- (c) Safe and convenient access to machine room entrances shall be provided with access doors opening outwards.
- (1) The machine room shall not be used as store room or for any other purpose other than housing the escalator machine and associated apparatus ind equipment. No inflammable or explosive material shall be kept in machine room.
- (g) The machine room shall be accessible only to authorised persons. Where the electrical pressure exceeds 250 volts, a CAUTION notice shall be displayed permanently on the outside of the door and in a conspicuous position near the machinery.
- Note: No person shall be deemed to be authorised unless the owner or agent of the escalator has authorised him in writing for any specific duty and a copy of such authorisation has been given to the person concerned. Every such authorisation shall be entered in a register to be maintained by the owner of the escalator or by his agent for the purpose. This register shall be produced to the Inspector of Lifts on demand.

Lighting of Step Treads

28 Step treads shall be illuminated throughout their run. The intensity of light on the tread surfaces should be sufficient to illuminate them.

Access to interior of Escalator

29. Reasonable access to the interior of the escalator shall be provided for inspection and maintenance.

Electrical Wiring and Apparatus

- 30. (a) All electrical wiring and apparatus in connection with the escalator installation, shall conform to the current Indian Electricity Rules in force and also to other regulations if any, relating to fire insurance of the building in which the escalator is installed.
- (b) All electric supply lines and apparatus in the escalator shall be of suitable construction and shall be so installed protected worked and maintained that there is no danger to persons therefrom.
- All metal casing or metallic coverings containing or protecting any electric supply lines or apparatus shall be efficiently connected with earth.
- (c) A manually operated main disconnecting switch of adequate capacity shall be installed to control supply of electrical energy to the main cable of every escalator machine (electrically operated) and the switch shall be so placed that it is close to and visible from the said escalator machine to which the supply is controlled.
- (d) With D.C. power supplies the main disconnecting switch and any circuit breaker shall be so arranged and connected that the circuit of the brake magnet coil is opened at the same time that the main circuit is opened.
- (e) No bare conductor shall be used in any escalator as  $\mbox{ may cause}$  danger to persons.
- (f) All cables and other wiring in connection with the escalator installation shall be of suitable grade for the voltage at which these are intended to be worked and if metallic covering is used it shall be efficiently earthed.

- (g) Suitable "CAUTION" notice shall be affixed near every motor or other apparatus in which energy is used at a pressure exceeding 250 volts.
- (h) The electrical parts of starting and stopping devices other operating and similar devices controllers and of similar other parts shall be efficiently insulated and the insulation shall be capable of withstanding for a period of one minute, the continuous application of a test voltage of alternating current equal to ten times the voltage at which these electrical parts are energised, subject to a maximum voltage of 2,000 volts when the test voltage is applied between contacts or similar parts in the open position, and between such contacts and earthed parts.

Tests

- 31. No new escalator shall be brought into use unless the escalator has been tested as tollows. The person or firm responsible for the installation of an escalator shall certify in writing that the tests carried out by him to determine the suitability of the escalator for normal and regular service, has been satisfactory and if required by the Inspector of Lifts, such tests shall be carried out in presence of and to the satisfaction of Inspector of Lifts who may also himself carry out such tests as he may think necessary for his satisfaction, to determine the suitability of the escalator for normal and regular use. Such tests shall be carried out in presence of the representative of the person or firm who is responsible for the installation of the escalator:
  - (a) Each type and size of escalator shall be tested for the contract load that it is designed to carry. Such tests may be made, at the option of the manufacturer in his plant or in the field on the first escalator of that type and size installed in a building. Where a type and size of escalator has previously been tested and approved in one jurisdiction, certified copies of such test may be accepted in lieu of an actual test.
  - If the rise for a given type and width to be installed is more than 1.52 metres higher than the rise for which that type and width has been tested a new type test shall be made for the higher rise
  - (b) Overspeed Test:—The application of the overspeed safety device shall be obtained by causing the escalator to travel at the governor tripping speed as specified in sub-rule 26(e). With escalators driven by alternating current motors the governor may be tripped by hand with the escalator travelling at its normal speed.
  - (c) Reversal Test: The accidental-reversal device called for in subrule 26(d) shall be made to function by manually operating or attempting to operate the escalator in the reverse direction.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Until Parliament by law otherwise provides the composition of the Legislative Council of a State is based on the provisions contained in clause (3) of Article 171.

Since the passing of the Constitution organisational patterns of local authorities have changed to a great extent. In the process of democratic decentralisation, some organised bodies have come into being. Co-operative societies are now destined to play a very important part in our body politic. It is expected that the whole country will be covered by such co-operative societies in different spheres of our community life. Also teachers working in educational institutions lower in standard than that of a Secondary School bave been asking for representation in the Council. It is desirable that organised interests should also be given representation so that the Council shall be representative of all interests.

It is desirable that organised interests should also be given representation so that the Council shall be representative of all interests.

The object of this Bill is to provide for representation to as many organised interests as are functioning in the State. By giving such representation to these interests the Council would not only become more representative but the functioning of such organisations would be encouraged and would get impetus and their working will become heneficial to the community at large. The local Council will be provided with functional representation which appears to be the intention of the Constitution makers. It is not necessary that Members of Legislative Assembly should have the right to elect one third of the total strength of the Council. This right has been distributed to organised bodies of industries, commerce, trade and business. Agricultural organisations have also been provided for.

SHREE NARAYAN DAS.

New Delfit; The 4th April, 1962.

MEMORANDUM RECARDING DELECATED LEGISLATION

Clause 6 of the Bill confers on the Central Government oower to make rules, in consultation with the Election Commission for determining block samities and other local authorities, the number of persons which an electoral college formed under the Act may consist of, the institutions and organised bodies which may have representation in the Legislative Council of a State, and territorial constituencies into which a State may be divided for purposes of election to the Legislative Council and similar other matters concerning such election.

The aforesaid matters on which rules can be made are generally matters of detail. The delegation of Legislative power is, therefore, normal in and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture, or punishment may be imposed as if this Act had not been passed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Experience of the operation of the Bengal Money-lenders Act, 1940, during the last two decades suggests that in order to protect the borrower more effectively from exploitation by unscrupulous money-lenders it is necessary to enlarge the scope of the Act, to strengthen the safeguards against the malpractices and machinations resorted to by certain money-lenders as well as to amend the Act in some other respects.

It is, accordingly, proposed to bring within the ambit of the Bengal Money-lenders Act transactions such as deposit of money or other property loans to or by a registered society, loans to purchase or to build a house within Calcutta or any other municipal area and commercial loans up to Rs. 10,000. These are outside the scope of the present Act.

The definition of "Bank" in the Act has been modified in consonance with the provisions of the Banking Companies Act, 1949.

For more effective supervision of money-lenders and for regulation and control of money-lending in accordance with the statutory provisions it is proposed to appoint an Inspecting staff.

The rupee has depreciated considerably since the passing of the Bengal Money-lenders Act, 1940. It is proposed to raise the rate of interest from 8 per cent, simple to 10 per cent, simple on secured loans and from 10 per cent, simple to 12½ per cent, simple on unsecured loans. It is also proposed to prohibit compound interest.

The discrimination between pre-Act loans and post-Act loans regarding payment of interest in section 31 of the Act is proposed to be abolished; and section 36 is being amended in the light of judicial decisions on the subject.

It is also proposed to relax the provisions of the proviso to section 5800 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, on mortgage by conditional sale in the case of a loan against mortgage to give an opportunity to a borrower to prove that the transaction was in substance mortgage by conditional sale.

The borrower is sometimes compelled by circumstances to agree to an inflated amount being shown as the principal in the instrument creating the loan. As section 92 of the Indian Evidence Act is a bar to oral evidence to show that the principal advance is different from that stated in the instrument, the borrower is helpless in fighting the machinations of the moneylenders. It is proposed to enact provisions making oral evidence admissible in any suit or criminal proceedings instituted under the Bengal Moneylenders Act.

In order to avoid multiplicity of statutes it is proposed to repeal the Usury Laws Repeal Act, 1855 and the Bengal Money-lender. Act, 1933 rully, and the Usurious Loans Act, 1918 partially.

The Bill has been drawn up to legislate for such purposes as are indicated above.

Calcutta, The 31st July, 1962 1. D. JALAN, Member-in-charge.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM.

The Bill itself does not make any expenditure obligatory. So no estimate is possible. If and when appointments of Inspecting stan are made, there will be expenditure after necessary provision is made in the budget.

CALCUTTA, The 31st July, 1962. I. D. JALAN, Member-in-charge.

Α

BILL

further to amend the Hindu Succession Act, 1956.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Thirteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:-

Short title and commencement

- 1. (1) This Act may be called the Hindu Succession (Amendment) Act, 1962.
  - (2) It shall come into force at once.

After section 23 of the Hindu Succession Act, 1956, 30 of 1956. Insertion of the following new section shall be inserted, namely:

"23A. No transfer of property by female owner shall be valid within two years of the opening of succession in her favour unless it be for consideration, the onus of proof of which shall be on the transferee.

new section 23A. Special pro-vision re-

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

It has been observed that male co-successor or male relations of female owner take advantage of the emotional nature of the female owner after the death of her father or near relation and get transfers by gift or otherwise without consideration. The female owner, who has come in succession, has no appreciation of the act.

It is necessary to protect her interests by legislation. This can be done by giving her an opportunity of appreciation of her ownership rights and time to think of such rights before she makes a free transfer.

Hence this Bill.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Serajuddin & Co., P-16 Bentinck Street, Calcutta-1, and three others on the one part and the workmen represented by the Serajuddin & Co. and Allied Concerns Employees' Union, 52/7 Bepin Behari Ganguly Street, Calcutta-12, on the other. (G.O. No. 1096-1.R., dated 14th March 1960.)...(Case No. VIII-71/60.)

Present:

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances:

For the Union: Shri M. M. Saha, Advocate.

For the Company: Shri P. K. Sannyal, Advocate and Shri T. P. Chatterjee, Advocate.

The Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by order No. 1096-I.R./IR/11L-245/59, dated the 14th March 1960, referred an industrial dispute as existing between (i) Messrs. Serajuddin & Co., P-16 Bentinck Street, Calcutta-I, (ii) Messrs. India Ferro Alloy Industry (P) Ltd., and (iii) Messrs. Estate Mineral Development Co. (P) Ltd., both of 19A British India Street, Calcutta, on the one part and the workmen represented by the Serajuddin & Co. and Allied Concerns Employees' Union, 52/7 Bepin Behari Ganguly Street, Calcutta-12, on the other, relating to the following issues as covered in the order of reference. By a subsequent corrigendum issued on 8th June 1960 by the appropriate Government the name of fourth concern was inserted as an employer in the list of employer involved in this dispute. The added party is Messrs. Md. Serajuddin. The dispute was thus concerning the workmen in four distinct industrial concerns.

Issues

- (1) Grade and scale.
- (2) Dearness Allowance.
- (3) House Rent.
- (4) Leave and holidays.
- (5) Provident fund and gratuity.
- (6) Condition of service.

AWARD

After service of notices upon the parties, the workmen represented by the Scrajuddin & Co. and Allied Concerns Employees' Union (hereinafter referred to as the Union), filed the written statement on 25th April 1960 duly signed and verified by Shri Prosanta Das Gupta described as the Secretary of the aforesaid Union.

All the four different Companies made parties as employers in the order of reference subsequently filed written statements individually and separately.

During the pendency of the proceedings before this Tribunal all the workmen engaged in Messrs. Md. Scrajuddin, Messrs. India Ferro Alloy Industry (P) Ltd. and Messrs. Estate Mineral Development Co. Private Ltd. filed affidavits on 1st September 1960, 2nd August 1960 and 1st August 1960, respectively, stating that they had no dispute as against their respective Companies. They disowned the authority of the Union to represent their cause before the Tribunal. It was further stated in those affidavits sworn in individually by the workmen that they had never been members of this Union as shown to be representing them in the order of reference. The question whether the workmen of these three concerns are still members of this Union is not relevant in the face of the affidavits of the workmen wherein they categorically stated that they had got no dispute with the employer and that they do not want proceed with the case. As the workmen themsel are not willing to proceed with the dispute as refer to the Tribunal for adjudication, the Union shown be representing the workmen in the order of reence cannot still have any right to continue the pute. Hence upon consideration of the facts circumstances of the case I passed on 14th Septen 1960 a 'no dispute' award so far as the employers, (i) Messrs. Serajuddin, (ii) India Ferro Alloy in try (P) Ltd. and (iii) Messrs. Estate Mineral D lopment Co. Private Ltd., and their workmen

The dispute with regard to the order of refer thus remained confined to the employer Me Serajuddin & Co. and their workmen. raised a prelimi Company subsequently objection regarding the jurisdiction ' Tribunal to proceed with the dispute the ground that the order of reference bad in law inasmuch as the Government of v Bengal had no jurisdiction as appropriate Government as defined in section 2(a) of the Industrial putes Act to make the reference. This legal p of objection going to the very root of the refer itself was taken up for consideration as a prelimi point first and upon hearing the learned represe tives of the parties I decided the point in favou the workmen and held that the order of refer was in order and that the Tribunal had jurisdic the employer went in appeal to the Supreme Co.
The Hon'ble Supreme Court dismissed the app In the meantime the parties prayed for adjourn of the case for the purpose of effecting an amic settlement of the dispute.

Finally after several adjournments, when the pute was fixed for hearing on 4th July 1962, both parties filed a joint petition of compromise ma an amicable settlement of all the points covere the order of reference. I find the terms to be fair and reasonable and, as such, I allow the pr and accept the joint petition of compromise.

So, in the result the dispute between Messrs. S juddin & Co. and the workmen represented by Union stands disposed of in terms of the memodum of settlement filed by the parties whice marked as Annexure A to the award.

SCHEDULE C

Leave rules of the firm

Irrespective of all practices, procedures and rules relating to leave hitherto existing and in supersession of all such practices, procedures and rules relating to leave, it is hereby agreed and accepted by both the parties that all employees (Staff and Subordinate) employed in Calcutta offices of Messrs. Serajuddin & Co., will be entitled to leave on the following basis.

1. Earned leave: All employees on completion of one year's continuous services in the establishment will be entitled to 21 days' earned leave with full pay:

Provided that such leave shall not be accumulated for more than 60 days:

Provided also that an employee wants to avail the whole or part of leave at his credit and apply in writing 10 days earlier and he has not been allowed to avail the leave applied for as the management considered that he could not be spared, in such case any leave exceeding the accumulation bar will not be forfeited, but the management will ask him to avail the leave sooner when he can be conveniently spared.

- 2. Medical leave: All employee/employees of Calcutta offices will be entitled to 14 days' medical leave on full pay on completion of one year's continuous service. Such leave shall generally be allowed to cover the period of illness which should always be supported by a medical certificate issued by an appropriate authority. Further Medical Leave may be accumulated up to a maximum of not more than 56 days.
- 3. Casual leave: All employees will be entitled to 10 days' casual leave with full pay during a calendar year which may be granted up to three days at a time. Un-enjoyed portion of casual leave, if any, will lapse at the close of the calendar year.

The provisions of clauses pertaining to leave shall not operate to the prejudice of rights to which an employee is entitled or may be entitled under any other law for the time being in force or that may be in force in future.

General conditions governing grant of leave: The following general principles shall govern the grant of leave to the employees:

- (a) Leave is earned by duty or service.
- (b) It cannot be claimed as a matter of right. When the exigencies of service of Company so required discretion to refuse or revoke leave of any description is reserved to the authority empowered to grant it.

Explanation—Sanction of leave may not be presumed and leave asked for should not be availed of unless it has been specifically sanctioned.

(c) An employee is expected to avail of leave granted fully, before resuming duty. An employee on leave cannot return to duty before the expiry of such leave except with the permission of the competent authority.

- (d) Leave may be prefixed and/or suffixed to a holiday.
- (e) The leave due to an employee is the period which he has earned diminished by the period of leave actually taken.
- (f) Casual leave may normally be availed of only after sanction by the competent authority but one day's casual leave may be availed of without prior sanction in case of unforeseen emergency provided the competent authority is promptly advised of the circumstances in which prior sanction could not be obtained.
- (g) An employee shall, before proceeding on leave, intimate to the competent authority his address while on leave, and shall keep the said authority informed of any change in the address previously furnished.

Rates of wages of the workmen operating Drying Centrifuge Machine.

AWARD

After service of notices upon the parties, the workmen represented by the Angelo Brothers Workers' Union, filed the written statement on 15th January 1962, duly signed and verified by Shri Chitia Moitra, described as the Secretary of the aforesaid Union. After that Messrs. Angelo Brothers Ltd., the employer, filed the written statement on 6th March 1962, duly signed by Mr. Gibson, Managing Agent of the Company.

After completion of preliminary stages the dispute eventually came for hearing on 9th July 1962. After the case had been opened by the representatives of both the parties, a discussion ensued between them for the purpose of coming to an amicable settlement. After some discussion a joint petition of compromise was filed by the parties effecting a solution of the dispute. The terms of compromise as noted in the joint petition filed by the parties appear to be just, fair and reasonable. I, therefore, those an award making this petition marked as Annexure A a part of the award.

Shri S. K. RAY, Judge, Seventh Industrial Tribunal.

For the complainant: Shri B. Chatterjee, General Secretary of the West Bengal Municipal Employecys' Federation.

For the Municipality: Shri S. Dhar, Advocate.

AWARD

This proceeding arises out of an application under section 33A, Industrial Dispute Act, filed by Shrimati Rukmini Debi, a Methrani of Midnapore Municipality, against the said Municipality complaining that during the pendency of the adjudication proceedings of another dispute between this Municipality and its workmen referred to this Tribunal by Government order No. 3623-I.R., IR/4L-14/60, dated the 19th July 1960, she was removed from service with effect from 17th September 1960, "whimsically, illegally and arbitrarily without being given any scope of reasonable opportunity" and in denial of natural justice without complying with the relevant provisions of section 33, Industrial Disputes Act. It is pleaded in the application by way of reasons for such removal that she had been working in this Municipality for a long period, but she resisted the practice of forcing new entrants to the Municipal service to pay the Health Officer and some other officers moneys by way of illegal gratifications for securing appointments and also the Municipal employees to pay such officers monthly illegal gratifications from their monthly wages. It is further alleged that the rates of such illegal gratifications were considerably increased since the introduction of the minimum wages in this Municipality.

It is also alleged by her that her legal dues for the period from June 1960, were not paid to her. On the above allegations, she claims that this Tribunal should pass an award ordering her reinstatement with full pay for the period of forced unemployment from 17th September 1960 and also ordering payment of unpaid wages from June 1960 to September 1960.

The application is resisted by the Midnapore Municipality. It has filed a written statement in reply.

First of all, it has raised a preliminary point that this application under section 33A does not lie, because the dismissal or removal from service of the complainant worker was made by the order, dated the 18th July 1960, which was before the date of reference of the previous dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication, such date being 19th July 1960, and consequently, there was no obligation upon the Municipality to comply with any of the provisions of section 33, Industrial Disputes Act, because when the order of dismissal was passed, the previous reference was not pending for adjudication.

On merits, the Municipality has denied that she was removed from service whimsically, illegally, arbitrarily and by denial of opportunity or any natural It has also denied the allegations that the Health Officer and some other officers of the Municipality were in the habit of extorting illegal gratifications from new entrants to Municipal service, as well as regular workers of the Municipality, and has characterised these allegations as frivolous, purposive and without any foundation. Then it has pleaded the following facts in support of the dismissal of the complainant worker from service. On receipt of a public complaint, the concerned worker was served with a charge-sheet, dated the 16th June 1960, for gross negligence and dereliction of her duties which comprised the cleaning of latrines by removal of nightsoils. She was given ample opportunity to show cause and submit explanation and notices in this respect were issued to her, but she refused to receive the notices by putting her signature and failed and neglected to appear before the enquiring authority. She was granted full scope of reasonable opportunity like any permanent Government employee. Pending the enquiry, she was kept under suspension. At the enquiry, witnesses were examined and their statements were recorded and the Municipal authority concerned after due consideration of the charge levelled against her and all relevant facts and circumstances bearing upon the charge found her guilty of the charge and ordered her to be removed from service after 18th July 1960. She was removed from service with effect from 19th July 1960 in pursuance of the order of the concerned Municipal authority. Her allegation that she was removed from service from about 17th September 1960 is absolutely false. Her pay up to 18th June 1960 was duly offered to her, but she refused to accept the same. She is still at liberty to draw that amount. The order of the concerned Municipal authority for her dismissal or removal of service, dated the 18th July 1960, was duly approved by the commissioners of the Municipality at a meeting held on 14th March 1961. The complainant worker has, therefore, no case on merits also and is not entitled to any relief.

I first take up the preliminary point raised by the Municipality. In my opinion, there is no substance in it. The Government order of reference of the previous dispute between this Municipality and its workmen was made up on 19th July 1960 and I am satisfied from the evidence produced in this case that the dismissal of the complainant from Municipal service took effect from the same date under an order passed by the Vice-Chairman on 18th July 1960 and she was actually removed from Municipal service from 19th July 1960. Exhibit J(2) is the Vice-Chairman's order of dismissal. The relevant portion of the order stands thus:

"I pass the order of discharge on 18th July 1960. Her name may be struck off from the muster roll from 19th July 1960."

In paragraph 14 of the written statement filed by the Municipality, it is clearly stated that she was ordered to be removed from service "after 18th July 1960" and her name was ordered to be removed from the muster roll with effect from 19th July 1960. This position is borne out by the entries in the attendance register for July 1960 [vide Ext. C(1)]. There is no attendance mark against her from 19th July 1960. For the purpose of application of section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act with the proviso thereunder, the relevant date is the date from which the discharge or dismissal takes effect. The provision of this section cannot apply unless the dismissal or discharge becomes effective. Mere passing of the order of discharge or dismissal would not be material. The position, therefore, is that in the present case the discharge or dismissal of the complainant worker took effect from 19th July 1960 and on that very date there was reference of the previous disput between the Municipality and its workmen to this Tribunal for adjudication. The adjudication of that dispute became pending from the date of the order of reference. And as the discharge or dismissal of the concerned worker took effect from that date under an order passed on the pervious date, it must be held that this workman was dismissed or discharged during the pendency of the adjudication proceedings in respect of the previous dispute between this Municipality pality and its workmen before this Tribunal. would at once bring the discharge or dismissal of the concerned worker within the purview of the provision of section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act and the proviso thereunder. Accordingly, I reject he preliminary point raised by the Municipality and sold that the present complaint under section 33A, ndustrial Disputes Act, cannot be rejected on the round that there was no application of section 33, ndustrial Disputes Act, to the discharge or dismissal the complainant.

In view of the above decision of the preliminary point, it must be held that there was contravention if the provisions of section 33(2)(b) and the proiso thereunder in respect of the dismissal or discharge the concerned worker, Rukmini Methrani, because here was no approval of the action taken against her y this Tribunal and no application was made to this ribunal for approval by the Municipality, as required by the proviso to section 33(2)(b). This finding to contravention of the provisions of section 32(2)(b) in the present case will not be sufficient for isposal of the whole case, because it is well-settled hat when an application under section 33A is made, he Tribunal to which the application is made is to o into the merits of the issue raised by the comlainant even if it is found that there was formal ontravention of any of the provisions of section 33. a the present case, the precise issue is the discharge r dismissal of the complainant worker, Rukmini, with flect from 19th July 1960 under an order of the ice-Chairman passed on the previous day, 18th July 960. This Tribunal must, therefore, consider this ismissal or discharge on merits and decide whether was justified and pass an award according to the ecision made.

Before going into the actual merits of the dismissal r discharge of the concerned worker, I would disose of another legal objection raised against the rder of dismissal itself on behalf of the complainant orker. It is alleged that the order of dismissal or ischarge passed by the Vice-Chairman on 18th July 960, was absolutely illegal and without jurisdiction. is contended that the Vice-Chairman had no legal uthority to pass the order and in any case, he had o authority to pass the order without sanction of te commissioners of the Municipality at a meeting. he case of the Municipality in this respect is that the Chairman had delegated all his powers to the ice-Chairman under section 52 of the Bengal Munipal Act and the Vice-Chairman passed the order dismissal upon such delegated authority and the der was sanctioned by the commissioners at the eeting held on 14th March 1961. It is contended at this sanction is to be deemed to have retrospecthis sanction is to be declined to make ve effect from the date of the order of the Vice-basemen which itself was sanctioned. O.P.W. 1 hairman, which itself was sanctioned. O.P.W. 1 T. Gopal Chandra Pal, the Health Officer of the funicipality, has testified that the Chairman deleated his full powers to the Vice-Chairman. This atement was made in cross-examination of the ilness. He is certainly a competent person to prove 10 delegation and I beleive his evidence. The Vicehairman was, therefore, competent to pass the order f dismissal or discharge in exercise of the powers elegated to him by the Chairman under section 52, lengal Municipal Act. It is no doubt true that even inder the delegated powers, the Vice-Chairman was 10t competent to dismiss or discharge the complainof worker, whose monthly wages were undisputedly lore than Rs. 20, without the sanction of the comlissioners at a meeting according to the provisions proviso (1) to section 66(2), Bengal Municipal let. The relevant portion of the proviso does not, however, clearly and strictly lay down that the dismissal cannot be effected without the previous sanction of the commissioners at a meeting. All that it lays down is that a Municipal servant whose post carries a monthly salary of more than Rs. 20 "shall not be dismissed without such sanction." The evidence is that the sanction to the dismissal of the concerned worker was accorded by the Municipal Commissioners at a meeting held on 14th March 1961 (vide Ext. K). So, the position is that the order of discharge or dismissal passed by the Vice-Chairman was sanctioned by the commissioners at a meeting, but this sanction was accorded some time after the order of discharge or dismissal was passed and also after this order was to take effect. In my view, the requirements of the proviso (i) to section 66(2), Bengal Municipal Act, may be said to have been complied with in the present case by the order of discharge or dismissal having been sanctioned at a meeting of the commissioners held on 14th March 1961, though the order was passed on 18th July 1960, and the sanction must be deemed to have retrospective effect from the date of the order. The resolution in Ext. K shows that the commissioners confirmed the order of the Vice-Chairman discharging Rukmini from service. clearly indutes that the commissioners approved the action of the Vice-Chairman fully and sanctioned the dismissal or discharge with effect from the date fixed by the order of the Vice-Chairman. In the above view, I hold that there was no legal or formal irregularity in the order of dismissal or discharge passed by the Vice-Chairman on 18th July 1960 and it must be deemed to be an order legally made in compliance with the proviso (1) to section 66(2), Bengal Municipal Act. Accordingly, I reject the worker's case on this point.

I am now to take up the merits of the respective cases of the parties regarding the discharge or dismissal of the concerned worker. I have already stated the respective cases of the parties. Exhibit A is the public complaint regarding non-clearing of latrines and non-removal of night-soils for about 15 days in the section of the Municipal ward where the com-plainants live. It was made over to the Sanitary Inspector for report. Exhibit A(3) is his report. In this report, he stated that the latrines concerned were within the duty area of Rukmini Methrani and she was guilty of negligence and dereliction of duty and did not pay any heed to the instructions and orders of the superior officers regarding performance of her duties. The complaint was made to the Municipality in usual course and the Sanitary Inspector's report was also obtained in usual course of business. There is absolutely no reason to reject the complaint and the Sanitary Inspector's report as false or fabricated. I am unable to believe that the Municipal authorities have fabricated this whole document for the purpose of this case. Exhibit B has been proved to be the formal charge-sheet drawn up against the concerned worker on the basis of the Sanitary Inspector's report. According to the evidence of O.P.W. 1 Dr. Gopal Chandra Pal, the Health Officer, this charge-sheet was served upon her and she received it by putting her thumb impression on the He has, of course, no personal knowledge about the service of the charge-sheet upon the worker and her putting thumb impression on the back of it, but he has proved the attestation of the thumb impression by the Conservancy Inspector, Abdul Samad. This document was shown to the worker, Rukmini, but she denied having received any such paper. Exhibit D is the next notice issued to Rukmini requiring her to be present at the enquiry to be held regarding the complaint against her on 30th June 1960. This notice was dated 21st June 1960 and in it, it was clearly stated that on 16th June 1960 a charge-sheet was framed against her and the notice was issued on and received by her on 17th June 1960 without submitting any explanation. Exhibit B is the office copy of the charge-sheet and notice issued to Rukmini. The notice, Ext. D, contains a service report on the back by Jhareswar Das, a peon of the Municipality, and according to the report, the notice was tendered to her and also read over and explained to her, but she refused to accept it and so it was served by fixation on the door of her house. Exhibit D(1) is the report. The service report has been formally proved by the evidence of the Health Officer, O.P.W. 1, Dr. Gopal Chandra Pal. Of course, Jhareswar Das, the serving Peon, has not been examined. But his service report cannot be wholly disbelieved on that ground alone. The report was made in usual course of business and it may be accepted as legal evidence. I am unable to believe that the Municipality also fabricated this whole document simply for the purpose of this case. Considering the oral evidence of the Health Officer and Exts. B, D and D(1) together in the light of surrounding circumstances and natural probabilities, I have no hesitation to hold that the charge-sheet, Ext. B and the notice, Ext. D, were duly issued to the concerned worker and she accepted the charge-sheet but did not accepted the notice. I am further satisfied from the evidence that the concerned worker did not appear at the enquiry fixed for 30th June 1960 and the Vice-Chairman called some of the complainants and some residents of the locality concerned and they appeared and the complainants of Ext. A fully supported their complaint against Rukmini Methrani by their written statement, Ext. F. As Rukmini was not present at the enquiry in spite of service of notice upon her, it was quite natural that there was no cross-examination of these persons. The aforesaid facts and circumstances clearly indicate that the Municipal authorities acted bona fide in issuing a charge-sheet and then holding an enquiry after notice to the concerned worker, but the worker herself kept away from the enquiry and so the enquiry had to be held ex-parte. Of course, there are no written proceedings of the enquiry. But that does not matter, because it is wellsettled that a departmental enquiry is not a fullfledged legal proceeding requiring compliance with all the formalities as to keeping records. remains that according to the evidence referred to and discussed above, there was a bona fide enquiry by the Municipal authorities regarding the complaint against the concerned worker. It further appears that the Vice-Chairman, who was in charge of the matter, did not stop with the holding of enquiry in the aforesaid manner, but he called for a further report from the Sanitary Inspector by the order, Ext. G. In this order, he made it clear that he was calling for a further report, because Rukmini did not submit any explanation to the charge-sheet and did not appear at the enquiry on 30th June 1960. The Sanitary at the enquiry on 30th June 1960. The Sanitary Inspector submitted the report, Ext. H. After this, another notice, Ext. I, was issued to the concerned worker to show cause why she should not be dismissed or discharged. According to the service report, Ext. I(1), this notice was tendered to and explained to Rukmini, but she refused to accept it and so, it w served by fixation on the door of her nouse. no reason to disbelieve or reject this service repo submitted in due course of official business. all this, the Sanitary Inspector submitted a furth report, Ext. J, dated 12th July 1960, and it we submitted through the Health Officer. After th report and after perusing the record of the case, the vice-Chairman passed the order, dated 18th Jul 1960 [Ext. J(2)] finding her guilty of charges a misconduct and negligence of duty, misbehavious and disobedience to order" and accordingly ordere her discharge from service with effect from the 19th 1960 [The Spritery Ingrestor of the Musiciant July 1960. The Sanitary Inspector of the Municipality who supervises the works of Methors and Methranic has substantially supported the fact of complair against her regarding negligence of duty in clearin latrines. I am unable to believe that the Municipalit falsely prepared and fabricated all the document referred to and discussed above simply to suppor their case against the concerned worker at the tria I am satisfied that the documents are correct an genuine. The complainant has absolutely failed to prove that the Health Officer and some other officer. of the Municipality were in the habit of taking illega gratifications from the Methors and Methranis, both at the time of first appointment and then during their service period. I am unable to believe the oral testimonies of Rukmini (P.W. 1) and her only witness, P.W. 2, Musa Madrasi, who is a dismissed employee of this Municipality. There is also no satisfactory evidence to prove that Rukmini ever protested against the alleged taking of illegal gratifications by the Health Officer and some other officers of the Municipality and so incurred their displeasure. There is nothing but her oral testimony in this respect. She is a member of the Union and there is nothing to show that she ever complained about it to the Union and the Union ever made any written protest against this alleged practice. In the above view of the facts and circumstances of the case, I have no hesitation to hold that there was no victimisation of the concerned worker but she was dismissed upon charges of grave misconducts involving gross negligence and dereliction of duty about which there was a public complaint against her and after a bona fide enquiry, notice of which was given to her, but she refused or failed to attend. So, her discharge or dismissal was certainly justified.

The evidence discloses that after the issue of the charge-sheet, dated the 16th June 1960, she was suspended for 15 days and she was finally dismissed with effect from 19th July 1960. The complainant has tried to make out a case that she really worked up to 17th September 1960 and then she was removed from service. There is absolutely no evidence to support it, except her own oral testimony and the testimony of P.W. 2, a dismissed employee of the Municipality I have examined the attendance registers (Ext. C series) and the entries do not support the position that she actually worked up to 17th September 1960. I have already stated above in connection with another point that there was attendance mark against her up to 18th July 1960, and then there was no attendance mark. It is true of course that her name was carried forward to the month of August, but that was a routine affair, but it is significant that there is no attendance mark against her name in August.

Ordinarily, after this finding the complainant would not be entitled to any relief. But, in the special circumstances of the case, though she is not entitled to the main relief of reinstatement, she would be entitled to relief by way of wages for one month in addition to the actual wages for the period of her service up to 18th July 1960. It was admittedly a dismissal or discharge under section 33(2)(b). The proviso to section 33(2)(b) lays down that no workman shall be discharged or dismissed unless he has been paid wages for one month and an application has been made by the employer to the authority before which the adjudication proceeding in respect of the previous dispute between the parties is pending for appreral of the action taken. No such application for approval was made and so the dismissal or discharg was in contravention of the provisions of section 13(2)(b). In accordance with the well-settled legal position, this Tribunal, before whom the complaint under section 33A has been made, has already gone into the merits of the dismissal or discharge and has found it to be justified. Upon this finding, the dismissal or discharge has been upheld on merits and so the complainant is not entitled to any relief by way of reinstatement. But, there was turther contravention of the provisions of the proviso to section 33(2)(b) by the employer in regard to the dismissal or discharge of the concerned worker. She was not paid wages for one month in addition to the wages for the period of her actual service, as clearly directed in the proviso. So, though the discharge or dismissal is upheld on merits in spite of the contravention of the proviso to section 33(2)(b) in regard to the required application for approval by this Tribunal and so the complainant has been found lisentitled to any relief by way of reinstatement, here is no reason why she should not get the monetary relief of one month's wages in addition to the wages for the actual period of service in regard to which there was also contravention of the provisions of section 33(2)(b). The Municipality is bound to pay the additional wages for one month, because it was a dismissal under section 33(2)(b). The evidence discloses that the complainant took her wages up to the month of May but did not take her wages for the 18th days of June 1960 though it was duly offered. She was suspended after 18th June 1960, but still she continued to be in service up to 18th July 1960. So, she is entitled to actual wages for the period from 1st June 1960 to 18th July 1960. In accordance with my findings above, the Municipality shall pay her the actual wages for the aforesaid period and shall also pay in addition one month's wages.

On the findings and for the reasons recorded above, I award that the dismissal or discharge of the concerned worker, which was made under section 33(2)(b) was justified on merits though there were contraventions of the proviso to section 33(2)(b), but as the dismissal or discharge has been found to be justified on merits, the complainant worker is not entitled to the relief of reinstatement, but she is to get one month's wages in addition to the wages for the actual period of service from 1st June 1960 to 18th July 1960, that is due to her and the Municipality shall pay her the aforesaid wages within one month from the publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

The application under section 33A, Industrial Disputes Act, is thus disposed of.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. The Alkali and Chemical Corporation of India Ltd., P.O. Rishra, district Hooghly, and their workmen represented by Alkali Chemical Mazdoor Union, Rishra, Hooghly. (Case No. VIII-338/61.)

BEFORE THE SEVENTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri S. K. RAY, Judge, Seventh Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak, a Union official, assisted by Shri Jadu Gopal Sen, Secretary.

For the Company: Shri A. K. Ganguli, Industrial Relations Manager.

AWARD

The above dispute over the issue given in the order of reference and reproduced below was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 5995-I.R./IR/11L-233(B)/61, dated the 26th October 1961.

Issue

1. Is the termination of employment of Shri Satya Ranjan Banerjee justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

The relevant facts and circumstances of the case and the respective contentions of the parties on disputed points will appear from the following discussions.

The concerned worker, Shri Satya Ranjan Banerjee, was employed in the polythene plant of the Company at Rishra as a Finishing Operator. On 6th August 1960 he was on shift duty from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. On the evening of that day, there was some trouble in his right eye and he reported this to the Foreman, who sent him to the factory dispensary for examination and treatment. Accordingly, reported to the factory dispensary, where in the absence of the Medical Officer, the attended to him and recorded his case as conjunctivitis. The next day, 7th August 1960, was a Sunday and a holiday. On 8th August 1960, Monday, he came to work, but could not carry on owing to the trouble in his right eye and so he reported to the factory dispensary again. On this day, the factory M.O. examined him and recorded his case as keratitis and gave him necessary medicines and also leave for two days from 9th August 1960. On 9th August 1960 the worker again came to the Medical Officer and the Medical Officer sent him to the Medical College for examination and treatment. The worker went to the Medical College and began to attend the Outdoor Department. He was admitted in the hospital as an indoor patient on 8th September 1960 and he was under treatement in the hospital for over a month After discharge from the hospital, he also continued to attend the Outdoor Department for treatment. Then on 5th November 1960, he came to the factory dispensary and saw the Medical Officer with a certificate from Dr. Sen Gupta, Assistant Professor, Department of Opthalmology, Medical College, Calcutta. The certificate was to the effect that the worker could carry on work which could be managed by one eye with normal vision. He had in the meantime lost the vision of his right eye. The factory Medical Officer did not, however, consider him fit to resume his work and advised him further treatment in the Medical College Hospital and extraction of the right eyeball. Accordingly, he again took admission in the Medical College on 9th November 1960. During the second phase of his treatment in the hospital, the right eyeball was extracted and replaced by an artificial stone eyeball. He was discharged from the hospital finally on 15th November 1960. He was absent from his work continuously from 9th August 1960 and for a period of more than three months from that date. So, the Company discharged him from service by its letter, dated 17th November 1960 (Ext. 5), on the ground that he had been suffering and was in continued illhealth for over three months since 9th August 1960. The Company purported to effect the discharge in terms of the Memorandum of Settlement between the Company and the Union, which was also referred to in that letter. It is contended on behalf of the Company that the discharge was effected in terms of paragraphs (7) and (8) under the heading "Leave and holidays" in the Memorandum of Settlement, according to which he could not be kept on the rolls of the Company and was bound to retire on grounds of ill-health, because he had been absent from duty on account of sickness for more than three months. The worker protested against such discharge by his letter, dated 23rd November 1960 (Ext. 4) and then there was some correspondence between the parties in which the worker pleaded for reinstatment and the Company refused to alter its decision. The worker wrote a letter, dated the 17th January 1961, to the Company (Ext. 2) giving his version of the facts and circumstances relating to his discharge and stating for the first time in writing that on 6th August 1960 some polythene powder fell in his right eye during work and this caused trouble to the eye, which ultimately resulted in the loss of this eye and the extraction of the eyeball. In the case now pu forward on behalf of the worker at the hearing, it i contended that the worker reported on 6th Augus the Foreman and the Compounde 1960 to the factory subsequentl dispensary and at on 8th August 1960 to the Medical Office of the dispensary that his eye trouble was due to fal of some polythene powder in the eye durin performance of his duties in the polythene plant. It is further contended on this basis that paragraphs (7 and (8) of the Memorandum of Settlement, referred to above, can have no application in his case, becaus it was not a case of absence from work for mor than three months on account of ordinary sickness but it was a case of the worker having been prevented from attending to his work on account o an accident which befell him in the process of world in the factory. It is further contended that, in an case, when the worker reported for duty on 51 November 1960 before the expiry of three month from 9th August 1960, from which date his absence from work commenced after the eye trouble, with fit certificate from a competent medical authority viz., the Assistant Professor of Opthalmology in the Calcutta Medical College, the Company should have allowed him to join his work on that date and the refusal of the Company to allow him to join his worl on that date was improper and unjustified and alte such refusal the Company cannot now turn round and say that he was absent from work continuously for more than three months due to sickness and so he came under the mischief of paragraphs (7) and (8 of the Memorandum of Settlement, referred to above

The question whether the eye trouble of the concerned worker which caused him to be absenfrom work continuously from 9th August 1960 was the result of any eye disease or any accident in the factory would have some importance in the presen case. If it was due to an eye disease, as contended on behalf of the Company, his continued absence or account of that disease would certainly come under paragraphs (7) and (8) of the Memorandum of Settlement, referred to above. But, if it was due to ar accident, as contended on behalf of the worker, the case would not come under paragraphs (7) and (8) which refer to absence due to sickness only and do not refer to absence due to any accident in the factory. It would be convenient here to reproduce the relevant paragraphs (7) and (8) of the Memoran lum of Settlement. The paragraphs stand

- "7. In other cases of long sickness, no one shall be kept on the rolls of the Company for more than three months.
- 8. After 12 months in cases of T.B. and three months in other sickness, the workmen will retire on grounds of ill-health."

It would be seen from the language of the paragraphs that they cover only cases of sickness and not cases of accident. Sickness as referred to does not certainly cover any incapacity caused by accident in the process of work. I have carefully considered the evidence on both sides bearing on the question whether the eye trouble of the concerned worker was due to any disease of the eye or to any accident and I am satisfied that the Company's case in this respect is correct. There is no evidence to prove that on 6th August 1960 some polythene powder fell in the right eye of the concerned worker in the tory except his own interested and uncorroborated timony. He now says that he reported the fact fall of polythene powder in his eye to the Foren and to the Compounder on 6th August 1960 d then to the factory Medical Officer on 8th gust 1960 when he first saw him. O.P.W. 2 Shri swa Ranjan Roy, the then Foreman, has denied statement of the worker and has stated that the rker only reported that he was having some pain one of his eyes. It is an admitted position that Foreman sent the worker to the factory spensary with a slip. Exhibit 8 is that slip. This n does not at all contain any statement about the ture of the ailment of the concerned worker. The orker saw the Compounder of the dispensary with s slip, because the Medical Officer was absent. the dispensary slip concerning this worker xt. G(1)], the note against the date 6th August 60 is "conjunctivitis R. E." The next note ainst the date 8th August 1960 made by the doctor "Keratitis". The factory Medical Officer, O.P.W. 1 N. Chowdhury, has also denied the statement of concerned worker and has stated that he never ported to him that some foreign substance had len into his eye. He examined him and found at he was suffering from keratitis, which is a velopmental process of certain eye disease which arts as conjunctivitis. I see no reason to disbelieve e Foreman and the Medical Officer simply on the sis of the uncorroborated oral testimony of the neerned worker himself. The Foreman has said at had there been any accident, he would have tached another slip to the slip issued by him, it. 8. Under rule 20 of the Standing Orders, it is rumbent upon all workers to immediately report injury sustained during the course of their work the works dispensary for attention. The worker I not certainly make such a report. The factory aheal Officer has further testified that he sent this rker to the Medical College on 9th August 1960, cause he suspected that he was developing corneal teration. Exhibit 9 is the factory doctor's report the Medical College Hospital. In this, the doctor ited that the worker was suffering from corneal teration of the right eye and recommended his atment in the hospital. The subsequent medical ps. Exts. 10 to 12(1), also show that he was flering from and treated for eye disease arising out corneal ulceration. No doubt the factory Medical ficer in his evidence has said that corneal ulceration ay be caused by fall of polythene powder, but it is mere possibility and the possibility has not been loved to be a fact in the present case. On the intrary, the evidence clearly discloses that his eye huble started as a case of conjunctivitis and veloped into keratitis and corneal ulceration. I anot believe that. Had it been an injury by any cident, as now alleged by him, he would not have ken care to report it to the Foreman and to the clory Medical Officer and to see that it was corded because he would be entitled to some ecial relief on account of such accident. It is rther to be noted that long after the discharge of e concerned worker by the Company's letter, dated th November 1960 (Ext. 5), the worker for the first he mentioned the fact of polythene powder having len in his eye on 6th August 1960 in his letter the Company, dated 17th January 1961 (Ext. 2), in all previous letters, there was absolutely no ation of any such accident. In the above view he facts and circumstances relating to this point,

I hold that the eye trouble of the concerned worker was not caused by any accident in the shape of fall of polythene powder in course of his duty, but it was due to some disease which started as conjunctivitis and developed into keratitis with corneal ulceration. So, the contention put forward on behalf of the worker that the relevant paragraphs (7) and (8) of the Memorandum of Settlement do not apply to his case, because his absence was due to an accident to his eye in course of his duty in the factory fails and is rejected.

The next point of contention that requires to be decided is whether the Company was justified in not allowing this worker to join his duty on 5th November 1960 when he appeared with a purported fit certificate from Dr. Sen Gupta of the Calcutta Medical College Hospital. The original certificate itself has not been produced, but the purport of the certificate has been given in Ext. 2, the worker's letter to the Company, dated 17th January 1961, in which he practically set out his whole case. As already indicated above, the certificate was to the effect that he could carry on work which could be managed by one eye with normal vision. The factory M.O., to whom this certificate was produced, could not, however, find him fit for work in the factory. His evidence is that though he came with a fit certificate from Dr. Sen Gupta, he (the M.O.) did not find him fit, because he saw that he had already lost one eye and he advised him extraction of the affected eye because otherwise the other eye would also be affected. He has also said definitely that after the extraction of his eye, he is not fit for the work he was doing in the factory. He has explained his position in his cross-examination by saying that on 5th November 1960 he could not give him work, because he had already lost one eye and required further treatment and he found from his experience that this man would not be able to work. In my view, in a case of this nature, the opinion of the factory Medical Officer, who has experience of the working of the factory and the measure of fitness required in a worker of this factory, should be accepted in preference to that of Dr. Sen Gupta, who had no experience of work in a factory. It is further to be seen that Dr. Sen Gupta did not certify him to be absolutely fit, but he certified him to be fit for such work as could be done by a man with one eve with normal vision. The factory Doctor with his experience of the factory working could certainly hold the contrary opinion and find that a man with one eye was not fit for factory work. Furthermore, it is clear from the undisputed facts and from the admissions of the concerned worker in his evidence that the pain in his eye was persisting and he again took admission in the Medical College on 9th November 1960 and there his right eyeball was extracted and replaced by a stone eyeball and after this, he was finally discharged from the hospital on 15th November 1960. This admission clearly indicates that his eye disease was persisting when he reported for duty on 3rd November 1960 and he had to again take admission in the Medical College for further treatment and in course of this further treatment, his right eyeball was extracted and replaced by an artificial eyeball. In a case like this, the Company was certainly within its right in acting upon the opinion of its own Medical Officer about the fitness of the worker to rejoin his work in the factory on 5th November 1960. In the above view of the facts and circumstances just discussed, I hold that there was nothing wrong or mala fide on the part of the factory Medical Officer and the Company in refusing to allow this worker to join his duty on 5th November 1960 in spite of the certificate which he brought from Dr. Sen Gupta and on that date the worker was still suffering from the eye disease and was not certainly fit for work in the factory.

After the above decisions of the two disputed points which are material for the purpose of the present case, I now proceed to deal with the other aspets of the case relating to his discharge from service. It has been proved by evidence and it is practically an undisputed position that the concerned worker was absent from duty for more than three months from 9th August 1960 and the absence was due to some trouble in his right eye. I have rejected the plea of accident to the eye in course of work raised on behalf of the worker and also the plea that though he became fit and came to join his duty on 5th November 1960, the Company improperly and unjustifiably refused to allow him to join his duty and had he been allowed to join his duty on 5th November 1960, it would not be a case of absence for more than three months due to sickness. After the rejection of these pleas, the clear and unambiguous position that stands out of the accepted evidence and also, to some extent, out of the facts admitted by the worker himself is that he was continuously absent from duty for more than three months from 9th August 1960 on account of some disease in his right eye which was certainly a form of sickness. This position certainly attracted operation of the relevant paragraphs (7) and (8) the Memorandum of Settlement, Ext. C, white admittedly binding upon the parties and the Comwas fully within its rights in terminating the se of the concerned worker under these paragraph its letter, dated the 17th November 1960. (Ex By this letter, his service was terminated by discland he was asked to collect his dues, if any, from appropriate department. That offer still stands the concerned worker is at liberty to recover al legal dues according to the rules and condition service from the Company. The Company therefore, fully justified in terminating his se with offer of payment of all his legal dues.

On the findings and for the reasons recombove, I award that the termination of the se of the concerned worker was justified and he draw all his legal dues from the Company accombo to the rules and conditions of service, as offerchim.

Shri N B CHAUDHURI, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal

Appearances:

For the Company: Shri S. K. Bose, Counsel.

For Hindusthan Motor Workers' Union: Shri Ram

For Hind Motor Employees' Union: Shri Atul Ray, Pleader.

The Government of West Bengal by its Labour Department Order No. 2764-I.R./IR/10L-68/60, dated 2nd June 1960, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute bewteen Messrs. Hindusthan Motors Ltd.. P.O. Uttarpara, district Hooghly (hereafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen employed in Uttarpara Factory represented by (1) Hind Motor Employees' Union, P.O. Uttarpara, district Hooghly, and (2) Hindusthan Motor Workers' Union, Buttolla, P.O. Bhadrakali, district Hooghly (hereafter referred to as the Unions), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

AWARD

After service of usual notices on the parties, both the parties entered appearance. The workmen of the concern are represented by two different Umons one being Hind Motor Empolyees' Union and the other being Hindusthan Motor Workers' Umon. The Unions have filed separate written statements elucidating their claim for bonus for the year 1958-59 payable in 1959. Though the written statements filed by the Unions are different, the sum and substance thereof are more or less same. Their case in short is this. Messrs. Hindushan Motors Ltd., whereof Messrs. Birla Brothers of 8 Royal Exchange Place, Calcutta, are the Managing Agents, is a well-known automobile factory. The Company is a very prosperous one and has practically a monopoly over this line of business, and is thus earning huge profits. The Company maintains and runs three subsidiary concerns also, but these subsidiary concerns are not being run at a profit, and as a result it is draining a heavy amount of its profits. Though the Company is making large profits, it is not paying living wages to its work-The administration is rather top-heavy, and the Management is spending unnecessarily large sums of money under different heads not very much essential for effective running of the industry and the administration. The workmen placed their claim for bonus for the relevant year before the Management, but it was turned down without any sufficient reason. The payment of Puja bonus is a condition of service for the employees of this concern, and it is so payable irrespective of profit or loss of the Company. It is urged that Puja bonus has become customary also in this concern as in other concerns of West Bengal. Besides the claim of Puja bonus on the ground of condition of service or custom, it is alleged that the Company made huge profits in the year in question and the workmen have large contribution towards this profit also, and as such they are entitled to profit bonus as well as Puja bonus. Accordingly, the Hindusthan Motor Workers' Union claims one month's wages as Puja bonus for 1959, and four months' wages as profit bonus for the relevant year. On the other hand, the Hind Motor Employees' Union claims two months' wages as Puja bonus and two months' wages as profit bonus.

The Company files two separate written statements in reply to the two different statements filed by the two Unions, and the burden of its statement is in short this: It is urged that no bonus—customary or as a condition of service—is payable to the workmen. It is pointed out that by different decisions of different Tribunals, this claim has been set at naught more than once. The Company states that its financial condition is not happy and has not improved for various reasons. It is not a fact that it enjoys a monopoly position in the automobile industry of the country. The Company started manufacture and assembly of Hindusthan motor cars in 1951. With great difficulty, industry made some headway in the face of it restrictions and various other handicaps concomitant difficulties. Far from achieving factory trading results, the Company could not cover its machinery, plant and buildings with permissible depreciation and/or rehability charges. The Company failed to pay any distriction in 1959. The average earning of the workmethis concern is well above the minimum fix the Third Engineering Tribunal. The average of earning of the workmen of this Compacomparatively better or higher than the the comparable industries in this region. finally urged that the profits of the year will leave any available surplus for payment of claimed by the workmen.

Other facts will appear from the body o award that follows:

Decisions

In the different written statements filed on of the workmen, the Unions have cl customary bonus and also bonus as a condit service. But from the evidences adduced a time of hearing it appears that the workm longer press their claim for such bonus. really claim bonus out of available surplus of p In fact, the Company also submits that this po customary bonus and bonus as a service was urged more than once before dif Tribunals, and the claim was rejected oprevious occasions. It is accordingly urged this part of the claim is really barred by prir analogous to res judicata. In fact, no evidence been adduced before me at the time of hear show that these workmen are entitled to cust bonus or bonus as a condition of serivce. I be pointed out that the workmen claimed bonus for 1954 also, and the local Second Indi Tribunal by its award published in the "Ca Gazette", dated 5th Jnauary 1956, negatived claim. Similarly bonus on identical ground claimed for 1955 also, and the said Tribunal award published in the "Calcutta Gazette" 8th October 1956, rejected the claim outright. identical point was raised before this Tr also, while advancing the claim for 1957-58 p in 1958 and this Tribunal also by its award lished in the "Calcutta Gazette", dated September 1961, found that the claim for bon the ground of custom or condition of service not tenable. Thus without further discussi at once hold that no bonus is payable to the p workmen for the year 1958-59 on the grou custom, tradition or condition of service.

The real point at issue, as I have obsabove, is whether the workmen are entitled t bonus out of available surplus, if any, of the perned during the year 1958-59. The parties t present dispute are Messrs. Hindusthan Motors and their workmen. The allegation is that present Company is a highly prosperous one in almost monopoly position in the autonindustry of the country, and thus it earned profits during the year 1958-59. So, before I pattern to examine the issue of bonus on merit, I may dentally mention here a short history of Company and its present position. This Company was incorporated originally in Baroda State sometime in 1942 or so with a comparatively small authorised capital. The original venture of the Company was to start with assembly of automobiles with imported parts and components. It established its first plant at Okha in Baroda State. However, on account of the Second World War the Company could not make such headway during the first few years of its existence, when the reigns of the Government were lying in the hands of a foreign power. However, after the conclusion of the Second World War and by the end of 1947, the building work of a factory at Calcutta (Uttarpara) was completed and necessary machineries started coming, and erection thereof progressed satisfactorily. This factory progressed satisfactorily. thereof started work at the end of 1947, and assembly of cars and trucks, e.g., Hindusthan Tens, Studebakers, etc., was taken up. By 1948, the Company started making arrangements for the manufacture of components in its own factory. The work of manufacture of components, however, commenced in right earnest from 1951, and this venture progressed satisfactorily thereafter from year to year. By the year 1957-58, components representing approximately 68 per cent. of the C.I.F. value of a complete car were being manufactured in the factory at Calcutta. percentage rose still higher by the end of the next year. It may be mentioned here that in 1953 the Company was entrusted with the manufacture of Baby Hindusthan cars. But the import licence of this model was later stopped. Similarly, the assembly of Hindusthan Tens and Studebakers also had to be discontinued. By the year 1958-59, manufacture and assembly of Hindusthan Ambassador motor car and Bedford trucks served the field. It is, of course, not correct to say that Hindusthan Motors had monopoly in the automobile industry of the country, though in certain matters it was the leader in this line. The automobile industry of the country was actually placed in charge of a few Companies for manufacture of different models of passenger cars and trucks, and these companies are Hindusthan Motors, Premier Automobiles, Messrs. Standard Motors, Messrs. Mahindra and Mahindra, TELCOS, Ashoke Levlands, etc. It is also a fact that the demand for automobiles is growing very rapidly during the last decade, and the development programme of the successive Five-Year Plans depends largely for its success on the capacity and efficiency of this new industry. The industry is undoubtedly in its infancy, and yet in spite of bold programme for indigenous manufacture of parts and components, the production cost thereof is still very high compared to that of the similar concerns abroad. Due to import restrictions and foreign exchange difficulties, the supply of automobiles in the country is still far short of the demand in spite of its high production cost. It may also be mentioned in this connection that this concern, though it came into existence about two decades back, failed to give any dividends to its shareholders before 1959. During the last few years, of course, the Company is earning more and more profits from year to year, and hence this clamour for sharing of profits hv the workmen.

During recent years, questions relating to bonus have figured very prominently in labour-management relations. It will not perhaps be an exaggeration to say that lately this has become almost a regular annual question in every industrial concern which is earning a fair amount of profits. Be that as it may, it is no longer in dispute that profit-sharing bonus payable to the workmen is to be determined according to the formula popularly known as the Full Bench This formula has originally been evolved Formula. by the Full Bench of the Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case of Mill Owners' Association, Bombay, and Rastriya Mill Mazdoor Sangha, Bombay, in 1950 (vide 1950 L.L.J. 1247). The Supreme Court had occasion to consider this formula in the case of Muir Mills Co. Ltd. vs. Suti Mills Mazdoor Union, Kanpore, in 1955 (1955 Vol. 1 L.L.], page 1). By that judgment, however, the Hon'ble Court did not commit itself to the acceptance of the said formula in its entirety. Nevertheless, the Hon'ble Supreme Court generally accepted as sound certain principles laid down by the Labour Appellate Tribunal. However, the propriety or the scalars of principles and the propriety or the scalars of principles. ever, neither the propriety nor the order of priority as between four prior charges and their relative importance nor their content was examined by the Supreme Court in that case. In some later decisions also, the Hon'ble Supreme Court generally accepted the Full Bench Formula as the proper basis for cal-culation of such bonus. The question of adequacy, propriety or validity of its provisions was not thoroughly examined before the decision in the case of A.C.C. & others vs. Their workmen (1959 I L.L.J. 644). It may now be said with confidence that the stamp of approval has been finally laid on this formula by the Hon'ble Supreme Court while deciding the A.C.C. case. Though the formula has been elucidated under different contexts in the subsequent decisions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the fact remains that most of the principles have been thoroughly elucidated by their lordships in the A.C.C. case for the first time, and so this decision must be the sheet-anchor for our purpose. In applying this formula for determining bonus, if any, payable to the workmen, we are first to consider what essential conditions should be satisfied before the demand for bonus can be justified. It may be mentioned in this connection that the claim for customary or traditional bonus, or bonus as a condition of service, is governed entirely by different rules, and in the instant case we are not concerned with those rules, because the workmen of the present concern are not entitled to such bonus as determined above.

We are concerned in this case with profit-sharing bonus only. To establish a claim for profit-sharing bonus, the first condition that is to be fulfilled by the workmen is that the wages of the workmen fall short of the living wages standard. Even without entering into any evidence on this point, it will not be impertinent for me to say that the goal of living wages has not actually been reached in India in any industrial concern. Of course, there is no dispute that there is no legal presumption that the wages available fall short of the living standard in any particular case. The onus to satisfy this condition primarily lies on the workmen no doubt. But I may at once observe that in this particular case and specially at the time of the present hearing, it was not the contention of the Company that the workmen of the present concern have already attained the standard of living wages, and for this reason, in fact, neither party has adduced any evidence in this respect. This point has been set at rest by an earlier decision also of this Tribunal, while considering the claim for bonus payable in 1958 in respect of year 1957-58 between the same parties, and this award was published in the "Calcutta Gazette', dated 21st September 1961. It was found that the workmen of the present concern did not actually attain the standard of living wages and this decision was not challenged by either party before any superior Court. In the long written statement filed by the Company, it was nowhere stated by it that its employees had already attained the standard of living wages. It was simply stated that the wages in this Company were not low compared to those of other similar concerns of this region. But it did not venture to submit that it was already paying living wages to its workmen. So, without further discussion, I may at once hold that the present Company is not paying living wages to its employees and thus the first essential condition for a claim for bonus has been actually satisfied.

The second condition for such a claim is that the industry must take profits in the relevant year, and the workmen did contribute in earning such profits. No question of bonus can really arise where there are no profits during the year in respect of which bonus is claimed. The present Company is a Public Limited Company and its duly audited balance-sheet together with profit and loss account is an Exhibit the profit and loss account the profit and loss account challenged by the Unions also. The correctness of any particular entry has not been seriously challenged by or on behalf of the workmen. So, I may at once point out that the trading results of the Company in the year under consideration show a net profit of Rs. 34.88 lakhs at least, of course without entering into the question at this stage as to what will be the amount of total gross profits for the purpose of calculation of available surplus. According to the Full Bench Formula, there is no escape from the conclusion that the present Company actually earned a fairly big amount of profit in the relevant year. So, without further discussion I hold that the second essential condition for preferring such a claim has also been fulfilled by the workmen.

From what I have mentioned above, it is sufficiently clear that this Company is a manufacturing concern, and it maintains a big factory at Uttarpara for assembly and manufacture of passenger cars and trucks. The workmen before me are workmen engaged in this factory. The entire or most of the profits mentioned above come out of the sale of cars and trucks manufactured by this Company. So, it goes without saying that these workmen had certainly a hand in the entire or most of the profits earned. The workmen certainly contributed to the earning of the profits by helping production. There is no evidence to prove that these workmen did anything which contributed to a fall in production or loss of the Company.

The essential conditions to justify a payment for bonus having thus been fulfilled, I may now consider how the profits are to be computed, for the purpose of bonus. The working of the Full Bench Formula begins with the figure of gross profits, taken from the profit and loss account, which is arrived at after payment of wages and dearness allowance to the employees and other items of expenditure. As a general rule, the amount of gross profits thus ascertained is accepted without rendering the profit and loss account to a close scrutiny. If, however, it appears that entries have been made on the debit side deliberately and malafide to reduce the amount of gross profits, it will be open to the Tribunal to examine the question, and if it is satisfied that the impugned entries have been made malafide it may disallow them. It will likewise be open to the parties to claim exclusion of items either on the credit side or on the debit side on the ground that the impugned items are wholly extraneous and entirely unrelated to the trading profits of the year. In considering such a plea, however, the Tribunal must resist the temptation of dissecting the balance-sheet too minutely or of attempting to reconstruct it in any manner. In such matters, the Tribunal is to take an overall practical and commonsense view.

In working out this formula, other important facts which should not be ignored are that the formula proceeds to deal with the labour's claim for bonus on the basis of the relevant year, for which bonus is claimed, as a self-sufficient unit, and appropriate accounts have to be made on the notional basis in respect of the said year (vide A.C.C. case).

Thus the first step in ascertaining the available surplus is to assess the gross profits for the purpose of bonus, and the gross profits must be assessed in accordance with the principles laid down by their lordships in the A.C.C. case. The present concern is a Public Limited Company, and the annual report for the relevant year includes the balance-sheet and profit and loss account of the year ending 31st March 1959. It is the accepted principle of law by now that the balance-sheet and the profit and loss account of the Company in respect of the relevant year should be presumed as correct, unless it is established that the entries thereof are not acceptable for sufficient reasons. Where there is no challenge as to the correctness of the balance-sheet or the profit and loss account, we can start with the thereof with confidence and without any hesitation. It may be mentioned at once in this case that the Company's witness has not only proved the balance-sheet and the profit and loss account, but also has vouchsafed for the correctness thereof. Ext. A is the annual report-cum-balance-sheet and profit and loss account. From the deposition of O.P.W. 1 Shri S. N. Santhalia—it will be clear that Messrs. S. R. Batliboy & Co., Chartered Accountants, have duly audited the accounts of the Company, and this duly audited balance-sheet contains the usual statutory certificate of the auditors. From the cross-examination of Shri Santhalia it is clear that all the items of profit and loss account have been taken from the financial accounts of the Company. So, without further discussion, I may at once presume that the balancesheet and the profit and loss account reflect the true state of affairs as disclosed by the Company's books of accounts. On the contrary, there is not an iota of evidence on the side of the workmen concerned to show that the balance-sheet or the profit and loss account suffers from any defects or malafides. is not the allegation of the workmen that any secret reserve has been kept for any purpose, that any method has been adopted to write down the assets of the Company or to inflate the liabilities of the Company. Thus, there is nothing on record to show that the balance-sheet or the profit and loss account is unreliable. In fact, both the parties have occeded on the assumption that these balance-cet and the profit and loss account are correct.

The profit and loss account of the relevant year ows a net profit of Rs. 34.88 lakhs, and this figure s been accepted as correct by both the parties for purpose of calculating available surplus. Before lisenss about the items to be added back or the deditions to be made from the gross profits, I may one here verbatim the different statements of both a parties for calculating the gross profits and available surplus. Ext. B is the statement prepared in 18 connection by the Company, and it is as follows:

From the two statements quoted above, it will be clear that both the parties agreed that a sum of Rs. 69.63 lakhs shown as provision for depreciation, a sum of Rs. 8.10 lakhs shown as provision for development rebate and a sum of Rs. .04 lakhs shown as charity and donations in the debit side of the profit and loss account should be added back for ascertaining the gross profits. According to the Company, no other sum should be added back for ascertaining the gross profits for the purpose of But according to the Union, a sum of bonus. Rs. 7.87 lakhs debited towards discarded machineries and equipments written off should be added back in assessing the gross profits. From the profit and loss account, it will be at once clear that this item of loss or expenditure is due to writing off of some plants and machineries which are undoubtedly fixed assets and thus capital goods. In spite of the adjustment of a sum of Rs. 5,000 the scrap value of the assets written off, the Company has incurred a capital loss of 7.87 lakhs compared to the written down value thereof in the books of accounts. is hardly any scope for doubt that such loss of capital goods is not a revenue expenditure which should be met out of the profits carned during the year. This loss or expenditure is of capital nature, and may be charged against depreciation or rehabilitation fund, if any. But it cannot be charged against the profits of the year, because it is not a trading expenditure or an ordinary revenue expenditure. This being of the nature of capital loss or an expenditure of capital nature, the amount must be added back in assessing the gross profits, and the contention of the Union must be accepted. correctness of this argument advanced on behalf of the Union is indirectly admitted by the Company's witness, Shri Santhalia, the Accountant, also while he pleads for deduction out of gross profits of a sum of Rs. .14 lakhs as profit on sale of conveyance, on the ground that this amount had nothing to do with the profits of the Company for the relevant year—it being an income of capital nature, i.e., an item of capital gain. I shall discuss about this point hereafter, while considering the deductions to be made out of gross profits. In other words, while the items of capital gain should be deducted out of gross profits, the items of capital loss shown in the profit and loss account must be added back to the net profits for assessing the gross profits. So, I find that this amount of Rs. 7.87 lakhs shown as loss on account of discarded machineries, etc., must be added back.

The next argument on behalf of the Union is that a sum of Rs. .04 lakhs shown as provision for bad debts should also be added back, as there is no satisfactory evidence to show that the said amount was not any longer recoverable. From the profit and loss account, it will appear that the Company From the profit purported to write off about Rs. 4,000 as bad debts. As the term "bad debt" implies a debt considered had when it is treated as no longer recoverable, the contention of the learned representative for the Union is that there is no sufficient proof that the amount could not be recovered in spite of all possible attempts. But I find no substance in this contention. The amount is not very big, and there is no evidence on record that this item of loss or expenditure has been unnecessarily inflated to reduce the amount of net profits. All that is alleged is that it may so happen that the amount sought to be written off may actually be recovered in future. Even assuming that this position is not altogether impossible, I may point out that so far the year under consideration is concerned, the amount must be treated as bad debt, for there is no evidence of malafides in this respect. If per chance any amount out of this written off amount be actually recovered, the amount will be treated as profit in the year of its recovery. So, I am unable to accept the contention that the amount written off as bad debts should be added back. It has been held in numerous cases that the amount written off as "bad cannot be added for ascertaining the gross profits in the absence of any positive evidence that this amount shown as bad debt is reallly a camouflage to conceal a substantial part of the profit with a malafide motive. So, without further discussion, I finally hold that this amount of bad debt cannot be added back as claimed by the Union.

The next contention of the Union is that an amount of Rs. 4.24 lakhs provided for wealth tax should not be treated as a prior charge, and so it should be added back for ascertaining the gross profits. It is contended that in the Full Bench Formula there is no mention of wealth tax as a prior charge like income-tax. Hence, it is urged that the formula does not warrant the Tribunal in treating wealth tax as a prior charge or as a necessary item of expenditure. It may be pointed out at once that this wealth tax did not come into existence at the time when the Full Bench Formula was evolved. This tax is a much later imposition by the appropriate authorities. If wealth tax is compulsorily payable like income-tax, three is no reason why it should not be treated on the same footing with income-tax. I may add in this connection, that this point has practically been set at rest by the decision of their lordships of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in a case reported in 1961 L.L.J. Vol. I page 508. It has been held by their lordships that wealth tax, if payable like income-tax, is a prior charge on the profits of the year. Howev from the profit and loss account of the relevitivear, it will appear that the Company paid so wealth tax for the year 1956-57, and no amon which was paid for an earlier year can be trear as a revenue expenditure out of the profits of 1 year under consideration. The Company, howey has made only a provision for wealth tax for I year 1958-59 for payment of wealth tax if and wh assessed. It appears that wealth tax is actual assessed about two years after the accounting ye and by the time the profit and loss account w drawn up, the payment of such tax was only anticipated liability and thus a possibility, and Company made a provision only therefor. I stronsider whether any amount should actually deducted out of the profits on account of wea tax when I shall consider the prior charge of incortax. But for the present I direct that the provis made towards payment of wealth tax be add back. If the amount be found actually payable, will be deducted while calculating the surplus.

It is agreed by both the parties that income t relating to the relevant year and extraneous incombherein the workmen had nothing to contrib should be deducted from the profits assessed abo It is conceded by both the parties that an inco of Rs. 1.71 lakhs pertaining to previous year and amount of Rs. 19 lakh received by way of refu of income-tax due to previous year should deducted in assessing the gross profits of the we But from the Company's statement quoted above, will be clear that the Company desires that so more items of income shown in the profit and k account should also be deducted before deducti the prior charges in accordance with the Full Ben, Formula. It will be clear from the profit and le account that a sum of Rs. 8.40 lakhs has be debited on the ground that this amount came of the provisions made in the past, but no long required. Shri Ram Sen, appearing on behalf of the Workers' Union, contends that this claim of the Company should be rejected, as there is no sati factory evidence to show that the said item relate to a different year. But I may point out that it not correct to say that there is no evidence on i point. Shri Santhalia swears in his deposition follows:

"The reason for deduction of this amount account of provisions no longer required is t it is not a profit or a receipt during the relevance. Certain provisions to cover up the liabilities which cannot be ascertained we substantial accuracy on a particular date a accounted for by debiting to the profit and leaccount of a particular period in order to me the liabilities as and when ascertained. The covers the amount which was so provided for the past 10/12 years, and after meeting the liabilities which could be ascertained and for which purpose these were meant, this amount which remained as surplus has now been writte back to the profit of the Company. The amount has nothing to do with the profits the Company of the relevant year."

From the above statement, it appears that in t preceding years the Company made certain protisions to meet some unascertained liabilities, at

after meeting those liabilities as and when they were scertained, there stood a surplus amount and the company did not any longer think it fit to set apart he residual amount for that purpose. Hence, this mount has been shown as provisions no longer equired for the purpose for which it was originally et apart. Thus it is sufficiently clear that this mount of profit or income is not really a trading neome or profit of the year under consideration. The amount was earned presumably in some earlier cars, though it has been shown as a sort of profit n the profit and loss account of the year under onsideration. We have already stated that according to the Full Bench Formula, the relevant year for which bonus is claimed is a self-sufficient unit, and the appropriate accounts have to be made on the notional basis in respect of the said year, and an income which relates to any previous year cannot be treated as profit of the year in question. So, I think, this amount must be deducted out of the gioss profits for assessing the available surplus.

It is urged by the Company that an amount of Rs. .14 lakhs shown as profit on sale of conveyance should also be deducted out of gross profit of the year, because the workmen had nothing to contribute towards this income, and in fact this was only a capital gain and not a trading profit. From the deposition of Shri Santhalia it appears that the Company sold some used cars during the relevant year. These cars were actually purchased in earlier years and were evidently fixed assets of the Company. The difference between the amount realised and the written down value thereof in the Company's books represents the surplus shown as profit on sale of conveyance. It has, therefore, got nothing to do with the working results for the relevant period, the income being only a capital gain. So, I think, this amount should be deducted for the same reason for which the amount of capital loss was found to be eligible for being added back.

It is next urged on behalf of the Company that a sum of Rs. .24 lakhs received as indenting commission by the Company should be deducted, because the workmen had no contribution towards this mome. Shri Sen on behalf of the Union very seriously contends that this indenting commission cannot be treated as an extraneous income, and so it cannot be deducted from the gross profits. Shri Sen's contention is that in all ordinary cases, indenting commission is treated as an ordinary business meome or trading profits of the Company. The employees of the Company usually maintain records m respect of this income, and as such they make some contribution towards earning of this indenting commission also. It is also urged on behalf of the Umon that where the employer makes some profit m the course of its trade or business, it would be unieasonable to enquire whether each of the item of the said profits is related to the efforts of the workmen. I may at once observe that it is no doubt the responsibility of the Company to establish beyond reasonable doubt that a particular income is teally extraneous having no nexus with the efforts of its employees. The Company has accordingly adduced some evidence in this connection, and it is for the Tribunal to see if the evidence adduced in this connection is sufficient to warrant a conclusion that this item of income is really extraneous and thus entitled to be deducted from the gross profits of the year. Shri Santhalia in his deposition states that this amount of Rs. .24 lakhs shown as indenting commission has been paid to the Company by its foreign associates, viz., Morris Motors of U. K. and General Motors of U.S.A. -being the overriding commission on vehicles sold by them in their home countries booked through the dealers of the present Company, in India, who are not in any way Company's employees or part of its organisation. Certain vehicles when sold by Company's foreign associates abroad which are ultimately to come to India are also accounted for the purpose of allowing overriding commission to the Company. This is irrespective of the Company's trading activities here and not at all related to the efforts of the workmen engaged in the Company's employment. It is pointed out on behalf of the Union that such income by way of indenting commission is rather a regular of the Company's business, and so this feature should not be treated as a fortuitious or extraneous income. The profit and loss account of the year 1957-58 will show that a sum of Rs. 04 lakhs was earned during that year as such commission. In the year under consideration, i.e., in 1958-59 the Company earned a sum of Rs. .24 lakhs and in the vear 1959-60 the Company earned Rs .27 lakhs from the same source. So, it is to be seriously considered whether this income is really a trading or business income of the Company having nexus with its employees, or whether this income is altogether extraneous having nothing to do with the efforts of the workmen. I must frankly observe that this point is not altogether free from difficulty. The Union has no evidence to show what is the source of this income. It has nothing particular to show that it is really a profit in the ordinary course of business of this Comany. The present Company is primarily a manufacturing concern, and it does not sell its products directly to its consumers. It appears that under the regulations the Company is entitled to earn a fixed rate of profit in accordance with the directions of the Tariff Commission or other authorities. On the other hand, as the evidence of the Company stands, it appears that this particular income or profit comes from extraneous source and the regular workmen of this Company have no substantial contribution towards the same. It may be argued that as this amount of profit finds its way in the profit and loss account of the Company, there must be corresponding books of accounts also maintained for the purpose, and the workmen may have maintained these books of But at the same time, it is not impossible accounts. that this item of income may not be actually dealth with at the workmen level. Even assuming that the workmen may have some contribution, yet it appears that such contribution, if any, must be very minor or insignificant, and is not sufficient to bring this amount of profit in the hotchpot of gross profits. I may mention here that almost a similar question arose in the case of Voltas Ltd. vs. Their workmen (FLR. 1961 S.C. 176). It was also urged on Is half of the employer in that case that a certain amount received as commission deducted from the gross profits should not be taken into account for bonus purpose. In that case, the Company was the Sole Agent in India of certain foreign manufacturers and used to get commission on transactions done abroad. It was contended on behalf of the workmen in that case that profit should be taken into account for bonus purpose, because they serviced the goods and did every work which brought such income and business to the Company. In that case, however, there was no evidence on record to show that the goods were serviced free or for charges in the same way like other goods sold by the Company in India. So, for the purpose of that case only, the Hon'ble Supreme Court took the transacted amount into account for bonus purpose as done by the Tribunal and refused to interfere with the decision of the Iribunal. Nevertheless, it was categorically opined that their lordships could not lay down that it must always be taken into account. In other, words, then lordships were of opinion that a commission or an indenting commission should not be taken into account for bonus purpose, simply because the amount Each case should be decided in the light of the circumstances and evidence on record. In that case, the evidence was wanting, and so the benefit was given to the workmen. In the present case, as I have pointed out above, the categorical evidence is that this part of the income, i.e., "indenting commission" or "overriding commission" was carned for some transactions wherein the employees of the Company had no hand employees of the Company had no hand or no contribution. There is no evidence to show that the present workmen had anything to do with the cars sold abroad by foreign companies. It has been categorically stated that this indenting commission had no nexus with the efforts of the workmen. With this observation, I find that for the purpose of this case, that this amount should be deducted from the gross profits for assessing the available surplus.

The learned Counsel for the Company next urges that a sum of Rs. 6.49 lakhs due to interest on fixed deposit should not be taken into account for bonus purpose, because this is also an extraneous income, and the workmen had nothing to contribute towards the same. In this connection, I may refer to Ext. T wherein the Company has filed a detailed statement showing how the interest in question has been actually earned. From that statement, it will appear that in the year under consideration the Company earned about Rs. 6.80 lakhs by way of interest from different amounts of deposit of the Company's money, and out of this total amount a sum of Rs. 6.49 lakhs was earned as interest on fixed deposit alone. It is conceded by the learned Counsel for the Company also that if this profit has any nexus with the efforts of the workmen or if this amount of income has been earned by way of ordinary trading activities of the Company, then this amount must be taken into account for calculating the available surplus. The learned Counsel places reliance on the decision in the case of Tata Oil Mills Co. and their workmen (1959 II L.L.J. 250), and in fact the correctness of this decision is accepted by the Union also. But I may point out that in this case the Supreme Court considered for the first time very elaborately the correct meaning of the term "extraneous profit" with reference to various items of revenue which were canvassed before them. The main reason given in this decision for excluding what is termed as extraneous income is that they are unrelated to the efforts of the workmen. Thus neither party before this Tribunal has actually any reason to challenge this principle of law laid down by their lordships. The real question is how far this income by way of interest arising out of the fixed deposit of the Company's money can actually be treated as extraneous income, and whether the workmen had any nexus with the earning of this amount. As a general principle, I may at once observe that income from investments cannot be considered as extraneous under normal circums. tances. I may point out in this connection that in the year under consideration, the Company carned a fairly big amount of money, i.e., Rs. 6.80 lakhs as interest on fixed deposits and other deposits in Banks, etc. In the trading year 1957-58 the Company earned a sum of Rs. .72 lakhs only as interest from Banks and others. Thus one can easily imagine that this income resulted from utilisation of Company's money and other income derived directly from the business activities of the Company. The natural presumption is that a large amount of this capital which was invested by the Company in different Banks by way of fixed deposits came out of subscribed capital; or was built up over a long period of years of its trading activities, and the workmen must have contributed to it directly or indirectly. I may also incidentally point out that income from interest in the year 1959-60 came down to Rs. 6.06 lakhs only. This shows that the amount or fixed deposits or deposits does actually vary from year to year according to the trading activities of the Company, and as such this income cannot be said to be fortuitious altogether having no nexus whatsoever with the trading activities or the efforts of the workmen. These investments must be deemed to have been made to protect, extend or add to the main business carried on by the Company, for otherwise the Company would not have kept such big amounts in fixed deposits, etc. when during the year it had to pay a fairly big sum interest for its own borrowings. From the profit and loss account, it will appear that in the year under consideration alone the Company had to par Rs. 1.57 lakhs as interest to Banks and others. So it is difficult for me to accept that this income of interest arising out of fixed deposits of the Company's money should be treated as extraneous So, I think, this amount cannot be income. deducted from the gross profits calculated for bonus purpose. In fact the entire capital was not locked up in the fixed assets alone of the Company at any point of time.

(Rupees in lakhs.) 34 -88 Profit as per P/L Account Add back 80.63 Provision for depreciation 8 10 Provision for development rebate Charity and donations ... Discarded machineries written off 7 -87 4 -24 Provision for wealth tax 124 - 76 1.71Income prtaining to previous years Refund of Income-tax . . . -19 8 40 toxisions no longer required -11 Profit on sale of conveyance . . -24 Indenting commission 10.68 124 .76 Gross profits 114.08 ascertained the amount of gross the first item of deduction relates laving depreciation in accordance with the depreciation in accordance with the Fun-ich Formula mentioned above. Since 5 formula was evolved by the Hon'ble 5 pour Appellate Tribunal, much controversy tered round the question of this item of 5 reciation. By successive decisions of their 6 dships of the Supreme Court it has not been set rest for calculation of depreciation for bonus pose that the initial and additional depreciation mitted by the Income-Tax Act, 1948, is not missible under this formula. The Full Bench the Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case of P. Electric Supply Co. Ltd., etc., and their rkmen held that the depreciation which should be the state of deducted from the gross profits in working the mula is the annual depreciation allowable under provisions of the Income-Tax Act including altiple shift depreciation. In Surat Electricity appany case, it was further held that for the rpose of the formula a notional amount of normal preciation only should be taken into account. This mt was considered by the Supreme Court in the C. C. case also, and it has been finally observed their lordships that the depreciation which has be deducted from the gross profits should be a suprementation of the court of the notional normal depreciation as explained in the se of Surat Electricity Company Ltd. and others 957 II L.L.J. 648). From what has been stated pove, it will be clear that the controversy over the unciples of calculation of depreciation has been ore or less resolved. But in spite of it, the parties mnot often agree as to the petral up lication pereof for the purpose of calculation of notional ormal depreciation. For instance, from the chart noted above, it will appear that according to one the Unions of this case, the notional normal epreciation to be deducted in this case should not xeeed Rs. 23.47 lakhs, which is, according to the Injon, the maximum statutory depreciation allowble for the year. On the other hand, the Company's hart will show that it claims deduction of Rs 33.46 ikhs by way of notional normal depreciation, and a support of this contention the Company files a latement showing how notional normal depreciation as been calculated for the year 1958-59 (vide kt. D). From the deposition of Shri Sauthelia D.P.W. 1), it appears that depreciation was alculated on the basis of the written down y lue f the various assets of the Company as on 1st April Since then, the Company has tolen into count the additions every year, adjusted for sales nd other deductions and calculated at the rates rmssible under the Income-Tax Act and Rules extaining to the different kinds of the This unciple has been followed, it is illered, every sea mee then. The claim for working extra his under he Income-Tax Act has also been mode for the year inder consideration. Evt. C shows the position of he written down value of the assets in the near 1948-49. Ext. E shows the details of additions of machineries, etc., during 1958-59. Shri Santhaliar Mears that the statement (Ext. E) is correct to the best of his knowledge and information, shall it based on the books of accounts of the Company. TF is a statement showing additions to buildings d their date of use in the year 1958-59. Ext. G is statement showing additions to furniture and ings during the year 1958-59. It is mentioned in s connection that all the furnitur, and fittings were brought into use on or before the date of payment mentioned in the statement (Ext. G). Ext. H is a statement showing details of conveyance account for the year 1958-59. This statement shows the details of additions as well as sales of convey-ance during the year 1958-59. Ext. I (in two sheets) is the correct copy of the depreciation statement for the year ending 31st March 1959 submitted by the Company before the Income-Tax Authorities for the purpose of claiming depreciation, and according to this statement Rs. 23,47,825 was the amount of statutory depreciation claimed for the purpose of income-tax liabilities for the year in question. This statement will further show that of the total sum of Rs. 23 lakhs and odd Rs. 20,51,732 was the amount of statutory depreciation for the Automobile Division and Rs. 2,96,093 was the depreciation for the Fabrication Division. Thus it is clear from Shri Santhalia's own statement also that the statutory depreciation claimed by the Company for the year 1958-59 was much smaller than the notional normal depreciation now claimed for the purpose of bonus calculation. Shri Sen appearing on behalf of the Union contends that notional normal depreciation cannot and should not exceed the statutory depreciation claimed by the Company. But to me it appears that for bonus purpose, we are not actually concerned with the statutory normal depre-At times, this notional normal depreciation ciation. may be below the amount of statutory depreciation, and on occasions the notional depreciation can exceed also the statutory depreciation. Though the rate of depreciation is based on the Income-Tax Act and its Rules, the calculation for bonus purpose is made on notional basis, and so it cannot be held at once that the Company's calculation is wrong, simply because the amount of notional normal depreciation claimed in this case is bigger than the amount of statutory depreciation actually claimed by the Company before the Income-Tax Authorities. This point has been elucidated by their lordships of the Supreme Court while deciding the Surat Electricity Company's case (1959 II L.L.J. 648) and it has been explained how the notional normal depreciation for bonus purpose is to be calculated. It has been observed by their lordships as follows:

"Under the provisions of the Income-tax Act, the deduction allowed under the head of depreciation in the earlier years of the use of the machinery is heavy, so as to give relief to the assessee. As this heavy deduction would have the effect of unduly lessening the available surplus under bonus formula to the prejudice of labour even in a year of prosperity, the Full Bench has postulated for a more even distri-bution of depreciation over a period of years; there was at no time any intention to deprive the employer of his full depreciation. Keeping this in mind, the normal depreciation for the purpose of the bonus formula dose not present any difficulty in calculation. Under the Income-tax Act, the normal depreciation is a sum equivalent to such percentage of the written down value as may be prescribed. For the purpose of bonus formula, the initial and additional depreciation, which are disallowed by that formula, must be ignored in fixing the written down value and in determining the period over which the normal repreciation will be allowed. The result will be

From the above observations, it is sufficiently clear that in the earlier period of the life of the machineries heavier depreciation will be allowed according to Income-tax Act and lower amount of according to income-tax Act and lower amount of depreciation will be allowed in the latter part of their life. But according to bonus formula, the depreciation is more or less evenly distributed. According to Income-tax Act, the written down value of machineries will come down more quickly with the property of the table of the down to be action. with the passage of years due to heavier deductions in earlier years. But according to the bonus formula, the deductions being more even, the written down value will not come down as quickly as in the other case. So, the notional normal depreciation allowable for machineries, etc., may be higher latter part of the life of the machineries than the statutory depreciation. In fact, this is the reason why in Ext. D the notional normal depreciation as calculated therein for the year 1958-59 and also the written down value of fixed assets as on 1st April 1958 have been shown as higher than those of Ext. I wherein depreciation for the self-same year has been calculated for income-tax purpose. So, it is not at all unlkely that in the year under consideration, the notional normal depreciation was really bigger than the statutory depreciation for income-tax purpose.

The next contention of Shri Sen is that there was big addition to fixed assets during the year 1958-59. and the Company cannot claim notional normal depreciation for the entire value of this addition, unless the Company establishes by cogent evidence than these additional fixed assets were actually utilised or used all through that year. It appears from Exts. E, D, G, and H that all these additional assets acquried during the year were not actually brought into use from the very beginning of that year. It will be apparent from these exhibits that these things were brought into use on different dates and in different months of the year; and there are too many items actually under this head of "new additions". Shri Sen contends that in assessing notional normal depreciation in Ext. D. the Company has assumed as if the entire additions were put into use throughout the year. In this connection, I may refer to page 17 of the balance-sheet (Ext. A). From Schedule A of that page, it appears that fixed assets valued at Rs. 70.45 lakhs were additions during the year, and from a footnote thereof it appears that the said amount includes machineries worth Rs. 32.02 lakhs which were under crection and/or in transit. Thus according to this schedule, new machineries, etc., worth Rs. 37.43 lakhs, acquired during the year were installed and brought into use during the year. But it is not clear from that statement of fixed assets for what period during the year these new installations were actually However, this will be clear from the details of additions as stated in Exts. E, F and G. ever, from the details of additions to machineries during the year 1958-59 (Ext. E) and the last portion of that statement, it will be clear that so far the automboile section was concerned the additions brought into use in course of that year amounted to Rs. 26.26 lakhs. Besides these, furniture, etc., worth Rs. 8.30 lakhs were also added and brought into use during the year. It may also be mentioned he that machineries worth Rs. 8.34 lakhs were paid during the year 1957-58, but they were actual brought into use during the year 1958-59. From this it will be at once clear that during the ye 1958-59 the total additions brought into use for t first time in automobile division alone amounted Re. 33.62 lakhs. Similarly, the statement of fix assets mentioned in Schedule A to Ext. A will she that in heavy engineering division alone the to addition during the year was Rs. 13.14 lakhs, a the whole of it was brought into use during the ye details of additions of machineries From the respect of heavy engineering division during the ye 1958-59 (vide Ext. E) it will appear that machiner worth Rs. 13.33 lakhs were actually paid for duri the year 1957-58, but were brought into use for t first time during the year 1958-59. Similarly from Ext. D-1 it will appear that during the year 1957. factory buildings worth Rs. 97,000 and odd we actually brought into use though during the ve buildings worth Rs. 8.71 lakhs only were actua constructed. The residue portion of these buildin though constructed in 1957-58 was actually brough into use during the year 1958-59. Thus from Ext. it will appear that the total new additions actual brought into use during the year 1958-59 amount to Rs. 33.44 lakhs. In other words, the total ne additions brought into use during the year 1958in both automobile and heavy engineering divisio of the Company amounted to Rs. 67.06 lakhs. the Company is surely entitled to notional nort depreciation in respect of these new additions broug into use, besides the old assets of the Company which written down value has been shown in t first column of Ext. D. The notional nomal depi ciation has been calculated on these amounts in t latter three columns of Ext. D. Of course. I m at once observe that that the whole of these n additions were certainly not used during the who of the year 1958-59. It goes without saving that term "depreciation" represents loss or diminution the value of assets consequent upon the wear a tear, obsolesence, effluxion of time or permanent f in the market value. All assets which are more less constantly in use, naturally diminish in value reason of wear and tear. As the wasting of assu contributes to the earning of profits, it is only ig that it should be viewed as an expense, and unle this shrinkage in the value of assets is provided to the value of the assets will be over-estimated. Fig the above observations, it will be clear that Company can claim depreciation in respect of fixed assets only when it suffers any wear and to due to use. But in case of installations during f year and not brought into use throughout the who vear, depreciation must be proportionately reduce Ext. E will also clearly show that the newly install machineries were not actually in use during the whole of the year 1958-59. Accordingly, Company has calculated depreciation of new add tions in proportion to the period of their actu user. It is also not in dispute that in case of ext shift of work in the Company, the Company entitled to additional depreciation on that groun Accordingly, I find that the total depreciation calculated in Ext. D is quite correct. In this vie of the matter, I hold that the Management is entitle to deduct a sum of Rs. 33.47 lakhs as notioni normal depreciation for the year 1958-59,

Before I conclude, I may incidentally mention that according to Shri Sen no depreciation should be allowed in respect of heavy engineering division, because it has not been clearly stated in the Director's Report (vide Ext. A) from what day this particular division was actually brought into us. But I find not much substance in this contention. The Directors in their report have clearly mentioned that the Company's heavy engineering shop for steel fabrication has started working, and that orders have been received and are being executed. So, it goes without saying that the heavy engineering shop was not only installed, but was also brought into use in the course of the year, if not carlier. I have already pointed out that a portion of the building fon this section of the industry was actually brought into use in 1957-58. I have also pointed out above that different machineries in respect of this division were brought into use in different parts of the year 1958-59, and in calculating the notional normal depreciation, the relevant year has been broken up according to dates of user, and thus depreciation has been caclulated proportionately. So, I think, this objection of Shri Sen does not stand.

The next objection of Shri Sen is that the rates at which this notional normal depreciation has been calculated are not correct. It is alleged that the rates are not what have been prescribed by the Income-Tax Rules. In this connection, I may at once point out that Shri Sen's contention is not correct. The rates which have been adopted by the Company for calculation of notional normal depreciation in Ext. D are really the prescribed ones of the Income-Tax Act. So, in conclusion, I accept the Company's calculation of notional normal depreciation as correct.

The next item of prior charge to be deducted from the gross profits is the insome-tax on profits. In the words of their lordships of the Supreme Court in A.C.C. case, the balance obtained after deducting depreciation from the gross profits is then taken as the amount on which calculations have to be made about the income-tax payable for the bonus vear. Having regard to the basis of the formula and the manner in which other items of the formula are required to be worked out, it would not be reasonable to allow the employer to claim under the item of "income-tax" an additional amount in respect of two further depreciations which are expressly allowed to him under section 10(2)(vi) of the Income-Tax Act. It is also clear that the amount determined under this item would not represent the actual tax which the Income-Tax Department will recover from the employer, and in that sense it will always be a notional amount. In short, provision for income-tax should be made on prefit less statutory depreciation. So far this principle is concerned, neither party has any dispute. However. there is some dispute as to the amount of depreciation to be deducted for the purpose of calculating income-tax. The Company has filed its own calculation in this respect, and it is marked Ext. J. From that calculation, it will appear that out of the total gross profits of the year, the Company amongst other items has deducted a sum of Rs. 23.47 lakhs 48 Statutory depreciation in addition to development rebate. The learned representative of the Union draws my attention to the profit and loss account of the Company for the relevant year (vide Ext. A).

In assessing the profit and loss of the year, the Company has provided in its profit and loss account a sum of Rs. 69.63 lakhs as provision for depreciation. Shri Sen for the Union contends that this provision made by the Company must have some basis, otherwise the Company has no sufficient reason for providing an inflated depreciation. Apparently, there is some force in this argument of Shri Sen, because in assessing the actual profit or loss of the year, the Company was not expected to show an inflated depreciation which is neither equal to notional depreciation for our bonus purpose nor to the alleged normal statutory deprecitaion to the alleged normal statutory deprecitation in accordance with the Income-tax Act. In this connection, I may, however, refer to the deposition of Shri Santhalia. Shri Santhalia categorically states that Ext. 1 is a correct copy of the depreciation statement for the year ending 31st March 1959 submitted before the Income-tax Authorities for the purpose of claiming depreciation. It is not in dispute that the Incomedepreciation. It is not in dispute that the Income-Tax Assessment Order for the year 1958-59 has not yet been received by the Company. The Company has no doubt submitted a return of its income for that year, and in that connection it has submitted a depreciation statement also. The evidence is that Ext. I is the true copy of the depreciation statement filed before the Income-Tax Authorities, and if statutory depreciation be calculated in accordance with this depreciation, the total amount of statutory depreciation comes to Rs. 23.47 lakhs only for both automobile and heavy engineering sections. Shri Santhalia further swears that under no law the claim of Rs. 69 lakhs and odd by way of depreciation for the year can be sustained. This being the state of evidence, I cannot but hold that Ps. 69 lakhs and odd cannot be deducted for the purpose of calculating income-tax, simply besause such an amount was debited to the profit and loss account of the relevant vear. Evidently, an inflated provision for deprecia-tion was made with a purpose and presumably it was done to conceal a part of the actual profit earned during the year. Be that as it may, I think the income-tax calculated by the Company in its Ext. J is the correct amount, and in that view of matter the Company is entitled to deduct Rs. 37.22 lakhs as prior charge under the heading "income-tax".

The next question is whether the Conspany is entitled to deduct wealth tax in addition to incometax mentioned above. Shri Sen contends that the formula does not expressly mention any item like wealth tax for deduction as a prior charge. But this point, as I have mentioned above, has been set at rest by the decision of the Supreme Court reported in 1961 L.L.I. Vol. I, page 508 Wealth tax was imposed for the first time by the Wealth Tax Act, 1957, and it is payable on the net wealth of a Company for each financial or assessment year on the basis of the total net wealth as it stood on the last day of the previous financial year. The liability of this tax continued from year to year, until the Companies were exempted from the levy of this tax by the Finance Act of 1960-61. The Finance Act of 1960-61 for the first time enacts that notwithstanding anything contained in the Wealth Tax Act, 1957 no tax shall be charged in respect of the net wealth of a Company for any financial year commencing on or after the first day of April 1960. Thus there is no doubt that wealth tax was also payable by this Company for the financial year 1958-59, the bonus year for our purpose. There is nothing to show as yet that wealth tax for the year in question has been actually assessed by the authorities concerned. The Company has made provision for wealth tax for the year, and this sum was assessed at Rs. 4.25 lakhs. There is nothing on my record to show that this is an inflated provision. So, for the purpose of the present case, I find that a sum of Rs. 4.25 lakhs should also be deducted by way of wealth tax from the gross profits of the year for the purpose of calculating available surplus.

The next step in the working of the formula relates to the deduction of an appropriate amount in respect of the return on paid-up capital as well as working capital. I shall first discuss about the paid-up capital. In the case of Indian Oxygen & Acetylene Co. Ltd. and Their workmen (1954 II L.L.]. 54) the Labour Appellate Tribunal explained the basis for granting return on paid-up capital in the following words:

"An employer, however sound his financial position, is entitled to a fair return on the money he puts in the business. In fixing a fair return for an investment, a point for consideration is, of course, the amount of risk involved, but the danger of discouraging investment by giving unattractive return should not be lost sight of One of the means for achieving the industrial peace, which is essential for the development and expansion of industry is an investing public who would be attracted to the industry by a steady and progressive return on capital which the industry may be able to offer. For the sake of argument as much as for the sake of the employers, it is desirable that the business should continue and expand which would be achieved by ploughing back the profits. The ploughing back of profits would be discouraged if the shareholders are not assured a fair return"

So, there is no scope for any argument that a fair return on the paid-up capital of the Company should not be guaranteed. The question is what should be the rate of this return on the paid-up capital. In numerous decisions, it has been held that under normal circumstances, where there is no unusual risk, 6 per cent. return is a proper return. Of course, there is no hard and fast rule that this rate cannot be higher or lower under any circumstances. If the investment is unusually risky, higher returnmay be allowed. On the other hand, under exceptional circumstances a lower return also is not inconceivable. It is argued on behalf of the Company that the future of automobile industry is not very certain, and the market of the products of this industry being highly sensitive there is unusual risk also. It is urged that models of passenger cars and trucks may require change at intervals of short periods, and unless the Company keeps itself abreast of the up-to-date improvements in the industry, there is copy derable risk in this highly precision engineering industry. But I may point out that whatever may be the condition of this automobile industry in other countries where there are many rival competitors, for a country like India where high tariff wall has been erected for giving protection to this infant but rapidly growing industry, the risk is not so high as it is contended. From the Jha Committee Report exhibited in the present case, it will appear that the demand for automobiles in this country was at its lowest ebb when this Company saw the light of the day. But with the progress of rapid industrialisation in the country in view of its successive Five-Year Plans, the demand for automobiles has gone up by leaps and bounds, and it is common knowledge that the supply of products of automobile industry of our country lags far behind the demand and is unable to meet the present demand, and this state of affairs, I think, will continue for a few decades to come. Where supply lags behind the demand and certain profits are guaranteed and where the industry is growing under the protective wing of the Tariff Board I see no justification for allowing more than 6 per cent. return on the paid-up capital. Of course, in spite of the said contention, the Company has tacitly accepted that 6 per cent. return on paid-up capital is a reasonable return, and in its calculation of available surplus it has actually calculated return at 6 per cent. only on the paid-up capital. It is nobody's case that any portion of the capital has been subscribed during the year, and in fact there is no evidence also in this respect. So, the question of allowing return for a portion of the year does not arise. In the circumstances, on this item the Company is entitled to deduct Rs. 44.16 lakhs. A calculation has been filed on behalf of the Union also. From that statement it appears, as if the Company is entitled to deduct Rs. 39.01 lakhs only under this item describing the same as dividend. But I may point out that in our formula we are not at all concerned with the dividend-proposed or declared by the Company. The Company in its profit and loss account has no doubt set apart a sum of Rs. 39.08 lakhs for proposed dividend. But it is the accepted principle of law that even if Company declares or proposes to declare no dividend whatsoever, the Company is entitled to return on its paid-up capital at a reasonable rate. So, the assessment of the return on the paid-up capital cannot be in any way conditioned by the dividend-declared or proposed. Shri Sen further urges that the Company has invested a portion of its paid-up capital in some subsidiary Companies, and no profit is being earned out of this investment. So, it is alleged, no return should be allowed on this portion of the invested capital. From page 17 of Ext. A (Annual Report) that a sum of about Rs. 14 lakhs has been invested in subsidiary Companies and other Companies, and there is nothing to show that any dividend was obtained or profit earned from shown under the heading "investment" in the asset side at page 11 of the balance-sheet. From the balance-sheet it will appear that this investment was made out of the paid-up capital of the Company or the accumulated resources if any. The amount so the accumulated resources, if any. The amount so invested may be unremunerative, but the fact remains that this investment was made in the ordinary pursuit of Company's business. If the employees claim a share of profits out of the remunerative portion of the capital, it must also share the liability of unremunerative portion of the same. As the money belongs to the share-holders, a fair return must be guaranteed on the whole of this capital irrespective of the question as to how the Company has invested the same. With this bservation, I finally hold that the Company is ntitled to 6 per cent. return on the entire paid-up apital for the bouns year in question, and this is 35. 44.16 lakhs.

The next point for consideration is what was the mount of reserve and depreciation fund used as vorking capital by the Company during the year in mestion, and what should be the rate of return agreen. It is the accepted principle of law by now hat the reserves which are carried over from year year in law belong to the Company and therefore is entitled to some return on this money employed s working capital. The Company is entitled to cal with this reserve as it choses, and neither the harcholders nor the employees can claim, as of ight, any benefit accruing from this reserve imployed as working capital. There cannot be any loubt that the employment of reserves as working apital obviates the borrowing of money pro tanto rom outside sources for the same purpose and may n at higher rates of interest. The Supreme Court ilso in the numerous decisions of that Court made abundantly clear that any portion of the reserve ctually utilised as working capital in the year under ofisideration should be treated as entitled to a easonable rate of return, and the amount thus scertained should be deducted as a prior charge in iscertaining the available surplus. In A.C.C. case ilso, their lordships of the Supreme Court accepted hat no essential difference could be made between pereciation fund and any other fund belonging to he Company which could be invested so as to earn return. The fact that the fund in the hands of the concern has been used as working capital justifies he claim for an adequate return on it. If the concern utilises the liquid funds available in its hands for the purpose of meeting its working expenses rather than borrowing necessary amount, it is entitled to claim some reasonable return on the funds thus utilised as working capital. Their lordships have also cautioned that it is for the employer to establish that such fund is actually available and as been used as working capital during the year. The Company also does not theoretically challenge he correctness of the principles formulated above. But in calculating or computing the amount of reserves and surplus said to have been used as working capital, the Company has included certain amounts which do not come within the purview of the formula. Ext. S is the statement showing company's calculation for this purpose. The Company contends that the net amount utilised in the working of the Company is Rs. 158.94 lakhs. But I may point out that in preparing this statement, the Accountant of the Company carefully avoids a categorical statement that the Company used reserve and depreciation fund amounting to the said sum as actual working capital. On the contrary, his calculation appears to be that whatever be the source of the working capital of the Company, the entire Working Capital should fetch an additional return for the Company. But from the principles already mentioned above, it can be at once said that the Company is not entitled to return on the entire sum popularly known as working capital. A portion of the paid-up capital may be used as working capital, but that portion of the paid-up capital though used as working capital, is not entitled to an additional return, because a certain return has already been allowed on it—it being paid-up capital.

Similarly, the money value of goodwill may sometimes be treated as working capital, but it cannot be said to be Company's reserve fund or liquid fund to be used as working capital. Only such reserve fund and depreciation fund which are shown in the liability's side of the balance-sheet and which are not borrowed capital or paid-up capital of the Company can be said to be Company's liquid funds available for being used as working capital. For the sake of better appreciation of the discussion which I shall make hereafter, I would like to quote in extenso Company's way of computation of working capital (vide Ext. S).

From this statement as well as from the liability's side of the balance-sheet, it will appear that the Company had a reserve fund of Rs. 10 lakhs for contingencies. Similarly it will appear therefrom that a liquid fund of Rs. 1.41 lakhs was available towards development rebate reserve. There is hardly any scope for doubt that these two amounts of liquid fund were available for being used as working capital. It appears as if a sum of Rs. 9.39 lakhs was available at the commencement of the relevant year under the item of "profit and loss account balance and forfeited dividends". It is contended that this amount also was in the hand of the Company and was available for being used as wroking capital. But from the right-hand column liability's side, it appears that a sum of Rs. 5.18 likhs only was shown as the profit and loss account balance, and it is not clear where the rest of the amount has actually gone. Similarly, it is urged that certain amount shown as provision for wealth tax and proposed dividends were available in the hands of the Company in the commencement of the year, and the amounts were actually expended for those purposes in the latter part of the year, and so those amounts were also available for being used as working capital until those amounts were actually disbursed or spent. From a decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal of India in the case of General Electricity Company of India Ltd. vs. Their workers (1956 II L.L.). 113) it appears that this very question was mooted before the learned Tribunal, and it was held by the Appellate Tribunal that these items were not in the nature of reserves used as working capital, and the Company's stand in that connection was found to be misconceived. In the present case, a sum of Rs. 174 only was all along there as forfeited dividends, and this amount was a fluid amount in the hands of the Company. In the balance-sheet of the year under consideration, a sum of Rs. 5.18 lakhs was shown as profit and loss account balance, and the previous year's profit and loss account balance lost its identity in course of the Following the observations of the learned Appellate Tribunal in the decision referred to above, it may be said that an item of Rs. 5.18 lakhs and odd is the balance from the profit and loss account of the year which under the appropriation account has been carried to the balance-sheet and shown there under the heading "surplus and reserves". This balance has not been utilised by way of addition to reserves, but it is a surplus out of the profits of the year which under the appropriation account has been carried to the balance-sheet. The items of provisions appear under the heading "liabilities and provisions" and it can hardly be said that any such amounts are actually lying with the Company in liquid cash for being utilised in running the business. These are merely in the nature of anticipated liabilities, and can with no stretch of imagination be treated as reserves. In this connection, the learned Appellate Tribunal quoted with approval certain observations in connection with the decision of the case of Singh Pitae Mills and their workmen, and I need not quote the same in extenso. It has been observed finally by the Tribunal in this connection that the Company is not entitled to any return on the liabilities which it incurred and in respect of which it has made no payment. In other words, the claim for return on the amounts representing undischarged liabilities on the ground that it formed a part of the working capital must be rejected. For claiming such return, the amounts so utilised must belong to the Company. Mere provisions for current liabilities though shown in the liabilities side of the balance-sheet do not constitute Company's capital in liquid cash, and ordinarily no return is available for them. Thus except for the paltry sum of Rs. 174 on account of forfeited dividends, the claim for return as mentioned in the third, fourth and fifth items of the list quoted above must be rejected.

The Company claims to have utilised a sum of Rs. 225.48 lakhs said to be a reserve on account of provision for depreciation. The observation of the learned Appellate Tribunal in the case referred above is a complete answer to this claim of t Company. Following the observations of learned Appellate Tribunal, it may be pointed of that the so-called items of depreciation reserve ( not stand for reserve as such, and to use the ter 'reserve' in respect of such amounts is a misnome These items occur on the asset side in the balanc sheet as against liabilities side, and are indication of depreciation up to 31st March 1959. If against this depreciation, any sum is set apart that way of depreciation reserve or depreciation fund of the profits of the Company, then only it becomes a reserve as such; and the item for depreciation reserve proper does occur in the liability side of th balance-sheet. In other words, though up to th end of the year under consideration the total depreciation charged by the Company amounts t Rs. 225.48 lakhs and this amount was transferred t the depreciation account, the Company neve actually set apart any such amount out of its profit as depreciation fund readily available for use a working capital. So, in addition to reserve for contingency and development rebate, there is no reareserve for depreciation, and the Company's claim for return on provisions for depreciation must be rejected.

Next, the Company claims return on the average of working income during the year. It is urged on behalf of the Company that on an average a sum of Rs. 62.36 lakhs was available as ready cash in the hands of the Company for being used as working capital. Ext. S-1 shows how this average income has been calculated actually. It is a fact that the Company must have earned some profit or income from its business during the year, and this gross income may be fairly big. It may also be a fact that on an average the monthly income may be said to be Rs. 62.36 lakhs. But I fail to see any reason how this average income of the year becomes a ready cash to be used as surplus capital in the sense of reserve proper to be used as working capital. The liabilities' side of the balance-sheet is alone capable of showing what was the amount of capital in the hands of the Company during the year under consideration. The gross profits or the gross income of the year cannot be said to be Company's capitalised income for being used as working capital. During the year the Company not only earned income but made expenses too, and the Company never got an opportunity for capitalising any particular amount earned during the year. The profits earned in course of the business may be there in the hands of the Company, but this amount never became Company's reserve money pure and simple for all legal purposes wherein the shareholders or the employees of the Company had no claim. This gross income was not Company's money alone, and it was actually earned with the co-operation of capital and labour. So, the Company cannot claim a separate return for itself on this average income of the year, until any particular portion thereof is actually transferred to the Company's reserve fund. It has been held in more than one case that balance at the foot of profit and loss account is not to be treated as reserve. Moreover, I have already mentioned that return is not available to the Company on every amount that has been used as working capital. The Company can only claim return either on reserve fund and on depreciation und, and this reserve must be actually utilised in he business during the year as capital. So, without urther discussion, I at once hold that the Company 5 not entitled to any return on the average of working income during the year.

As regards current deposit with banks, it is 12 epted by both sides that this should be treated on par with eash in hand and no return should be illowed thereon. From what I have stated above, it will be clear that the total amount of reserve and depreciation fund used as working capital and for which some fair return should be allowed to the Company will be about Rs. 11.50 lakhs. There is not much dispute that if such reserves are used as workinging capital, the rate of return should be ordinarily 4 per cent, and not more. But it has been held by the Supreme Court in several cases that before an employer can claim any return on liquid reserves he must lead evidence to show that the reserves in question have actually been used as working capital during the relevant period. So, the question arises in this connection what should be the nature of proof that is called upon in such cases before anybody be tound to deserve return. The accepted principle appears to be that mere filing of a balance-sheet or in other words a mere statement collected from the balance-sheet is of no assistance or is not sufficient to show that any portion of the reserve was actually utilised as working capital. In one case, an affidavit on behalf of the Company was considered sufficient proof on the point. In the instant case, the Controller of Accounts, Shri Santhalia, swears that a huge amount has been used as working capital, and naturally he thereby implies that the amount of reserve and depreciation fund also has been used as such. I have already pointed out that that the entire amount of working capital cannot be treated as reserve or depreciation fund for which some return may be allowed for bonus purpose. Be that as it may, there is no escape from the conclusion that the fluid money in the hand of the Company by way of reserve and depreciation fund at least was used as working capital and must fetch a fair return. So. from the evidence on record and in the absence of any denial on the other side, I accept that a sum of Rs 11.50 lakhs at least was used as working capital, and the Company is entitled to 4 per cent. return thereon. This amount of return shall be deducted from the gross profits for ascertaining the available The amount of return under this item accordingly stands at Rs. 00.46 lakhs. Thus the total amount to be deducted from the gross profits on account of different prior charges already considered comes to Rs. 119.55 lakhs as will be seen from the calculation noted below:

Notional normal depreciation		33.46
Income-tax liability for the year		37.22
Wealth tax		4.25
Return on paid-up capital		44.16

capital		.46
	-	119.55

We have shown above that the total gross profits the year amounted to Rs. 114.08 lakhs. So irrespective of the claim of the Company on account of rehabilitation charges, the total gross profits fall short by more than Rs. 6 lakhs, and in this view of the matter the question of having any available surplus for benus purpose does not arise at all. Of course, it is needless to mention that the present Company is a big manufacturing concern, and in a sense is the pioneer of automotive industry in this country. In view of the rise in prices of capital goods after the Second World War, there is hardly any scope for doubt that the Company will be entitled to some amount as rehabilitation charges also, which is a prior charge according to the authors of the Full Bench Formula. The authors of the Full Bench Formula as well as their lordships of the Supreme Court in the A. C. C. case have categorically held that the Company is entitled to claim rehabilitation for its buildings and machineries, and this word 'rehabilitation" includes the charges of replacement, rehabilitation and modernisation of the plants and machineries. From Ext. B which is a calculation of available surplus filed on behalf of the Management on 6th March 1961, it apepars as if the Company actually required in the relevant year a sum of Rs. 437.52 lakhs as rehabilitation charges alone. But from a revised calculation filed on behalf of the Company at the time of argument, it appears that a sum of Rs. 727.32 lakhs was required for rehabilitation, replacement and modernisation of plant and machinery alone in the relevant year. From the above two statements alone, it will be sufficiently clear how difficult it is to make a proper calculation of rehabilitation charges. While the Company has a natural tendency to inflate this claim, the workmen on the other side have a natural tendency to deflate the same. In this connection, I may quote here certain remarks made by their lordships of the Supreme Court in the A.C.C. case.

"That takes us to the item of rehabilitation, and it is this item which poses a very difficult problem. We have already noticed that the object of providing depreciation of wasting assets in commercial accounting is to recoup the original capital invested in the purchase of assets; but the amount of depreciation which is allowed under the formula can hardly cover the proper cost of replacement. That is why the formula has recognised the industry's claim for rehabilitation in addition to the admissible depreciation. Since the second world war, the prices of industrial plant and machinery have registered a continuous upward rise and its inevitable consequence has been a proportionate rise in the claim of rehabilitation. What the Tribunal has to estimate is the probable cost of replacement of plant and machinery when such replacement would become due The estimate about the probable life of the plant and machinery is itself, to some extent, a matter of guess work, and any anticipation however intelligently made about the probable trend of prices during the intervening period would be nothing but a guess."

I may mention at this stage that if my deductions from gross profits as found above have been rightly calculated, I am not really called upon to decide what should be the total amount of rehabilitation charges for the relevant year, because in that circumstance even leaving aside the question of rehabilitation charges there is no likelihood of any available surplus for distribution of bonus amongst the workmen.

If, however, I assume the Union's calculation of gross profits to be correct for the sake of argument, but without accepting it the total amount of gross profits will stand at Rs. 122.91 lakhs. I have already pointed out that according to Shri Sen, the notional normal depreciation should not exceed Rs. 23.47 lakhs. Similarly, Shri Sen's contention is that incometax should be Rs. 22.9 lakhs approximately. He makes this calculation of income-tax on the basis of normal stitutory depreciation alone, being an amount of Rs. 69.63 as has been provided for in the profit and loss account. According to Shri Sen, 6 per cent. return also should not be allowed on the unprofitable portion of the capital investment. If all these contentions be accepted as correct, there is some scope for consideration whether the claim for rehabilitation will consume or eat out the entire residue of the gross profits. So, simply assuming for argument's sake only that Shri Sen's contention is true and without accepting it for my decision, I may discuss in short what will be the probable rehabilitation charges for the relevant year. Their lordships of the Supreme Court have discussed and laid down the principle which should be remembered in calculating rehabilitation charges according to the Full Bench Formula. I may mention here that a decision on the question of probable cost of rehabilitation is always reached by adopting a suitable multiplier and this multiplier is based on the ratio between the cost price of the plant and machinery and the probable price which may have to be paid for its rehabilitation, replacement and modernisation. The next step in making calculation of rehabilitation charges is to determine a suitable diviser. The total amount required for rehabilitation which is determined by the application of a suitable multiplier in respect of each block has to be divided by a suitable diviser in respect of each block in order to ascertain the annual requirement of the employer in that behalf year by year. In the case of multiplier, the employer seeks a higher multiplier, while the workmen claims a smaller one. On the other hand, in the case of diviser the employer seeks for a lower diviser while the workmen press for a higher one, and it is for the tribunal to reach a fair conclusion on the it. Before actually evidence before respect of rehabiliing appropriate amount in tation for the bonus year, certain deductions have to be made. The first deduction to be made is the break-up value or the residual value of the plants and machineries. Thereafter depreciation and general reserve available to the employer is to be deducted. Usually the break-up or break-down value of the plant and machinery is calculated at the rate of 5 per cent. of the cost price of the block in question. In this connection, I may simply observe here that in appropriate cases the break down value or residual value of the plant and machinery may be assessed at more than 5 per cent. also for special reasons. I shall discuss this point hereafter while making calculation on the point. Before I make the actual calculation, I would like to discuss in brief the evidence on record in respect of multiplier and diviser in the present case. Both parties have examined some witnesses on this point. For the sake of convenience, I shall first discuss the evidence adduced on behalf of the workmen. According to P.W. 1, Shri Sakti Ranjan Chatterjee who is a workman of this Company, the existing machines in the Machine Shop of the Company will work effectively for 30/35 years more from now on, According to this witness, there are certain second. hand machines also in this factory and they are in operation since the factory was started in 1947. He adds that these second-hand machines may possibly last for 30 years more from the date of his examination. But the question is how far the statement of this witness may be accepted for assessing the probable life of the machineries of this Company. He is a young man of 28/29 only and he read up to class 1X. He has no technical education or diploma. His present basic wage is only Rs. 3 per diem. He of course gets production bonus and dearness allowance in addition to the said basic wages. As regards his experience, it appears that he was in the India Industrial Works for about 5/6 months only, and he has been serving this Company for the last 71 years. He is now working as a Setter in the Machine Shop Department. From the elaborate cross-examination of this witness, it will be sufficiently clear that he has limited experience in respect of motor industries, and he has some working experience only in respect of some machines on which he was allowed to work. He has no enginering education or technical knowledge to assess scientifically the probable life of the machineries. By no stretch of imagination, he can be said to be an expert to give dependable opinion as to the probable life of different kinds of machineries in use in this factory. One can easily imagine that automobile industry depends upon the operation of many a high precision instrument, and I am afraid, with the little practical knowledge which this witness might have gathered during the last few years, he will be of little assistance to me for assessing a suitable diviser. Similarly P.W. 2. Shri Ashutosh Patra, who is another employee of this Company working in its Foundry Maintenance Department from April 1954, will be of little help to me in this regard. He opines that as far as he can guess, the machineries of the Foundry Section will work efficiently for another 30 years at least. According to him, modelling pattern may require change during the period, but the machineries themselves need not be changed. This workman is at present getting Rs. 100 per month all told. He is working as a Maintenance Fitter only in the Foundry Section, and one can easily imagine that his experience regarding various_types of machineries of an automobile factory is very very limited. Previously he served in Bartia Steel Engineering Co. at Howrah and that Company manufactures crude machine parts mostly meant for flour mills, cane-crushing instrument, etc. One can also imagine that in the Foundry Section of a factory, there is not much scope for the use of very complicated machineries or precision instruments. So, mere working experience of such an employee in the foundry section alone is too meagre for assessing the probable life of plant and machineries of an automobile factory. This witness also has neither theoretical nor technical knowledge in respect of machineries. From the elaborate crossexamination of this witness it further apenars how wild is his guess work in respect of probable life of plant and machineries. Without further comments, I may at once observe that this witness also cannot be said to be an expert within the meaning of the evidence Act, and so the correctness of his oninion cannot but be viewed with great suspicion. As against this, the Company has examined three experts wide theoretical knowledge and practical experi-O.P.W. 2, Shri G. C. Bansal, is a Graduate in adnical Engineering from the Indian Institute of mology, Kharagpur. He started his career as a nanical Engineer in this very Company in 1955. is sent abroad for advanced training in maintenof machine tools and production engineering. vas trained for about eight months at the Alfing der Works of Western Germany. He undertraining for two months with the Automobile ters of England, e.g., Vauxhall Motors and in Motors. He underwent and for about 10 months with the Gear Cutting ame Builders, e.g., Messrs. Glearson Works in ester in New York and Gear Shaper Co. of gheld, Vermont. He was also trained at General works like Pontiac Motors in Pontiac. ugan, and Buick Motors in Flint, Michigan. On detion of all these trainings in 1955, he was anted by this Company as the Master Mechanic he Mechanical Division. Thus this witness, gh young in age, combines in him both theoretical wide practical knowledge. According to this ess, the effective economic life of machine tools industhan Motors should be 7 to 10 years, and in c cases of highly precision machines it should be in 5 to 6 years. He adds that 50 per cent. of total machines of this Company might be conred as precision machines whose economic life ld be 5 to 6 years only. As to the rest, accordant, their economic life would be within 7 vears. This effective economic life is estimated he basis of two-shift operations. He further adds the value of precision machines will be 80 per of the total cost of the machineries owned by Company. According to him, the machines in dusthan Motors are in a deplorable condition a the point of view of effective operation and evement of desirable accuracy. This witness has thoroughly cross-examined on behalf of the kmen. The next witness examined by the Comy in connection with diviser is Mr. G. plington (O.P.W. 3). He is an Engineer of 30 resperience. He started his career as an entice engineer in the Company known as h United Machinery Company. He underwent nticeship in practical and technical training for seven years. His theoretical education as an eer was in the Leichester College of Art and nology. He is a Senior Member of Production neers. He has been recently accepted as a member of the Institute of Mechanical neers, England. He is also a Senior Member of American Society of Tools Manufacturing neers. He spent 23 years in the field of machine and built machines; and carried out research evelopment of machine tools. He was the nical Manager of an Import House importing nean machine tools into U. K. He was the 1der Member of the Excello Corporation in resof its British plant in Leichester. He worked e as Chief Engineer and Works Manager. It is clear from his statement that equipments ufactured and designed under his guidance were olied to most of the big automotive Companies he world. Thus it is sufficiently clear that this esc can be accepted as an expert within the meaning of the Evidence Act without hesitation. His opinion is that under the exacting conditions prevalent in this part of the country, special purpose machine tools giving production accuracy, but working 400 hours a month, become uneconomical after a period of 5 6 years. These machines, according to him, are no doubt capable of being rebuilt and re-installed. But according to him, the Companies invariably introduce a model or product every 6 years, so that the money required to rebuild all the equipments may be invested in the latest equipment producing new product. He adds that the special purpose machines performing a job of less accuracy may have an economic life of 7 to 10 years, and these machines are normally retained as standby equipments in order to maintain production in case of failure of any item of the new installation. He further adds that a general purpose machine on work of high accuracy will have a life in the order of 2 to 3 years only, provided proper maintenance and proper handling machines are applied to According to him, the general purpose machine on less accurate work of repetitive nature working 400 hours a month is e.pected to have an economic life up to 5 years only He, however, reiterates by saying that the economic life would be only one-third of the useful life of the machines. But these two terms should be very clearly understood. According to him, only 50 60 machines mentioned in the long list of machineries of the Company are special purpose machines, and the rest are general purpose machines, and this prepor derance of general purpose machines indicates that the work is being executed largely on what is known as open set up or small batch production. The last witness examined in this connection is Mr. Richard Channey (O.P.W. 5). He is at present the Manager of Foreign Sales Operation of Si efield Corporation located in Dayton, Ohio, in U. S. A., a subsidiary of Bendix Corporation having 30 divisions and employing 60,000 people. The biggest of the three parts of this Company is the automotive part manufacturing various automotive components. This witness has been associated with the machine tool business for the last 25 years. He had 15 world trips to study the machine tool technique, methods and products in the automotive plants throughout the world, including England, Australia, Japan, Brazil, Argentina, Mexico, West Germany, etc. He has been associated with various automobile manutacturing Companies of America. Thus, in short, this witness also has long and varied experience in the automobile industry. From his experience, he says that after a period of six years, the machines deteriorate even with proper maintenance, and if the machine is not replaced the cost of production gradually increases, and the maintenance cost also increasingly goes up. Thus according to this witness also, precision machine usually lose their effective economic life after about six years' use. Thus according to the three experts examined on behalf of the Company, precision machines and more parti-cularly general purpose machines of this nature can have an effective economic life of about six years According to them, the special purpose precision machines and other general machines can have an effective economic life of about 10 years only. So, according to them, the diviser for automotive machines may vary from 6 to 10 only have already mentioned that the Union's estimate of this divisor is much bigger. But the witnesses examined on behalf of the Union are not really experts in the line, because the limited resources of the Union did not possibly allow it to examine experts on its side. This position is not peculiar to this case alone. From the observations of their lordships of the Supreme Court in the A. C. C. case it will appear that this is the case almost everywhere where the fight is between two unequal sides. Their lordships in this connection observed as follows:

"The main difficulty in deciding questions about rehabilitation arises from the fact that satisfactory evidence is not always placed before the Tribunals and it is urged that the evidence given by the employers' experts is interested, and the workmen with their limited resources are not able to test the said evidence by adequate or effective cross-examination."

In the circumstances, the Tribunal must surely be on guard before it accepts the versions of either side it is more or less an accepted principle that the probable estimated life or the probable useful life of the assets should determine the divisor. In A. C. C. case also, their lordships have used the word "useful life" in this connection. From the evidence quoted above, it will appear that the learned experts on the side of the employer primarily used the words "effective economic life." Waplington has no doubt made an attempt to explain whit he really means by the words "effective economic life." But the two other witnesses are not so clear on the point. Nevertheless, all the three experts more or less agreed in respect of their estimates. Mr. Waplington in one place in his deposition states that there is a marked difference between "economic life" and useful life" of macine tools. According to him, the words "useful life" tools. According to him, the words "useful life" of the machine tools are themselves explanatory. As distinguished from useful life, he explains the words "economic life" in a particular way. He also concedes that the economic life would be one-third of the useful life of the machines, and these two terms should be very clearly understood. So, it is to be considered in this connection whether the words "useful life" as mentioned by their lordships in the A. C. C. case mean the same "useful life" as stated by Mr. Waplington in his deposition before this Tribunal. From the above observations of Mr. Waplington, it is argued on behalf of the Union that the useful life of machineries of this particular oncern may vary from 18 to 30 years as distinguished from economic life which is limited to 6 to 10 to as. It appears to me that Mr Waplington by "useful life" refers to the general utility of the machines before they reach the scrap value or break uv value. By effective economic life is distinguished from useful life, he means such life of the machines only in a particular industry till they reach a point when they are no longer economic for the patieular industry to maintain them. In A. C. C. case also, their lordships by useful life mean the useful life not in general, but refer to the usefulness of the machines to the particular industry concerned. One can easily imagine that some machines may have different periods of useful life in different industries according to the nature of job performed on them. In this view of the matter, a machine cannot be said to have useful life, in relation to a particular industry, simply because it is capable of giving sorvice. If the machines prove appearance to the particular industry, it may be said that they afe  $_{n}$  longer useful to the industry concerned.  $T_{h}$  learned Counsel for the Company argues that  $t_{h}$ automobile industry requires the performance of highly precision job, and accordingly the real use fur life of machineries used in this industry canno be very long. Shri Bansal in his deposition state in this connection that the essential quality of mote cars from the consumers' point of view is their re liability on the road, smoothness in running an noiselessness in operation. Normally, in India an elsewhere automobile industry must have inte changeability as its basic principle. To achiev this ideal of interchangeability and smoothnes accuracy in machining operation is of great importance. Tolerance limits depend on and diffe from component to component. In most cases, thes are within half a thousandth of an inch. There i no doubt that there is considerable force in the connection of Shri Bansal. In the body of moto vehicles, there may be considerable predominance of highly precision parts and components, and so the machines producing those parts and components and required to be maintained in high order. The real point is whether it will be inexpedient to use automotive machineries after such short periods as 6 r 10 years. It is more or less not in dispute that it Huidusthan Motors Factory there are even non machines in use which were installed not less that 20 years back. Hence, it is argued on behalf of the Union that the learned experts examined on behalf of the Company really speak of an ideal condition only, and in practical life of an industry it is never considered expedient to reject machineries after such a short period as desired by these experts. in defining the effective economic life, Mr. Waplington lays down three conditions. First, the machine should be capable of producing a component to the required dimensions and accuracy. Secondly, it should be capable of maintaining pre-determined rated production. Thirdly, the performance of the machines in the above two cases should remain comparable with whatever current equipment is available for the performance of each operation These conditions show that Mr. Waplington thinks that the original effectiveness of the machines should be maintained throughout their effective economic life. But the fact is that the machines are used and often quite economically by proper maintenance even when such machines partly lose their original effectiveness. By wear and tear for some years, the machine may lose some of their original feed and speed and yet they may not cease to be useful or economic for the industry, and the workable state of efficient may be retained for some years more by proper maintenance and repair. Mr. Waplington gives a different reason also for his estimating effective economic life for 6 years or so. He admits that ofter the user of precision machines for 5/6 years these machines are capable of being rebuilt and reinstalled However, it is alleged that Companied (producing motor cars) invariably introduce a new model of product every six years, so that the money required to rebuild all the equipments may be invested in the latest equipments producing new product. Evidently, Mr. Waplington while making these observations had before his mind big automobile factories of the advanced countries of the world which can well afford to change their models most frequently according to the changing taste of their people. Frequency in change of taste and model of the car vary directly with the improvement of economic condition of the country. Change model may necessitate replacement of some old not mean that all precision machines actually ose their effectiveness by the time the need for a change of the model is felt. From the evidence discussed and also other evidences on record, it appears to me that Mr. Waplington and Shri Bansal are more conservative in their estimates of useful life in respect of machineries required in automotive industry. They are more or less of opinion that most of the machines belonging to this particular Company cannot have effective economic life for more than six years, though in one place of his deposition Mr. Waplington observes that the special purpose machine on work of low accuracy may have economic life up to 10 years. He also concedes that the life of a machine may be prolonged by rebuilding and replacement of parts, but such rebuilding or replacement may not prove ultimately reconomic. Mr. Channey appears to be a bit more liberal in this respect. He states in his deposition that generally he has no opinion with regard to useful life. But he admits that generally speaking the cetul life of a machine may be longer than its flective economic life. According to him, the and thereafter the machine reaches the stage of its grap value. He, however, adds that if one wants ti stay in business he has to replace such machineries ter 10 years. Thus according to this witness, from the stand-point of business expediency the machines and be used for about 10 years. I have already mentioned that according to different decisions of the Superior Courts of our country, the machines are usually taken to retain a scrap value of 5 per int only after their useful life has been spent in cltogether. It useful life really means life up to a tage when the machine reaches its scrap value, its useful life must be estimated at a period longer than Usears—may be up to 20 years. But I have already mentioned that mere general usefulness is not really the criterion to determine the useful life of a machine in respect of a particular industry. muchines must not only be useful, but they should so be useful to the particular industry concerned. Thus considering all the facts and circumstances and the general and economic conditions of the autoissive industry of our country, I find that the ge useful life of the machineries of this parti-(i) Company should be assessed for this case at 12 s only. To fix a higher diviser in the present so will be practically to ignore all expert evidence dured in this particular case. In this view of the ter. I fix the diviser at 12 only for plants and tchineries for the purpose of this case.

The next controversial point is what should be multiplier in respect of plants and machineries this particular concern. From the revised estitute submitted by the Company, it appears that the base factor of multiplier should vary from 2.80 250 up to 1952-53, and for the period thereafter each a multiplier may vary from 2 to 1.25. The ominany in its statement marked Ext. P-1 has given the showing the original buying price and the list quotation price of about 502 machines. From a statement it appears as if the price of machineries has gone up in some cases by 232 per cent. and the lowest rise in price is 104 per cent. These calculations have been detailed in subsequent statements marked Ext. P. The price tactors as quoted no doubt may lead to such big multipliers. But Shri Sen representing the workmen contends that the quotations relied on by the Company do really include an element of expansion also. It has been observed by their lordships in A. C. C. case in this connection:

"It is relevant to remember that the claim under this item is confined to rehabilitation, replacement and modernisation. It is common ground that expansion of the plant and machinery is not included in this item. But in several cases, it is not easy to distinguish between modernsiation of the plant and machinery and its expansion. If by the introduction of a modern plant or machinery the production capacity of the industry has appreciably increased, it would be relevant for the Tribunal to consider in an appropriate case whether it would be possible to apportion expenses on the basis that it is a case of partial modernisation and partial expansion. If, however, the increased production is not of a significant order, it may be regarded as incidental to replacement or modernisation and the question of apportionment may not arise."

Shri Sen also contends before this Tribunal that ne fact the quotations received by this Company really relate to improved variety of machines for better and increase production, and so the whole of the replacement cost should not be treated as cost of replacement or modernisation. Such modernisation will actually represent partial expansion. Shri of replacement or modernisation. Bansal in his deposition has no doubt tried to maintain that the machines for which quotations have been obtained and the machines which they are trying to obtain, do not really give increased production, though the machines may be otherwise efficient. and more easy to handle and work. In the words of Shri Bansal, exactly similar machines for which quotations have been obtained by the Company will not give any increased production though these machines may have engineering improvements regarding safety, precaution, convenience to operators, etc. Thus Shri Bansal refuses to concede that the latest equipments of improved varieties are reallcapable of giving increased production, which means partial expansion. But thanks to the fairness of Mr. Channey, he in his cross-examination admits that modera machineries have improved technique and they have more productive capacity. So, I have reasons to believe that the modern machines by which the present Company is seeking to replace it old machines are to some extent capable of giving increased production also, and the price quot dais really price for partial expansion as well. This conclusion of mine may get an indirect support from the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on automobiindustry submitted to the Government of India, and this report is also an exhibit before this Tribunal. At page 21 of this report, the Committee observes as follows:

"One factor responsible for high costs in India which cannot in short term be remedied arises from historical causes. When the automobile industry began to be set up, the level of demand in the country was very low. The equipment which was then being installed was necessarily of a nature which would have limited capacity and resulted in higher costs than if production was based on special purpose machine capable of a large turnover. The majority of the automobile factories are not equipped with machineries which are either well-balanced or capable of the most economic production. This is particularly true of the oldest units, viz., Hindusthan Motors and Premier Actomobiles. .... In course of time, no doubt improvements will take place, and better and more suitable and more balanced equipment will replace the existing machinery. Neither the country nor the industry can, however, go in for wholesale re-equipment based on current crexpected levels of demand."

It is clear from the evidence before me also that out of a large number of machines of this Company, only 2 per cent, or so, or in other words about 50/60 machines only, are special purpose machines. The demand for automobiles in the country has increased undoubtedly very much, and this Company also is to replace its old machineries by up-to-date and modern ones. I refuse to believe that the Company by asking for quotations is merely asking for replacement of old machines by exactly similar type of machines having similar productive capacity. I have good reasons to observe that there is considerable substance in the contention of Shri Sen that the possible replacement in this case will include an element of expansion also, and the multiplier should accordingly be fixed after due consideration of the same. In this connection, I may also mention that in A. C. C. case their lordships of the Supreme Court assessed the multiplier for machineries at 3.5 up to 1939, at 2 up to 1947 and at 1 only thereafter. In the case of Saxby & Farmer (1. A. C. 1955 711), the multipliers for machineries were fixed at 2.5 up to 1942, at 2 up to 1946, at 1.5 up to 1951 and at 1 thereafter. Besides that it may not be out of place to mention here that the price level has gone up rather quickly during the last few years. In the circumstances, I find that the multiplier for machineries of this Company should be fixed at 2 only up to 1952-53, at 1.5 up to 1956-57 and at 1 only thereafter, and this I fix for the purpose of the present case alone. Of course, it is difficult to say at this stage what would be the price factor by the time when these machineries require to be actually replaced.

The next point for consideration is what should be the multiplier and diviser for the buildings of this Company. Though some evidence has been adduced by the parties on this point also, I may point out that this evidence will not prove very helpful for assessing rehabilitation cost of the buildings as the Company has not filed any separate chart showing what portion of the building has been erected and in which year. Incidentally, however, I may mention that Shri Ganesh Das Arora, Civil Engineer in the employ of this Company, says that the useful life of Hindusthan buildings is approximately 20 years. But he concedes this much that the life of Government buildings may be 30 to 35 vears. According to him, Hindusthan Motors buildings are not constructed to the Government specification, and so they shall have a shorter useful life course, Shri Sen's contention is that the life Hindusthan buildings should be 50 years or so. In

A. C. C. case, the life of factory buildings assessed at 30 years, and I fail to see any reason why Hindusthan buildings also should not have this useful life of 30 years at least. Of course, it is urged on behalf of the Company that the land on which the factory building and other buildings were con-structed was not solid enough for a longer life of buildings, and the materials used also were not of very high order. To me it appears that if the soil and the materials be of high order as desired, the useful life of buildings could be much more than 30 years with proper maintenance. From the statement marked Ext. "U" it appears that on the basis of the materials relied on by the Company the price of building materials after 1948 has gone up by 200 to 300 per cent. But I may observe that the unusual rise in the price of building materials may be a temporary phase, and this unusual rise may be mostly due to rapid industrialisation of the country through successive Five-Year Plans and acute housing scarcity. I have every reason to believe that by the time the Hindusthan buildings would require replacement, the price of building materials may be more stable. Moreover, it appears to me that the said calculation is rather a bit exaggerated statement and does not disclose the real state of affairs. In the circumstances, my considered opinion is that the multiplier for buildings should be assessed at 2 only up to 1953-54 and at 1 thereafter.

In the words of their lordships in the A. C. C case, before actually awarding an appropriate amount in respect of rehabilitation for the bonus year, certain deductions have to be made. The first deduction is made on account of breakdown value of the plant and machinery which is usually calculated at the rate of 5 per sent, of the cost price of the block Then depreciation and general liquid in question. reserves available to the employer are deducted Reserves which have already been reasonably earmarked for specific purposes of the industry are, however, not taken into account in this connection. The rehabilitation amount which may have been allowed to the employer in previous years would also have to be deducted if it appears that the amount was available at the time when it was awarded in the past but has not been used for rehabilitation purpose in the meanwhile. Ordinarily, therefore, the breakdown value of the plants and machineries is calculated at the rate of 5 per cent. only. But in this case, it is to be considered whether 5 per cent. of the cost price is a sufficient deduction under the item. Even according to the Company's own witnesses the machines reach the stage of their scrap value after 20 years' use. But in this case, the useful life of the machineries has been calculated at 12 years only in view of the special circumstances of this particular industry. So, by the end of the useful life of 12 years, these machines cannot reach the stage of scrap value of 5 per cent, of the original cost. According to Mr. Waplington the machines after their effective economic life, in other words after their useful life in the industry concerned, are normally retained as stand-by equipments in order to maintain production in case of failure of any item of the new installa-Mr. Waplington further adds that such machines may be handed down to other Companies also at a much reduced expense and shall finish up in a concern where extremely small overheads permit the Companies to remain in existence. So, it is amply clear that in spite of the expiry of the useful life or the effective economic life, these machines do not prove altogether useless and they do not reach the stage of breakdown value or scrap value. So, in my opinion, we should not remain satisfied by deducting scrap value of these machines, and we should actually deduct the residual value of these machines, and this residual value is assessed at 10 per cent. of the original cost price.

As to deduction of depreciation and liquid reserves, I may point out that a small fund available under this item was actually used as workmg capital in the year under consideration, and so this is not available for rehabilitation purpose in the year under consideration. Accordingly, this amount cannot be deducted for the year under consideration. There is no evidence that any particular amount of reserve fund has been carmarked for any specific purpose of the industry. Nor there is any evidence to show that any amount was allowed in the past for rehabilitation purpose. The rehabilitation cost in respect of machineries for the year under consideration will be clear from the table annexed herewith. As proper materials are not there on record, I am not going to calculate the rehabilitation charges, if any, for the buildings. This much I can observe here and now that my calculation of rehabilitation charges in respect of plants and machineries alone will be sufficient for final decision in this case.

From the statement of rehabilitation of plant and machinery submitted on behalf of the Company, it appears as if the rehabilitation charges are allowable also on some machineries discarded in the year 1954-55 and 1955-56. The machineries discarded in these two years were surely acquired in some earlier years, and so the rehabilitation charges, if any, must have been allowed in respect of the years of their acquisition. In other words, the cost price of the machineries must have been taken into account for calculation of rehabilitation charges if they were acquired in one of the years as mentioned in the annexed table. It must also be remembered that we are concerned with the position of the machineries as it was in the year under consideration. So, no rehabilitation charges can be allowed in respect of the machines discarded long before the relevant year.

Thus from what I have found above, it will be clear that the annual requirement for rehabilitation of the machineries will far outweigh the available surplus, if any, out of the gross profits calculated above. Accordingly, the workmen are not entitled to any bonus for the year 1958-59.

This is my award.

No. 1303IR IR/4L-26/58. 10th April 1962.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department order No. 2260IR/IR/4L-26/58, dated the 3rd June 1958, the industrial dispute between Messrs. A. R. & B. Kalowar Co., 11 Nidhiram Maji Lane, post office Khurut, Howrah, and their workmen represented by Bus Workers' Union, 219 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order, being a matter specified in the second schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred to the Second Labour Court for adjudication;

And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the said Laboui Court Shri Nilkanta Das, a workman, of the said Company, made a complaint in writing to the said Labour Court against the said Company alleging that the said Company had dismissed the said workman concerned in such dispute;

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the said Labour Court has adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the State Government;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal in the Labour Department by their order No. 22601R 1R 41-26/58, dated the 3rd June 1958, referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. A. R. & B. Kalower and their workmen to this Court for adjudication. During the pendency of that dispute Shri Nilkanta Das, a workman of the above Company, filed this complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. In spite of several adjournments the Company did not file any written statement or adduce any evidence. So the case was heard ex-parte.

The case of the complainant Shri Nilkanta Das briefly stated, is as follows: Though an industrical dispute between the Company and its workman wapending before this Court at the time of the dismissal of the complainant, the Company did not apply to this Court for approval of its action is dismissing the complainant. So the complainant contends that the Company has contravened section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. The Company dismissed the complainant without showing air reason and without any charge-sheet. Shri Ambi Ram Kalower, proprietor of the Company, has asked him to depose falsely in favour of the Company in the case between the Company and its two workmen pending before this Court. The complainant refused to give such false evidence. So the proprietor became angry with him and dismissed him on 8th May 1960. Hence the complainant contends that his dismissal is unjustified.

As I have stated already, the Company did not file any written statement nor did it adduce an evidence. So it is not possible to ascertain what the case of the Company is. The complainant has examined himself in this case; he has not been cross-examined by the Company. So his evidence remains unchallenged. It is clear from his evidence that the proprietor of the Company dismissed him for his refusal to depose falsely in a case. There is no evidence that the Company applied for approvation by this Court of its action in dismissing the complainant. So I hold that the Company has contravented section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act and that as such the present complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act is maintainable. It is clear from the evidence of the complainant that he has been dismissed for no valid reason. Hence I hold that his dismissal is unjustified.

In view of the above conclusion I order that the complainant Shri Nilkanta Das shall be reinstated and be given back wages from 8th May 1960 unit the date of reinstatement at the daily rate of Rs. 3/14.

The above order shall be carried out within month of the publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

Present:

i J. N. MANDAL, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal

the Union: Shri Nikhil Ranjan Roy, Advocate. the Company: Shri J. K. Ghosh, Advocate of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co. Solicitors.

AWARD

By Government order No. 5011-1.R./IR/10L-111-(6)/61, dated the 14th August 1961, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputs Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Remington Rand of India Ltd., 3 Council House Street, Calcutta-1, and their workmen represented by Remington Rand Staff Association, 177B Lower Circular Road, Calcutta-14, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal, constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, by notification No. 808-1.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

Issues

- (1) Enhancement of the rate of dearness allowance.
- (2) Enhancement of the rate of contribution to the provident fund.
- (3) Medical aid.
- (4) Tiffin or allowance in lieu of tiffin.

This reference was made by the Government of West Bengal to this Tribunal for adjudication of some industrial disputes existing between Messrs. Remington Rand of India Ltd., 3 Council House Street, Calcutta-1 (hereinafter be referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Remington Rand Staff Association, 177B Lower Circular Road, Calcutta-14 (hereinafter be referred to as the Union).

The reference was received in August last year and immediately thereafter notices were issued to both the parties. The union promptly entered appearance and filed its written statement of claim.

The Company was a bit late to appear and file its written statement. Both parties duly complied with the rules of procedure for production of document. The case was taken up on 6th April 1962 and both parties were heard at length, and pleadings of the parties were perused. Parties were helped to appreciate each other's point of view and they immediately asked for some time to settle up the disputes amicably. They were given reasonable time to come to agreement in respect of the disputes under reference as well as other outstanding disputes between the parties. I am glad to note that both the parties have succeeded to settle up all the outstanding disputes between them amicably. I must congratulate them for the successful termination of all the disputes existing at the present moment between the parties. It is surely conducive to industrial peace and for the mutual benefit of the employers and the employees.

I have gone through the memorandum of settlement, dated 28th of May 1962, but actually filed before this Tribunal on the 23rd June 1962. It was signed on behalf of the Company by Mr. C. B. Stetzelberg and Mr. On. Kamath Chaddha and on behalf of the union by Shri Kali Mukherji, President of the Association and Shri Shyamsundar Chaudhury, the General Secretary. There are two other signatories as witnesses. They are Shri A. S. Naganathan, Joint Secretary, H. O., and Shri T. K. Samanta, Joint Secretary, M/Lane. Item Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, and 6 of the memorandum of settlement are relevant for the purpose of the present reference. The rest, i.e., items Nos. 5, 7 and 8 are extraneous so far as the present reference is concerned. Therefore, these items are left out of consideration.

I have carefully considered the relevant items and I am satisfied that on the whole the terms of settlement are fair, reasonable and lawful and as such I accept them. Let there be an award on compromise in terms of the memorandum of settlement, dated 28th May 1962, as jointly prayed for by the parties in their joint petition, dated 28th June 1962. The memorandum of settlement, dated 28th May 1962, and the joint petition of compromise, dated 28th June 1962, do form part of the compromise award as annexures.

This is my award.

Dictated and corrected by me.

J. N. MANDAL, Judge.

JITENDRA NATH MANDAL, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

Dated the 28th May 1962.

Whereas the few cases of disputes have been pending with the Third Industrial Tribunal, West Bengal, and whereas the Workmen represented by the Remington Rand Staff Association have submitted a Charter of Demands dated to the Company;

And whereas the Association and the Company realise and appreciate that in the interest of maintenance of harmonious relations between the Management and the Workmen, it is desirable to settle all outstanding demands and disputes including those which are the subject-matter of Appeal before the Third Industrial Tribunal, West Bengal;

The Management and the Association after negotiating have settled these outstanding disputes as detailed hereinafter, and now therefore both the parties, the Management and the Association, do hereby agree as follows:—

(1) Dearness allowance—It is agreed between the two parties that the existing rate of dearness allowance will be revised as under:—

Pay Slab in Rate of D.A. when Variation i Middle Class Cost tage in Col of Living Index is in 461/470 Group indox f	. 2 to be r 10 point ; in the
201-400 331% 11

with maximum D.A. at Rs. 270.

It is also agreed between the two parties that for every 5 point movement beyond 10 points in the Index Figure, Dearness Allowance will be paid at the rate of—

On the first hundred—2½ per cent. On the second hundred—1¼ per cent. On the third hundred—5/8 per cent.

- (2) Minimum dearness allowance—It is also agreed that the Minimum Dearness Allowance for Clerical and Mechanical Staff will be based on Rs. 90 and for Subordinate staff on Rs. 87 when the Calcutta Middle Class cost of Living Index is in the Group of 461-470. It was also agreed between the Management and the Association that the above enhanced rate of Dearness Allowance will be payable by the company with effect from the 21st April 1962.
- (3) Provident fund—It is also agreed that with the concession to include dearness allowance with basic salary for purpose of provident fund contributions, the Union will withdraw this demand.
- (4) Medical benefits-It is agreed that when an employee during the course of his duty requires medical attention, and where such attention is given by the company Doctor, and some medicines are prescribed, the cost of such prescriptions will be borne by the Company. In the event of an employee falling sick at his residence, and the sickness is other than a venereal disease, leprosy, small-pox, typhoid or cholera, the employee will be paid cost of medicines prescribed. Bills or Cash Vouchers pertaining to such prescription will be produced for countersignature of the Company Doctor before payment is authorised. Diseases of a serious nature which require hospitalisation will be subject to consideration by the Company. At the time of employment, the company will get the prospective employee examined by the Company doctor and employment will be subject to being found medically fit. All Company employees who are presently employed or those employed in future will be medically examined by the Company Doctor once a year or at such other periodical intervals as may be determined by the Company. Results of such medical examinations will not be prejudicial to his employment with the Company. But in case an individual employee is found medically unfit to continue in service, his case will be decided in consultation with the Union Secretary.

- (5) Leave rules It is agreed that privilege leave may be accumulated up to the maximum of two years. Where it may become necessary for an employee to carry forward his Privilege Leave into the third year, he will be required to obtain Management's approval. Should it become necessary for an employee to carry forward his privilege leave at the request of the Company beyond two years, the Company will in all such cases stipulate when such Leave may be accorded.
- (6) Tiffin allowance—It is agreed that all workmen employed in the Company's Establishments at Head Office and Mangoe Lane will be paid Tiffin Allowance of .50 nP. per full working day. It is further agreed that with this concession employees will be required to make their own fooding arrangements, and there will be no obligation on the Company for supplying food on concessional rates.
- (7) Travelling allowance—It is agreed that the travelling allowance paid to mechanics who are required to go outstation on Company's business will be revised as follows:—

Basic salary up to Rs. 84—Rs. 6 per day (plus Re. 1 per day paid for first 5 days whilst on continuous tour).

Basic salary up to Rs. 250—Rs. 7.50 per day.

Basic salary over Rs. 250-Rs. 9.50 per day.

This allowance will cover all expenses of lodging, feeding, transport, coolie, etc., of an employee when on outstation duty, and no further expenses will be entertained. An extra Rs. 1.50 per day will be paid for period spent in Hill Station.

(8) Upgrading and efficiency bar cases—It has been agreed that the question of employees at the efficiency Bar in their Grade will be taken up with the Management as soon as convenient.

All the above concessions will become effective from the 21st April 1962.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. H. C. Giddings (Private) Ltdt., B-1 Hide Road, Calcutta-23, and their workmen represented by Kidderpore Engineering Sramik Union, 129A Circular Garden Reach Road, kidderpore, Calcutta-23. (Case No. VIII-28 of 1962.)

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

Present:

Shii P. C. PAL, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal. Present for the Company: Shri J. N. Chatterji, Deputy Labour Adviser of the Engineering Association of India.

Present for the Union: Shri Bisvanath Ash, Advocate.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 354-LR./ IR 101-6/62, dated the 2nd February 1962, for determinition of the issue, viz.

Whether the dismissal of Md. Israil is justified? Fo what relief, if any, is he entitled?

The Union's case as per its written statement is briefly this:

The workman concerned Md. Israil had been working under the Company as a highly skilled Electric Welder on a daily rate on Rs. 6-4, his wages being paid weekly. He had to do gas welding jobs be addition whenever called upon to do so. His record of service was very good and he had a billiant welder's carrier and as appreciation of his excellent work the Company raised his wages to Re. 6-12 from October/November 1957. His verbal prayer for further increment remained unheeded. Early in 1961, most of the welders, including many workers junior to Md. Israil, were granted increments in the third week of April 1961, when called upon to do a gas-cutting work, he refused to do so by stating that he would not go in for anything other than the highly skilled jobs of electric or gas welder, on account of a sense of utter frustration for not being granted any increment, though his refusal is not to be construed as wilful disorded.

order of the superior. On 26th April 1961 he was served with a notice of dismissal, it being two weeks' notice of dismissal. The workman then wrote to the Management apologising for his refusal to do gascutting work and requesting the Management to withdraw the order of dismissal. He made several written representations which proved infructuous. His dismissal was without any proper charge-sheet and enquiry and there was violation of the principle of natural justice, so that the order of dismissal was quite unjustified.

In the written statement of the Company the following case has been made out. The first objection is that the dispute in question is an individual dispute, and not an industrial one inasmuch as the Kidderpore Engineering Sramik Union which purports to have taken up the cause of the workman concerned is not competent to raise the dispute or represent the workman concerned. On the dismissal of Md. Israil the Union of the establishment, viz., H. C. Giddings Employees' Union took up his cause and wrote a letter to the General Manager of the Company on 30th May 1961. The letter was replied to on 5th June 1961, and the President of the H. C. Giddings Employees' Union was satisfied with the reasons and the bona fides as to the dismissal of Md. Israil. The Kidderpore Engineering Sramik Union has no right to represent the case for this workman.

As to the merits, the Company asserts that the wrokman himself wrote to the Company by apologising for his conduct with a prayer for being excused and, as such, the guilt was admitted by the workman concerned so that no domestic enquiry was at all necessary. For all these reasons, it is stated, the Company's action in dismissing the workman after charge-sheet notice, but without regular enquiry, was quite justified and, hence, no relief is available to the Union which prayed for the reinstatement of the workman concerned.

On the side of the Union, only the Vice-President of the Kidderpore Engineering Sramik Union was examined (vide P.W. 1 Shri Asit Kumar Chatterji). No other witness was examined for the Union, nor any witness was examined for the Company. The Union has put in two correspondences (Exts. 1 and 1-a), whereas the Company has put in several correspondences (Exts. A to A-5).

First of all I take up the question of legal objection regarding the maintainability of the dispute at the instance of the Kidderpore Sramik Union. It is an admitted fact that the Company has its own Union styled as H. C. Giddings Employees' Union, and this particular Union originally raised the dispute by taking up the cause of the dismissed workman Md. Israil. But subsequently conciliation proceedings were started at the instance of the Kidderpore Engineering Sramik Union. The Union's case is that in or about March 1961, the Employees' Union was cancelled for non-submission of returns, and hence the case regarding the present dispute by the Kidderpore Engineering Sramik Union of which the workmen of the Company are also members for long. The Vice-President of this Sramik Union has deposed on this point. The gist of his evidence is that this Union exists for long and has concern with many industries of the same type; that this Union took up the cause of the workman concerned after knowing in June 1961 about the cancellation of the Employees' Union that early in June 1961 the workers of the Company in a meeting decided to continue the dispute in the name of the Sramik Union; that during the later stage of the conciliation proceedings, the Management did not raise any objection to the conducting of the dispute by the Sramik Union. This is what the P.W. I (vide President of the Sramik Union) has stated in the examination-in-chief. In cross-examination he goes on to say that he has all along been an office-bearer of the two Unions except for some time during which the Employees' Union was non-existent; that this Employees' Union was revived only one week before his evidence. It is also stated by him in his cross-examination that all employees of the Company are always members of the Sramik Union since June 1961. But he admits that no papers have been filed in proof to this effect. He also admits having not produced any papers to show when the Employees' Union became defunct and when it was revived. In the Vice-President's letter to the Conciliation Officer on 8th June 1961, nothing was mentioned about details or reasons as to why and how the Sramik Union steps into the shoes of the Employees' Union. Nor did this Sramik Union write to the Management to explain the matter. In view of these statements and in the absence of any papers I am unable to hold that the workers of the Company became members of the Sramik Union in June 1961. In the circumstances, I cannot but hold that the Sramik Union has failed to establish its right to represent the case of the workman concerned, and that the present dispute becomes an "individual dispute," not an industrial dispute. The present case, therefore, ought to fail on this score alone.

Regarding the merits of the case, I do not think there is anything to say in favour of the Union or the workman concerned. It is undisputed that the workman concerned had previously done gas-cutting works which might be in addition to his normal duties. In his explanation to the charge-sheet notice, he admitted his own guilt and asked for mercy. It is said for the Union that a sense of frustration or utter hopelessness seized the workman as he was not granted proper increment in spite of his very efficient and skilled works and, as such, his refusal to do work which he was asked to do, should not be considered as wilful disobedience of superior's orders. Increment or no increment, there was the refusal on the part of the workman to do the kind of work which he used to do previously. It is beyond my comprehension as to how such refusal will not tantamount to wilful disobedience. The question of the sense of frustration is not a very material one. There was factually refusal to comply with the orders of the superior. On this admitted fact the Company without showing any mercy chucked him off on ground of gross misconduct. It was within the powers of the Management to accede to the request for mercy or to ignore it altogether. In the circumstances stated, I cannot characterise the Company's action in dismissing the workman as being capricious or wrong in any way. In view of the workman's confession subsequent to the charge-sheet notice, a formal domestic enquiry was absolutely unnecessary Inasmuch as no purpose would have been served by such an enquiry after confession of guilt by the work-man concerned. So I hold without hesitation that the dismissal of the workman was not unjustified as it was within the powers of the Management to have acted in the way it did. Hence there is no question of remedy on ground of merit also.

In the result, the case of the Union falls through, and this is my award.

AWARD

By order No. 6619-I.R./IR/9L-60/58, dated the 1st December 1959, the Government of West Bengal in the Labour Department referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. Dalingkote Tea Estate and their workmen represented by the Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union relating to the undermentioned issue to the Second Labour Court for adjudication.

Issue

Is the demotion of the following workmen ied? To what relief, if any, are they entitled? Shri Bandhana Daffadar, (ii) Shri Bhawa Daffadar, (iii) Shri Chaitan Paniwalla, (iv) Shri Lasman Mangar Paniwalla, and (v) Shri Chanda Uraon Paniwalla.

e case of Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union matter referred to as the Union), briefly stated, follows:

thashri Bandhana Daffadar, Bhawa Daffadar, tan Paniwalla, Lasman Mangar Paniwalla and ida Uraon, the workmen mentioned in the issue ic order of reference, were leading members of igkote Tea Estate Unit of the Union. All of were monthly rated workmen of Dalingkote Estate (hereinafter referred to as the Company), ashri Bandhana Daffadar and Bhawa Daffadar working as Daffadars, and the other three were ing as Paniwallas. They were called to the of the Tea Estate on different dates and the ager told them that they would have to work dinary daily rated labourers from the next dates; actually they had to work as such from the next. They enquired of the Manager the reasons they were being demoted from their existing to the work of ordinary labourers. The ager did not state any reply and told them that would have to work as ordinary labourers. No gesheet was issued against any one of them te their demotion. As a result of the demotion had to suffer some financial loss. So the Union ends that their demotion is unjustified.

ie Company, on the other hand, states as Ms. It is not aware that the above five work-were leading members of Dalingkote Tea Estate of the Union. The work of both Sarbashri lhana Daffadar and Bhawa Daffadar as Daffadars unsatisfetory. Both the then Manager and the stant Manager of the Tea Estate had occasions arn them for their bad work. On 12th February the then Assistant Manager, Mr. Douglas, found work of Shri Bandhana Daffadar in supervising llying" unsatisfactory. He asked Shri Bandhana adar to see him in the office that afternoon. ordingly the latter went to the office that aftern and met Mr. Douglas. Mr. Douglas reported bad work of Shri Bandhana Daffadar to the then tager Mr. Nichols. Mr. Nichols said that he was g out then and asked both Mr. Douglas and Bandhana Daffadar to see him in the following ning. Accordingly Mr. Douglas met both of in the following morning. Mr. Nichols then Shri Bandhana that since his work was again id unsatisfactory, a charge-sheet would be issued 11m. Shri Bandhana Daffadar then begged to be npted from the issue of a charge-sheet and asked work as an ordinary labourer, as he was finding work of Daffadar too troublesome. Accordingly Nichols in course of his inspection found that the Shri Bhawa Daffadar was sitting on a roadside, men working under his supervision were badly the tops of tea bushes instead of correctly uning the tops of tea busines instead of coffeet, uning the tea bushes. Mr. Nichols therefore ed him to see him in the office. Accordingly he so. Mr. Nichols told him that he would issue a charge-sheet to him for his bad work. Then he volunteered to go to the garden as an ordinary labourer. The services of some Paniwallas are required all the year round. At times on account of the worksiter being spread over wide area additional Paniwallas are required, and these are appointed from daily rated workers. After their services as additional Paniwallas are no longer required, they go back to their usual work as ordinary labourers. Sarbashri Chaitan Paniwalla, Lasman Mangar Paniwalla and Chanda Uraon Paniwalla are ordinary day labourers who had been appointed such additional Paniwallas. As their services as Paniwallas were no longer required, they were put to work as ordinary labourers. Thus the Company states that Sarbashri Bandhana and Bhawa were relieved of their work as Daffadars and were given work as ordinary labourers at their own request and that Sarbashri Chaitan Paniwalla, Lasman Mangar Paniwalla and Chanda Uraon Paniwalla were put to work as ordinary labourers, as their services as additional Paniwallas were no longer required. Hence the Company contends that its action with respect to the above five is justified.

Findings

The Union has not adduced any evidence as to how the workmen mentioned in the issue of the order of reference were amongst the leading members of the local unit of the Union. On the other hand, both Mr. Douglas and Mr. Nichols have stated that during their incumbency in that Tea Estate they were not aware of any Union activities of any of the above five. Mr. Nichols also says that they never approached him with the case of any worker and that the Union never wrote to him that they were office-bearers of the Union. So it is clear that Mr. Nichols did not know that the five workmen mentioned in the issue of the order of reference were amongst the leaders of the local unit of the Union, even if it were a fact. So the contention of the Union that they were demoted on account of their being leaders of the Union falls to the ground. Hence the question naturally arises why the Manager should take the action mentioned above about them.

The Union has stated in its written statement that all the above five workmen were monthly rated workmen. But Mr. Nichols has said in his evidence that all of them except Shri Bandhana Daffadar were daily rated workers. He has produced documentary evidence in support of his oral statement. The Union has not been able to throw any doubt about the veracity of this document. So it is clear that the statement of the Union that all the above five workmen were monthly rated is not true. The Union has also stated that when the above five workmen enquired of Mr. Nichols why they were being put to work as ordinary day labourers, he gave no reply. This does not sound as a probable course of action. On the other hand both Mr. Nichols and Mr. Douglas have stated the case of the Company. Shri Bandhana Daffadar who has deposed in this case in support of himself admits this much that he was supervising the work of "thallying" on 18th February 1959. So he corroborates at least a portion of the evidence of Mr. Douglas. Shri Bhawa Daffadar has not come before this Court to state what he has to say about his case. Shri Bandhana Daffadar admits that he had no enmity with Mr. Nichols. It may be presumed that Shri Bhawa Daffadar also had no enmity with Mr. Nichols. So on the failure of usual plea of victimisation on account of Union activities, it is not possible to understand why Mr. Nichols should ask Shri Bandhana Daffadar and Shri Bhawa Daffadar to work as ordinary day labourers. The Union has made much of the point that Mr. Nichols did not ask Shri Bandhana Daffadar or Shri Bhawa Daffadar to put in writing that they asked to be given the work of ordinary labourers, as they were finding the work of Daffadars too troublesome. The simple answer is this that Mr. Nichols could hardly anticipate that Shri Bandhana Daffadar and Shri Bhawa Daffadar after having asked to be given the work of ordinary labouters would later make a grievance on account of the fact that they were given the work of ordinary day labourers. Mr. Nichols has also stated that he treated the statements of Shri Bandhana Daffadar and Shri Bhawa Daffadar that they were finding the work of Daffadars a too troublesome as the expression of their honest opinion. The Union has also raised the point that there is no documentary evidence as to the previous occasions of bad work on the part of Shri Bandhana Daffadar and Shri Bhawa Daffadar. Both Mr. Nichols and Mr. Douglas have explained that the bad work of the above two Daffadars on these occasions was not of a serious nature and they expected that they would improve in course of time. So the absence of a documentary evidence does not show that there were no previous occasions of bad work on the part of the above two Daffadars. In view of the above considerations, I believe the evidence of Mr. Nichols and Mr. Douglas and hold that Shri Bandhana Daffadar and Shri Bhawa Daffadar were given the work of ordinary labourers at their own request. So the question of financial loss consequent to the change of work is irrelevant. As to Sarbashri Chaitan Paniwalla, Shri Lasman Mangar Paniwalla and Chanda Uraon Paniwalla, Mr. Nichols has proved by documentary evidence that they were ordinary day labourers and that they were appointed additional Paniwallas, as extra Paniwallas in addition to the monthly rated Paniwallas were required. As the necessity for the additional Paniwallas was over, the above three were put to their usual work as ordinary day labourers. The Union has stated that after the above three were put to the work of ordinary day labourers two persons named Konda and Tilu were appointed as Paniwallas. Mr. Nichols has shown by documentary evidence that Konda was a Paniwalla at the time the above three were Paniwallas. Mr. Nichols has also stated that Tilu was not appointed as a Paniwalla. There is no reason whatsoever to disbelieve this evidence of Mr. Nichols. So it must be held that Sarbashri Chaitan Paniwalla, Lasman Mangar Paniwalla and Chanda Uraon Paniwalla had no lien on the post of Paniwallas. They were and have all along been ordinary day labourers. They were getting the wages of ordinary day labourers while they were working as Paniwallas. Their only loss in the shape of one "peel" of fire-wood is irrelevant.

The above analysis shows that the change of work of Sarbashri Bandhana Daffadar, Bhawa Daffadar, Chartan Paniwalla, Lasman Mangar Paniwalla and Chanda Uraon Paniwalla, the workmen mentioned in the issue of the order of reference cannot be called denotion in the sense that they were transferred by the Management from higher posts to lower posts. Even if the Union considers that change of work to be demotion, the above analysis clearly shows that the demotion is justified. Accordingly 1 hold their demotion is justified. Hence they are entitled to any relief.

AWARD

The above dispute over the issue given in the or of reference and reproduced below was referred; adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 357-LF IR/10L-240/61, dated the 2nd February 1962.

Issue

Bonus payable to the workmen before the  $P^{tija}$  the year 1961.

The relevant facts of the case and the respecticases of the parties on disputed points will appt from the following discussions for the decisions the issue.

The issue, as it stands, relates to the bonus payable to the workmen before the Puja of 1961.

The relevant case of the Union as set out in the written statement is briefly as follows: This Company came into existence in or about 1944 and was taken over by the present Management in 1951. It is a progressive and prosperous concern and the number of workmen employed in it and its production have steadily increased since its establishment. The workmen are, however, paid very low wages. The workmen formed the present Union in 1951 and the Union made representation for payment of bonus to the workers before the Puja of 1953 and the Management finally granted a lump payment of Rs. 1,000 for distribution amongst the workers and each worker got Rs. 10 to Rs. 15. From 1954 to 1960, the Company granted bonus to the workmen each year at varying rates. The amounts paid as bonus each year are stated in paragraph (10) of the Union's written statement. The Company granted bonus during these years without any relation to profit or loss. In the year 1960, the Company carned huge profit and the Union demanded three months' wages as honus payable before the Puja of 1961 by a letter dated 11th August 1961. The letter is made Annexure A to the Union's written statement. The dispute arising out of this demand was referred to the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Howrah. He started conciliation proceedings. Finally, the conciliation proceedings terminated by the tripartite agreement, dated 11th October 1961. The agreement is made Annexure B to the Union's written statement. According to the terms of the agreement, the dispute regarding the bonus was to be referred to a Tribunal for adjudication, and, in the meantime. some advances were to be made to the workmen at the rates specified in the agreement, subject to the condition that if the findings of the Tribunal are in tayour of the Company, the said advances will be deducted in four instalments, but if the findings are in favour of the workmen, then necessary adjustments will be made in the light of the findings of the award. The Union claims three months' wages as bonus to each workman.

The relevant case of the Company is briefly this: No payment whatsoever was made to the workers before the Puja in the year 1953. The Company is a small concern and it employs only 144 workers. It is a jobber and not a manufacturer and has no uniform line of manufacture. It is facing serious difficulties for shortage of raw materials, e.g., pig, toke and coal. The Company is paying wages to its workmen and the wages paid compare favourably with other similar concerns in the region. The Company has no condition of service for payment of bonus; nor is there any custom, implied or express, for payment of bonus. The Company made some ex-gratia payments to the workers during the years 1955 to 1960 as per particulars given in paragraph (12) of its written statement. According particulars, which cover the period from 1954 to 1960, there was no payment in 1954, which was a year of loss and there were some payments from 1955 to 1960 at varying rates and these were years of profit. 1961 was a year of loss and hence no payment was made. The payments during the years 1955 to 1960 were made were made for the respective accounting years 1954-55, 1955-56, 1956-57, 1957-58, 1958-59 and 1959-60. Thus, the financial year 1960-61 was a year of trading loss and so no bonus was payable for this year at the Puja time of 1961. There was no available surplus in this accounting year.

It has been proved by O.P.W. 1 Shri Mani Bhusan Guha, the Company's Accountant, that the Company's accounting year ends on 30th June each year. This evidence has not been challenged at all.

We are concerned with the accounting year 1960-61, ended on 30th June 1961. The Company's clear and specific case in respect of this trading year is that there was no profit during this year and on the contrary there was a clear nett loss. The Company has produced its original and audited balance-sheet with profit and loss account for this year. (Ext. C2) The balance-sheet and profit and loss account clearly disclose a nett loss of Rs. 15,066.09 nP. during the year. The balance-sheet and profit and loss account has not been seriously challenged and it may be said at once that it has not been controverted in any manner. None of the items included in this balance-sheet and profit and loss account has been seriously challenged as false, fictitious or mala fide. In fact, the Union has not even submitted its own accounting on the basis of the Full Bench formula in regard to this balancesheet and profit and loss account to show that by such accounting there will really be some available surplus for distribution amongst the workmen as bonus. The Company has filed its own accounting on the basis of the Full Bench formula in regard to the said balance-sheet and profit and loss account but in my view this accounting has not been made strictly according to the Full Bench formula. By this accounting, the Company has sought to increase the nett loss of Rs. 15,066.09 nP. according to the profit and loss account to a total deficiency of Rs. 24,264. The adding up and subtracting have practically no relation to the Full Bench formula. So, the Company's accounting is of no value whatsoever. But then the fact remains that the balancesheet shows a nett loss of Rs. 15,066.09 nP. and there are materials in the balance-sheet and profit and loss account to support this loss and to show how it arose and this balance-sheet and profit and loss account stands practically unchallenged and account unchallenged and practically uncontroverted, as already indicated above. circumstances, I have no alternative but to hold that there was really a nett loss of Rs 15,066.09 nP. by way of trading result of the Company during the year 1960-61, ended on 30th June 1961, and so there was no available surplus with the Company for distribution amongst the workmen as profit-sharing bonus. Accordingly, the claim of the Union in so far as it relates to profit-sharing bonus must be rejected. On the above findings, I award that no profit-sharing bonus was payable to the workmen at the Puja time of 1961, i.e., for the accounting year 1960-61.

Two other types of bonus also require consideration. These are (1) bonus by implied agreement as a condition of service and (2) customary and traditional bonus. I will now proceed to deal with each of these two types of bonus one by one.

Besides stating the fact that some payments on account of bonus were made during the years 1953 to 1960 in the Union's written statement, the Union has nowhere specifically claimed in the written statement that the workmen are entitled to bonus by way of implied agreement as a condition of service. Of course, it is stated at the end of paragraph (10) that the Company granted bonus during the aforesaid years without any relation to loss or profit. But such bonus may also be customary and traditional bonus and not bonus by implied agreement as a condition of service. The Union should have specifically pleaded that claim. Even assuming that the claim of the Union for bonus by implied agreement as a condition of service may also be considered in the present case on the basis of the facts stated in the written statement, I am clearly of the view that the facts and circumstances established in the present case are not sufficient to support this claim of the Union. It has been clearly laid down in the case of Messrs. Ispahani Ltd. by the Supreme Court (A.I.R. 1959 S.C., page 1147) following the decision in the case of 1952 Labour Appeal Cases, page 370, that the following conditions must co-exist for inferring an implied agreement in regard to bonus as a condition of service:

(1) the payment must be unbroken;

(2) it must be for a sufficiently long period; and
 (3) the circumstances in which payment was made should be such as to exclude that it was paid out of bounty.

Even assuming in the present case that there was unbroken payment of bonus for the years 1953 to 1960 and it was a sufficiently long period, it has further to be established that condition No. (3) was also fully satisfied and the payments were made in such a manner as to exclude the possibility that it was paid out of bounty. In the present case, the clear contention of the Company in its written statement is that the payments were made mostly ex-gratia. I may state here that I am satisfied from the evidence produced before me that the Company made some payments also in 1953 and 1954 besides the admitted payments in the years 1955 to 1960. 1953 and 1954 were years of loss. The Company's Accountant has stated in his evidence that in these years no bonus was paid but some advances were given and these were recovered from the wages and from 1955 to 1960, some ex-gratia payments were made. He has also admitted that the ex-gratia payments were shown as bonus in the balance-sheets. The Company has produced the payments charts for the years 1957 to 1960 [vide Exts. B to B(3)]. These charts have not been disputed. It is clearly written at the top of each of these charts that these are ex-gratia payments and at the end of each of these charts also there is a clear endorsement that it is read and explained to the workers that the payment is absolutely made out of grace. O.P.W. 1 Shri Mani Bhusan Guha, the Company's Accountant, has fully supported the aforesaid position by his evidence. It has, therefore, been clearly established by direct evidence that the payments made in the years 1957 to 1960 were ex-gratia payments to the knowledge of the workmen and the Company took the precaution to disclose this position clearly to the workmen. Out of the total of eight years of payment from 1953 to 1960, there were clarly ex-gratia payments for four years, 1957 to 1960, as directly proved and these were admittedly years of profit. There were only two more years of profit, 1955 and 1956, and the evidence of the Company's Accountant is that in these two years also they made ex-gratia payments to the workmen. His evidence is fully supported by the proved ex-gratia payment charts for the years 1957 to 1960. It may quite reasonably be held that the payments for the just two preceding years, 1955 and 1956, were in line with the payments of the subsequent years and these were also ex-gratia payments. It comes to this, therefore, that it is proved that out of eight years of some payments by the Company to the workers, there were ex-gratia payments for six years Therefore, in this case, circumstances have been established which do not exclude the position that the payments were made ex-gratia, i.e., out of bounty The third condition as laid down in the Suprem Court case, referred to above, has not been fulfilled in the present case, and so it cannot be held in th present case that the workmen are entitled to bonu for the year in question by implied agreement as condition of service. This position has been furthe made clear in the case of Messrs. Grahams Tradin Co. (India) Ltd. (A.I.R. 1959, Supreme Court cast 1151), in which has been also held that an implied term of employment cannot be inferred where righ from 1948 to 1952, the employer Company wheneve it paid bonus made it clear that it was an ex-gratic payment and would not constitute any precedent to future years. And in the face on such notice yea by year it would not be possible to imply a tern of employment on the basis of an implied agreement for agreement postulates a meeting of minds regarding the subject-matter of an agreement, and there one party was always making it clear that the paymen was ex-gratia and that it would not form a preceden for future years. This notice is implied in the pay ment charts, Exts. B to B(3). Apart from this view as to condition No. (3) as laid down in the Supreme Court case referred to above, I am also of the view that it has not been proved in the present case that there was payment of bonus for a sufficiently long and unbroken period. Here admittedly, the Conpany was established in 1944, i.e., 17 years before the year in question and we find that there were some payments in some forms to the workers for eight years, 1953 to 1960. In the above view, I reject the Union's claim for bonus for the year in question by implied agreement as a condition of service. I award accordingly that the workmen are not entitled to bonus at the Puja time of 1961 by implied agreement as a condition of service. I now take up the last question as to whether the workmen can claim the bonus in question as traditional and customary bonus. It has been held by the Supreme Court in the case of Messrs. Grahams Trading Co., already referred to above, that in a case where the question of customary and traditional bonus arises for adjudication, the Tribunal will have to consider (1) whether the payment has been made over an unbroken series of years; (2) whether it has been for a sufficiently long period, though the length of the period might depend on the circumstances of each case; even so the period may normally have to be longer to justify an inference of traditional and customary Puja bonus than may be the case with Puja bonus based on an implied term of employment; (3) the circumstance that the payment depended upon the earning of profit would have to be excluded and therefore it must be shown that payment was made in years of loss; and (4) the pavments must have been at a uniform rate throughout to justify an inference that the payment at such and such rate had become customary and traditional in Consistently with my the particular concern. findings relating to the question of the present claim of the workmen for Puja bonus being based on an implied agreement as a condition of service, I must hold under points (1) and (2) here that though the payment was for an unbroken period from 1953 to 1960, it was not for a sufficiently long period in the circumstances of the present case where the Company was established in 1944. I have already referred to act that in his evidence, the Company's intant has admitted that there were some pay-to the workers by way of advances in 1953 954 and these advances were recovered. No of and these advances were recovered. No nents to prove that these advances were ered have been produced, but having regard to the Company took precaution to make payof bonus to the workers as ex-gratia payments, unable to believe that in years of loss, they unable to believe that in years of loss, they unconditional payments to the workers. So, 1g by probabilities arising out of the evidence record, I accept the Company's case that advances were made to the workers in 1953 1954, which were years of loss (vide Balance; Exts. C<sub>1</sub> and C). No doubt it has also been flown in the case of Messrs. Grahams Trading that in dealing with the question of custom the hat in dealing with the question of custom, the hat the payment was called "ex-gratia" by the yer when it was made, would, however, make ifference in this regard because the proof of m depends upon the effect of the relevant s enumerated, and it would not be materially ed by unilaterial declarations of one party when aid declarations are inconsistent with the course induct adopted by it. In the present case, out tht years of payment, six were years of profit and vere years of loss. So, the major period was the of profit. Payment of bonus in years of profit quite natural and it cannot be made a ground he claim that the payments were made by way adition or custom. This would be the position e present case also even excluding the ex-gratia acter of the payment of bonus in the years of t and I have already indicated above that the mee is that in the years of loss, 1953 and 1954, some advances were made to the workers. So, third test of customary or traditional bonus as down by the Supreme Court has not been led in the present case.

wow come to point No. (4). The requirements of point have not at all been satisfied in the present. Not only it has not been proved by the Union the payment in the years 1953 to 1960 was at inform rate but on the contrary on their own ang in the particulars given in paragraph (10) it written statement, and also according to the ence on the record, the payments were made at rent rates from year to year. O.P.W. I Shrit Bhusan Guha has clearly stated in his evidence the ex-gratia payments were never made at a first a payment. There is practically no challenge to statement. In the result, it cannot but be held it has been clearly established in the present case the payments in the years 1955 to 1960 were made at a uniform rate. So, the test of this it No. (4) of the Supreme Court case has not at been satisfied in the present case. The four littons covered by the four points of the Suprement case indicated above are to co-exist for the pose of supporting a claim for customary or litional bonus and they cannot be read unctively.

In the above decisions of the facts of this case the light of the four tests laid down in the Supreme un case of Messrs. Grahams Trading Co., referred above, I hold that the Union has also failed to ke out its claim for customary and traditional is bonus in 1961.

accordingly award that the workmen are not itled to any Puja bonus in 1961 by tradition and custom. My final and conclusive award, therefore, is that the workmen are not entitled to Puja bonus in 1961, by way of profit-sharing or by implied agreement as a condition of service or by custom and tradition.

The Schedule

- 1. Whether the Management is justified in continuing the lock-out for an indefinite period?
- Whether the workers are entitled to wages for the lock-out period?

This reference was made by the Government of West Bengal under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act for adjudication whether Messrs. Bharat Mata Stores of Ranigunj, Burdwan, is justified in continuing the lock-out for an indefinite period and whether the workers are entitled to wages for the lock-out period.

Written statements were filed by two Unions—(1) Biri Workers' Union and (2) Biri Sramik Sangha of Ranigunj, Burdwan, and also by the Company Messrs. Bharat Mata Biri Stores.

It is the case of the Biri Workers' Union that the recommendations of the Minimum Wages Advisory Board relating to Biri workers were not implemented by Messrs. Bharat Mata Biri Stores (hereinafter referred to as the Company) and to defeat the just claim of the workmen of the Company's factory, the Management suddenly declared a lock-out without any reason and without any notice on and from 11th April 1958 and this Union alleges that the lock-out is still continuing.

The other Union alleges that the workmen of the Company were doing their work of manufacturing biris, although they were getting very low wages, that four of the workmen of the Company were habitual drunkards who used to abuse the other workmen of the Company and that on 11th April 1958 the workers in a body went for redress to the Proprietor but the Proprietor having refused to accede to their request of turning out the four workmen who had been creating troubles in the factory, the majority of workmen found it impossible to carry on with the work of manufacturing. It is alleged that the Proprietor asked them either to work in the factory in the way they had been doing before or to leave the factory for good and find out jobs elsewhere and that the Management suddenly declared a lockout from 11th April 1958 without making payments of the dues of the workers and compelled the workers to go out of the factory. The Union further alleges that the lock-out declared by the Company is still being continued. It is now claimed that the Company has no justification to continue the lock-out and that the workers are entitled to compensation for the period of lock-out.

The Company in its written statement alleges that the workers used to take the biri leaves, tobacco and other implements of making biris in their houses, that they used to do the work of rolling tobacco leaves, filling the same with tobacco at home and used to do other part of the work in the factory from the morning and that the workers were paid according to the number of biris they made every day. O.P.W. I who was one of the Proprietors of the Company says that a number of workers came to see him with a patition stating that four workers of the him with a petition stating that four workers of the Company had been creating troubles inside the factory which made it difficult for the other workers to work there and the workers wanted him to dismiss those four workers. The witness further says that he went to the factory, made enquiries and ascertained that as the four workers who were sought to be driven out by the other workers were not paying their subscription to the Union regularly, it was at the instance of the Union that the other workers wanted to put pressure on those four workers and even when they did not pay their dues to the Union, the workers wanted the Management to dismiss them. The witness says that he could not dismiss the four workers for the reason that they could not pay the Union's subscription in time. At this, the Proprietor alleges that the workers grew violent and refused to work in the factory till the four workers were dismissed. The petition (Ext. B) contains the signatures of a large number of workmen and the names of the four workmen whom they wanted to be driven out of the factory were also mentioned there. workers stated in the petition that it was not possible for them to work in the factory any more and that unless the Proprietor agreed to drive out the four offending workmen, the remaining body of workmen would, under no circumstances, work in the factory. This was clearly an intimidation asking the Management to take certain steps against some of their co-workers against whom the Management found no valid complaint justifying their removal from service. P.W. 1 Shri Ratan Ruidas, one of the employees of the Company, was examined in this case, but he gave an entirely different story. He says in his evidence: "It happened one day that a leper was given employment by the Management to make biris. While he was sitting with us we protested and requested Management to allot a separate space for him, but Management did not agree." This witness furth Management did not agree." This witness furth admits in his cross-examination: "It is true that ourselves stopped work but on account of employment of a leper." It is in evidence that there was criminal case started against a number of work and P. W. 1 admits that 17/18 workers of this Copany were fined Rs. 40 each after being convicted. is also in evidence that the Company could take p session of the manufactured biris with the help of police. O.P.W 1 says that since the workers stopp work he was not in a position to run the factory finding it impossible to do any business of manuf turing biris he closed his business and he publish a notice in a local newspaper—"G. T. Road published from Asansol that on and from the June 1958 the Company closed its business of ma facturing biris (vide Ext. D). As against this Union submits that the Proprietors are still carry on with the business of manufacturing and sell Will says that since 14th June 1958 the Comp stopped the business of manufacturing biris but Company has been purchasing manufactured by from Chakradharpur and they are now selling the biris in the market under the name of the Prop tors, but the packets of biris contain the label give out the owner's name and the name of the old bra for the purpose of maintaining the previous sunder the goodwill of the old Company. A calent under the goodwill of the old Company. A curve was produced by the Union which shows that Company's name is not "Bharat Mata Biri Store the Company's name now is "Nanda Go but the Company's name now is "Nanda Go Radha Gobinda Mukherjee". It is only the brand is is mentioned on the label as Bharat Mata Biri. have considered the evidence, seen the calend (Ext. 1) and I find that O.P.W. 1 spoke the tra that he is running a business of selling biris und the name of Nanda Gopal Radha Gobinda Mukh jee. There is absolutely no proof on the side of Unions that the Company is still running a factor or the Company is manufacturing biris in Raniga It appears that there was no lock-out of the facts and I fully believe O.P.W. I that the entire busing was closed and there was no lock-out on account the unwillingness of the workmen to work as a ployees of the Company. There being no lock the issue No. 1 cannot be answered either in faw or against the Company. As the workers are responsible for the closure of the Company's business a as there was no lock-out, they are not entitled to a relief whatsoever.

This is my award.

the matter of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by Shri Indramoni Sukul, an employee of Messrs. Asiatic Soap Company, 8 Dalhousie Square East, Calcutta, against the aforesaid concern, in connection with Government Order No. 6889-I.R./IR/11L-369/59, dated the 18th December 1959. BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri P. Das Gupta, Advocate.For the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate and Shri K. K. Moitra, Advocate.

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by one Shri Indramoni Sukul, a workman employed by Messrs. Asiatic Soap Company, alleging that the employer had wrongfull, dismissed him from service.

The employer, i.e., Messrs. Asiatic Soap Company, filed the written objection stating that this application is not legally maintainable as proper steps as contemplated under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disoutes Act had been taken by the employer.

Disputes Act had been taken by the employer.

Obviously before entering into the merits of the case it is necessary to dispose of the preliminary legal point of objection. Admittedly, the employer had filed an application under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act to this Tribunal on 29th September 1961. That application under section 33(2)(b) filed by the employer had been registered as a case on that very date. Both the parties adduced evidence in connection with that case and the learned lawyers advanced arguments at the conclusion of evidence. I just passed orders in that case giving my approval to the action of dismissal taken by them. It is clear from the letter of dismissal, dated 29th September 1961, that the employee had been offered wages for one month.

On the very date of issue of the letter of dismissal the employer filed the application under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act before the proper authority, i.e., this Tribunal, seeking approval of the action. Clearly, therefore, the employer did all that was necessary to be done for proper compliance of the provisions of section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act. It follows therefore that there was no contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act and, as such, I hold that this complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act is not maintainable.

This is the award.

K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal. The 27th July 1962.

> By order of the Governor, S. C. MUKHERJEE, Asst. Secy. to the Govt. of West Bengal.

No. 3568-I.R./IR/11L-347/61.— 8th August 1962.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 6889-I.R./IR/11L-369/59, dated the 18th December 1959, read with Corrigendum No. 3431-I.R./IR/11L-369/59, dated the 4th July 1960, the industrial disputes between Messrs. Soorajmull Nagarmull and the forty-three allied or associated concerns as per list attached to the said order, all of 8 Dalhousie Square, Calcutta-1, and their workmen represented by Soorajmull Nagarmull Concerns Employees' Association, 3 and 4 Hare Street, Calcutta-1, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order, being matters specified in the Second and the Third Schedules to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), were referred to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal for adjudication;

And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the said Industrial Tribunal, Shri Biswanath Singh, a workman of Messrs. Naskarpara Jute Mills Co. Ltd., made a complaint in writing to the said Industrial Tribunal against the said Company alleging that the said Company had dismissed the said workman concerned in such dispute;

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the said Industrial Tribunal has adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the State Government;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri P. Das Gupta, Advocate. For the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate, and Shri K. K. Moitra, Advocate. This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by one Shri Biswanath Singh, a workman employed by Messrs. Naskarpara Jute Mills Co. Ltd., alleging that the employer Company wrongfully dismissed him from service on 26th December 1961, during the pendency of the proceedings before the Tribunal.

The employer, i.e., Messrs. Naskarpara Jute Mills Co. Ltd., filed the written objection stating inter alia that this application is not legally maintainable as an application under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act had been duly filed before the Tribunal seeking approval of the action as to the dismissal of the workman.

Evidently before entering into the merits of the case it is necessary to dispose of the preliminary legal point of objection, which goes to the very root of the case. The Tribunal can give relief in the scope of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act provided it is first of all established that the employer had contravened the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. If there be no contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, the Tribunal has got no jurisdiction to enter into the merits as to the allegation of the wrongful dismissal. In this case the Company had already filed an application under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act on 26th December 1961. That application was filed on the very day the order of dismissal was issued. In the letter of dismissal it was clearly mentioned that an application under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act seeking approval had been filed. The letter of dismissal further shows an offer of one month's wages to the workman in accordance with the provisions of section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act. In the result, it follows that there was no contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act and, as such, this application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act is not maintainable.

This is the award.

The Schedule

Whether the Company's refusal to employ Arun Kumar Ghosh and Sri Ramanand is justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

his reference is in respect of a dispute between ssrs. Karam Chand Thapar & Bros. Private Ltd., 12 India Exchange Place, Calcutta, and their work-n represented by Karam Chand Thapar & Bros. L., Employees' Association of 25 Ananda Khan ne, Calcutta. The dispute was raised on the ion's allegation that the Company refused to ploy the two workmen under reference.

The Karam Chand Thapar & Bros. Ltd. Employees' sociation (hereinafter called the Union) alleges the Company charge-sheeted Shri Arun Kumar t the Company charge-sheeted Shri Arun Kumar lose, a clerk, on 5th March 1956 and the latter sub-7th March 1956. tted his explanation on mpany held a "pretended enquiry" and found Shri

The other workman under reference Shri amanand Bhuj, a peon of the Company, was chargeeeted on 26th September 1955. He submitted his planation on 28th September 1955. In this case the Company held a "pretended enquiry" and him guilty of misconduct. The Company und him guilty of misconduct. The Company ispended him with effect from 4th October 1955 Id filed an application under section 33 of the Act permission to dismiss him from service. The to applications under section 33 of the Act were, owever, rejected by the Industrial Tribunal and the Company instead of permitting the two workmen under reference to continue to work in the office, refused to take them back.

Messrs. Karam Chand Thapar & Bros. Private Ltd. (hereinaster called the Company) admits tht the two workmen under reference were charge-sheeted, that enquiries were held, that they were found guilty of misconduct, that they were placed under suspension and that the Company then filed applications under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act for permission to dismiss them. But the permissions were refused and the Company then filed applications before the Hon'ble High Court under article 226 of the Constitution. Rules were issued staying the operation of the orders of the Tribunal. During the pendency of the High Court proceedings, it was revealed that both the workmen under reference were serving in different Companies during the period of their suspension although they were considered as employees of the Company. The Company contends that by accepting employments elsewhere, the two workmen under reference "showed their unwilling-ness to work under the Company and/or thereby deemed to have terminated their services with the Company" and the Company alleges that on 1st Company" and the Company alleges that on 1st April 1958 the High Court proceedings were not proceeded with and the Rules were eventually discharged. The Company now contends that the two workmen having left the Company's service are not entitled to any relief.

Decision

It is admittedly a fact that both the workmen under reference were charge-sheeted, that at the domestic enquiries held they were found guilty of misconduct and that the Company decided to dismiss them from service. Even when the Company found that the two workmen under reference were guilty of misconduct it could not forthwith dismiss them as under the law the Company was required to obtain permission of the Industrial Tribunal. So after the findings at the domestic enquiries that the two workmen were guilty of misconduct and that they were to be dismissed from service upon receiving the permission of the Tribunal before which the Company filed applications under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, the workmen were placed under suspension without any subsistence allowance. For all intents and purposes the services of the two workmen were considered to have been terminated and it was for this reason that they were not paid any subsistence allowance since the date of their suspension. The decision of the Company to dismiss them from service being communicated to them, the two workmen under reference could not but take it for granted that they had lost their jobs. There was no knowing as to when the two applications of the Company under section 33 of the Act were likely to be disposed of by the Industrial Tribunal and the two workmen could not be therefore expected to remain unemployed and without any earning to await the fate of the two applications. To save themselves from unemployment and starvation they managed to secure temporary appointments. Unfortunately the Company, the two applications under section 33 of the Act were rejected and permissions to dismiss the two workmen were refused. The Company then moved the Hon'ble High Court. A rule was issued which was eventually discharged as the Company did not want to proceed any further in the matter.

The Company submits that as the two workmen under reference had taken employments in different establishments during the period of suspension, or for the matter of that, during the period when they were considered to be still in the Company's employment, although without any pay and allowance, they were not entitled to work in the Company's office. The Company states in its written statements that by accepting employments elsewhere the workmen under reference "showed their unwillingness to work under the Company and/or thereby deemed to have terminated their services with the Company". In my opinion, the Company has no justification in making such presumption as it did in taking it for granted that the two workmen under reference had abandoned their services with Company when they had accepted employments elsewhere. I have already said that they secured temporary appointments for themselves as they could not possibly remain without pay and allowance and still call themselves employees of the Company. So, this presumption of the Company as stated in its written statement cannot be accepted as correct. The Company further submits that according to service rules, no employee can render any service for gain to any other Company or establishment and if any employee violates this rule, he is liable to be dismissed. It is nowhere provided in the service rules that in such a case, the employee is to be considered to have lost his job. "Liable to be dismissed" means that the Company has to frame a charge, hold an enquiry and upon finding of violation of service rules finds him guilty and then pass an order of dismissal. The Company did nothing of the kind. But it now contends that as the two workmen under reference violated the service rules by accepting employments Company, they must be considered to have violated the service rules and as such, it must be considered that they have forfeited their claim to resume duties. The Company, to my mind, is guilty of vindictiveness in invoking the aid of service rules for defeating the just claims of the two employees. It is certainly an unfair labour practice on the part of the Company to refuse to give work to the two employees under reference when the Company's applications under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act for permission to dismiss them were and the permission refused. Instead of giving work to the two workmen, the Company moved the Hon'ble High Court, but as it did not pursue the matter there, the rules were discharged. Even then, the workmen were not taken back and the Company now seeks shelter under the protection of the service rules contending that the workmen have forfeited their right to continue in Company's service. This contention of the Company, in the peculiar facts and circumstances of the instant case, is obviously untenable. There is no service rule providing immediate dismissal from service when an employee works for gain elsewhere. If he serves elsewhere while in the employment of the Company, the service rules provide that he is liable to be dismissed. It is true that an employee placed under suspension remains an employee but in the instant case the Company suspended the two workmen with the decision that they would be dismissed and that is the reason why no subsistence alowance was paid to any of them. It is undoubtedly a fact that the Company has ho intention to retain them in service. There was no fixed period of suspension for any of the two w The Company suspended them without a ance with a view to terminate their services necessary formalities were gone through. The or of suspension were virtually orders of dismissal the Company never appeared to have treated or sidered the two workmen under reference to t its employment. It now suits the Company to them as employees only for the purpose of ta certain technical objections to prevent their re As the Company's applications for permission dismiss them were refused, the Company was b to allow the two workmen to continue to work i office. The two workmen under reference had temporary appointments and it is in evidence th the present moment they are out of employi When they were working elsewhere they were working in the office of the Company and were getting any remuneration whatsoever from the pany. So, the allegation of the Company that two workmen were working for gain in diff establishments as employees of the Company de appear to be wholly correct. They had al been made to leave the Company's office and not paid any money since the date of suspen They had therefore ceased to be empoyees of Company and the Company has no right to con that they could not earn any living workin different establishments. In my opinion, in the and circumstances of the instant case, the workmen were under no obligation to remain employed just to please the Company. In all fai the Company should have taken them back is office when the applications under section 33 c Act were rejected. The attitude of the Compan all along been vindictive and unfair and in sp technical objections I hold that the Company di act in good faith and had no right to refuse to et the two workmen under reference. The Union fore succeeds in this case. I direct that the Con shall take back the two employees within days from the date of publication of the awar official gazette and pay them one-fourth of the emoluments to each of the two workmen reference from the date of suspension till the they are taken back to resume their work and service would be treated as continuous. I pay pensation to the extent of one-fourth of the emoluments because of the reason that during of this period, both the employees had earned amount of money from different establishment

AWARD

Government of West Bengal by its Labour Department order No. 2558-I.R./IR/11L-91/61, dated the 3th May 1961, referred to this Tribunal an industrial lispute between Messrs. National Tobacco Co. of India Ltd., post office Kamarhati 24-Parganas (hereafter referred to as the Company) and their workmen represented by the N. T. C. Employees' Union, Nilganj Road, post office Agarpara, 24-Parganas (hereafter referred to as the Union), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The only issue referred to this Tribunal for adjudication is whether the termination of service of Shri Gouranga Chandra Saha is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

The case of the workmen is that Shri Gouranga Chandra Saha, the workman concerned, served under this Company for more than three years as a fitter and his services were suddenly terminated on the last day of June 1959 without any rhyme or reason and without any previous notice.

The Company, on the other hand, contends that Shri Saha used to be employed by the Company in the capacity of a Mazdoor, occasionally in Budhi, casual and/or extra temporary vacancies. It is alleged that he had no regular job of a fitter and was in casual employment only at different periods of hardly two years. Only two witnesses have been examined and one on each side. Shri Saha examines himself and the Company examines an Assistant only to the Labour Officer. Certain facts are however not in dispute. It is true that Shri Saha was originally employed as a Mazdoor in the blending department. He subsequently worked either as a fitter or as a helper to the fitter of that department. I am not so much concerned as to whether his job was that of fitter or helper to a fitter. The real question is to what class of workmen-permanent, temporary or casual, etc.—he actually belonged. Admittedly Ext. 2 is a service certificate granted by this Company to Shri Saha and it will be clear therefrom that Shri Saha served with this factory of this Company in its blending department from middle of 1956 to June 1959. Hence this much is clear that Shri Saha served this Company over a period of three years. Shri Saha swears that he served the Company continuously for a period of about three years though in different capacity. He adds that during the last one year of his service, he worked as an independent fitter. But the Company's witness Shri S. K. Banerjee says that Gouranga entered the service of the Company as a Mazdoor in 1957 and worked as a badli workman. He further adds that Shri Saha subsequently worked as a temporary worker. It is also alleged that Shri Saha never worked for nine months at a stretch and so he was not entitled to be treated as a permanent worker. It is stated by this witness that Shri Saha worked as a helper to the mistry (mechanic) from January 1959 and Ext. K shows that he was granted allowance of extra one rupee per week for his working in a capacity other than mazdoor. It is not unlikely that he was never intended to be appointed as a fitter or mechanic to work independently though he might occasionally do the job of a fitter under the guidance of the mechanic he was attached to. I think that is the reason why the quantum of his extra allowance was rather paltry. But this much is clear that Shri Saha was appointed as a helper at last in the later months though his substantive job was that of a mazdoor only. But this much is clear that there is no basis for Shri Banerjee's statement that Shri Saha entered the service in 1957 and not in 1956 (middle). In fact Ext. 2 gives a lie to this part of his statement. This much is clear that the Company in the beginning of the year 1958 introduced a scheme of appointing some apprentice mechanics in different departments of the Factory and it appears that during the period of apprenticeship, the apprentice was intended to work as a helper or assistant to the mechanic of the department concerned one such mechanic was intended to be employed in the blending department also. But due to peculiar atmosphere in the blending department, the 1st two apprentices in succession quickly relinquished their job. During this period, the services of Shri Saha as an helper to this department was considered essential. Lately, however, one Shri Haran Pal the third apprentice in succession came to stick to his job of apprenticeship of this department and the management unceremoniously discharged Shri Saha without any notice whatsoever not only from his job of a helper but also from his iob of a mazdoor. Admittedly many other mazdoors were appointed in the blending department and yet he was not given a chance. Another helper also was appointed after him. The allegation is that Shri Saha was not given any alternative appointment because he did not approach the management for this purpose. From the deposition of Shri Saha it appears that at the time he was discharged there were other junior mazdoors in the deaprtment and Shri Amulya Kr. Sarkar was one of them. This Shri

Sarkar was actually appointed as a helper in the blending department after the termination of the service of Shri Saha. Thus, the statutory rules of retrenchment were not certainly observed in terminating the services of Shri Saha and the contention of the management in this connection is that the rules do not apply to his case as he was only a casual or temporary workman. So, the matter of classification of this workman assumes rather a position of importance in the present case. If he was simply a badli, casual or temporary worker as alleged, then there is no question of notice or compensation in his case. Admittedly, the Company has its Standing Orders and these rules of Standing Orders had their origins in an award of an Industrial Tribunal (vide Award of Shri P. R. Mukherjee. Judge, dated 11th December 1948). The Standing Orders provide that a badli workman is a workman employed in place of a permanent workman absent for some time. There is, nowever, not an iota of evidence to show that Shri Saha was originally appointed as a badli workman in place of any permanent workman during his temporary absence. Company is bound to maintain service records in respect of all its workmen according to its Standing Orders and yet the Company produces no such record in support of its contention. Similarly a casual workman is a person employed in a Job of a purely casual nature (vide Standing Orders). A temporary workman is a workman who has been engaged in a work of a purely temporary nature. Company's witness Shri Banerjee cannot say what was the exact nature of Shri Saha's job at the time he was working as a mazdoor. But this much is admitted by Shri Banerjee that Shri Saha was in the blending department and the job of putting tobacco in the machine is always there in the Company. The job of a fitter mechanic and that of his helper also are always there. From the unchallenged evidence of Shri Saha it is clear that as a mazdoor his job was to put tobacco in the machine and this job is undoubtedly there all along. So it is needless to say that the job of Shri Saha at no stage was of purely casual nature or temporary nature. There is not a casual nature or temporary nature. scrap of paper to show that Shri Saha was appointed as a badli, casual or temporary worker at any time. Under the rules of Standing Ordrs the Company was bound to maintain a register or list of badli and temporary workers and no such register or list is produced to show that Shri Saha was appointed as badli or temporary workman. Company maintains attendance register for such workmen also and this register also is not produced. Appointment letters are issued in respect of mazdoors also and these letters are maintained in different departments concerned. But the company fails to produce these letters also. Simply because in a certificate granted by the Company (vide Ext. 2) the word "casually" has been used, it cannot be taken for granted that Shri Saha was a casual workman within the meaning of the Standing Orders.

The Company is in custody of the best evidences on the point at issue, and yet it withholds the same for reason best known to it. There is no suggestion that any employment book was actually issued in layour of Shri Saha and so no adverse inference can be drawn against him on the ground of non-production of any employment book. So in the face of all these facts and circumstances I cannot but hold that there is no sufficient reason for my finding that Shri Saha was a badli or casual or temporary workman at the time of his discharge. It is nobody's case that he was dismissed for any misdemeanour or misconduct and by way of punishment thereof. It is simply urged that Shri Saha's services were no longer required and so he was discharged without any notice or compensation. But his substantive job not being of casual or temporary nature, the period of his service being for about three years and there being no reliable evidence of any break of his service, be must be presumed to be a permanent workman within the meaning of the Standing Orders. So the Company had no right to discharge Shri Saha without notice or compensation and without observing the rules of priority as provided in Section 25F and 25G of the Industrial Disputes Act. It was simply an unfair labour practice to terminate his services like this and even not to call him for re-employment under section 26H of the Act when many other mazdoors were appointed in the department subsequently. No reason has been recorded for discharging him in preference to other junior mazdoors and no notice of such retrenchment is proved to have been served on the appropriate Government. So my considered opinion is that there was no justification for termination of the service of Shri Gouranga Chandra Saha. The Company has not placed any circumstance before me to show that in the instant case reinstatement will not be a proper remedy. So I direct that Shri Saha be reinstated and his service will be deem ed to have continued without break. I further direct that the Company should pay to Shri Gourange Chandra Saha a sum equal to 50 per cent. of the wages for the period of his forced unemployment. This award must be given effect to as early as possible but not beyond one month of the publication of this award.

AWARD

By order No. 5313-1.R./IR/11L-354(A)/61, dated e 31st August 1961, the Government of West ngal, in the Labour Department, referred under tion 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the dustrial dispute between the auhorities of Chittanjan Cancer Hospital, 37 S. P. Mukherjee Road, deutta-26, and their workmen represented by ittaranjan Seva Sadan and Cancer Hospital nployees' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, garding the matter specified in the schedule, to the fird Industrial Tribunal, constituted under section to 1.808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 57, for adjudication.

This reference relating to an industrial dispute isting between the authorities of Chittaranjan meer Hospital on one side (hereinafter be referred as the Company) and their workmen represented Chittaranjan Seva Sadan and Cancer Hospital pployees' Union on the other (hereinafter be ferred to as the Union), was received from the overnment in September last year.

Immediately thereafter notices were sent out for rvice upon both parties, who duly entered pearance in pursuance of notices, but took some journments before they actually put in their spective written statements. Parties were given oper opportunities to put in documents they want to rely upon at the hearing of the case. The case was ready for hearing in the month of April, but since then the case had to be adjourned on several dates—on some occasions on the prayer of the hospital authorities and some occasions on the prayer of the Union. Ultimately, however, there has been a happy termination of the dispute and the matter has been amicably settled on terms embodied in the joint petition of compromise filed on this day before the Tribunal.

The only issue to be adjudicated upon by this Tribunal was:--

Whether the dismissal of Shri Tejendra Nath Dutta, Male Nurse, is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

It has been agreed upon that the concerned workman be paid one month's wages in lieu of notice. He will also be paid his arrears of wages, if any. The workman agreed to accept the payment in full and final settlement of his claims including the claim for reinstatement. The aforesaid terms are fair and reasonable. On acceptance of the terms let there be an award on compromise in terms of the joint petition of compromise which do form part of the award as an Annexure.

This is my award.

Dictated and corrected by me.

AWARD

Upon receipt of the order of reference on August 1961, notices were issued upon the parties appearance and for filing written statements.

After service of notices, the workmen represently the National Sugar Mills Workers' Union (he inafter referred to as the Union), filed the writtenent on 22nd August 1961. It is contended the Union that the employer, i.e., Messrs. Nation Sugar Mills Ltd., all on a sudden, terminated services of these five workmen in the early part April 1961, and that in taking such steps the employemas actuated by a spirit of victimisation. It alleged by the Union that the Company becauting with the was registered in the month of February 19 and there was the ulterior motive behind such unit action.

Messrs. National Sugar Mills Ltd. (hereinal referred to as the Company), filed the written stament on 22nd November 1961. It is contended the Company that this Union has got no locus state to represent the cause of the workers of this Sugmill. Regarding the question of termination services of these workmen, it is contended that the services had been terminated by giving them of month's notice, and as such all the cases termination of services are cases of simple termination of service. Besides, it is alleegd by the Compathat Nishi Kantat Karmakar was negligent in I work and that he showed a spirit of insubordination and for that he had been previously warned without any result. Regarding Subodh Kr. Palit, it alleged that he was found inefficient in his work Similarly, it is alleged that the work of Kali D Ray was found consistently unsatisfactory.

As for Shri Pyari Mukhia, the employer's case that his services were terminated for misconduct he had taken leave on a false plea that his moth had died.

It may be noted at the out-set that the Union the time of hearing did not press the case of Niro Bhusal Pal. It apepars that this workman had sin been reappointed.

The case came up for hearing on 28th June 19 and on 20th July 1962. After the conclusion evidence, the learned representatives of the partiadvanced arguments in support of their respectr contentions.

Before entering into the merits of the case, it necessary to dispose of the preliminary point objection, regarding the maintainability of reference, as made by the Company. The order reference by itself shows that the workmen of t ompany are represented by this Union. The ompany does not challenge the existence of this inton. There is also no controversy on the point hat the Union was registered in February 1961. rima facie, therefore, it seems that this Union of he workmen in this industry is competent to epresent the cause of the workmen. It is alleged by the Company in paragraph 3 of the written statement that the onus is upon the Union to prove its epresentative character. It is not clear, however, that is meant by representative character of a regisered Union. It seems that the Company wants to now how many workers are members of this Inion. Shri Singh Roy, the General Secretary f the Union, says that this Company employed bout 500 or 600 workers, and of them 100 orkmen remain employed as permanent workers even in the off season. He further stated that bout 240 workmen are members of this Union. vidence about the membership and strength of the Inion is not challenged. The Company produced 19 letters in Ext. C series purported to have been vritten by these workmen individually to the Union o the effect that they resigned their membership of he Union from the date of writing those letters. hese letters are dated 5th June 1962. O.P.W. I, Shri sen, the Deputy Chief Engineer of the Company, nowever, failed to prove the contents of the letters and the signatures therein. So these are not legally

I cannot, therefore, rely upon those letters surported to be letters of resignation. Even, assuming, that these 39 workmen had resigned their numbership of the Union from 5th June 1962, still the fact remains that they were members of the Union at the time of the reference in July 1961. Even if some workmen resigned membership of the thuon after the reference, that does not affect the character of the industrial dispute as it stood on the date of reference. Shri K. C. Bhattacherjee, described as the General Manager of the Mill, filed an affidavit on the date of hearing on 28th June 1962 stating therein that the Union had now got no minimum member required under the law to maintain its existence. There is no materials before me to support such a statement made in the affidavit, which is based on pure surmises only. The Supreme Court in the case of Messrs. New India Motors (P) Ltd. versus their workmen, reported in 1961, I, L.L.J., p. 551, clearly held that it was not necessary that the number of workmen of the Union that sponsors the dispute should represent the majority of workmen. So the right of the Union to represent the cause of workmen remains unaffected as at the time of order of reference, irrespective of the question of the strength of membership of workers in the concern in the said Union. Hence upon considering the facts and circumstances of the case in the light of evidence adduced by the parties, I hold that the reference is valid in law and that the dispute concerning these workmen had been taken up by a Union legally competent to take up the cause.

I now proceed to consider the merits of the dispute. For that I take up the case of these five workmen involved in this dispute one by one.

I. Shri Nirode Bhusan Pal

The Union at the time of opening of the case stated that they did not press the case of termination of service of this workman. Presumably that is because of the fact that the workman concerned had since been taken back in service. Be that as it is, when the Union does not want to proceed in the matter of termination of service of this workman, the dispute so far as this workman is concerned does not exist.

2. Shri Nishi Kanto Karmakar

It appears that Shri Karmakar was appointed as a Fitter in this Company on 10th October 1959. His services had been terminated with effect from the 10th April 1961. Exhibit D is the letter of termination of service of Shri Karmakar. The reasons behind the action of dismissal are to be gathered from the contents of the letter of termination of service. In the said letter of termination of service it was stated that the work of the workman during the season just closed had not been found satisfactory. Clearly, therefore, the Company took the decision to terminate his services, as according to them, the work of Shri Karmakar was found to be not satisfactory. Undoubtedly, the management of a concern has got an inherent power to direct his internal administration and discipline; but the power is not unlimited and so when a dispute arises, the Tribunal has got the duty to see whether the termination of service in such exercise of power is justified or not. When the services of a workman is terminated on an allegation that his work was found unsatisfactory, the virtual effect and meaning of such termination of service is one of dismissal of the said workman presumably for some fault on his part. In the written statement a case had been made out that in view of the fact that the workman had been paid one month's wages in lieu of notice, such termination of service was in the nature of a simple discharge wherein no blemish is imputed to the affected workman. In the letter of termination of service an allegation in clear terms had been made that the work done by the workman was found unsatisfactory. of such an allegation, the employer In the face cannot describe the action of termination of service to be one of simple discharge. The learned lawyer for the Company in this situation gave up the case as made out in the written statement justifying the termination of service of the workmen concerned, on the strength of a simple discharge, not connected with any fault on the part of the workman. In fact, it is crystal clear that the employer cannot in the face of such letter of dismissal justify the action of throwing out the workman from employment putting forward a case of discharge simplicitor. The question, therefore, emerges for consideration if the employer was justified in dismissing this workman for any fault of his. Admittedly, the workman concerned had not been charge-sheeted by the employer at any time during this tenure of service. The workman got no chance to know when and how, he performed his duties in an unsatisfactory manner. The allegation made in the letter of dismissal that the work of the workman concerned had not been found satisfactory, is from very nature of it completely vague, uncertain and indefinite. No idea can be formed from the allegation of such a general nature in the letter of dismissal that the work of the employee was found unsatisfactory and as to how and why such opinion had been entertained against the particular workman by the Company. Just as the employer had got the right to dismiss an undesirable and inefficient worker or a worker who commits offences amounting to misconduct, the worker at the same time has got the right to know before-hand for what acts of commission or ommission on his part in the discharge of his duties, he was being sacked. A general allegation that the work was found unsatisfactory is for all practical purposes meaningless so long as it is not clearly purposes meaningless so long as it is not clearly disclosed to the workman for what reasons such conclusion had been arrived at against him. Generally speaking, it is the duty of the employer firstly to bring to the knowledge of the workman the particular lacts constituting the acts of misconduct or negligence or insubordination or breach of indiscipline on his part and then give the workman concerned an opportunity to explain away his conduct and finally hold an enquiry about such specific and clear cut allegations giving full oppor-tunities to the workman to defend himself. The employer in the instant case took no such step whatsoever and the dismissal of the workman came all on a sudden in a summary way with an allegation as to unsatisfactory nature of work on the part of the workman. It is now well settled that when a departmental enquiry was not done by the management, the Tribunal should in appropriate case give the employer opportunities to prove the guilt of the workman concerned. In those considerations I allowed the management to adduce evidence to prove the guilt of this workman. For that as well, the party should adhere to the case made out in the written statement. The employer produced at the time of hearing a log book where entries had been made against this workman on five dates starting from 1st January 1961 and ending with 17th March 1961 indicating that the workman concerned had been warned on four occasions during that period [vide Exts. A, A(3), A(5) and A(11)]. In the log book the warnings are noted. There is no reliable evidence to show that the workman concerned had been clearly informed about such adverse remarks as made in the log book. There is also no evidence that the workman concerned had been informed about the offence for which the warning had been noted. It is contended by the learned representative of the Union that the workman concerned had no knowledge about such warnings noted in a private document of the employer to which the workman had no access. Obviously, even a small punishment in the nature of warning should be specifically brought to the notice of workman concerned and there must be cogent evidence to show that the workman knew about such remark made against him. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case I have no hesitation in holding that the workman concerned had never known about the warning noted in the log book. Even assuming for the sake of argument that the workman concerned had been verbally informed about the note of warning as made in the log book, it must be held that all the punishment the workman deserved for the alleged offences committed by him was in the nature of warning and with such warning the final stage of punishment inflicted had been reached. It cannot be said that as a cumulative result of such warnings the workman was found inefficient or unworthy to be retained in service. In fact, there is no explanation why the decision to dismiss this workman was taken on 10th April 1961. There is no standing order maintained by this Mill. In the absence of Standing Order, the procedure to be followed before dismissing a man should be in accordance with the general principle of industrial law consistent with the principle of natural justice. Shri Karmakar in his deposition stated that he had long experience of Fitter for about 20 years. He stated that he was one of the signatories of the application for registration of the Union. I find no reason to disbelieve his evidence. It is to be noted in this connection that this Union was registered on 24th February 1961. During the entire period of his service in 1960 the Company had no occasion to finc any fault with Shri Karmakar. There is a strange consequence in time when the employer begun to note warning against this workman. From these facts and circumstances, I hold that Shri Karmaka committed no fault and that the employer in dismissing Shri Karmakar violated the principles of natural justice, actuated by a spirit of victimisation His dismissal is thus found to be unjustified.

3. Shri Subodh Kumar Palit

Admittedly this workman was appointed as ; Admittedly this workman was appointed as a Fitter in October 1959. It appears that the employed took initiative in inviting Shri Palit to accept employment in this industry (vide Exts. 2 and 3). He was dismissed with effect from 10th April 1961 on the allowation that his work was found was inferted. allegation that his work was found unsatisfactory (vide Ext. F). It is curious that the dismissal of this workman took place on the same date when Shri Nishikanta Karmakar was dismissed. The employer did not give the workman any charge-sheet narrating the particular acts of commission or omission done by him for which such disciplinary action was being taken. Obviously, the workman was not afforded any opportunity to explain away the supposed acts of misconduct or negligence in duty or any fault whatsoever on his part for which the employer could feel not satisfied with his work. The letter of dismissal was issued all on a sudden without giving the workman any opportunity to be heard. In the written statement filed by the Company, it is alleged that Shri Palit was negligent in duties or rather inefficient and he was responsible for the stoppage of the vacuum engine and dislocation of work. In short, the allegation is that he was found inefficient. In the written statement no further particulars were given. In support of the assertion made in the written statement, the Company at the time of hearing produced the less back which advanced to the less back which are the less b the log book which shows that the management found the engine knocking on 7th January 1961 and 1st March 1961 and according to them this was due to negligence in ciling the machine. The entries in the log book, dated 11th February 1961, is vague as it is not mentioned who were the Superior Officer and whose order had not been carried out by Shri Palit. Besides, no such allegation is made in the written statement. It is curious to note that the employer did not produce the log book of 1960. Presumably that was withheld because no adverse remark against this workman could be found in that book. In my opinion, the entries in the log book for 1961 cannot be relied on. These entries are made unilaterally by the employer without any knowledge of the workman. If the employer had occasion to find any fault with the workman, it should have been brought to the notice of the workman concerned and appropriate steps should have been taken after giving the workman concerned proper opportunities to explain. If such a procedure be not followed, any adverse comment against the workman behind his back cannot be used as dependable evidence against the workman. The fact dependable evidence against the workman. remains that the employer upon dependable information considered this workman to be efficient and appointed him in a permanent job. There is no evidence worth reliance to show that he was inefficient. The allegation of the employer against the workman to justify the action of dismissal could be established even at this stage of hearing. Shri it in his deposition stated that he had experience a Fitter for long 20 or 24 years. I find no reason disbelieve him on the point. He was one of the atories of the application for registration of the ion. His dismissal took place immediately after registration of the Union. The facts and umstances of the case considered in the light of babilities indicate the mala fide motive on the part he employer in dismissing Shri Palit. The action the employer is thus found to be unjustified, as ig actuated by a spirit of victimisation and also ig in violation of the principles of natural justice.

Shri Pyari Mukhia

his workman was appointed in September 1959, Fitter. It appears that the workman took leave n 1st March 1961 to 15th March 1961 stating his mother had expired. Along with the lication for leave the workman submitted a gram to the effect that his mother expired. After ig home he again applied for extention of leave. er return from leave he applied on 1st April 1961 leave wages stating that his mother was seriously Naturally the management found that the workthad made false statement in the first application leave. For such misconduct on the part of the kman, he was dismissed from 10th April 1961. n though in his case as well no charge-sheet had n drawn up, the facts apparent on the face of the lence now adduced establish a case of misconduct the part of this workman. The workman cerned did not come forward to depose before The learned representative of the Union did not uce any evidence or advance any argument llenging the action of the employer in dismissing I hold that his dismissal was justified.

Shri Kalidas Rav

admittedly he was appointed in September 1959. sequently he was promoted to the rank of istant Fitter on an increased pay of Rs. 80 per th (vide Ext. 4). He was also dismissed on the e date, i.e., 10th April 1961, on an allegation his work was unsatisfactory. Apart from the that the workman had never been told as to how why the employer considered his work to be atisfactory and on what particular date or dates management found his work unsatisfactory, even he written statement, now filed by the Company, particulars about the alleged unsatisfactory nature work are furnished. The only evidence upon the management wanted to rely upon ifving the action taken against the workman are entries made in the log book [vide Exts. A(1), ) A(6), A(10) and A(12)—all of 1961]. For the e reasons as given before, I do not consider it per to rely upon the entries made in the log book the Company. It transpires from the evidence he also took an important part in the stration of the Union. I hold in the facts and imstances of the case that the action of the loyer was mala fide and unjustified.

the result the action of the employer in issing Shri Karmakar, Shri Palit and Shri Roy found to be unjustified. When an employer inates the services of a workman in an unlawful mer, in normal course the workman must be ned never to have been dismissed at all. The unal in such a situation can direct reinstatement the workman concerned unless there be exceptional imstances by reason of which such relief can be excluded. It appears that this Sugar Mill had been recently launched and the normal production started in 1960. As is well known the work in a Sugar Mill is of a seasonal nature and the busy season is from November to end of March and the rest of the period in a year is considered as off season when only a few workmen are retained. It appears from the evidence that the employer is not pleased with these work-men. In an infant industry such unhappy relation between the employer and the employees is associated with disturbance in the maintenance of industrial peace, and I think in this situation an order of reinstatement would add to the bitterness of the parties and would be actually detrimental to the peace in the industry. The appropriate relief in the peace in the industry. The appropriate relief in the circumstances would be to give liberal and fair compensation to the workmen. It is therefore compensation to the workmen. It is therefore directed that the Company must pay full wages to these three workmen for the entire period from the date of their dismissal up to this day at the rate of wages they were drawing at the time of their dismissal.

This is the award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Kettlewell Bullen and Co. Ltd., 21 Strand Road, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Kettlewell Bullen Employees' Union, 68 Canning Street, Calcutta. (Case No. 5 of 1962.)

Present:

Shri P. C. PAL, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal. Present for the Company: Shri R. Goswami, an officer of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industries.

Present for the Union: Shri Ram Sen, an officer of the Union.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by the Government of

West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 8237-I.R./IR/11L-352(A)/61, dated the 27th December 1961, to adjudicate upon the following issue:

(1) Whether the forced retirement of Shri Tarapada Singha is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

The case of the Union, according to the written statement filed by it, is briefly this:

Shri Tarapada Singha was an old employee of the Company which was previously managed by Europeans. In or about 1954 the Management of the Company was taken over by Bangurs. This new Management could not see the old employees with good eyes, and was on the look out for opportunities to get rid of them. In pursuance of its policy against the old employees, the Management issued a letter, dated 31st August 1960, to Shri Tarapada Singha intimating him that he would retire from service with effect from the 1st January 1961. No reason for such a decision was mentioned in the letter. Shri Singha could not accept his unwarranted retirement and notified the Management about his opinion by a letter. In reply, dated 22nd December 1960, the Company instead asked Shri Singha to state why his retirement was not to be due on the 1st January 1961. On further correspondences, the Company ultimately wrote to say that Shri Singha had already completed 55 years of age, and hence he should retire on 1st January 1961, according to the office retire on 1st January 1901, according to the office rules regarding the age of retirement. The system of retirement at the age of 55 years did not apply to the case of Shri Singha and he explained the matter by another letter. Shri Singha explained that the rule of retirement at the age of 55 years would not apply in his case as he had been employed in the service of the Company long before the alleged rule, without any limitation as to the age of retirement. Accordingly, Shri Singha did not accept his retirement on the aforesaid ground, as stated by the Company. The system of compulsory retirement at the age of 55 years was first introduced under the rules coming into force from the 1st August 1961. Prior thereto there was no fixed age limit for retirement, the condition of service being that the workman concerned would continue in his service so long as he lived, if not invalidated earlier for reasons of health. Instead of giving further reply to Shri Singha's last letter, the Company struck off his name from the Attendance Register from the 1st January 1961. Representations by Shri Singha were of no avail. Next, the Union took up his cause, and there were conciliation meetings. No settlement having been reached, this reference has been made. In fact, Shri Singha's retirement is a forced one, arbitrary, wrongful and illegal and, as such, unjustified. The retirement of Shri Singha should be set aside and he should be reinstated in service and should get usual wages and allowances, etc.

The Company's case in its written statement is this:

Shri Tarapada Singha was retired from service on his reaching the age of superannuation and his retirement was not a forced one, illegal or unjustified. It is untrue that the present Management after assuming charge has been following a policy of getting rid of the old employees by hook or crook, as alleged in the written statement of the Union. The service rules of the Company were made as far back as in 1947. The award of the Mercantile Tribunal of 1949 affirmed those rules under a "no dispute" award.

In that award the age of 55 years as the time retirement was confirmed. All the employees of Company are subject to these rules which emb not only compulsory age of retirement, but other conditions like grade, leave, pension, etc., Singha, like others, took advantage of these s.r. conditions in respert of grades, leave, etc., hence it is not proper for him to say now that h not bound by these rules as respects the age retirement. Prior to 1947, the age limit of com sory retirement was not specified. The rules of Company are applicable to all its employees joined services either before or after 1951. Fol these reasons, the Union is not entitled to the r asked for.

The Union has examined one witness na Santosh Lal Banerji (P.W. 1), an employee of Company, and has put in a paper book (Ext. 1 connection with an appeal before the Hor Supreme Court, and several correspondences (Ext to 2-h, 3 to 3-c, 4 and 5). On the other side witness has been examined; only corresponder (Exts. A to A-2, B, C to C-4 and D) as well as te of services (Exts. E and F) and an extract of wristatement (Ext. G) have been filed.

The Company has put in rules regarding condition of services as promulgated in July 1947 and 1951 (vide Exts. E and F, respectively). Both the rules appear to be practically similar or identification of the rule regarding grade, it was stipulated to the rule regarding grade. every member of the staff would be expected retire at the age of 55 except by special extento be granted by the Company; the latter would ( be sanctioned in very exceptional circumstan Under the head "Retirement" it is written the "As indicated above, this will be compulsory at age of 55 unless a special extension is sanctioned exceptional reasons." These are the relevant n for the purpose of the present case. According the argument advanced on behalf of the Compa these rules apply in case of all employees, old; new, who entered in service before or after J 1951. Though the rules of 1947 and 1951 similar, the Company does not appear to have much stress on the applicability of the rules si July 1947. The Company's contention is that rules as promulgated in July 1951 would apply cases of superannuation, whether the emplo concerned was first appointed before or after J 1951. The case of the Union, however, is that rule of compulsory retirement at the age of 55 d not apply, and cannot apply retrospectively so as affect the legitimate expectation of the persons service from before the promulgation of the I Reference has been made to the case repor in 1959 (II) L.L.J. 405. In that case, the Hon' Supreme Court laid down the general principle t the new rule as to the age of superannuation wo not be applicable to those who joined services bef the new rules came into force. If the facts circumstances of the case under reference, and present case are properly analysed and comparthen, I think, the contention of the Union wo not hold good.

In the case under reference there was a gene issue for the benefit of all the workmen of Company, the dispute having arisen on occasion retirement of as many as 47 workers at a time, the present case, the issue is raised by the Ulfor the sake of an individual worker and in cast of success the benefit would go to all the old employees of the Company. In the case under reference, the dispute was raised as soon as the said 47 persons were asked to retire on attaining the age of superannuation. In the present case, the dispute was raised about 10 years after the rules of 1951 were introduced. The point is whether there is really any reasonable and acceptable excuse for this long delay. It is asked on behalf of the Union that the rule of 1951 was not duly circulated amongst the employees, and they came to know of the rule for the first time in or about 1956-57 in connection with a bonus case before the Hon'ble Supreme Court, not before that. Evidence of this fact has been led through P.W. 1 Shri Santosh Lal Banerji. But in the written statement of the Union no such reason explanation was specified. The evidence of P.W. I as regards ignorance of the introduction of the rule regarding the age of superannuation since July 1951 appears to be unbelievable. This witness admits in cross-examination that he himself got regular increment at Rs. 5 since 1951, according to the rules of that particular year, that the scheme of Attendance Bonus was introduced by the rules of 1951 and he knew of the grades and scales in 1951. Herendance Bonus was introduced by the rules of 1951, and he knew of the grades and scales in 1951. But he says, he did not know of the retiring age before 1956-57. He further admits that they (i.e., all the employees) abide by all the rules of 1951 except that relating to the age of retirement. When these employees used to receive or accept all other benefits under the new rules since their introduction, it cannot be believed that they were not at all aware of the rule of superannuation being at the age of 55 years. The witness also says that after knowing of the retiring age in 1956-57, they raised no protest or objection. There is no reason or explanation as to why they did not take any steps for long four or five years even after their alleged knowledge of the fact in 1956-57. This delay is very long and remains unexplained. On the other hand, according to the Company, several employees had to retire on to the Company, several employees had to retire on attainment of the age of 55 years since the premulgation of the new rules, and pretty long before the present dispute was raised. The Company has given instance at least in regard to a particular case of retirement under the new rules. The employee concerned was one Abinash Chandra Bose (vide Ext. C-2 letter, dated 27th August 1956). This Abinash Bose was retired under the new rules from Abinash Bose was retired under the new rules from lst September 1956. That retirement was accepted by the said employee without any murmur or objection. In the written statement of the Union five instances have been cited in which the employees concerned retired in 1948 to 1951 on putting in service for 40 or 50 years. No instances have been cited to show retirement of employees long after attainment of the age of 55 years subsequent to the introduction of the new rules of 1951. From all these facts and circumstances, it appears that the Company applied the new rules of retiring age long before the present dispute, since the introduction of these rules. That must have been to the knowledge of the employees, particularly the old employees who joined services prior to 1951. But there was no dispute raised by any one. For these reasons, the Company arpuer that long silence on the part of the employees indicates acceptance of the new rules and acquiescene therein. There is force in this contention. That being the state of things, there is every reason to believe that the present dispute was raised on the occasion of the retirement of Shri Singha, the concerned workman, on account of the decision in the case of Guest, Keen Williams Ltd. [vide 1959(II), L.L.J. 405] and that the present dispute is but a test case in the name of one individual employee for the benefit of the old employees in general. Such a dispute should not be allowed to succeed in view of all the facts and circumstances discussed above. The Union, in my opinion, cannot be allowed to reap all benefits under the new rules except the term of retirement, in the aforesaid circumstances.

In the result, I hold that there is no good ground for the Union's case which must necessarily fail.

Award is passed accordingly.

The Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by order No. 6369-I.R./IR/11L-361/60, dated the 3rd December 1960, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act. 1947 (XIV of 1947), the abovementioned dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication.

Issue

Whether the closure of the factory from 18th May 1960, is real and bona fide and whether in the present circumstances it is justified? To what relief, if any, are the workmen entitled?

The case was taken up for hearing on 4th July 1962. But both parties' representatives put in joint petition of compromise amicably settling the dispute between them. The terms of the petition of compromise, as embodied therein, appear to be fair and reasonable and may be given effect to. The parties also prayed for an award in terms of the said petition of compromise.

Under the circumstances, a "No dispute" award be passed in this case in terms of the petition of compromise which do form part of the award as Annexure A.

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed on 14th February 1962 by Shri Sambhuh Nath Dey, a workman under Messrs. Himalaya Optical Co., alleging that the employer Company had dispensed with his services from 18th January 1962, in contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

After service of notice Messrs. Himalaya Optical Co., the employer, filed a written objection on 2nd April 1962. The employer authorised Shri Lenin Roy, Advocate, Shri T. K. Jagdish, Labour Advisor, to represent them in this proceeding before this Tribunal.

The dispute was fixed for hearing on 6th July 1962. On that date the representatives of the parties stated before me that the case had been compromised between the parties. A written prayer to that effect was made and in the petition the terms of settlement were incorporated. The terms of settlement appear to be fair, just and reasonable. The dispute is, therefore, disposed of in terms of the petition of compromise and an award is accordingly made making the petition of compromise marked as Annexure A, a part of the award.

AWARD

By order No. 1546-I.R./IR/11L-241/60, dated the 7th April 1960, the Government of West Beng referred an industrial dispute between Mess Tollygunge Food Products and their working represented by West Bengal Confectionery and For Products Mazdoor Union relating to the under mentioned issue to the Second Labour Court fladjudication.

Issue

Is the lock-out with effect from 28th Decemb 1959 to 6th January 1960 justified? Wh relief, if any, are the workmen entitled to?

The case of West Bengal Confectionery and For Products Mazdoor Union (hereinafter referred to the Union), briefly stated, is as follows: Messi Tollygunge Food Products (hereinafter referred to the Company) are a Dal Mill and are a high prosperous concern. The Union placed a Charter Demands on behalf of the workmen of Dal Mil in Tollygunge area, one of which is the preser Company, on 27th August 1959; a joint conferent about the Charter of Demands was held in the Labour Directorate on 24th December 1959. Placing of the Charter of Demands enraged the Companion which began to adopt various unfair labour practices. The conference of 24th December 1959 further enraged the Company; as as a result the Management of the Company closed down the place of employment on 28th December 1959 without assigning any reason and refused to employ the workmen. This lock-out continued till 6th January 1960. The Union, therefore, contends that the lock-out is unjustified.

The Company did not file any written statement nor did it adduce any evidence. So it is not possible to know what the case of the Company is.

Findings

The Union has examined two witnesses in support of its case. They have stated that the Company locked out the workmen from 28th December 1959 to 5th January 1960 without assigning any reason. They have also stated that the workmen did not go on strike before 28th December 1959. Their evidence remains unchallenged. So it is clear that the Company locked out the workmen from 28th December 1959 to 6th January 1960 without any valid reason. Hence I hold that the lock-out from 28th December 1959 to 6th January 1960 is unjustified. As the lock-out is unjustified, the workmen are entitled to get wages for the period of the lock-out. P.W. 2 has proved a statement showing the names of the workmen and the rates of their wages. As this statement has not been challenged, I hold that the particulars mentioned therein are correct. Accordingly I order that the Compay shall pay to the following workmen the moneys mentioned against their names, which I have calculated on the basis of the rates of wages mentioned in the statement:—

Issues

- (1) Annual increments for the monthly-rated workmen from April 1960.
- (2) Whether the Company is justified in making some ex-gratia payment to some among its workmen in consideration of their claim to bonus ignoring a similar claim of the other workmen? What relief, if any, are they entitled to?
- (3) Whether deductions from the wages of the monthly-rated workmen for the last four days of September 1960 are justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

AWARD

Upon receipt of the order of reference, notices were issued upon the parties for appearance and for filing written statements.

The workmen involved in this dispute are those who are employed at the Kangsabati Project in the district of Bankura. The workmen as represented by the Union, i.e., Thikadar Mazdoor Congress, filed the written statement on 26th September 1961. Thereafter the employer after taking several adjournments filed the written statement on 6th March 1962.

The case was then fixed for hearing on 27th April 1962. On that date the employer filed an application for adjournment. It may be noted that on that date none was present on behalf of the workmen. The prayer for adjournment was allowed and the dispute was fixed for hearing on 26th June 1962. On that date Shri Gopeshwar, the General Secretary of the Union, filed a petition for time. In the petition of adjournment the said General Secretary of the Union made it clear that no further adjournment would be sought for. In the circumstances the prayer was allowed and the case was fixed for hearing on 25th July 1962. On that date while the employer is present with witnesses, the workmen of the Union fail to turn up and take any step and I waited for the Union up to 2-20 p.m. It appears that the Union is not earnest to proceed with the dispute. As a result I pass a "no dispute" award.

AWARD

After service of usual notices, both the parties entered appearance and filed their respective written statements. During the pendncy of thes proceedings and before the case became ready for hearing, there was considerable fight betwen the two parties in espect of matters like discovery, inspection, interropations, etc., and there were several hearings and orders in respect of these matters. Lately, the hearing of the issues on merit was also taken up, and ontinued for several days. Scores of documents have seen proved or admitted and marked exhibits on ither side. Seven witnesses have already been xamined on the side of the workmen and the case is ending for further hearing. At this stage, the arties filed a joint petition of compromise after ettling their disputes amicably out of Court. I have one through the terms and conditions of compromise nd think that the terms are fair and reasonable and ence acceptable too. As the case is only part heard y now and as the parties have amicably settled heir disputes, no question of my adjudicating on lerit of the issues on independent consideration of vidences, any longer arises. So, I direct that the ompromise petition, read with the Memorandum of greement annexed to it be recorded, and an award e passed in terms thereof. The compromise etition along with the Memorandum of Agreement and Schedules thereof will form part of the award and it is marked as Annexure "A" to this award.

This is my award.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT, 1962

- Between the Director and General Manager and Representatives of the Jacks Employees' Union at Calcutta in respect of the Union's Charter of Demands, dated 19th March 1959, referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal for adjudication on 24th October 1960.
- 1. The Charter of Demand, dated 19th March 1959, submitted by the Jacks Employees' Union, was enquired into by Shri S. C. Mukherjee, Assistant Secretary to the Government of West Bengal, who referred the following issues to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal for adjudication:—

Issues

- 1. Revision of provident fund and contributions.
- 2. Free tiffin or allowance in lieu.
- 3. Overtime allowance of the drivers.
- 4. Car cleaning allowance.
- 5. Medical expenses.
- Increments of 19 employees as per list attached.
- Fixation of the clerks in the grades created in March 1958.
  - (The numbers of demand indicating the relevant Demand No. in the original Charter of Demands are also shown against each issue under consideration.)

Issue No. 1-Provident Fund (Demand 1)

It is agreed that the issue will now be settled in the background of the Provident Fund Act and, therefore, it is not an issue under dispute.

Issue No. 2-Tiffin Allowance (Demand 2)

The demand has been withdrawn by the Union.

Issue No. 3—Overtime Allowance for Drivers (Demand 4)

The Union has agreed that-

- (a) Drivers will be paid at the rate of 65 nP. per hour for any period of duty in excess of 11½ hours in any 24 hours. Maximum payment of overtime admissible in any 24 hours will be Rs. 5 (The Director and General Manager's driver is excluded).
- (b) Drivers' duty period includes a break of one hour for meals and shall be 11½ hours in any 24 hours.

Issue No. 4—Car cleaning allowance for drivers (Demand 6)

The Company has agreed to increase the amount from Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 per month. The car cleaning by a driver shall be considered as a part of the job of a driver.

Issue No. 5-Medical expenses (Demand 9)

The demand has been withdrawn by the Union on the understanding that the Company Doctor will not be paid the sum of Rs. 1,200 per annum, from the present contribution towards Medical benefit fund.

Issue No. 6—Increments of 19 employees as per attached list (Demand 13)

As regards Rs. 5 not originally given to the staff drawing a basic salary of Rs. 80 to Rs. 100 in 1958, the Company has agreed to allow this increment from January 1961 as per Schedule A. The Union has agreed to withdraw the Demand that this increment should have retrospective effect from 1958.

Issue No. 7—Fixation of the Clerks in the Grades created in March 1958 (Demand 14)

The Union has withdrawn this Demand in respect of upgrading six employees still left out from the original list.

(II) In respect of other Demands which were not referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal for adjudication by the Labour Department, Government of West Bengal, contained in the Union's Charter of Demands, dated 19th March 1959, which the Union had submitted to the Labour Commissioner, Government of West Bengal, on 28th December 1960, the Company has given careful consideration and graciously agreed to Demand 4(a)—Overtime allowance for Bearers and Coolies, which were rejected by Shri S. C. Mukherjee, Assistant Secretary, Government of West Bengal.

Demand 3—Acting Allowance

Not considered fit for intervention by Shri S. C. Mukherjee, Assistant Secretary, Government of West Bengal. The Demand is accordingly withdrawn by the Union.

Demand 4—(a) Overtime allowance for bearers and coolies.

Regarding overtime allowance for bearers and coolies, it is found that the present rate is in conformity with what is paid in other similar Mercantile firms. So this does not call for any action. Though Shri S. C. Mukherjee, Assistant Secretary, Government of West Bengal, was of opinion that this Demand does not call for any action, the Company as a gesture of goodwill has agreed to increase the overtime allowance to bearers and coolies from 50 nP. to 60 nP. per hour.

Demand 5-Night allowance

Withdrawn by Union.

Demand 7—Weekly rest for watchmen

In view of the existing arrangement the demand is withdrawn by the Union.

Demand 8-Uniforms

Withdrawn by the Union.

Demand 10-Leave for journey allowance

Demand 11-Drivers' Outstation allowance

The existing rate per day meets the expenses of board and lodging while on tour in distant places, appears to be adequate. Shri S. C. Mukherjee, Assistant Secretary, Government of West Bengal, was of opinion that this demand does not merit further intervention and accordingly the demand is withdrawn by the Union.

Demand 12-Travelling allowance

As regards the Demand for Travelling allowan for some of the employees at Hide Road Office, the employees who were recruited for work at Hide Rocentre are not entitled to any travelling allowant which is allowed to the other employees who we transferred from the office at 16 Netaji Subhas Roa The Company, as a good gesture, has agreed to alle Rs. 10 to employees, as per schedule "B" who we transferred from Munshigange Godown to HidRoad.

This agreement will be in force for Five Yea from 1st August 1962.

AWARD

his is a reference under section 10 of the astrial Disputes Act of 1947 by the Government West Bengal, Labour Department, order 4627-I.R./IR/4L-68/60, dated 30th August 1960, adjudication upon the following issue:

Issue

l. Whether the refusal of employment to Shri Probodh Chandra Jana is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

The case of the Union which represents the workaconcerned is briefly this: Shri Kartick Chandra is the owner of two buses numbers WGB387 1 1056. The workman under him has to depend his whims and caprices. Shri Probodh Chandra a, the concerned workman, was appointed by the sowner, Shri K. C. Dey, in 1954, since when he sworking continuously with honesty and sgrity. This worker became an active member of Union much to the dislike of the bus owner, who reatened him with dismissal and started hatching has to victimise the workman, who was the feutive member of the Union. The bus owner imsically terminated the worker's services on 13th tober 1959. There was a conciliation proceeding at that affair and on 28th October 1959 an agreement was reached to reinstate the said worker for three months as an experimental measure, in order to give him a last chance to improve his efficiency and conduct. Though the worker was not guilty of any offence and possessed a clean record of service, the agreement was accepted by the Union at the request of the Conciliation Officer. But the bus owner did not keep his words as agreed upon and employed the worker to do garage duty, though his original duty was that of a conductor. This act of the owner of the bus was nothing but refusal of the owner of the bus was nothing out refusal or reinstatement in an indirect way with effect from 1st November 1959. To maintain peace and harmony, and as a gesture of goodwill, the Union asked the worker to resume such duty but on asked the worker to resume such duty but on protest. But the worker was not paid his wages for the forced period from 13th October 1959. The Union challenged the unfair labour practice and mala fide action of the bus owner and recorded its protest to the Conciliation Officer on 3rd November 1950. 1959. The worker did his duty sincerely, honestly and efficiently for three months from 1st November 1959 and there was no complaint against him during that period. The bus owner had suddenly on 1st February 1960 refused employment or terminated the service of the said worker without any charge-sheet and without paying his wages for those three months on the plea that according to the agreement the owner was to give work to the worker for three months only. The worker reported the matter to the Union on 3rd February 1960 and the representative of the Union met with the owner more than once and requested him to allow Shri Jana (worker) to resume his duties, but in vain. Then the Union reported the matter to the Conciliation Officer of Howrah on 7th March 1960. The said officer by his letter, dated 19th April 1960, informed the bus owner that he misinterpreted the terms of agreement and directed him to let the officer know as to the reason of termination of the service of the worker and the terms under which the worker was reinstated. The bus owner gave a very vague reply without touching upon the relevant point. Several conciliation meetings followed but without any effect. Hence this reference. The Union prays for reinstatement of the concerned workman with continuity of service and payment of arrears of wages and all back wages for the forced period of unemployment.

The substance of the averments in the written statement of the bus owner is briefly this: order of reference is incompetent in law and the dispute in question is not an industrial dispute. It is not true that the bus owner disliked the formation of the Union and ever acted in any way to victimise his workers as alleged by the Union. The workman concerned was engaged as a conductor of the owner's buses on a contractual daily rated basis, and that too he did for a short period with occasional breaks. This workman was repeatedly warned previously for negligence of duty, rough behaviour, disorderly conduct and irregular attendance. The bus owner's interest and the interest of the travelling public was due to this worker's inefficiency many at a stake times and the repeated cautions failed to mend his habits and improve his efficiency. The owner of the bus had no other way but to terminate the service of the workman on 13th October 1959 for the sake of public interest after observing due formalities. The bus owner spoke of these matters during the conciliation proceeding. The Conciliation Officer requested the opposite party to give the worker three months' time as a last chance to rectify his •conduct and efficiency. Accordingly, the bus owner employed the worker without any loss of emoluments and gave him three months' time to improve efficiency and rectify his conduct with effect from 1st November 1959. But the worker failed to improve his conduct and make himself worthy for the service in question during the course of three months aloresaid. Finding no other alternative, the bus owner terminated the service of the worker as he did not find any reason to keep such inefficient hand whose conduct was incorrigible. He had also duly intimated this fact to the Conciliation Officer, both verbally and in writing. The Union Secretary was informed of the conduct of the worker during the experimental period of three months. The action of the bus owner in terminating the service of the workman concerned was bona fide and strictly in terms of the tripartite settlement, there being no other alternative, which was all the time communicated to the Conciliation Officer. In view of the facts and circumstances, therefore, the worker concerned is not entitled to any relief whatever.

As regards the legal objection raised on behalf of the bus owner, it is stated in paragraph 1 of his written statement that the Government order of reference is incompetent in law and/or in fact and the dispute in question is not an industrial dispute. At the time of hearing of the case and argument Shri Bhattacharjee, on behalf of the bus owner, did not raise any point that the dispute in question was not an industrial dispute. That aspect of the objection as per written statement was obviously given a go-by. What Shri Bhattacharjee actually argued before me is in relation to the competency of the order of reference in respect of the nature of the issue framed. Let me discuss this point in some details and see whether and how far the contention of Shri Bhattacharjee is tenable.

From the admitted facts, it would appear that the service of Shri Probodh Jana, the concerned workman, was terminated with effect from 1st of February 1960, after he was retaken into service by Shri Kartick Dey, the bus owner, with effect from 1st November 1959. That termination of service may well be taken as dismissal of the workman. The issue framed in this case is whether "refusal of employment of Shri Probodh Jana" is justified. The argument of Shri Bhattacharjee is that in the above circumstances, this particular issue, as it is, is misconceived because the facts, disclosed and admitted, do not indicate "refusal of employment", though the same may indicate "dismissal or termina-tion of service." It is said by Shri Saha on behalf of the Union that the terms "refusal of employment" includes discharge, dismissal and termination of service. According to his view, refusal by the employer to continue to employ would include cases where the employer terminates services, by discharge or dismissal, etc., inasmuch as discharge or dismissal etc. would also mean refusal of further employment to the employee concerned.. There appears to be force in this contention of Shri Saha. Refusal of employment is a wider term which, in my view, ought to include termination of service by discharge or dismissal, etc. That being so, the argument advanced by Shri Bhattacharjee must necessarily lack in substance although the word dismissal or termination of service has not been mentioned specifically in the issue in this case, these are necessarily implied or included in the terms "refusal of employment" as mentioned in the issue in this There does not seem to be even any technical defect in the framing of the present issue. H the contention of Shri Bhattacharjee is untenable rejected.

I now proceed to deal with the matter on me Admittedly, the worker Shri Jana was original conductor in a bus under the owner, Shri Kar Dey. From the written statement of the Union the evidence adduced on its side, as well as from written statement of the bus owner, it appears to an admitted fact that Shri Jana, the worker, first dismissed from service on 13th October In spite of the bus owner's written statement to effect, the owner tried to make a variation in deposition before me by saying that the workingly remained absent from duty from the night 12th October 1959. This was neither put to worker when he was examined before this Tribu nor is it the case of the bus owner as per his converted witten statement. I do not understand why the owner fought shy in trying to suppress this in during his examination before this Tribunal.

The further admitted fact is that after Shri Iai dismissal on 13th October 1959, there were seve conciliation proceedings and ultimately it was agr that Shri Jana, the conductor, would be reinsta for three months as an experimental measure order to give a last chance to improve his efficien and conduct. It is also undisputed that since 1st November 1959 Shri Jana was retaken into serv but was given duty not as a conductor but in garage. From the written statement and the evider on the side of the Union, it appears that Shri Ja resumed his work even in the garage on prot from 1st November 1959. In the written stateme of the bus owner it is stated that the duty, giv to Shri Jana after he was retaken, was in terms agreement. But it is not the correct picture at Shri Jana's original duty was as a conductor. T word "reinstatement" in the agreement wot certainly mean resumption of duty in the origin line, that is, as a bus conductor. The agreement do not say that Shri Jana could be given any duty of the choice of the bus events. according to the choice of the bus owner. He w to be "reinstated", that is to be given the old jo as the conductor of the bus, not in any other was But still it appears the owner gave the job in the garage without caring for employing the worker conductor as before. According to the Union's case disclosed from evidence, there was practically a garage in the true sense of the term. It is the garage in the true sense of the term. It is it evidence on Union's side that the bus owner use to make the remark that the employment in the garage was the punishment for Shri Jana's remaining in the Union. Shri Jana (P.W. 2) has deposed the the owner used to threaten and intimidate him so his being a member of the Union. This evidence remains unchallenged. From this it seems that th bus owner had some mala fide intention in his actio to punish or harass Shri Jana in some way or other on being compelled under the agreement to reinstal the worker into his service. It further seems that the owner was reluctant in taking in Shri Jana int service after he was dismissed for the first time of or about 13th October 1959 and was entertaining some idea of fulfiling his desire by harassing the employee. It was the fundamental error in no reinstating Shri Jana into former job as conductory the owner tries to make out the case that Shy Jana was dismissed or his services were dispersite from 1st of February 1960 as he faile improve in his conduct and efficiency. The term of the agreement that Shri Jana was given ist chance during the course of three months from it November 1959 to improve his conduct and ficiency clearly indicates that it must have been to job in the former line, namely, as the conductor bus, otherwise there could have been no occasion scope for him to show his mettle for improving induct and efficiency. It is no use saying that he ould be able to improve his works by doing duty a garage. According to the Union and the ridence adduced on its side, there is no garage as ich the buses being kept in an open space. This admitted by the bus owner himself. One Sachimadan Jana has been examined as the bus owner's itness but this Sachinandan (O.P.W. 2) over-rides in master by saying that there is a regular alled-up garage with particular dimension in the ill area about a mile away from the house of the is owner and also from the office of the bus sociation. But the evidence of bus owner himself that the buses are kept in an open space in the ord of the association. In view of these facts, therefore, the said Sachinandan cuts a very sorry figure at an employee under the bus owner has practically duty to perform by remaining idle in an open suspicion is indicated about the mentality of the bus owner, namely, the idea of harassing the imployee after the expiry of the experimental period three months.

In evidence on the side of the bus owner it is said at even during the period of three months of trial. ri Jana was irregular in attendance, sometimes mained absent without previous intimation. But attendance register in support of this allegation been produced. The bus owner says that he es not keep any separate attendance register. He mits that there is no record except this verbal stimony to show that Shri Jana was irregular in tendance and used to leave duty and remained sent without intimation to him. The owner says at he wrote to the Labour Officer about the conduct d unsatisfactory work of Shri Jana during the three onths. But no correspondence is forthcoming in pport of this story of keeping the Labour Officer formed of the progress of Shri Jana's work during a trial period of three months. That the bus mer was predetermined not to retake Shri Jana into rvice after the said period of three months is ident from the owner's further statement that he ormed Shri Jana in writing on 18th January 1960 out the termination of his service. That would ow that the owner decided that matter even before ow that the owner decided that matter even before expiry of the said period. He tried to correct esaid statement by saying that he wrote on the id date (18th January 1960) that Shri Jana would the kept in service since 1st February 1960. This is does not alter the position in the least. Such my also finds no mention in the bus owner's iten statement. In paragraph 9 of the written tement he stated that all the time the owner de communication with the Conciliation Officer. is cannot be believed in the circumstances of the and in the absence of any correspondence on

From all that has been discused above, I come to conclusion that the giving of the job to Shri Jana in 1st November 1959 for a period of three months purpose of garage duty was entirely wrong on part of the bus owner and is very much gestive of his mala fide intention, that there is nothing convincing to show that the complaint made by the bus owner in his written statement against Shri Jana is entirely baseless, that proper chance was not given to Shri Jana for showing his credit and improving his work as bus conductor, that the termination of Shri Jana's service from 1st February 1960 without any charge-sheet and the enquiry was absolutely unjust, that the action taken by the employer against Shri Jana may well be taken in a wider sense to be refusal for employment. So, the workman concerned is entitled to get relief of being properly reinstated in the former job as a bus conductor and to get usual wages from 1st of February 1960 till his reinstatement.

There is another prayer of the Union that Shri Jana was not paid his wages even for the trial period of three months from 1st of November 1959 till the end of January 1960. The evidence of the worker (P.W. 2) and the Union Secretary (P.W. 1) is that when demands for payment of these wages were made, the owner expressed that the Government would make the payments. This is denied by the bus owner who, along with his employee (O.P.W. 2), says that the wages of that period were duly paid every month. This plea of the bus owner and his witness is entirely unreliable. No receipt of paywitness is entirely unreliable. No receipt of payment appears to have been taken from the employee concerned. According to O.P.W. 2, Shri Jana was paid at Rs. 90 by the malick as wages during the said three months. In cross-examination he says that he saw the malick paying Rs. 90 to Shri Jana every month during the three months mentioned above, the wages of November to January being paid on 18th January 1960. It is absurd to think in a case like this that the malick like O.P.W. 1, Shri Kartick Chandra Dey, would make some advance payments on 18th January 1960 in regard to the month of January 1960. It is not even the case of the malick himself that the wages for three months were paid at a time on 18th January 1960. What is more is that no specific case of actual payment of wages of those three months has been made out even in the malick's written statement. For all these reasons, therefore, I reject the malick's plea of payment and hold that wages due to Shri Jana from November 1959 till the end of January 1960 have still remained unpaid and these wages are recoverable by the worker concerned from the bus owner. In the result I direct the bus owner Shri Kartick Chandra Dey to reinstate the worker concerned, Shri Probodh Chandra Jana, to his former job as a bus conductor under him with continuity of his service, and to make payment of arrears of pay from 1st November 1959 to 31st January 1960, as well as to pay all back wages for the forced period of unemployment from 1st February 1960, within one month from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

An industrial dispute between Messrs. Bangabasi Ginema, 1 and 2 Nityadhan Mukherjee Road, Howrah, and their workmen represented by the Bengal Motion Picture Employees' Union, 12/13 Cowes Ghat Road, Sibpur, Howrah, over the following issue, has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2960-I.R./IR/11L-219/61, dated the 7th June 1961:

Issue

 Whether the dismissal of Shri Tarapada Koley is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

AWARD

Upon receipt of the order of reference on 12th June 1961, notices were issued upon the parties for appearances and for filing written statements. The workmen represented by the Bengal Motion Picture Employees' Union (hereinafter referred to as the Union) filed the written statement on 29th November 1961. It is alleged by the Union that Shri Tarapada Koley was a licensed Electrician in the Bangabasi Cinema. He was not being paid wages of a licensed Electrician and for that the Union had been pressing the demand for increase in wages of Shri Koley. For such demand on the part of Shri Koley, through the Union, the Management had been displeased with him who had been on the look-out of a pi to victimse the workman. In that situation a Company, on account of an accident in the Generating Room on 4th December 1960, chart sheeted him and terminated his service even thou Shri Koley had no responsibility for the accide He was dismissed on the basis of a fabricated stament about the electrical wiring system in the Cinema House of an outside Electrical Supervisor.

Messrs. Bangabasi Cinema (hereinafter referred as the Company) then filed the written statement (10th January 1962. It is stated that Shri Koley the sole Electrician was in charge of prop maintenance and upkeep of the electric installation of the Cinema House. A fire broke out in the Cinema House on the 4th December 1960 and it was found that the same was due to his gross negligent and long inattention. The Management after holding the proper enquiry into the matter giving for opportunities to Shri Koley for defence found the charge of misconduct established and dismissed the workman, thus found guilty.

At the time of hearing the Union examined Sh Tarapada Koley, the workman concerned in th dispute. On the side of the Company Shri Sudh Dey, the Assistant Manager who held the deparmental enquiry, and Shri R. K. Banerjee, an Electron Expert, had been examined. Besides, the partie filed some documents which are marked as exhibits

After the conclusion of the evidence the learner representatives of both the parties advance arguments in support of their respective contentions

The simple question here is whether the dismissa of Shri Koley was justified. It appears from the evidence of Shri Koley that he was working as a Electrician in this Cinema House from 9th December 1955. Admittedly there was only one Electrician in this concern and that was Shri Koley. Apparently he was in charge of maintenance and upkeep of electrical installations in the Cinema House and he was do do the processary repairs and replayment of the processary repairs and replayment. electrical installations in the Cinema House and he used to do the necessary repairs and replacement of the same as and when necessary. Evidently nobody other than Shri Koley had any duty in the matter of maintenance and upkeep of the electrical installations used in the show house. There is no controversy on the point that a fire broke out in the generating room of the Cinema House on 4th December 1960 when the evening show in the House December 1960 when the evening show in the House was going on. It appears from the evidence that such fire broke out twice at short intervals during the evening show on that day and the Company had to call the Fire Brigade to take action. Shri Koley in his deposition stated that when the first fire broke out he with the assistance of other workers controlled the same with the help of fire extinguisher. He also admitted that fire broke out twice and on both the occasions Fire Brigade had been called. His evidence however, is that fire had been controlled with the help of Fire Brigade people who just came to the spot after fire had been already controlled and the had not much to do for the same. Apparently, such fire could not normally break out unless there was some defect in the maintenance and upkeep of the electrical installations in the Cinema House. Management requisitioned the services of a reputed electrical firm to make an investigation to find out the cause of the fire, so that precautions for future guidance could be taken. The Company according had the electrical installations tested by Shri R. R. Banerjee, the proprietor of Messrs. Adloc & Co., firm of Engineers and Contractors, on 5th December 1960. 1960. He submitted a report after examination and his report he mentioned all the defects as he found. le stated that the Electrician-in-charge ought to have poked to the defects as pointed out by him in ic report and that he should have done proper gecking and that he should have paid greater paid ttention for proper maintenance. His clear opinion that successive fire bursting of switches, etc., within very short time is not an accidental incident but 1at it occurred as a result of continued negligence id inattention. The report, Ext. E, clearly shows oss negligence and carelessness on the part of the rson entrusted with the duty of proper maintenance id upkeep of electrical installations. It was only ter receipt of the report from the expert that the nployer charge-sheeted Shri Koley on ecember 1960 directing him to explain within three is as to why he should not be properly dealt with such wilful, culpable and criminal negligence ide Ext. C). In the explanation submitted by Shri oley, it was stated that such accident might have curred for use of high voltage of electricity. It as also stated that workers themselves had tinguished the fire and the Fire Brigade was called anccessarily. It was further mentioned in the planation that the authority had been keeping planation that the authority had been keeping orden case-wiring in the Power Room and that he prehended that any time such accident might occur ien in future.
